Weekly Public Affairs Program

QUARTERLY ISSUES REPORT, APRIL-JUNE, 2013

Show # 2013-14

Date aired: 4/7/2013 Time Aired: 6:00 AM

Michael C. Harper, expert in employment discrimination law, Barreca Labor Relations Scholar and Professor of Law, Boston University School of Law

Prof. Harper discussed the growing influence of age discrimination in today's job market. He explained the reasons that employers often avoid older job applicants. He said the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, which prohibits employment discrimination against anyone 40 or older, is highly ineffective. Prof. Harper believes the law should be reformed to make it at least as strong a deterrent as laws that prohibit discrimination on race or gender.

Issues covered:
Age Discrimination
Workplace Matters
Senior Citizens

Length: 8:41

Jeff Blyskal, Senior Editor at Consumer Reports

Americans are used to being monitored for security reasons as they shop, but Mr. Blyskal said an increasing number of walk-in retailers are taking spying to a whole new level. He said stores are installing hidden video cameras, video analytics software, smartphone tracking and wi-fi hotspots to gather a surprising amount of data about their individual customers. The goal of this intense surveillance is to target shoppers with customized marketing, to convince them to shop more and spend more.

Issues covered:
Consumer Matters
Personal Privacy

Length: 8:29

Frances Newton, financial advisor, founder of Frances Insights

Ms. Newton said this is an excellent time of year for consumers to dig through credit card statements and bank receipts, and get their finances in order. She said getting organized will not only help a consumer to save money during the year, but it will also boost financial confidence.

Issues covered:
Personal Finance
Consumer Matters

Length: 4:58

Show # 2013-15

Date aired: 4/14/2013 Time Aired: 6:00 AM

Frederick M. Hess, Resident Scholar and Director of Education Policy Studies at the American Enterprise Institute, author of "The Same Thing Over and Over: How School Reformers Get Stuck in Yesterday's Ideas"

Mr. Hess believes that even bitter opponents who argue about how to improve schools agree on more than they realize. He suggested that uniformity frequently gets in the way of quality education and that the American education system must change radically. He also said that schools need to implement a much wider variety of schooling options that would better meet student needs.

Issues covered:
Education Reform
Government Policies

Length: 9:23

Kristen Kirkpatrick, MS, RD, LD, Dietician and Wellness Manager, The Cleveland Clinic Wellness Institute and The Cleveland Clinic Lifestyle 180 Program

Ms. Kirkpatrick said that consumers need to put more thought into the foods that they buy. She offered suggestions to help people read nutrition labels, which will help them make wiser choices. She said locally-produced meat and locally-grown produce is usually a healthier choice. She explained how to find a local farm or produce supplier, which usually can provide information about their food more accurately than a supermarket.

Issues covered:
Nutrition
Personal Health

Length: 7:44

Lance Dodes, MD, psychiatrist and psychoanalyst, Assistant Clinical Professor of Psychiatry at Harvard Medical School, author of "Breaking Addiction: A 7-Step Handbook for Ending Any Addiction"

Dr. Dodes explained how to identify an addiction and recognize key moments in addictive behavior. He said that every addictive act is normally preceded by a feeling of helplessness or powerlessness. He offered both long- and short-term advice for those dealing with an addiction.

Issues covered:
Addiction
Mental Health

Length: 4:46

Show # 2013-16

Date aired: 4/21/2013 Time Aired: 6:00 AM

Gaby Chapman, retired teacher, former school board president, author of “Let Them Have Books: A Formula for Universal Reading Proficiency”

Ms. Chapman offered advice for parents who want to encourage a love of reading in their children. She explained why youngsters who read for fun do better in school. She also talked about the importance of allowing kids to choose their own reading material.

Issues covered: Length: 8:48
Literacy
Education

Jeff Reeves, financial journalist, editor of InvestorPlace.com

Mr. Reeves outlined the most common mistakes investors make when handling their 401(k) investments. He explained how frequently an investor should do some housekeeping with their mutual fund portfolio and how to decide when to rebalance investments that have changed in value.

Issues covered: Length: 8:19
Retirement Planning
Senior Citizens

Sarah Brokaw, author of “Fortytude: Making the Next Decades the Best Years of Your Life”

Age 40 is a harrowing milestone for many women. Ms. Brokaw talked about the reasons behind this, and how women can navigate the transition into midlife with more enjoyment. She said society sends women many conflicting messages about being their own person and yet conforming to traditional expectations.

Issues covered: Length: 5:03

Show # 2013-17

Date aired: 4/28/2013 Time Aired: 6:00 AM

H. Gilbert Welch, MD, MPH, Professor of Medicine and Community and Family Medicine at Dartmouth Institute for Health Policy and Clinical Practice at Dartmouth Medical School, co-author of “Overdiagnosed: Making People Sick in the Pursuit of Health”

Dr. Welch said the increasing ability of medical tests to detect minuscule abnormalities, along with changing guidelines, have resulted in the overdiagnosis and overtreatment of many patients. He said many diagnoses and treatments are for abnormalities that would never threaten the patient’s health. He explained how patients should decide when to question a doctor’s orders for testing.

Issues covered: Length: 9:21

Consumer Matters

Julie Weeks, Research Advisor at American Express OPEN

Ms. Weeks recently authored a report that analyzed the state of women-owned businesses in the U.S. She found that while women-owned businesses are rapidly growing and diversifying in all industries, their overall revenue continues to lag behind other businesses. Ms. Weeks talked about the reasons behind these trends.

Issues covered: Length: 7:47

Women's Issues
Workplace Matters

Alan Cook, Licensed Contractor, author of "A Trip to the Number Yard"

America's math proficiency is rated 24th out of 29 math-tested countries. Mr. Cook talked about the problem of mathematic illiteracy for both do-it-yourselfers and trade professionals, and the mishaps that sometimes occur as a result. He explained which math skills are crucial to these blue-collar endeavors. He believes the main problem is that that our nation's schools have failed to teach math in an engaging manner.

Issues covered: Length: 4:41

Chadwick Wasilenkoff, founder and CEO of Fortress Paper, a specialty paper company that produces secure paper for currencies around the world

Mr. Wasilenkoff discussed the measures that governments take to prevent counterfeiting of currencies. He said that a large percentage of counterfeit US bills are believed to be produced by state-sponsored operations in countries such as North Korea. He explained why new measures, such as the improved $100 bill, do slow down counterfeiters temporarily. However, he said criminals eventually adapt to such changes, so it is a never-ending battle. He explained how consumers can try to identify counterfeit bills.

Issues covered: Length: 8:55

Show # 2013-20

Date aired: 5/19/2013 Time Aired: 6:00 AM

Michael Moss, Pulitzer Prize-winning reporter for The New York Times, author of "Salt Sugar Fat: How the Food Giants Hooked Us"

Every year, the average American eats thirty-three pounds of cheese, seventy pounds of sugar and double the recommended amount of salt--most of it from processed foods. Mr. Moss said that the use of salt, sugar and fat increases sales of processed foods, reduces manufacturing costs, and enables these foods to sit in warehouses or on the grocery shelf for months. He offered suggestions for consumers on how to read product labels.

Issues covered: Length: 8:01
Personal Health
Consumer Matters

Debra Donston-Miller, editor and writer for InformationWeek.com, expert in social networking and information technologies

Ms. Donston-Miller said social media has essentially become an online resume, and that job hunters who do not use it are at a huge disadvantage. She discussed the most effective strategies for using social media in job searches and networking with colleagues. She explained which social networks are the most useful and why. She also recommended sharing content on social networks, such as reports or videos, to demonstrate expertise and abilities.

John P. Thyfault, PhD, Professor of Nutrition and Exercise Physiology, Director of the Health Activity Center at the University of Missouri

Statins, the most widely prescribed type of cholesterol-lowering drugs, have prevented millions of heart attacks and saved countless lives. But Dr. Thyfault conducted a study that found that statins may also counteract the benefits of exercise, the other tried-and-true way to boost cardiac health. He explained why doctors usually prescribe drugs, rather than recommending exercise or dietary change. He also talked about how much exercise can be effective for people dealing with high cholesterol.

Issues covered: Length: 5:06
Personal Health

Show # 2013-23

Date aired: 6/9/2013 Time Aired: 6:00 AM

Jeff Eisenberg, nationally-recognized expert on bed bugs, CEO of PestAway, Inc., author of "The Bed"

Bug Survival Guide"

Mr. Eisenberg talked about the explosion of bed bug infestations across America, and why the problem has grown so dramatically. He talked about the health concerns related to bed bugs and offered suggestions to avoid bringing them into a home. He also outlined the most effective methods of dealing with a bed bug problem.

Show # 2013-25

Date aired: 6/23/2013 Time Aired: 6:00 AM

Jaron Lanier, computer and digital network pioneer, author of "Who Owns the Future?"

Mr. Lanier explained why he thinks the rise of digital networks has led our economy into recession and decimated the middle class. He said people should be compensated for sharing their personal data with massive digital networks, such as Google, Facebook, Instagram, and in some cases, even the government. He said he is most concerned about the younger generations of Americans who have grown up with reduced expectations of privacy and success.
