

--Have a howling good time this Halloween harvest festival in Boyne City at the Harvest Festival Weekend. Activities include a movie in the graveyard on Friday night and a Saturday filled with donuts, kids crafts, hay rides and 'spooktacular' contests. A haunted trail Saturday evening will finish off this fantastic weekend. Young children and pets are not allowed on the haunted trail. The only costs to the haunted trail is to make a can food donation which will be donate to a local food pantry. Happening at Young State Park In Boyne City, October 4th thru October 6th.

--The Mackinaw Area Public Library is pleased to announce the return of Raymond Goodwin, with a new one-man play titled A Tree on the Moon. Mr. Goodwin will be performing his play at the library twice; on Friday October 4 at 5 PM and again on Saturday, October 5 at 1 PM.

--Higgins Lake Annual Harvest Fest in Roscommon will provide plenty of spooky fun! Happening October 4th and 5th, there will be hay rides, a spooky walk through the woods, pumpkin painting, face painting, kids crafts, costume parade and judging, trick-or-treating, site decorating and awards, children's activities, cotton candy and popcorn. Activities occurring Friday in the campground and Saturday at the Park Store (Day Use) are open to the public.

--Lanterns light your way through an 18th-century fort and fur trading village overrun by werewolves, witches, goblins and ghouls. Storytellers weave spooky folktalkes near bonfires and treats such as milled cider, cookies and candy can be found throughout the site. Most stops are suitable for all ages, but a haunted house, demon walk and werewolf walk will give thrills and chills to adults and children alike. Presented by Ryba's Fudge. Happening October 4th and 5th, 6:30pm to 9:30pm at Colonial Michilimackinac.

--The Charlevoix Leif Eriksson Day Row and Run is a one mile boat race and 5k foot race to celebrate the life of Leif Eriksson and the viking way. Participants can compete in both the row and run or just one of the events. One mile boat race goes from Depot Beach to Ferry Beach in Charlevoix. Participants will have to bring their own kayak/canoe and wear a USCG approved life jacket. The 5k will traverse along a road course in the city of Charlevoix.

--The sixth annual Downtown Alpena Chowder & Chili Cook-off is scheduled for Saturday, October 5, 2018 on Second Avenue from Chisholm St. to Park Place.

Come taste the best chowders and chilis from both professionals and amateurs, and cast your vote for best in show! The event will also have Michigan beer and wine and live music for you to enjoy.