We hear a clip from Damian Lillard and Calabro on the amazing series winning 37' 3 point shot at the buzzer in game 5 over OKC that propelled the Blazers into the second round. Dame's deep 3 got him to 50 points for the game and was the talk of the sports world. Calabro made the call and talks with KXTG's Cooper Banks & Lucinda Kay. Then Cooper gets some perspective from Whalen about the economic impact of the Blazers on Portland. He says it could easily reach the tens of millions of dollars – especially if the Blazers end up winning their next series and going on to the Western Conference Finals of the NBA.

ISSUE: LIFE CELEBRATION

KXTG (FM/AM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

April 21st, 2019

6am to 6:30am

3:25 minutes of a 30 minute show

Guest: David Martin & Pete Dutrest / Portland area veterans. KXTG's Rosemary Reynolds connects with David & Pete as they view the funeral procession of Deputy DeRosier – he was shot and killed April 13th in the line of duty. David and Pete both have trouble not weeping as they give a first-hand eye witness account. Everyone who knew Justin say he was a tremendous person who was always there for anyone who needed him. Thousands turned out for his memorial held in the Chiles Center at the University of Portland.

ISSUE: SAFETY / DRIVING

KXTG (FM/AM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

April 21st, 2019

6am to 6:30am

8:36 minutes of a 30 minute show

Guest: Judi Croft / SAIF Safety Services Supervisor. KXTG's Brett Reckamp goes in-depth with Judi on the topic of distracted driving. SAIF handles work place accidents and they are also concerned about people who drive for a living or employees who are driving to or from work. Judi says employers need to make sure they aren't expecting employees to pick up while they're driving. She says even if someone has completely hands free devices, there is still a fair amount of brain power required to get into conversations – that is taken away from driving. Judi says people on a cell phone are 4 times more likely to get into a crash.

ISSUE: AIR QUALITY

KXTG (FM/AM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

April 21st, 2019

6am to 6:30am

6:31 minutes of a 30 minute show

Guest: Carrie Nyssa / Communications American Lung Association of Oregon. KXTG's Rebecca Marshall talks with Carrie after a study of Oregon's air quality. She says nationwide – Portland's air ranks 23rd worst. Medford/Grant's Pass rank tenth. Part of that problem is due to nearby wildfires. Carries says they are lobbying state and federal lawmakers to make tougher pollution laws.

ISSUE: CRIME

Benner talks to an animal worker about a small kitten found by a worker in the garbage completely covered in spray foam. The Hillsboro Garbage Disposal employee took the kitten to authorities and they were able to clean it up and nurse it back to health. The hope is within a few months they will be able to offer up the kitten for adoption. Authorities say they do not know who might have done this.

ISSUE: SAFETY

KXTG (FM/AM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

May 12th, 2019

6am to 6:30am

7:42 minutes of a: 30 minute show

Guest: Marc Griffith / Clackamas County Dive Team Supervisor Sergeant. KXTG's Rosemary Reynolds goes on a field trip with the dive team to the Mollalla River. Sgt Griffith says he and his crew spend hours upon hours together in training. They eat, work out and run drills together. Marc says rescuing drowning people is difficult work and requires precision teamwork. He says they get 6-8 calls every Spring / Summer from places like High Rocks where people go to enjoy themselves – but sometimes are not smart about alcohol, cold water & life vests.

ISSUE: FIRE

KXTG (FM/AM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

May 12th, 2019

6am to 6:30am

2:41 minutes of a: 30 minute show

Guest: Lieutenant Rich Chatman / Portland Fire & Rescue Spokesperson. KXTG's Jacob Dean hears from Chatman about the semi-unique case of a house fire at SE 54th & SE Knapp being blamed on a car battery. He says they found one on-site and believe the acid from the battery ignited and set the house on fire. Chatman uses the moment to remind people about fire safety.

ISSUE: ELECTRIC VEHICLES

4:20 minutes of a: 30 minute show

Guest: Lynn Davis / Oregon Humane Society Volunteer. KXTG's Mike Turner catches up with some people representing the OHS on their way to Arkansas to help flooding victims round up and care for lost pets. Lynn says she has volunteered before but this is her first long flight. She says flooding and disaster victims have a lot going on and aren't able to find lost pets – but when they are rescued she says it often helps the victims get a new perspective and energy when a beloved pet is returned to them. Lynn says she will spend about a week there with some other Portland area volunteers doing the same thing.

ISSUE: ANIMAL EUTHANIZED

KXTG (FM/AM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

June 23rd, 2019

6am to 6:30am

5:33 minutes of a: 30 minute show

Guest: Stephanie Cormuttus / Community Engagement Program Coordinator for the Tigard Police Department; Concerned neighbor living in Tigard. KXTG's Jacob Dean first talks to the Tigard Police about a call they received complaining of peacocks living in their neighborhood and being pests. They say they turned the case over to federal animal control who then euthanized the birds. A neighbor who wanted to keep her name anonymous for fear of retribution spoke to Jacob. She says the birds were not causing any problems and that they were friendly with her. She says she is extremely upset that they are gone.

ISSUE: WEATHER
