

WTCB B106.7 FM
WNKT 107.5 FM
WOMG 98.5 FM
WISW 1320 AM

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS FOR 2ND QUARTER, 2012

“CAPITAL CONNECTIONS” PUBLIC AFFAIRS SHOW

AIRS SUNDAY MORNINGS AT 6AM
(30 MINUTES IN LENGTH)

HOSTED BY TIM DALY

WTCB/WNKT/WOMG/WISW PUBLIC SERVICE COMMUNITY ISSUES
2ND QUARTER 2012

Proposed Topics:

- Drinking & Driving
- Women in the Military
- Heart Health
- Mental Illness Awareness
- Community Action
- Preparing for Summer Safety
- Animal Rights & Care
- Summer Children Education
- Unemployment
- The Arts
- Summer Blood Supply
- Travon Martin Shooting
- Teen Pregnancy
- Graduation and Future Goals

Weekly Issue: Benefits Of Golf On Our Youth
Program: Capital Connections
Stations Aired: WTCB,WOMG,WISW, WNKT
Date: 04/1/2012
Host: Tim Daly

Joe Quik joined the conversation on Capital Connections. Joe is the Director Of Development for the SC Junior Golf Association. Joe went over the benefits of having youth involved with Golf. Joe let us know all the programs the SCJRGF has to offer the youth. Joe told us about the upcoming events to benefit the JGA and how all the funds go back into all the wonderful things the JGA does for our youth. Joe also gave us a quick education about Golf week in SC.

Weekly Issue: Drinking & Driving
Program: Capital Connections
Stations Aired: WTCB,WOMG,WISW, WNKT
Date: 04/8/2012
Host: Tim Daly

With Prom season right around the corner, we invited Juliet Smith to join us on Capital Connections. Juliet works with the SC chapter of M.A.D.D. Juliet went over the recent drunk driving stats for SC and told us about a piece of legislation being pushed by M.A.D.D. The piece of legislation deals with an ignition interlock system for anyone convicted of a DUI. Juliet talked about their victim impact panels, prom promise, and about the upcoming Powertalk 21 day. Powertalk is a National day for parents to talk to their kids about drinking and driving.

Weekly Issue: Honoring Women In The Military
Program: Capital Connections
Stations Aired: WTCB,WOMG,WISW, WNKT
Date: 04/15/2012
Host: Tim Daly

In an effort to spotlight our service people and Women in the Military, we invited Morgan Fields to join us for Capital Connections. Morgan is the Executive Director of the Celebrate Freedom Foundation. Morgan described her duties with the Foundation and the mission of the foundation. Morgan talked about the upcoming Celebrate Freedom Festival and emphasis the festival will have on Women in the Military. Morgan talked about the Foundation's S.O.A.R program and their summer camps. Morgan let us know how people can volunteer with the foundation and their needs.

Weekly Issue: Heart Health
Program: Capital Connections
Stations Aired: WTCB,WOMG,WISW, WNKT
Date: 04/22/2012
Host: Tim Daly

Heart Health is very important. We asked Andrea Marks to join the conversation on Capital Connections. Andrea works with the Columbia Chapter of the Heart Association. Andrea talked about heart healthy food, exercise, and ways to live a heart healthy life. Andrea talked about the benefits of not smoking and how their website offers heart friendly recipes. Andrea gave us a list of upcoming events for the Heart Association.

Weekly Issue: Mental Illness Awareness
Program: Capital Connections
Stations Aired: WTCB,WOMG,WISW, WNKT
Date: 04/29/2012
Host: Tim Daly

In an effort to help in the awareness of Mental Illness, we invited Buddy Weir and Mandy Medlock to join us for Capital Connections. Mandy is the Director Of Operations for NAMI Mid-Carolina and Buddy is a NAMI Volunteer. Buddy and Mandy talked about the upcoming NAMI walk in Columbia and gave us a more in depth definition of Mental Illness. They talked about the advocacy NAMI does locally and also described their very important support groups. They talked about other programs that help people with Mental Illness and other family members that Mental Illness impacts. Buddy let everyone know how NAMI needs volunteers and how to go about being a volunteer.

Weekly Issue: Cancer Awareness
Program: Capital Connections
Stations Aired: WTCB,WOMG,WISW, WNKT
Date: 05/06/2012
Host: Tim Daly

Cancer is a killer in our community. We invited Janie Smith from the American Cancer Society to join our conversation. Janie talked about how diet can help prevent Cancer and how important it is not to smoke. Janie told us about the support programs the ACS has to help families and cancer patients. Janie talked about the free make-up and wigs the ACS provides to Cancer patients and also the free ride program available to cancer patients to their appointments. Janie described the volunteer opportunities available to the public and how we all can help.

Weekly Issue: Mental Illness Awareness

Program: Capital Connections

Stations Aired: WTCB,WOMG,WISW, WNKT

Date: 05/13/2012

Host: Tim Daly

In an effort to focus more attention on Mental Illness in our community, we asked Buddy Weir and Mandy Medlock to join us on Capital Connections. Mandy is the Director Of Operations for NAMI Mid-Carolina and Buddy is a NAMI Volunteer. Buddy and Mandy talked about the upcoming NAMI walk in Columbia and gave us a more in depth definition of Mental Illness. They talked about the advocacy NAMI does locally and also described their very important support groups. They talked about other programs that help people with Mental Illness and the other family members that Mental Illness impacts. Buddy talked about how NAMI needs volunteers and how a person would go about becoming a volunteer.

Weekly Issue: Education At Riverbanks Zoo

Program: Capital Connections

Stations Aired: WTCB,WOMG,WISW, WNKT

Date: 05/20/2012

Host: Tim Daly

In an effort to put a focus on summer education and summer activities, we invited Susan O' Cain to join the conversation on Capital Connections. Susan is the Communication Specialist at Riverbanks Zoo. Susan talked about the new Komodo Dragons and Tortoise babies at Riverbanks. Susan let us know about the upcoming summer education camps for kids at Riverbanks. The camps are for kids of all ages. Susan talked about the new Zoovie Nights at the Zoo. It seems to be a really good family bonding time and also an opportunity to watch a movie at Riverbanks. Susan also informed us about the return of Toucan Tuesdays at Riverbanks.

Weekly Issue: Community Awareness With RCSD

Program: Capital Connections

Stations Aired: WTCB,WOMG,WISW, WNKT

Date: 05/27/2012

Host: Tim Daly

We asked Chris Cowan of the Richland County Sheriff's Department to join the conversation on Capital Connections. Chris talked about the Community Action Team Program and what it the team is all about. Chris told us about the new home for the Crossfit Gym. The Gym helps keep RCSD deputies in shape. Chris gave us some very important summer safety tips, summer travel tips, and also told us how to avoid online scams. Chris talked about the Citizen Academy Program and how people can get involved.

Weekly Issue: Animal Rights & Care

Program: Capital Connections

Stations Aired: WTCB,WOMG,WISW, WNKT

Date: 06/03/2012

Host: Tim Daly

Animal care and rights are important issues. Linda Moore, the owner of Howlmore Animal Sanctuary, joined the conversation on Capital Connections. Linda described the services her Animal Sanctuary provides. She helps dogs and cats that are not easily adoptable and the animals that need rehabilitation. She let us know the donations the public can make to help and also describe the adoption process.

Weekly Issue: Summer Education For Kids At Edventure

Program: Capital Connections

Stations Aired: WTCB,WOMG,WISW, WNKT

Date: 06/10/2012

Host: Tim Daly

School is out and the kids are ready for summer. We invited Kristy Barnes to join the conversation on Capital Connections. Kristy is the Marketing Communication Manager for Edventure Children's Museum. Kristy talked about all the great summer education camps going on at Edventure. She updated us on the new educational exhibits and new programs at Edventure. Kristy talked about the new Healthy Green Fork Café at Edventure and described Family Night, Community Leader Reader, and the Museum On Us Weekends.

Weekly Issue: Unemployment Rate
Program: Capital Connections
Stations Aired: WTCB, WOMG, WISW, WNKT
Date: 06/17/2012
Host: Tim Daly

With the local unemployment rate not so great, we invited Carrie Powell to join the conversation on Capital Connections. Carrie works with the Midlands Work Force Center and is organizing a local job fair. Carrie talked about the various employers that will be at the job fair and also the health providers that will be there too. She talked about the school supply drive that is going on with the job fair and how people can donate supplies. Carrie talked about how job seekers can sign up for the job fair and supplied the details on the job preparation workshop job seekers can attend.

Weekly Issue: Moving Columbia's Only Non-Profit Art Theater
Program: Capital Connections
Stations Aired: WTCB, WOMG, WISW, WNKT
Date: 06/24/2012
Host: Tim Daly

In order to bring some awareness to the local film community and art theater, Andy Smith joined us for Capital Connections. Andy is the manager of the Nickelodeon Theater. Andy talked about the moving of Columbia's only non-profit art theater and the benefits it will bring downtown. The art theatre is called The Nickelodeon. Andy talked about the upcoming film festivals and all the ways the community can get involved and help support the theater. Andy described the upcoming films showing at the Nickelodeon and the future plans for the Nickelodeon. Andy gave the history behind the new Helen Hill Media Education Center and all the great things it will bring our community.

Weekly Issue: Summer's Low Blood Supply
Program: Capital Connections
Stations Aired: WTCB, WOMG, WISW, WNKT
Date: 07/1/2012
Host: Tim Daly

The Blood Supply is low! We invited Lauren Way and Paula Thayer to Capital Connections. Lauren and Paula work with The Red Cross in Columbia. Lauren talked about the need for blood and platelets and the reasons the supply is low. She gave us the details on the upcoming blood drive and described the process of donating blood. Paula talked about summer water safety, hurricane safety, fire safety, and the new Red Cross App. Paula let us know the volunteer needs of the Red Cross and about the various First Aid classes offered.