

I. BUSINESS & INDUSTRY

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/16/02 (:40) shared good news about the Southland Boeing plant which got a big business boost this afternoon. Midwest Airlines is reportedly going to buy 25 Boeing 717 jets, and the deal includes options to order another 25 planes. The 50 jets are worth about 1.8 billion dollars. Long Beach Boeing employees are ecstatic as the company is one of the area's largest employer. This is quite a turnaround for the 717 jet which was once considered doomed by the company.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/02/02 (:40) reported that an unemployed South African man has come up with a new invention which could revolutionize cell phone security and make him a millionaire. It puts a permanent picture of the cell phone owner on the display screen plus a name and address which can't be removed and does not interfere with the phone's memory. It costs around $10 and takes about 30 minutes to install.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/21/02 (:40) told about "featherless" chickens which could change the poultry industry. Israeli scientists created the "naked" birds to save money and increase production. Farmers lose up to 20 percent of their birds during hot weather and many chickens suffer heat strokes because of their heavy coat of feathers. Naked chickens gain weight faster because they don't waste energy growing feathers.

II. CHILDREN & YOUTH

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/02/02 (:40) said the FBI needs help to find 13-year-old Cheyenne Simmons of Panorama City who was reported missing yesterday. She may be headed to North Carolina with 25-year-old Michael Hulst who she reportedly met on the internet and with whom she may have discussed marriage. Hulst is a white male, slender, about 6 feet tall, with black hair and minus a left hand. He's believed to be driving a white chevy van with North Carolina plates MSY 1791 and the van may have a phone number painted on the door.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/12/02 (:40) reported that a 41-year-old Irvine businessman remains under investigation while a 12-year-old girl police say was his maid, is in protective custody. Investigators say the girl worked full-time and did not attend school. Social workers were tipped off and found her in a converted garage under unsanitary conditions. Family members had no comment when Channel 4's Beverly White visited the house last night. Abdel-Naser Ib-R-Him was arrested on suspicion of infringement of personal liberty and child endangerment.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00 PM, 4/12/02 (:40) informed that a Cal-State Long Beach student died today when he and two other students jumped off a bridge in the Long Beach Marina early this morning. The three young men had been drinking together before going out to the bridge to jump off as a "right of passage." Two of them made it to shore. Police recovered the victim's body from the water just before dawn near Pacific Coast Highway and East Second Street.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00 PM, 4/16/02 (:40) said two girls are getting credit for saving the life of a toddler who would have drowned last Sunday if they hadn't found her. Jordan Harris and Alex Heisey were playing in a muddy creek in Michigan Park where they found the child and alerted one girl's father who performed life-saving CPR. The girls say they were in the right place at the right time. The child was checked at a hospital and returned to her parents who lost track of her at the park.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00 PM, 4/16/02 (:40) reported that a couple are fighting over removal of their son from life support. The baby was allegedly shaken by his father and thrown into his crib. 23-year-old Moises Ibarra is in the Orange County jail where he's fighting his wife's efforts to have the life support removed. Ibarra could face a homicide charge if his son dies. His lawyer says he's opposing removal of life support because he loves his son.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00 PM, 4/19/02 (:40) mentioned a new study finds most teens averaged 8-1/2 hours of sleep during the week and nearly 10 hours on weekends. Researchers at Northwestern University in Illinois believe the extra weekend hours are necessary to make up for lost sleep the week. Previous studies show sleep deprivation may play a role in lower grades and behavior problems. A study at the University of California shows boys sleep later than girls.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00 PM, 4/19/02 (:40) reported there's a sharp rise in severe food allergies among kids. In the U.S. alone there are now 300,000 emergency room visits a year and 200 deaths blamed on food allergies. Experts say most of the victims are small children, and peanuts account for half of the allergy problems. No one knows why the numbers are up but one theory is that children are healthier these days so their immune systems over-react to common stimulants like the proteins found in peanuts. The FDA has now made it a high priority to boost consumer and food industry awareness of food allergies.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00 PM, 4/25/02 (:40) said detectives need help to find a missing 3-month-old baby girl named Precious. Police think the biological father kidnapped her during a supervised visit at a foster home. The baby is recovering from bone fractures and bruises – police think she was abused. The child's 20-year-old father, Edgar Rivera, is a convicted felon and may be headed to Mexico with Precious and her 15-year-old mother.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00 PM, 4/29/02 (:40) informed that Laguna Beach parents are paying close attention to where their children play because of a disturbing discovery. A beach goer found several razor blades sticking out of the sand at a popular playground Saturday morning. Police swept the playground with metal detectors and counted a total of 17 sharp blades. A young woman had called police earlier that morning to say her friends were heading to the beach to hurt someone. No arrests have been made so far.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00 PM, 5/1/02 (:40) mentioned that mysterious fumes at a mid-city elementary school today sent nearly a dozen children to the hospital. About two dozen students got sick at Arlington Heights Elementary around nine this morning. About half were treated at the scene. Some of the symptoms were similar to what might happen if someone is exposed to pepper spray. By the time Haz-Mat teams arrived the fumes had dissipated.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00 PM, 5/2/02 (:40) reported that police today released a photo of a woman suspected of attacking a toddler in downtown Los Angeles over the weekend. Prosecutors have charged 44-year-old Phyllis Marie Johnson with stabbing a one-year-old boy with a hypodermic needle. It happened around 2 PM last Saturday and police believe there are more victims. The suspect faces a series of charges including child abuse, drug possession and attempted torture.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00 PM, 5/3/02 (:40) said the Consumer Product Safety Commission warns that putting babies to sleep in an adult-size bed could turn into a death trap. A child can get trapped in a bed, pillows or blankets and suffocate. In the last three years at least 180 children under the age of two have died while sleeping in adult beds. The agency says the best way to avoid the danger is to put babies to sleep in a crib on their backs.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00 PM, 5/3/02 (:40) informed that two girls who had been attacked by the family dogs yesterday are recovering this afternoon. The two pitbulls were housed in a small area. They attacked the first girl when she went in to feed them and then attacked the second girl who went to help when she heard the screams. Neighbors helped both girls. Child Protective Services and the L.A. City Animal Control are investigating the incident.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00 PM, 5/6/02 (:60) said police have issued a statewide alert after a driver in Northern California saw what appeared to be three little girls bound and gagged in the back of an American-made white 1990's minivan. Police are asking anyone who has seen the van to call them. They say the driver appears to be male caucasian, with a moustache, and short hair – blonde on the sides and black on top. The license plate is white possibly with the numbers 6 and 3 on the left and the letter "H." The little girls appeared to be between 5 and 8 years old. They were spotted in the town of Vackaville. Police are taking the report seriously but so far have had no reports of any kidnappings.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00 PM, 5/7/02 (:40) mentioned the case of a missing girl in Florida is focused on the welfare worker who handled the child's case. The judge called the worker's actions "despicable" and said she could be charged with perjury. She reportedly filed documents saying five-year-old Rilya Wilson was fine – when the child was missing more than a year. Tonight DNA tests are pending on a body found in Kansas City.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/07/02 (:40) mentioned disturbing details of molestation are unfolding from a junior high school in Anaheim where police say a 13-year-old girl had a miscarriage. The girl delivered the still-born baby in a bathroom stall at Sycamore Junior High last month. Authorities believe the alleged father is a 32-year-old man who is also the father of another family living in the same house as the girl. The suspect faces eight felony counts. Doctors confirm the girl miscarried a 26-week old fetus which was found in the girl's home.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00 PM, 5/13/02 (:40) reported that in San Diego, the search for 2-year-old Jahi Turner resumed today after being put on hold for a day of prayer yesterday. This morning searchers started looking again in Florida Canyon, close to Balboa Park where the child disappeared on April 25. The toddler's stepfather says he left Jahi about 15 minutes to get a soft drink. More than 100 people spent the day combing the heavy bush on Saturday.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00 PM, 5/14/02 (:45) said that in Lake Elsinore today, 29 students spent time in the hospital today after their school bus crashed into a truck. Police say the bus rear-ended a food delivery truck that was making a turn into a shopping center. None of the students suffered major injuries. The bus driver said her brakes failed but she will be tested for drug or alcohol impairment in accordance with a standard policy in all school bus accidents.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00 PM, 5/29/02 (:40) mentioned that anti-smoking ads aimed at preventing teens from lighting up may have the opposite effect. According to a new study by the American Legacy Foundation finding published in the American Journal of Health – Phillip Morris ads which feature clean cut kids may not keep teens from smoking in the future. Harder hitting ads were more successful in deterring kids from smoking.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00 PM, 5/29/02 (:40) informed that Florida investigators today doubled the reward for information about missing five-year-old Rilya Wilson. Her disappearance went unnoticed for 15 months by state child welfare workers. On Sunday, a review panel put the blame on a case worker who allegedly falsified records. Today the reward for information was raised from 25 to 50 thousand dollars.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00 PM, 5/30/02 (:40) said the San Bernardino teacher accused of kidnapping and then having sex with one of her students has been arrested and put on suicide watch. Authorities found 33-year-old Tanya Hadden at a Las Vegas hotel May 2 with a 15-year-old student who told the grand jury Hadden has talked about killing herself. She now faces several felony charges.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00 PM, 6/3/02 (:40) reported that the mother 11-year-old Jeanene Bonner, missing since May 20, is taking action in the search for her daughter. Jeanene was last seen with her father, Jack Garcia, who was found dead last Wednesday of an apparent suicide. The mother, Kim Aldomovar, lives in Butte County where Garcia's body was found. She's handing out flyers hoping they will produce a lead to her missing daughter.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00 PM, 6/6/02 (:40) mentioned that after five hours, rescue crews in Chicago finally managed to free a teenage boy trapped in a sewer. The boy couldn't get out after trying to clean out some debris in a catch basin. A catch basin is a type of sewer that holds waste water expelled from the house. The man who rescued the boy said it was smelly and dirty work but somebody had to do it.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00 PM, 6/6/02 (:40) said police in Truckee found no clues of a missing girl after searching the vacation home of a former priest. Investigators are digging up large piles of earth and say they will keep up the search for 7-year-old Amber Garcia who vanished 14 years ago while jumping rope in front of her home near San Francisco. The ex-priest Stephen Kiesle, was arrested last month and accused of molesting three other girls.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00 PM, 6/6/02 (:40) informed that classmates of 11-year-old Jeanene Bonner are getting special counseling after disturbing news that a body found in Northern California may be hers. The school principal says grief sessions are also being held. Jeanene vanished after going on a trip with her father who committed suicide in his truck. The blood found in the truck reportedly is Jeanene's.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00 PM, 6/6/02 (:40) mentioned that in Walnut Creek, a 13-year-old boy Jeffery Figueroa, faces up to eight years in juvenile prison for injuring a classmate with a spit ball. The incident happened last September and the victim now has trouble seeing out of the injured eye. Police found the child and authorities say her pregnant mother had died at least a week before. The child is in the hospital being treated for malnourishment and dehydration. Police believe the child survived by eating food from the pantry. Ironically the child's name is Miracle.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00 PM, 6/20/02 (:40) reported a new report says playgrounds may not be as safe as we think. Two consumer watchdog groups examined over a thousand playgrounds nationwide and discovered three out of four still lack adequate protective surface to cushion a child's fall. Other dangers include equipment that's too high, openings that can entrap children and swings that are too close together. Every year an average of 15 children die from playground-related injuries.

III. CONSUMER ISSUES

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/03/02 (:40) gave another consumer – this one about electric heaters made by the Lakewood Company are being recalled. More than 100,000 heaters because experts say the electrical connections can become loose and cause a serious shock.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:30 PM, 4/9/02 (:40) said that with the April 15 tax deadline 4 days away experts are warning taxpayers to be extra careful after an investigation today revealed Americans are cheating "themselves" on their income taxes. A congressional study says a lot of people are taking advantages of all the deductions available to them. Investigators say Americans over-pay their taxes by billions of dollars every year. The report says taxpayers should pay closer attention to mortgage interest and points, property taxes, charitable contributions, medical expenses and even gambling losses which are all deductible.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/18/02 (:40) informed that when buying eggs – according to the journal "Poultry Science" - go for the ones in cardboard cartons. Egg experts say the cardboard packages protect the eggs from cracking better than the plastic ones. Test results indicate cardboard had a 4.6 breakage rate. Plastic had a 12.6 breakage rate. And another hot tip – 55% of eggs crack at the bottom – you'll miss those cracks if you just check out the top of the eggs in the store. Many experts say eggs that aren't cracked test better when they're cooked and are all round safer and better to eat.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/23/02 (:40) mentioned a fitness treadmill is being recalled. The Consumer Product Safety Commission says the Horizon Fitness Treadmill can malfunction and kick into high gear. 15 people say they were hurt when the belt unexpectedly went faster. About 5,900 treadmills were sold nationwide in 2000 and 2001. The recall models include the Paragon, Quantum and Omega.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 5:00-6:00PM, 4/23/02 (:40) reported California's Power Grid Operator released its first report on the summer power outlook today. In Folsom, Cal-Iso managers said there should be enough power to go round this summer. But under their worst case scenario we could see power shortages – if enough power plants go offline during peak months. Grid managers say that's the situation right now. Cal-Iso managers say consumer conservation will remain critical this summer and they want to thank Californians for doing a good job so far in saving energy.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/24/02 (:40) said the Consumer Product Safety Commission is recalling 45,000 "Energy Smart Power Planners." This has happened at least seven times and four children have been injured by flying plastic.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/29/02 (:40) said a Wall Street Journal report and the post office’s own figures reveal that priority mail takes a half-day longer than first class mail to reach its destination. Postal officials blame new security measures for the delay. Not only is priority slower, it is also ten times more expensive. Priority mails costs at least $3.50 and first class can cost as little as 34 cents.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/11/02 (:40) mentioned that the sheriff’s department and AT&T destroyed 3,000 illegal cable decoder devices in Newhall today. A giant steamroller crushed the black boxes which the cable industry says demonstrate the growing problem of cable theft and causes six million dollars in losses nationwide every year. Sheriff investigators warn that cable piracy is stealing and authorities are out to prosecute anyone who’s caught doing it.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/13/02 (:40) reported that the Consumer Product Safety Commission is recalling 45,000 portable propane heaters because of the danger of carbon monoxide poisoning. The heaters are made by the Brinkman Corporation and were sold in WalMart and camping stores. The government recalled the heaters after a person died of carbon monoxide poisoning inside a camper. Brinkman is offering refunds on their heaters. For more information log onto our Channel 4 website at NBC4.TV.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/14/02 (:40) informed that the recent death of Paolo Ayala's death in a swimming pool, and the focus on dangers of children playing in and around the pool has resulted in a company called Floating Swimwear marketing safety swimsuits for children ages two and up. The suits are made of spandex and contain chambers of floating foam that can't puncture or deflate like inflated rings or toys. But the makers stress that these are not a substitute for constant parental supervision around the pool.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/17/02 (:40) mentioned that the U.S. Treasury Department is considering printing money in different colors to combat counterfeiters. The photos and designs on the printed cash would remain the same.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/18/02 (:40) reported that fraud investigators say the "Do Not Call Registry" service which claims it can stop annoying telemarketing scams is itself a telemarketing scam. In order to register the caller asks for the victim's social security and calling card numbers. Verizon is telling its customers that the real "Don't Call" registries never ask for that kind of information.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/20/02 (:40) informed that a gourmet food company is recalling a batch of cheese imported from France because it may be contaminated with the dangerous "Listeria" bacterium. The cheese is called "L'or Des Domes" sold under the Saint Nectaire brand name. The production date was April 14 and the lot number is 0004114. Glaucoma is the leading cause of blindness in adults and it affects three million Americans – half of whom don't know they have it. Because it's difficult to detect the disease – it's important get screened for it every two to three years starting at age 40.

VI. EDUCATION

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/04/02 (:40) mentioned that a 30-billion dollar school bond initiative cleared its final hurdle in the state legislature today. It now goes to the governor's desk for his signature. The bonds will be sold to fix up run-down schools and build new ones. Funds will also be made available for public school teaching students from kindergarten through the university system. Los Angeles Unified School District would be eligible to apply for nearly two billion dollars under that measure.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/18/02 (:40) informed that air force recruiters regularly share their experience with local high school students but are now banned from Georgia Washington Preparatory High School in South Los Angeles. It happened after recruiters reportedly detained a student they mistakenly thought was praising Islamic terrorists. No word on how long the ban will last and it doesn't affect other schools. Meanwhile the air force is investigating the incident.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/18/02 (:25) reported that more than 100 highschool students admitted to the University of California at Davis last month are now being sent letters of regret. U-C Davis says the students were sent letters of congratulations by mistake. Most of the admissions were mailed to students overseas - when an office clerk accidentally mixed up the names of those who had been rejected with those who were accepted.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/19/02 (:30) said secret service agents have caught up with students who apparently printed phony bills using a school printer. The ring reportedly operated out of Deep Creek High School in Norfolk, Virginia. So far no students have been arrested. It may be the first time something of this magnitude was done at a school.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/29/02 (:40) mentioned that a study on teens and money finds American high school seniors get an "F" grade when it comes to money management, investing and saving. Researchers asked 31 questions on personal finance and economics. The average grade was 50.2 percent - a slight drop from two years ago. Federal Reserve chairman Alan Greenspan isn't happy about the scores saying that financial literacy is especially important today because of the many financial choices consumers face today.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/09/02 (:40) reported that if the Bush Administration has its way - public "all girl" or "all boy" schools will soon increase. It's something many parents and politicians support...but not some activists. Many congressional leaders are encouraging local school districts to compete for 3-million dollars to help create or support "same sex education" schools.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/09/02 (:40) mentioned that an investigation unfolding at Taft High School in Woodland Hills say some teachers got threatening letters in their staff mailboxes. The letters warned teachers that they better give out good grades to students. Police have joined in the investigation. There are no suspects at this time and the school says lots of people have access to the mailbox area.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/14/02 (:40) informed that a high-tech cheating scandal has jeopardized graduation for one third of the seniors at a Kentucky high school. The principal says 34 students plagiarized material off the internet while writing their Senior English portfolios. At least 10 of the students actually paid for the papers. Others copied from encyclopedias and magazines. In order to graduate, the students must now take a Zero in English which will go into their final GPA. They must also re-do the papers and write a short story on what they did and what they learned from it.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/20/02 (:40) said Rita Wilson, vice principal of Rancho Bernardo High School near San Diego will learn more about her future tonight.

The Poway School Board meets for the first time since Wilson was placed on administrative leave May 1 last month - because she ordered girls at a dance to lift their skirts in front of others – to make sure they weren't wearing thong underpants. Some parents have threatened to sue the school district over the incident.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/20/02 (:40) reported five Antelope Valley High School students are suspended after reports they took nude photos of each other during a photography class. The investigation is unfolding here at the high school in Lancaster. The Valley Press newspaper reports the teacher brought the photos to the attention of school administrators. The photos allegedly show several female students naked from the waist up and shots of men in questionable poses. The pictures were not taken during class.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/21/02 (:40) followed up on the Antelope Valley High School nude photo scandal saying the photography teacher has been cleared of any wrong doing. The instructor who was placed on administrative leave without pay is now back in the classroom. Six students apparently used a classroom studio to take nude pictures of each other. School District officials say the students not only took the photos without their teacher's knowledge but the instructor explicitly told her students that nude photos were not permitted. Five of the six students were suspended.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/12/02 (:40) mentioned that state senators are debating a proposal to make it easier for kids to use sunblock at school. Right now children need a doctor's note to use any medications including those bought over the counter like sunscreen. An Oakland senator says that's too strict considering the danger of the sun's rays

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/14/02 (:40) informed today Los Angeles School Superintendent Roy Romer is reportedly gearing up to support a three billion dollar school construction bond. Romer is said to be seeking funds from some of L.A. 's wealthiest contributors. The first big invitation-only fundraiser is next Tuesday. This is happening even though the Board of Education has yet to decide whether to put the bond measure on the ballot.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/18/02 (:40) said that if a new piece of legislation gets the final OK, some of the state's brightest elementary students may be able to skip high school and to straight to college. School officials estimated that 20 to 60 thousand students in elementary, middle and high school could qualify as highly gifted. They could be candidates to take a high school proficiency examination under a bill just passed by the state assembly. If a student aces the test...they could move on to community college. But critics complain this could cause over-crowding in the community college system. The bill now moves on to the senate for a vote.

VII. ELDERLY/SENIORS/RETIREMENT

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/10/02 (:40) said a new study on surgery success rates cautions that elderly patients in need of high risk surgery are better off picking a hospital with a lot of experience doing that procedure. Researchers from Dartmouth College say that each year more than 20,000 elderly patients die undergoing high risk surgery. They estimate more than a thousand of these deaths could be avoided if the patients had their operation at a hospital with a high volume of that procedure.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/10/02 (:40) informed there's a new card that'll give seniors 20-40% off on more than 100 brand name drugs. It is called "Together RX." There is no charge for the card. Enrollment begins immediately but not all Medicare patients are eligible. Call the National Council on Aging to ask about the card. Seven major drug companies launched the card today in New York.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/01/02 (:40) reported some surprising news today about depression. Researchers say in some cases it can actually help women live longer. The study evaluated 4,000 men and women aged 65 or older over a period of 10 years. It discovered women 65-years or older with mild depression were much more likely to live longer than those who were "not" depressed or those who were severely depressed. They don't know why but think mild depression may help people deal with the failures or disappointments of life – they didn't expect more – so they don't fall apart when they don't get it.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:30 PM, 5/17/02 (:40) mentioned President Bush called for a major re-structuring of the Medicare program today at a White House Press Conference. The president said Congress must find a way to include prescription drug coverage under Medicare. The president also said senior should have more options under Medicare – to choose the coverage they want and can afford.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/10/02 (:40) said a 68-year-old Washington woman survived nearly two weeks in the woods nibbling on candy. Some doctors are calling it a miracle. Vernita Frazier disappeared May 27 after going for a walk in Bremerton, Washington. At the time more than 200 people searched the area but couldn't find her. Yesterday she turned up in these woods to the surprise of homeowners nearby. Police say she survived 37 degree temperature. She's being treated for hypothermia and doctors say she'll be just fine.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/17/02 (:40) mentioned a dramatic rescue in San Dimas today when a 68-year-old woman is hoisted from the bottom of a canyon into a rescue helicopter. She was standing in her backyard, lost her footing and fell 150 feet down the side of the cliff. Some golfers playing on the course below reported seeing her stumbling down the side of the mountain. When rescue crews reached her, she was conscious but had some scrapes and bruises. She was taken to Cedars-Sinai Medical Center. Considering the distance of the fall, rescuers say the woman was lucky to be alive.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/24/02 (:40) said a new study shows some of the most commonly prescribed drugs for older Americans are rising drastically in price. A group called Families USA researched 50 of the most commonly prescribed drugs – 10 generics and 40 brand names. It found that while generic drug prices hardly budged last year, name brand drugs rose nearly three times the rate of inflation.

VIII. EMPLOYMENT/LABOR

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/02/02 (:40) said a school bus strike today by drivers from the Laidlaw Bus Company caught just about everyone off guard – students, parents, teachers and school administrators. This means one third fewer buses than usual and officials were scrambling to get students home from school this afternoon. Fortunately it was a short day for L.A. Unified elementary schools and most children got home with no problems. The school district has prioritized pick-ups starting with Special Ed students and ending with middle and high school kids. The LAUSD has set up a hotline where you can get the latest on the bus strike from the number on your screen.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/08/02 (:40) reported hundreds of health care workers put Cedars Sinai Hospital on notice today. If workers don't get a new contract with better wages and benefits they will strike. Service Employees Union, which represents 1,500 employees at Cedars, told the hospital their members have voted to strike 10 days from today if a new contract isn't reached. Union leaders say Cedars is a wealthy institution but some employees aren't earning a living wage.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/29/02 (:40) said that L.A. school buses are back in full operation for the first time in nearly a month. 800 striking drivers returned to work this morning. They accepted a new contract which gives them a 3.5 percent raise each year for the next three years. School officials say there are still some delays today but everything should be back to normal by tomorrow.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/17/02 (:40) reported the U.S. Supreme Court today dealt a major blow to employees and businesses who rely on tips. It has ruled the IRS can calculate taxes on tips earned by estimating that amount from credit card receipts. The IRS says a lot of gratuities often go unreported, and the new system allows for a more accurate assessment. But businesses argue it's unfair ...they say employees often make less in tips than the amount provided on credit cards – because of shared tips.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/18/02 (:40) mentioned there's a librarian shortage nationwide. It's already a problem in urban and rural areas, and the American Library Association says it will get worse as a quarter of the country's school librarians are expected to reach retirement age by 2009. President Bush has proposed spending ten million dollars to recruit new librarians. Experts say salaries for librarians are too low and need to be improved to attract qualified candidates.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/29/02 (:40) reported some registered nurses and other health-care workers went on strike against Queen of Angeles-Hollywood

Presbyterian Medical Center today. A union representative said around 400 strikers were out on the picket line this morning when the four-day walkout began. However, a hospital spokesperson estimated there were only about 65 picketers and that the majority of the 1,200 employees reported to work as usual. This is the second four-day strike at the hospital in three weeks. The big issue is hospital staffing. The nurses and other employees have been working without a contract since May 13.

IX. ENVIRONMENTAL ISSUES

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/02/02 (:40) said a toxic spill in Anaheim today brought to light the danger of mixing simple cleaning products. Dozens of people got sick at a Salvation Army center when someone used one cleaning product to mop up another. Paramedics treated people on the scene and took most of them to the hospital for follow-up. Firefighters blame the mixing of common cleaning products. People reported coughing, irritated eyes and throat, nausea and breathing difficulty. None of the injuries were serious.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/15/02 (:40) relayed a warning to watch out for rattlesnakes. If you like to hike, there's a good chance you may encounter one. Rattlesnakes, large or small, can pack a nasty bite and because of our dry winter, rattlers are traveling farther looking for water. CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/18/02 (:40) said animal welfare officers raided a Mar Vista home this morning and found 200 rabbits. Some were sick, injured or dead. The SPCA received some complaints which resulted in a search warrant for the home in the three thousand block of Stoner Avenue. Employees set up a triage to sort out the healthy rabbits from those in need of medical care. The agency is investigating the situation and no one has been cited at this point.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/23/02 (:40) cautioned that as summer vacation plans are being made be aware that this could be a bad "tick" season. One popular destination – Monterey County is expecting its worst tick problem in a decade. The lack of rainfall is letting them thrive. Health officials say hikers and horseback riders should watch out. The ticks in the area can carry Lyme Disease, though actual cases are rare. Tick season lasts from Spring through Fall.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/03/02 (:40) informed that Federal Wildlife officials say more Canadian Geese deciding to stay in the U.S. year round is creating a population explosion which the federal government is trying to control. Experts estimate there are now close to 3 million geese nesting in the U.S. and they're found in parks, around housing developments and on fairways. A proposed federal plan will allow states to begin new goose control programs that include destruction of nests and eggs. Animal rights activists say more emphasis should be put on research and education.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/31/02 (:40) informed the fight against coyotes in Los Angeles neighborhoods is about to escalate and become more aggressive. Coyotes have become bolder in their search for food. A report out today says the new Department of Animal Services plans to hit the coyotes with paint balls and beanbags. If that doesn't force the intruders to leave – they will be trapped as a last resort. The tougher tactics are the result of growing complaints from homeowners.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/03/02 (:40) said dozens of scientists gathered in a Connecticut Park this weekend to study bugs and have some fun. It was a race to see who could collect the most specimens of bugs and other wild things in a city park in Norwich. What they found sometimes stumped even the experts. The beetle collectors catalogued 255 separate specimens but it was the moth guys who took the prize with 299 including one type so rare – only 12 others have ever been seen before.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/03/02 (:40) mentioned there are complaints this afternoon from Lake View Terrace residents saying that the Hansen Dam is leaking. It was built by the Army Corps of Engineers three years ago. Residents are upset not only by the leak but by how the army is fixing it. The Army says the area was never meant to be a lake and may eventually be left as a wetlands area for migratory birds.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/13/02 (:40) updated that the worst wildfire in Colorado history continues today. The numbers are staggering. Close to 100,000 acres burned and more than 5,000 people forced from their homes.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/18/02 (:40) informed that health authorities are trying to find out what's making visitors sick in the Grand Canyon. So far more than 50 rafters on the Colorado River have come down with the illness which causes nausea and vomiting for as long as 48 hours. Park officials don't know what's causing the outbreak but they believe it's contagious. However, the park has not stopped the rafting tours or evacuated rafters from the river.

X. FAMILY/MEN/WOMEN

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/10/02 (:40) reported a new study suggests that longevity runs in families. Researchers studied nearly 400 families with at least one member who lived to the age of 100. Brothers and sisters of people who live a long life are more likely than the general population to live a hundred years. Sisters are eight times more likely to live that long and brothers are 17 times more likely than other men to live to a hundred. The National Institute of aging on longevity conducted the study.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/05/02 (:40) said researchers at Ohio State University say a wand of heat could soon help women with breast cancer. The wand zaps tumors in less than an hour without surgery. The small wand is inserted into the breast and umbrella shaped fingers surround the tumor, then zap it with heated radio waves. The procedure is being tested on women who are candidates for lumpectomy.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/05/02 (:40) mentioned robotic technology may help treat men with prostate cancer. Doctors at a Cleveland clinic are trying out a tool called the Cyber Knife. A high-energy x-ray tube is attached to the end of the same type of robot arm used to make cars. The tube delivers radiation. The cyber arm has just received approval from the federal government.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/14/02 (:40) reminded that this Saturday, May 18, the Women's Health Office is sponsoring Health and Wellness Day at Hansen Dam. You can get information and answers to all your questions and appointments for free screenings by calling the hotline number 1-800-793-8090. More information can be found on the NBC4 website.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00 PM, 6/14/02 (:40) informed that a Northern California man has filed a discrimination suit over "Take Our Daughters to Work Day." The Petaluma man is suing Sonoma County alleging it discriminated against boys by sponsoring the day. The suit seeks an injunction to stop the program unless it is re-named and expanded to include boys. Sonoma County lawyers says the program doesn't violate state or federal law and the county sponsors programs for boys as well.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00 PM, 6/17/02 (:40) relayed some encouraging new findings for women with breast cancer. A new study says that stress does not seem to trigger a recurrence of breast cancer. The findings in the British Medical Journal contradict previous studies. Many women had been concerned that a major emotional trauma like divorce might make their breast cancer come back. But doctors say the most important factor is how far along the disease had progressed when diagnosed.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00 PM, 6/24/02 (:40) mentioned a supreme court case involving state workers and the Family Leave Act. The high court said today it'll take a case that will decide whether state governments can be sued as employers under the Family Leave Act. Twelve states are arguing the 1993 law was never intended to allow state workers to target state governments with lawsuits.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/26/02 (:40) reported a new study suggests birth control pills do not increase a woman's risk of breast cancer after all. Women who use the pill reportedly have no more risk of developing breast cancer after age 35 than women who never use the pill at all. The findings contradict an earlier study that said that birth control pill users run a slightly higher risk of the disease.

XI. GOVERNMENT/POLITICS

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:30PM, 5/14/02 (:40) reported First Lady Laura Bush made some blunt political statements today...condemning young suicide bombers during a speech in Paris. She spoke to an economic development group – part of a ten-day visit to Europe. Mrs. Bush said that education can transform the situation in the Middle East by teaching children respect and tolerance. She has visited 15 countries in the 16 months she'd been first lady. This is the first trip she's made alone without the president.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/14/02 (:40) said that former President Jimmy Carter is fending off criticism from the White House over recent comments made during his visit to Cuba. While visiting an Aids clinic near Havana, he praised Cuba's policy of donating vaccines and other medicines to third world countries, saying it was rare. The remarks came one day after Mr. Carter told President Fidel Castro that the White House informed him Cuba did not have biological weapons – a statement that directly contradicted earlier US government statements.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/14/02 (:40) informed today, that after months of saying no tax increases, Governor Gray Davis has unveiled a 100-billion dollar budget which includes some tax hikes – to fill a 23.6 billion dollar budget deficit. He said deep cuts would also be needed to fill this hole which has doubled since he took office. This puts the governor at odds with the state legislature who said they won't support a budget that calls for higher taxes.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/15/02 (:40) mentioned that a survey by researchers at the University of Pennsylvania concludes that the government's anti-drug campaign isn't working. Not only is there no evidence of it but they actually charted an increase in drug use among teens who saw the ads. The $180 million project was part of a five-year campaign by some of the nation's best-known public relations firms.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/16/02 (:20) reported the high price of problem or broken parking meters is costing Los Angeles big bucks in revenue. A survey releases today say around 1,000 parking meters in three high-traffic areas in the city were they were in downtown Los Angeles, Van Nuys and the West Side. The survey by the Department of Transportation says 10 percent of the meters didn't work. Officials say fixing them could bring in as much as an extra million dollars to the city.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/16/02 (:40) said former President Ronald Reagan and his wife Nancy Reagan were rewarded today for their service and dedication to the nation. The Reagans were awarded the Congressional Gold Medal. There was standing ovation from admirers, friends, politicians and U.S. Supreme Court Justices. Earlier President Bush joined other speakers in praising Mrs. Reagan for her "Just Say No" anti-drug campaign as well as her service as First Lady. The Gold Medal is the highest civilian honor given by Congress.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/16/02 (:40) informed that President Bush issued a challenge to Cuban Leader today – the 100th anniversary of Cuban Independence Day. The President spoke, sometimes in Spanish, at a Republican fundraiser in Florida. He was answering former President Jimmy Carter's call to ease trade sanctions against Cuba. Mr. Bush said he would support normalizing relations if Castro makes reforms including free elections and freeing all political prisoners. He would also allow direct mail service to resume immediately between the US and Cuba.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/21/02 (:40) reported First Lady Laura Bush spoke to the Afghanistan people today in a first of its kind radio address. She used Radio Free Europe in the Czech Republic to give her speech. She told the Afghan people “America is with you.” – saying America wants to be a partner in rebuilding Afghanistan, and urged Afghan women to get involved in choosing in new government.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/22/02 (:40) mentioned subpoenas are on their way to the White House because a Senate panel wants to know what President Bush and Vice President Cheney knew about the collapse of Enron. The panel voted nine to eight to subpoena other staff members in the executive office. The Bush administration revealed in January that former Enron chairman Kenneth Lay made a series of telephone calls to members of the Bush Cabinet as the company headed for collapse last fall.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/23/02 (:40) said the Federal Government is filing lawsuits against counties in Florida for voting rights violations in the 2000 presidential election. The Justice Department is not revealing the cities or counties named in the suits. Florida is the center of bitter protests and re-counts after accusations of confusing ballots, ballots being discarded and complaints that black voters were kept from the polls. Two more lawsuits will be filed in Missouri and Tennessee for alleged civil rights violations.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/6/02 (:40) reported tonight at 5, President Bush will outline an historic plan to improve home security. Mr. Bush is expected to announce the creation of a new cabinet-level post to carry out sweeping changes in the US security and intelligence operations. It also means Homeland Security Director Tom Ridge or any other nominee for the post would have to be confirmed by the Senate.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/12/02 (:40) mentioned that Los Angeles Mayor Jim Hahn got some heavyweight support today from long-time valley residents in his battle against secession. They gathered at Van Nuys City Hall. Among them community activist Don Schultz who recently quite his position with the pro-secession group called “Valley Voters Organized toward Empowerment.” Schultz switched because the council district map for the proposed new valley city would divide Van Nuys into too many districts for it to be fairly represented.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/24/02 (:40) informed that President Bush this afternoon sent a message to the Palestinian people about the crisis in the Middle East. The president outlined a new peace plan and said Palestinians need to replace Yasser Arafat with a new Arab leadership. He said the only way to stop the cycle is to stop the acts of terrorism. Mr. Bush also said he understood the anguish and concerns of the Palestinians. Meantime Arafat said he welcomed the president’s speech as a serious push toward peace.

XII. HEALTH & NUTRITION

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/01/02 (:30) reported that a study of “stents,” the gadgets used by doctors to unblock clogged arteries, may lose some of their holding power over time. The stents are coated with clot-busting drugs, and inserted into an artery. Yet a study that tested stents for one-year intervals revealed that there was clot build-up after some time.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/01/02 (:30) said doctors are using Botox treatments to treat migraine headaches. Botox treatments relieve the pressure on the nerves that cause headaches by relaxing the forehead muscles of patients. Some doctors are using surgery to remove the muscles altogether for more permanent relief from migraines.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/01/02 (:30) announced that researchers are getting closer to being able to identify people who are most at-risk for arthritis. They have found a possible connection between the arthritis in older patients and the aches and pains of their middle-aged children. They plan to conduct larger studies to confirm the link.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/01/02 (:40) reported that a new device has been developed to help doctors view people's entire medical history just by passing a scanner over a patient's body. The technology is being tested on human volunteers while the Food and Drug Administration considers whether the device should be approved for general use. Privacy advocates expressed concerns about the possibility that a chip used to track a person's medical history could also be used to invade their privacy with a simple scanner.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/02/02 (:40) said that new research about hormone replacement therapy suggested that the therapy could make women more prone to cancer. Swedish scientists found women on estrogen had a 40 percent higher risk of ovarian cancer. The researchers also said that the danger increased for people who took occasional doses of the hormone progestin. But the scientists said that the risks are still small. They do recommend that women in menopause talk with their physicians about the pros and cons of hormone replacement therapy.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/03/02 (:40) informed that the New England Journal of Medicine published a study on the ineffectiveness of the drug Sul-in-dak. It is an arthritis drug that is also used to help prevent colon cancer but may not work as well as doctors had hoped. Researchers say it does not prevent pre-cancerous growths in young patients who carry a gene for a hereditary form of colon cancer. Earlier studies had found the drug was effective in older patients who had already developed the growths.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/03/02 (:30) revealed that long airplane flights may increase the risk of stroke for people who suffer from PFO, a common heart defect. The defect involves an opening between the heart's two upper chambers that normally closes during fetal development. Long flights increase the risk of blood clots in the legs, which can break free and travel to the lungs. The clots are the most likely cause of stroke in PFO patients. New Jersey Medical School conducted the study.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/04/02 (:40) announced a new development in medical technology for patients suffering from arthritis in the knees. The 'unispace' implant' was designed to help those in the early stages of osteo-arthritis in the knee. The implant is made through a small incision in the knee and it serves to cushion the knee and replace worn out cartilage. It prevents the bone to bone contact that causes pain for arthritis patients. The Food and Drug Administration approved the unispacer.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/05/02 (:40) informed that doctors are already implementing a new technology to accurately diagnose strokes. It's called the 'spiral c-t scanner' and uses a dye to show a blood flow that helps doctors determine if there's blockage in the blood vessels. They can also determine if the brain is getting enough blood. The machine helped improve the accuracy of diagnosing a stroke by nearly 100 percent.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/04/02 (:40) reported that researchers at the University of Virginia suggested that outdated policies may unnecessarily be draining the nation's blood supply. Researchers claim that many hospitals reserve up to five times more blood than is needed for some surgical procedures because doctors are estimating the necessary amounts on old standards. The unused blood may then go to waste. The degree of waste varies by hospital.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/09/02 (:40) said that a new study suggests women who gain more than 38 pounds during pregnancy have a 40 percent higher risk of breast cancer after menopause. A researcher at Georgetown University explained that fat cells put out estrogen and the breasts are more vulnerable to the harmful effects of estrogen during changes in pregnancy. Other experts dispute the findings and argue that the higher risk may be related to extra weight gain that women keep after pregnancy.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/11/02 (:40) said researchers are working on a pill that could replace working out. Researchers in Texas and North Carolina are working on a pill that would build muscle without exercise. They found that when a certain protein is activated in mice it triggers the same type of physical change that muscle cells undergo after exercise. Any type of workout pill is still a long way off and until then a good diet and exercise will have to do.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/15/02 (:40) informed that a new study added to evidence that a blood test may be the best predictor of heart disease. Researchers at the US armed forces Institute of pathology studied blood samples from the bodies of 300 people who had experienced sudden death. They found levels of some protein in the blood correlated with levels in artery plaque. The information helps doctor predict which plaques are at the greatest risk of rupturing and causing a heart attack. The study was published in the Journal of the American Heart Association.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/17/02 (:40) reported that research is easing concerns over the possible side-effects of the cancer fighting drug, Tamoxifen. Channel 4 News had earlier reported that Tamoxifen can help ward off breast cancer while past studies showed it might block the benefits of estrogen replacement therapy on the brain. The blockage would increase the patient's chance of memory loss. But researchers at UCLA took part in a new study showing both Tamoxifen and estrogen may actually help protect the brain.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/17/02 (:40) announced that NBC4 joined the American Red Cross for the 25th Annual Health Fair Expo. NBC4 invited people to take advantage of the free and low-cost health screenings April 17 through April 24 at over thirty-five locations in the Southland. Viewers can find locations by calling 1-800-488 expo or logging onto the station's website, NBC4.TV.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/22/02 (:40) warned that people on high protein diets need to make sure they drink plenty of water because they can easily dehydrate and not know it. Scientists say the extra protein makes the kidneys work harder. Researchers at the University of Connecticut found that athletes' bodies started to dehydrate but they never felt thirsty. All protein dieters should drink plenty of fluids even if they don't feel thirsty.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/23/02 (:40) reported a new study found a link between what babies are fed early in life and their risk for obesity as adults. Researchers at the University of Buffalo say that a high carbohydrate diet found in most infant formulas can lead to permanently high insulin levels in the blood that can then lead to overeating. Doctors said most infant formulas have six times the carbohydrates as mother's milk and high-carbohydrate diets can cause permanent change in the cells that are then passed on to the next generation.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/23/02 (:40) mentioned that cutting calories can reduce people's risk of cancer. The national cancer institute found that eating smaller portions could reduce pre-cancerous growths in the intestines by up to 60 percent. People could eat all the healthy foods they want like olive oil, fruits, and vegetables. Yet it is important to reduce high-fat foods from individual diets.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/06/02 (:40) reported that doctors have found proof that the dieter's "yo-yo effect" exists. Researchers at Columbia University believe that when people lose weight the body gets more efficient at using calories so it needs less of them. Once off the diet those extra calories go right back on as fat. It has also been found that the hormone leptin can help people continue losing weight if administered in small doses. The Food and Drug Administration has not approved leptin as a weight loss drug because it does not work in larger doses. Researchers want to change that with more studies.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/06/02 (:40) mentioned that tea may help prolong the lives of heart attack patients who drink at least two cups a week. Researchers at Harvard studied the tea-drinking habits of 19-hundred people and found that those who drank more tea had at least a 28 percent lower death rate after a heart attack than patients who do not drink tea. Experts believe that it is because tea contains antioxidants that can improve health.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/08/02 (:40) mentioned the American Environmental safety institute filed a lawsuit they hope will force chocolate companies to lower the lead levels or at least put warnings on labels that say: “contains lead and could be dangerous for your health.” The Attorney General’s office says the chocolate companies are doing everything they can to reduce the lead to the lowest level possible.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/09/02 (:40) reported that the university of Texas Southwestern Medical Center conducted a study that says that exercise is the best way to turn back the biological clock. The study was initiated back in the sixties with five very athletic 20-year-old male college students. Researchers put students through a series of experiments then recently put them through more tests. Many of them were now out of shape but were able to regain the type of fitness they had when they started after a tough exercise regiment.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/09/02 (:40) said that new surgery may offer an alternative to Lasik for some patients who want to improve their vision. The new operation is called C-K, Conductive Keratoplasty and it’s supposed to give the same results as Lasik without slicing the surface of the cornea. However recovering from C-K takes longer. Candidates for the surgery are people with low to moderate far sightedness and older patients who are prone to having dry eyes.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/13/02 (:40) mentioned a new study says that over-cleanliness can be bad for children. Britain’s national eczema society says the number of children with dry skin disease is increasing because of the growing use of soaps. Harsh cleanliness can make the condition worse for people with a family history of eczema. Those with sensitive skin should avoid strong soaps and use moisturizers.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/16/02 (:30) said that the Food and Drug Administration approved a new procedure that eliminates some of the dangers of using radiation treatment after most lumpectomy surgeries. Radiation is used to kill cancer cells that may be left behind but it requires weeks of treatment and may damage healthy tissue. The new mammosite procedure works faster with fewer risks. It is not widely available yet but more hospitals will have it soon. USC Norris Cancer Center in Los Angeles was involved in the clinical trial and is the first hospital in the area to offer mammosite. More information is available on our website www.nbc4.tv. You can look for the keyword mammosite in newslinks.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/17/02 (:40) reported six people in Yonkers New York became sick from a mysterious illness. Officials had to evacuate an entire apartment building. Two people were in critical condition. Investigators think some sort of chemical poisoning in some food that made them ill but they are not sure what the chemical was.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/20/02 (:40) reported experts said that nearly one in ten adults is suffering from depression but half of them are not aware that they are. The US preventive services task force asked physicians to check more patients for depression.

Women with a family history of depression, the unemployed, and people with chronic illness are most at risk.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/21/02 (:40) mentioned that the high cost of prescription medicines has lead a growing number of patients to get their drug across the border. Thousands of Americans, especially seniors, are filling their prescriptions in Canada because they get the same medicines made in the US for half the price. Some say they are saving thousands of dollars a year. Many Canadian pharmacies have developed websites so that people can mail order. It is legal as long as you have a valid prescription.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/21/02 (:40) said that the Food and Drug Administration has approved a new vaccine that prevents ear infections on infants. The vaccine is called Prev-Nar and it is also designed to guard against meningitis pneumonia and bacterial infections of the blood. Prev-Nar is delivered in a series of shots that can be administered after the infant is two months.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/22/02 (:40) reported a hunger hormone called Gherlin can increase while a person is on a diet and make it difficult to stick to the diet. Those who undergo gastric bypass surgery produce less of the hormone and therefore experience less hunger. Researchers in Washington State conducted the study. The New England Journal of Medicine published the study.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/23/02 (:40) mentioned that federal health officials seized a huge shipment of jelly candies that have been known to cause children to choke. After months of trying to remove the candy from the stores they found them in an Irwindale warehouse. The candies are responsible for the choking of six kids in the United States and a dozen others worldwide.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/28/02 (:40) reported that the government just approved botox to relax wrinkles and a university of Pittsburgh study has used it to relax over-active bladders. The university found that over half of the fifty patients tested gained better bladder control after a week of botox injections. Botox helps paralyze the over active muscles linked to bladder control. The study will be published soon.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/30/02 (:30) reported the Starbright Organization developed a new CD-ROM game called "Quest for the Code" to help children manage their asthma. The game takes kids on a daring adventure and teaches them to manage their asthma in the process. The CD-ROM is only for PC and it is free to kids with asthma and their families. Celebrities like Minnie Driver and Shaquille O'Neal lent their voices to the characters in the game.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/30/02 (:40) said that California is the "snake-bite capital of the country" and local officials fear that this summer's rash of snake bites may drain the anti-venom supply.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/30/02 (:40) mentioned that the Daniel Freeman Marina Hospital will shut down by August. Meanwhile LA County officials say the closure will place an added strain on the remaining 80 hospital emergency rooms. Yet the new owners of the hospital say that there were not enough patients coming in to make the hospital successful.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/03/02 (:40) reported that a new shipment of anti-venom is coming in to address the increasing danger of rattlesnake bites in the Inland Empire. The Loma Linda University medical center had already had to borrow some anti-venom from other hospitals to treat 14 snake bite victims over the past two weeks. Production problems last March lead to the shortage and left hospitals to rely on existing supplies.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/03/02 (:40) mentioned doctors have developed a Nic-vax or nicotine vaccine to help people quit smoking. It works like the flu or measles vaccines by making smokers develop antibodies against nicotine. The antibodies latch on to the nicotine and keep it from reaching the brain. Scientists say that the vaccine is working well in rats. It is not yet ready for humans.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/03/02 (:40) said the protein diet fad may be fading as Americans invest their faith in the benefits of carbohydrates. Government researchers recently collected data on the diets of more than 10 million Americans and found that those who got more than half of their calories from carbohydrates were more likely to be in the normal weight range. Those on pure protein diets consumed more calories and got fewer vitamins and nutrients from their food than the carbohydrate eaters.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/11/02 (:40) reported a new test is showing promise as a potential means of identifying the most aggressive cases of prostate cancer. The test measures the ratio between two key compounds in prostate samples, an enzyme called cathepsin B and another called stefins. Researchers measured the ration of the compounds in patients with tumors of similar size and shape. They found those with the highest levels of cathepsin B had the most aggressive forms of the disease. The current standard grading system for prostate cancer is the gleason grading system, which gives tumors a score between two microscopic appearance.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/12/02 (:40) reported new research is supporting the benefits of beta blockers for heart by-pass patients. A Duke University study reportedly shows that if they're used before or during by-pass surgery they reduce the risk of neurological complications like stroke and coma by more than 15 percent. They block hormones and reduce heart rate and blood pressure.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/12/02 (:40) said a new antibiotic ointment can reduce the risk of potentially deadly staph infections in half. Four thousand patients underwent clinical trials conducted by John Hopkins Center for Infections Diseases and the University of Iowa. Half the patients were given the nasal ointment and the other half

A FBI agent in Arizona sent a memo to headquarters in Washington where he expressed suspicions about several Arab men who were seeking information about airport operations, security and pilot training. He recommended the agency look closely at Middle Easterners who were seeking VISAS to train at US flight schools.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/03/02(:40) reported 14 planes and two terminals were evacuated today at the Cleveland airport after a passenger bag sent off the alarm on a screening device. When security personnel noticed the alarm had gone off, the luggage and passenger were gone. For security reasons, hundreds of travelers were scanned again and many of them had to wait outside the terminals to go through the process. Airport officials say the screen machine had given false alarms before but they could not take any chances. No device has been found so far.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/03/02(:40) mentioned eight workers at LAX have been fired as part of a nationwide crackdown on illegal airport workers. Investigators say the eight had criminal convictions and lied on their applications. They had been convicted for gun possession and drug problems. Their jobs ranged from baggage handlers to maintenance workers and they all had access to planes.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/03/02(:40) reported students were evacuated from Inglewood High School today because of possible explosive found on campus. Late this afternoon authorities thought they found a second pipe bomb. The students were taken out to an athletic field this morning. There are reports that students threw a pipebomb on the roof of one of the school buildings. The sheriff's bomb squad reportedly detonated what was called a smoking device. A student was detained and authorities were reportedly going to search that student's home for more explosives. L.A. County Fire looked into a possible second device but say nothing was found.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/07/02(:40) informed that the FBI is looking for a college student connected with numerous mailbox bombings. The student's name is John Helder and he is 21 years old. He is not a suspect, rather the FBI wants him for questioning. Pipe bombs have been found in mailboxes from Colorado to Illinois. The last one was discovered yesterday in Amarillo, Texas.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/10/02(:40) reported mailbox bomber is in Iowa waiting to make his first appearance in federal court. The 21 year old college student was flown to Cedar Rapids. The FBI says Helder planted 18 pipe bombs in five states. Six exploded injuring four postal carriers and two residents. Helder could be sentenced to life in prison if convicted.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/16/02(:40) said members of congress called for an investigation about what the White House was told before September 11. Officials say President Bush was warned that Osama Bin Laden's terror network might try to hijack US planes among other threats. But there was no indication airliners might be turned into missiles on a suicide mission. Lawmakers want a congressional investigation of a memo sent to the FBI in July questioning the number of Middle Eastern men enrolled in jet flight schools. None of the men turned out to be terrorists though. They want to know more about the arrest of terrorist Zacarias Moussaoui a month before the attacks.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/17/02(:40) reported Taliban Leader Mullah Omar is alive and being quoted in a London based Arabic newspaper. Omar reportedly says Osama Bin Laden is still alive and that US led troops in Afghanistan will suffer a devastating defeat. The article was based on a recorded interview that was verified by a former Taliban official.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/17/02(:40) said President Bush talked about pre September 11 warnings given to the White House about a possible terrorist attack on the United States. He assured the public that had he known terrorist would use airplanes to kill, he would have done everything in his power to protect the American people. Democrats and some republicans feel the president should have publicized the information they received.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/20/02(:40) said people in Orlando Florida were warned about a threat to their water supply. Water treatment plants increased security. A spokesperson for the city's utility commission says the threat was vague and officials do not believe anyone has tampered with the water facilities. The FBI is also investigating.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/21/02(:40) said the justice department plans to give lie detector tests to Anthrax storage facility workers at two key facilities. One of the two places where the deadly bacteria are stored is in Fort Detrick in Maryland. The other is in Dugway Proving Ground in Utah. The tests are aimed at identifying suspects in last year's Anthrax letter attacks. Investigators do not have a particular suspect in mind. They hope the lie detector tests will narrow down the field.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/21/02(:40) said the nation's terrorist warning remains on "yellow alert" or the third highest of the five stages. Tom Ridge in Washington says the releases of the latest warnings are more informational and people should not be too alarmed. The Attorney General would raise the level of awareness if he receives credible, corroborated information. Meanwhile Bush is fending off questions about whether it properly handles warnings of possible terrorist attacks last summer.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/21/02(:40) reported airline pilots asked to carry guns in the cockpit and were denied. Secretary of Transportation says airline security is the job of Air Marshals not pilots. Magaw says pilots need to concentrate on flying the plane and safely landing them in case of emergency.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/22/02(:30) mentioned Michigan will test out new luggage scanners at the airport in Grand Rapids. Gerald R. Ford International is one of five test markets. The scanners were installed in the airport's lobby late Tuesday night and will be assembled over the next couple of days. By mid June all airport luggage will go through the machines. They are not expected to cause delays but people say they would not mind if they did as long as the devices provide added security.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/22/02(:40) reported Florida researchers say they have developed a much faster and safer way to detect Anthrax in suspicious powders and on surfaces. They say their technique cuts the detection time from three to four days to six hours. The method also makes Anthrax spores harmless to handle without destroying the DNA needed to identify the germ. It detects less than 10 Anthrax spores per sample and may even detect as few as one or two spores.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/23/02(:40) reported federal prosecutors said Richard Reid, the alleged shoe-bomber, wanted to blow up an airplane to hurt the US economy. Reid was arrested last December after he allegedly tried to ignite explosives in his shoes during a Trans-continental flight. The government says Reid set his sights on an American target after the US began bombing the Taliban in Afghanistan.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/23/02(:40) said the LAPD issued a list of guidelines for Southland living in apartments to help fight against terrorism. Federal officials learned about a possible plot to blow up high rise buildings. They were also informed that a terrorist may rent out apartments only to rig them with explosives. The LAPD warns apartment owners to be cautious of tenants with little or no recent rental history, people with unusual items, people who make unusual requests, and use their apartment for unusual activities.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/30/02(:40) reported the Justice Department granted the FBI the authority to keep track of Internet activity at some locations. It gives agents more leeway in domestic spying almost anywhere that people congregate publicly, including cyberspace. Critics are complaining and posting protests all over the Internet. Supporters say it's necessary to help fight the terrorist attack.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/31/02 (:40) said the U.S. State Department is urging Americans in India to get out and those who plan to travel to that region to change their plans. Tensions are spiraling between India and Pakistan. Kashmir is the flashpoint of the conflict between India and Pakistan. Today the state department stopped short of ordering an evacuation of all Americans from the region. An estimated 60,000 Americans live in the region.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/03/02(:40) mentioned officials are concerned about the spy thriller "Sum of all Fears" because it may increase anxiety about homeland security. They say the Tom Clancy novel-turned-weekend bob office hit, will amplify the public's fear of a possible nuclear attack. Meanwhile US customs experts showed off bomb and radiation detection devices and other ant-terror technology at a demonstration in Washington, DC.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/06/02(:40) said FBI whistleblower Coleen Rowley told senators that more could have been done to prevent the September 11 attacks. She testified before the senate judiciary committee and said the FBI is weighed-down by paperwork, bureaucracy, and a culture that discourages risk-taking. The committee also heard testimony that it could take two or three years to bring FBI computer systems up to speed. Rowley is a FBI lawyer in the Minneapolis office who has emerged as a chief critic of the FBI.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/07/02(:40) reported president Bush says his homeland security plan will help with the war on terror though it does not sit well with some. The president admitted his plan could cause "Turf Battles" but he tried to prevent that by sending homeland security director Tom Ridge to testify before congress. The new department would inherit 169-thousand employees from the secret service, the coast guard, the INS, and the customs service.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/10/02(:40) reported a possible Al Queda terrorist plot has been unraveled. A US citizen suspected of training with Americans enemies is in custody. Jose Padilla is also known as Abdullah Al Mu-Hajir and is a former Chicago street gang member who converted to Islam. He is suspected of plotting to set off a nuclear bomb in a major US city, possibly the nation's capitol.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/11/02(:40) said people who lost loved ones in the September 11 terrorist attacks are calling for an independent commission to investigate failures by intelligence agencies. Family members rallied on Capitol Hill and are demanding to know how terrorists got away with their plot. Julie Sweeney's husband was on the plane that slammed into the second world trade tower. Lawmakers say there is not enough support to order an independent investigation.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/11/02(:30) said an Orange county company came up with new technology that is supposed to enhance homeland security measures. "Hi Energy" technologies in Irvine gave a demonstration. Company officials say they developed the first device capable of analyzing the exact chemical composition of a substance by remote control.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/13/02(:30) said the New Jersey postal facility that processed four Anthrax-tainted letters last year will not reopen until next year. The Hamilton Facility has been closed since October while clean-up work could begin this fall. Officials say they are not sure how many jobs will be reinstated when the facility reopens.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/13/02(:40) said suspected September 11 terror conspirator Zacarias Moussaoui will be allowed to represent himself in court. A federal judge in Virginia ruled that Moussaoui is capable of defending himself. Moussaoui holds a master's degree. His court appointed attorneys disagree that he can defend himself. Government prosecutors say they do not mind if Moussaoui represents himself but they say his court-appointed attorneys should remain on the case, as well. Moussaoui could face the death penalty if he is convicted.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/14/02(:40) reported lawyers for the American Taliban, John Walker Lindh, are trying to get some statements he made in Afghanistan barred from his trial in America. Lindh's lawyers say US authorities in Afghanistan did not advise him of his rights and ignored his pleas for a lawyer. The US acknowledges that it based Lindh's indictment mostly on the statements he made last December. Prosecutors could be significantly set back if Lindh's lawyers get their way. Lindh is charged with conspiring to murder Americans and aiding the Taliban and Al-Qaida.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/14/02(:40) mentioned the FBI thinks the Anthrax mailed to politicians and media outlets could have been from the Fort Detrick Army Laboratory in Maryland. Investigators say someone may have used the lab to grow the bacteria and then further refined it at home. But a US law enforcement official says that is just one of many possibilities.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/14/02(1:00) reported a deadly incident at a local business in San Dimas involving an incendiary device. A LA County Fire spokesman says they were called to the scene but were held back by deputies who said it was too dangerous for fire crews to enter the business. After deputies cleared the scene, one man was dead. Two people were sent to hospitals with critical stab wounds and two others were hospitalized with critical burns. Six deputies had to be decontaminated at the scene. Then they were sent to hospitals. No one knows what caused the violence.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/17/02(:40) said a federal judge in Alexandria Virginia refused to dismiss charges against American Taliban John Walker Lindh because he disagreed with his lawyers that Lindh had a constitutional right to associate with the Taliban. Lindh's lawyers had asked the judge to throw out the case. But the judge's decision now clears the way for the government to proceed with prosecuting Lindh on charges he conspired o murder Americans.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/18/02(:40) mentioned justice department officials are trying to reduce the risk of possible terrorist attacks at chemical, water and waste treatment plants. A facility in Connecticut had a scare last month, as there was a report of suspicious activity that turned out to be a group of students testing a new video camera. But the government is taking the possible threat to he facilities very seriously and has put in action a new plan to asset and deal with threats. Some environmentalists insist that the best pan is for the government to beef up safety around these facilities.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/18/02(:40) reported federal and local investigators are checking out reports that a ship carrying Al Qaeda terrorists may be headed for Los Angeles. The Washington Times quoted a FBI intelligence report that says 35 to 40 Al Qaeda terrorists may be on their way abroad a Middle Eastern freighter to carry on an attack on southern California. The plan involved unloading the terrorists and their weapons near Catalina Island. So far investigators have not confirmed he plot with evidence. One FBI agent told the Washington Times quote "there's a much greatly reduced concern based on the investigation and interviews." But investigators are not ready to dismiss the threat.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/20/02 (:40) informed that Homeland Security Director, Tim Ridge, spent the day lobbying on Capitol Hill for the new cabinet post covering "Domestic Terrorism." Ridge told lawmakers the new plan is an urgent priority and the Bush administration has already begun planning the transition. Some took it as a sign just how sure the president is. The first immediate challenge: the FBI wants field offices around the country to come up with heightened security operations for July 4 – after intelligence reports suggested Independence Day celebrations could be targets of attack.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/21/02 (:40) said the FBI is telling local law enforcement agencies across the country to keep an eye on fuel tankers for the possibility of a terrorist attack. Investigators fear terrorists might try to use the tankers to attack Jewish schools and synagogues. Today FBI director Robert Mueller would not comment on this latest threat. Federal investigators say they will also be on alert during the upcoming July 4 weekend. This comes after a Las Vegas businessman said he overheard a cell phone conversation in Arabic allegedly plotting to attack that city.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/24/02 (:40) informed that the operators of Nuke Pill Dot Com say sales of potassium iodide are increasing rapidly. Hundreds of thousands of people, afraid of a nuclear attack, are adding anti-radiation pills to their medicine chests. They say people are afraid of nuclear attack especially with July 4 approaching. Potassium Iodide is approved by the FDA. The government has ordered thousands of caseloads of the so-called nuclear pill.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/26/02 (:40) mentioned concern about the possibility of another terrorist attack on the nation's capitol is prompting police to stockpile protective masks. Capitol police have ordered some 20,000 escape hoods. They will be placed in all congressional offices. The hoods will filter the air to protect against anthrax or chemical agents such as Sarin gas. But they do not provide oxygen and they won't protect against radioactive agents. The hoods provide from two minutes to one hour's worth of protection.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/26/02 (:40) said that with the July 4 fast approaching the Consumer Products Safety Commission and government officials are warning about the dangers involved in using fireworks by using a series of demonstrations. Adults are cautioned not to allow children to handle fireworks and to follow all instructions...laws and regulations dealing with fireworks.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/26/02 (:40) reported federal investigators are hoping a man who roomed with two of the September 11 hijackers may be able to shed more light on the terrorist plot. FBI and CIA agents swooped down on a Maryland suburb on Monday and arrested Rasmi Al-Sha-Knock. He was taken into custody for allegedly overstaying his visa. Officials say the 27-year-old Jordan national lived with two of the hijackers on board the American Airlines jet that crashed into the pentagon.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/27/02 (:40) mentioned the government is confirming this afternoon that Al-Qaeda has launched cyber attacks against the U.S. U.S. officials say the terrorist organization has tried to hack into the computer systems that control hydroelectric dams, nuclear power plants, and transportation systems. The federal government is at work putting up defenses, saying the results of a cyber attack could be catastrophic.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/27/02 (:40) said that airport workers are being warned tonight about guns that may be disguised as cell phones. Warnings have been floating through the Internet before September 11. The phones can fire four 22-caliber bullets. The weapons have been confiscated at airports in Holland and Slovenia. Though they haven't been found in the United States, U.S. agents did recently seize a shipment of cell phone guns in Columbia.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/28/02 (:40) reported the FBI has a warning tonight for Seattle. Investigators believe Islamic terrorists consider that city an easy target for attack. The top FBI agents in the city say Seattle gets more terror threats than other parts of the country. Agent Charles Mandigo also says the FBI is conducting a significant number of terror-related investigations in the area. He also adds there are people in the Northwest who are willing to help international terrorists.

XIX. SCIENCE/TECHNOLOGY

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/17/02(:40) said our solar system is putting on a spectacular display this spring – the five brightest planets all bunched together in the evening sky. The planets form a line in the western sky beginning with Mercury near the horizon, then Venus, Mars, Saturn, Jupiter and the crescent moon. The last time the planets lined up this way was in 1940. And it won't happen again until 2040. They should all be visible even with the glare of our city lights.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/25/02 (:40) mentioned there are cloning concerns in Italy. Three women are pregnant with what could be the world's first human clone. Severino Antinori, an Italian fertility specialist made the announcement today. He says the pregnancies are six to nine weeks along. Two of the expectant mothers are in the former Soviet Union and the third is in an unnamed Islamic state.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/02/02(:40) reported researchers may have found what they believe is the world's oldest complete fossilized flower. Experts at the University of Florida are studying the find. They believe the fossil is 125 million years old. Scientist think this ancient flower grew underwater but popped its head above water to spread its seeds. This fossil may be an important key to the evolution of modern flowers.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/17/02 (:40) mentioned that new technology is helping scientist study the formation and dynamics of tornadoes – from inside funnel clouds. Colorado engineer Tim Samaras designed the cone-shaped devices to be sucked up inside the tornado where they record everything from wind speed to barometric pressure. Placing these probes in the path of an oncoming tornado is dangerous but scientists say it's worth the risk because it will help them better understand and predict tornado behavior.

XX. TRAVEL & TRANSPORTATION

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/04/02 (:40) mentioned that Frontier Airlines announced the suspension of a pilot who flew a 737 too close to the White House. It happened on Monday. The Frontier jet departed from Reagan National Airport just outside Washington D.C with 63 passengers and crew on board. The jet entered restricted airspace near the White House and was quickly diverted by air traffic controllers. It later landed in Denver without incident.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/09/02 (:40) followed up on a story about a plane that disappeared over the weekend. Three teenagers and a pilot were reported still missing. The teens and their pilot had left Saturday on a sightseeing trip to Sequoia National Park. It was believed that the group was headed to Moro Rock in a Piper Cherokee. But investigators are not sure because no one filed a flight plan.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/12/02 (:40) reported a state assembly is considering a measure to expand the number of rural communities that are eligible for road information signs. They are currently only for cities with five thousand or fewer residents. But the new measure would allow cities of up to 15 thousand buy cal trains highway signs. Small communities love it but billboard companies say it will hurt them. The measure goes to the Assembly Appropriations Committee later this month.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/12/02 (:40) said an Alameda Corridor Rail Line opened up in Long Beach. Dignitaries called the project one of the most successful public works endeavors in recent memory. Governor Davis hailed it as a source of 700-thousand jobs in five years. The corridor runs 20 miles, below the street level, allowing trains to take cargo from the ports on Long Beach and Los Angeles to downtown LA. It does not tie up surface transportation and the trains can go a lot faster than those on surface lines.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/16/02 (:40) reported a Japanese company has developed a bicycle vending machine to address the lack of parking space responsible for its notorious traffic. People put their credit card through and take a bicycle. When they are done they can return the bicycle to the vending machine where it is stored back in a rack. It costs about a dollar and a half a day to rent a bicycle. That is a lot less than a parking space in downtown Tokyo.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/22/02 (:40) reported a private railroad in the Southland is about to come under public ownership. The Orange County Transportation Authority voted to buy 91 freeway express lanes for 208 million dollars. The toll lanes run between LA, Orange, and Riverside Counties. They were meant to ease the traffic congestion but critics said they were not succeeding. Transit Officials plan to adjust the tolls and get more people to use the lanes.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/29/02 (:40) mentioned that the first ever tire safety week was launched by the National Highway Safety Administration and AAA Auto Club. A survey by The Rubber Association revealed that a large number of drivers do not know how to tell if their tires are bad. A useful trick is to place a penny in the groove and if the Lincoln head is visible get new tires.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 4/30/02 (:40) mentioned a new survey on travel trends revealed only a five percent drop in leisure travel in the past twelve months. Experts say Americans are still traveling despite the September 11th terrorist attacks. Trips to New York City are up nine percent over last year's survey. Also, more grandparents are taking their grandchildren to vacation spots these days. And there is a 28 percent increase in the number of travelers using the Internet to buy tickets.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/01/02 (:40) said tourism is rebounding in California because of a commercial. Those in the travel industry believe that a commercial featuring Jack Nicholson launched last year after the September 11 incident to revive a sluggish tourism industry. It was part of a 12 million dollar advertising campaign called "California, find yourself here." The campaign has apparently worked and the state is expected to collect about 27 billion in tourism dollars this year.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/02/02 (:40) reported the finding of a treasure trove of documents and blue prints for the nearby Newark International Airport. They were found in a trash container and investigators say they detail every corner and wire that went into the latest expansion at the airport. The Airlines say proper procedure was used and the documents were sent to an incinerator. However the port authority is still launching an investigation.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/16/02 (:40) mentioned Americans are planning to go at least 50 miles from home on memorial weekend. According to AAA that figure is up slightly from last year. Yet air travels continue to lag. About four million people are expected to fly next weekend but that's seven percent lower than last year. However more than 29 million Americans are expected to drive to destinations.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/17/02 (:40) mentioned a new census report on traffic jams suggest they have become a daily irritation for commuters in Los Angeles County. In 1990 the average one-way commute was about 26-and-a half minutes. It is now up to nearly 29-and-a half minutes. Today commuters spend around ten full days a year on the road.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/17/02 (:40) said the president, David Gunn, of Amtrak says the rail system is out of money and needs new funding before it has to shut down next month. It needs a 200 million-dollar loan within the next few weeks. The president hopes to use collateral money the company expected to get from the federal government in the new fiscal year, which starts in October. Amtrak officials are hopeful and passengers holding reservations for July and beyond should hold on to them.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 5/16/02 (:40) reported the new 101 freeway overpass near the metro red line subway station in Universal City. The overpass features a pedestrian walkway, on and off ramps to the 101 freeway. The project was open to the public during the afternoon. It cost over 34-and-a-half million dollars.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/11/02 (:40) reported the National Transportation safety board blamed bad decisions and miscommunication for the deadly crash of a chartered jet in aspen last year. Fifteen passengers took off from Los Angeles to celebrate a friend's birthday and their plane crashed on approach, killing everyone onboard. Investigators concluded the pilot flew in too low and should have aborted the landing when he lost sight of the runway. Investigators say the passenger who chartered the plane pressured the pilot to avoid diverting to another airport. Also, an FAA warning against night-time instrument landing at Aspen never reached Aspen's air traffic control.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/18/02 (:40) reported the Forest Service is investigating the deadly crash of a fire-fighting air tanker near Yosemite yesterday. Investigators want to know what went wrong with the plane. The pilot was Steven of Nevada and the co-pilot was Craig Labare of Loomis. The crewmember was Michael Davis of Bakersfield.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/27/02 (:40) said two new high-tech commuter lanes are easing congestion this afternoon along the US/Canada border. This is welcome news to retail outlets along the border. They have seen a 20 percent drop in business since September 11. Drivers use a special card to get into the lanes which cuts a two-hour border crossing down to just a few minutes. But to get the card, you have to be fingerprinted, pass a 30-minute interview and submit to a background check.

CHANNEL 4 NEWS, 4:00-5:00PM, 6/28/02 (:40) mentioned the cost to cross the famous Golden Gate Bridge is going up – as much as $2. Right now it costs $3 to drive across. Today the Bridge District Board voted to jack up the price to $5, and $4 for electronic toll collections. The price increase will be felt on Monday when fares on buses and ferries go up. The charge is still only one-way, the return is free.
