

| Issues of importance for the communities of KVPR/KPRX including the following*: |          |          |          |                                                |                     |                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------|----------|----------|------------------------------------------------|---------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                                 |          |          |          | Agriculture                                    |                     |                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|                                                                                 |          |          |          | Arts & Culture                                 |                     |                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|                                                                                 |          |          |          | Business & Economy                             |                     |                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|                                                                                 |          |          |          | Crime & Punishment                             |                     |                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|                                                                                 |          |          |          | Education                                      |                     |                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|                                                                                 |          |          |          | Environmental                                  |                     |                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|                                                                                 |          |          |          | Government & Politics                          |                     |                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|                                                                                 |          |          |          | Health/Healthcare                              |                     |                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|                                                                                 |          |          |          | Homelessness                                   |                     |                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|                                                                                 |          |          |          | Housing                                        |                     |                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|                                                                                 |          |          |          | Immigration                                    |                     |                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|                                                                                 |          |          |          | LGBTQ (concerns/rights)                        |                     |                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|                                                                                 |          |          |          | Labor                                          |                     |                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|                                                                                 |          |          |          | Parks & Recreation                             |                     |                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Date                                                                            | Duration | Times AM | Times PM | Issues                                         | Reporter(s)         | Title                                                                                            | Narrative                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 4/3/2023                                                                        | 4:11     | 7:45     | -        | Environmental, Housing, Immigration            | Esther Quintanilla  | 'I want to have peace again.' Two families – 100 miles apart – face off with California's floods | Valley have suffered extreme flooding since the start of the year. Recovery will be an arduous process, especially for undocumented residents who are rarely California's snowpack to levels not seen in decades, busting records and potentially causing big problems for communities downstream. |
| 4/3/2023                                                                        | 1:21     | -        | 6:04     | Environmental, Science                         | Joshua Yeager       | After driest years on record, California now has highest snowpack in decades                     | The Tule River Indian Reservation in the eastern foothills of the Sequoia National Forest suffered severe flooding in early March.                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 4/5/2023                                                                        | 1:16     | -        | 6:04     | Environmental, Minorities, Housing             | Esther Quintanilla  | Tule River Indian Reservation recovering after storms disrupt infrastructure                     | into the Tulare Lake basin in the coming months, the return of this lost lake is reviving a battle of man vs. nature in the San Joaquin Valley.                                                                                                                                                    |
| 4/6/2023                                                                        | 4:02     | -        | 6:04     | Environmental, Community                       | Soreath Hok         | 'It's got a memory.' Tulare Lake's return tests human changes to the land                        | end up in the southern San Joaquin Valley, but now, water from the growing Tulare Lake is threatening to flood the Kings County operation.                                                                                                                                                         |
| 4/7/2023                                                                        | 1:10     | 7:45     | -        | Environmental, Agriculture, Business & Economy | Joshua Yeager       | Compost facility holding human waste in cross hairs of Tulare Lake flooding                      | kicked off an apprenticeship program for aspiring steam train conductors and engineers, which they believe is one of the few of its kind in the country.                                                                                                                                           |
| 4/10/2023                                                                       | 1:14     | -        | 6:04     | Agriculture, Transportation, Education         | Kerry Klein         | All aboard! Reedley farm kicks off steam train apprenticeship program                            | The process to rename Fresno streets to honor civil rights leader Cesar Chavez led to a contentious discussion among Fresno County Board of Supervisors.                                                                                                                                           |
| 4/11/2023                                                                       | 1:21     | -        | 6:04     | Government & Politics, Minorities, Community   | Soreath Hok         | Fresno County supervisors vote against 'Cesar Chavez' corridor name change                       | for flooding from a historic snowpack, residents in Fresno and Clovis shouldn't have much to worry about, according to the region's top flood operator.                                                                                                                                            |
| 4/14/2023                                                                       | 1:03     | -        | 6:04     | Environmental, Government & Politics           | Gregory Weaver      | Will the biggest snowpack since 1895 flood Fresno this spring? Not likely.                       | The Comcast Corporation today announced a significant investment for one of Merced County's rural communities.                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 4/17/2023                                                                       | 1:00     | -        | 6:04     | Technology, Environmental, Community           | Esther Quintanilla  | Comcast makes $4.5 million digital investment for flood-damaged town of Planada                 | The American Lung Association released its annual air quality report this week.                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 4/19/2023                                                                       | 1:04     | 7:45     | -        | Health, Environmental, Energy                  | Esther Quintanilla  | Bakersfield, Visalia tie for most year-round particle pollution, Lung Association says           | manure contamination in Tulare Lake floodwater, water experts say waste from dairies is no more of a problem than other contaminants like human waste and                                                                                                                                          |
| 4/19/2023                                                                       | 1:16     | -        | 6:04     | Agriculture, Environmental                     | Kerry Klein         | Waste from dairies among Tulare Lake contaminants, say water experts                             | The concerns at Kern Medical are the latest in a series of hospital issues in the San Joaquin Valley.                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 4/20/2023                                                                       | 1:11     | 7:45     | -        | Healthcare, Labor                              | Joshua Yeager       | Kern Medical workers protest staffing shortages, finances at Bakersfield hospital                | Audacious Project, scientists at UC Davis, UC Berkeley and UC San Francisco are using the Nobel-Prize-winning gene editing tool known as CRISPR to attempt to reduce                                                                                                                               |
| 4/21/2023                                                                       | 1:22     | -        | 6:04     | Technology, Science, Agriculture               | Kerry Klein         | Scientists turn to Nobel Prize-winning gene editing tool to reduce dairy methane emissions       | Gov. Gavin Newsom visited the southern San Joaquin Valley Tuesday, April 25, 2023, to survey flooding around Tulare Lake.                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 4/24/2023                                                                       | 1:00     | -        | 6:04     | Environmental, Science                         | Elizabeth Arakelian | This is the week California's 'big melt' begins to accelerate                                    | Fresno residents rallied Thursday morning at the steps of city hall to call attention to high rents.                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 4/27/2023                                                                       | 1:05     | -        | 6:04     | Housing, Government & Politics                 | Esther Quintanilla  | Fresno residents call for rent control to address high housing costs                             | An LGBTQ-friendly congregation in Fresno held a candlelight vigil Sunday after it was believed to be targeted by members of a far-right organization.                                                                                                                                              |
| 5/2/2023                                                                        | 1:06     | -        | 6:04     | LGBTQ Rights, Violence, Religion               | Esther Quintanilla  | LGBTQ-friendly church in Fresno holds vigil after vandalism                                      | downtown Fresno recently announced a merger with the historic Speakeasy Ales and Lagers in San Francisco. The company now claims to be the largest Black-owned                                                                                                                                     |
| 5/3/2023                                                                        | 4:16     | -        | 6:04     | Minorities, Business & Economy                 | Esther Quintanilla  | A Fresno brewing company is now part of the largest Black-owned brewery in the country           | The "Distressed Hospital Loan Program" would make $150 million in state funds available to help struggling hospitals.                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 5/5/2023                                                                        | 1:06     | -        | 6:04     | Politics & Government, Healthcare              | Soreath Hok         | California legislators approve bill that could help reopen Madera Community Hospital             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |

VALLEY PUBLIC RADIO (KVPR/KPRX) - Issues Report Q2 2023
 Reports produced locally airing Mon. - Fri. and featured on KVPR.org

|           |      |       |      |                                                |                             |                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|-----------|------|-------|------|------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 5/8/2023  | 5:51 | 11:52 | -    | Environmental, Agriculture, Business & Economy | Kerry Klein                 | Water Whiplash: What the 'Big Melt' has revealed about the Valley's flood response          | flows out of the Sierra Nevada, rising floodwaters have revealed that flood protection in the San Joaquin Valley is patchy at best.                                                                       |
| 5/8/2023  | 1:00 | -     | 6:04 | Government & Politics, Community               | Soreath Hok                 | H. Spees, long-time advocate for Fresno and pastor, dies                                    | "H spent a lifetime helping people in their time of need," Fresno Mayor Jerry Dyer said.                                                                                                                  |
| 5/9/2023  | 1:10 | -     | 6:04 | Education, Sports                              | Cresencio Rodriguez-Delgado | Fresno State campaign aims to attract support for athletic upgrades                         | Fresno State has announced a new campaign aimed at attracting support for major athletic projects.                                                                                                        |
| 5/10/2023 | 5:45 | -     | 6:04 | Environmental, Agriculture, Community          | Kerry Klein                 | Water Whiplash: The historic community in the path of resurging Tulare Lake                 | Most of the San Joaquin Valley land inundated by Tulare Lake has been cultivated farmland. But homes are at stake too, as the water rises around them.                                                    |
| 5/11/2023 | 1:20 | -     | 6:04 | Healthcare, Minorities, Community              | Esther Quintanilla          | Survey shows impact on community from closed Madera Community Hospital                      | Community hospital in January left healthcare gaps for thousands of residents. Now a new survey quantifies just how significant the closure has been.                                                     |
| 5/12/2023 | 1:12 | 7:45  | -    | Homelessness, Youth, Government & Politics     | Joshua Yeager               | Bakersfield, big-city mayors to lobby Gov. Newsom in push to fix homelessness crisis        | Newsom in a push to fix the state's homelessness crisis. Meanwhile, new funding is already helping some of the most vulnerable in Bakersfield.                                                            |
| 5/12/2023 | 1:08 | -     | 6:04 | Crime & Punishment, Environmental              | Kerry Klein                 | Despite state investment in Corcoran levee, concerns remain for incarcerated population     | Gov. Gavin Newsom pledged to help pay for raising the Corcoran levee. However, an extra four feet is little consolation to families of the incarcerated.                                                  |
| 5/16/2023 | 4:02 | -     | 6:04 | Homelessness, Government & Politics            | Soreath Hok                 | Fresno County struggles to find permanent home for state-issued trailers meant for homeless | Fresno County is still working out a plan to utilize travel trailers initially meant to be used as shelter for the county's unsheltered population.                                                       |
| 5/17/2023 | 3:44 | -     | 6:04 | Parks & Recreation, Environmental              | Joshua Yeager               | Whitewater rafting is roaring back to life in California after years of drought             | Down the Sierra Nevada mountains has caused billions of dollars in damages to farms and communities in parts of central California. But the whitewater rafting                                            |
| 5/17/2023 | 5:36 | 11:52 | -    | Environmental, Housing                         | Kerry Klein                 | Water Whiplash: Corcoran's levee is being lifted. We've been here before                    | Construction is underway to raise the levee protecting the city of Corcoran. But it's not the first time the embankment has needed to be raised.                                                          |
| 5/18/2023 | 1:11 | -     | 6:04 | Government & Politics                          | Soreath Hok                 | Fresno mayor proposes largest budget in city history — amid projected tax revenue decrease  | A proposed $1.85 billion budget calls for major increases in spending and the possibility of a voter-approved utility rate hike.                                                                         |
| 5/19/2023 | 1:01 | 7:45  | -    | Parks & Recreation, Environmental, Safety      | Joshua Yeager               | Rushing Valley rivers have already taken people with them as Sierra snowmelt intensifies    | Two more lives over the weekend after Fresno County rescue teams pulled the remains of young siblings out of the Kings River.                                                                             |
| 5/22/2023 | 3:55 | -     | 6:04 | Homelessness, Environmental                    | Esther Quintanilla          | Unhoused woman swept up by raging Central Valley river. 'Survival instincts kicked in'      | breaking snowpack could be a ticking time bomb for the state's most vulnerable residents, especially those living in the foothills of the Sierra Nevada.                                                  |
| 5/24/2023 | 1:00 | -     | 6:04 | Agriculture, Environmental                     | Joshua Yeager               | Reduced Tulare Lake flood forecast brings little consolation to Valley farmers              | Tulare Lake is expected to peak next week at more than 100,000-acres wide. That's nearly the size of Lake Tahoe.                                                                                          |
| 5/25/2023 | 5:46 | 11:00 | -    | Parks & Recreation, Health, Environmental      | Kerry Klein                 | Water Whiplash: Extreme adventure — and danger — on rivers flowing with snowmelt            | As river flows reach historic highs, white water rafting outfitters are celebrating, but law enforcement agencies have restricted access to most riverfronts due to the extreme risk of injury and death. |
| 5/30/2023 | 1:05 | -     | 6:04 | Business & Economy, Labor                      | Esther Quintanilla          | All workers at Fresno tech company Bitwise Industries placed on furlough                    | The Fresno-based tech company Bitwise Industries has furloughed all its employees due to what its CEOs are calling "acute financial distress."                                                            |
| 6/1/2023  | 5:47 | 11:52 | -    | Agriculture, Environmental                     | Kerry Klein                 | Water Whiplash: Losses — and ironies — add up for Valley agriculture after flooding         | KVPR and 1A hosted a panel discussion featuring agricultural leaders on May 30, 2023.                                                                                                                     |
| 6/1/2023  | 1:10 | -     | 6:04 | Business & Economy, Labor, Crime               | Joshua Yeager               | The crash of Bitwise Industries is sending ripples across US cities                         | The unravelling of Fresno-based tech company Bitwise Industries after announcing it furloughed all of its staff has sent shockwaves throughout the San Joaquin Valley and beyond.                         |
| 6/2/2023  | 1:09 | -     | 6:04 | LGBTQ Rights, Violence, Community              | Esther Quintanilla          | Fresno's LGBTQ community goes 'Queer All Year' to celebrate Pride                           | As Pride Month kicks off, Fresno will celebrate this weekend in the Tower District with a festival and parade.                                                                                            |
| 6/5/2023  | 1:00 | -     | 6:04 | Business & Economy, Labor, Crime               | Esther Quintanilla          | Bitwise Industries terminates CEOs, calls for internal investigation                        | The Bitwise Industries Board of Directors issued a statement amid the company's shakeup and recently-revealed financial crisis.                                                                           |
| 6/6/2023  | 3:59 | -     | 6:04 | Minorities, Environmental, Community           | Soreath Hok                 | 'It would come back one day.' The Yokuts and Tulare Lake meet again                         | Hundreds of millions of dollars in damage to farms and communities in the region. But the return of the lake is a celebration for the Native American tribes that used to                                 |
| 6/7/2023  | 1:12 | -     | 6:04 | Business & Economy, Labor, Crime               | Esther Quintanilla          | Bitwise Industries now faces a class action lawsuit after furloughs, financial issues       | Earlier this month, Bitwise Industries shocked the community after it furloughed all of its employees nationwide. Now, workers in the Fresno area are suing.                                              |
| 6/8/2023  | 5:54 | 11:52 | -    | Environmental, Community                       | Kerry Klein                 | Water Whiplash: What can Tulare Lake's past tell us about its future?                       | A brief history of the communities and ecosystems that used to call the lake home, and the conversations that occur every time the lake reemerges.                                                        |

VALLEY PUBLIC RADIO (KVPR/KPRX) - Issues Report Q2 2023
 Reports produced locally airing Mon. - Fri. and featured on KVPR.org

|           |      |       |      |                                        |                                   |                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|-----------|------|-------|------|----------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 6/9/2023  | 1:11 | -     | 6:04 | LGBTQ Rights, Government & Politics    | Esther Quintanilla                | Pride flag rises over Fresno. 'We are not going anywhere'                                     | Rainbow stripes are flying high above Fresno from now until the end of June.                                                                                                                                                |
| 6/15/2023 | 5:50 | 11:52 | -    | Environmental, Agriculture             | Kerry Klein                       | Water Whiplash: Why some see a 'need to change' after historic water flows from Sierra Nevada | A rural advocate and columnist argues the power of water districts' weighted voting system extends far beyond water rights in the Tulare Lake Basin.                                                                        |
| 6/15/2023 | 1:08 | -     | 6:04 | Business & Economy, Labor              | Esther Quintanilla                | Dozens of employers join forces to help laid off Bitwise workers                              | Bitwise employees nationwide were officially terminated earlier this week. The city of Fresno is lending a hand to local workers.                                                                                           |
| 6/21/2023 | 4:21 | 7:45  | -    | Arts & Culture, Immigration, Education | Soreath Hok                       | A sacred piece of Southeast Asia rises in California's Central Valley                         | Fresno Chaffee Zoo's 'Kingdoms of Asia' opens with representation of Cambodian culture in Angkor Wat-inspired exhibit.                                                                                                      |
| 6/22/2023 | 5:47 | 11:52 | -    | Parks & Recreation, Environmental      | Kerry Klein                       | Water Whiplash: Why some see a 'need to change' after historic water flows from Sierra Nevada | A freelance journalist recounts some of the highlights from a recent journey kayaking 225 miles from Tulare Lake to the Sacramento-San Joaquin River delta.                                                                 |
| 6/23/2023 | 1:06 | 7:45  | -    | Health, Government & Politics          | Esther Quintanilla                | After court win, Valley group says a tax on sugary drinks would improve local health          | wants to bring a soda-tax to the region. It would place a small fee on sugar-sweetened drinks in cities that enact the measure.                                                                                             |
| 6/27/2023 | 3:49 | 3:44  | -    | Government & Politics, Transportation  | Elizabeth Arakelian               | In Studio: Fresno City Council president discusses record $1.87 billion budget               | The Fresno City Council recently passed its largest budget in city history. Departments, such as police and fire, are getting a record boost in funding and new positions are being created to fix potholes in city streets |
| 6/28/2023 | :52  | -     | 6:04 | Crime & Punishment, Labor              | Esther Quintanilla, Joshua Yeager | FBI reportedly investigating Bitwise Industries as fallout from crash continues               | repercussions after it suddenly shuttered operations last month. According to some reports, the tech company is now being investigated at the federal level.                                                                |
| 6/29/2023 | 5:31 | 11:52 | -    | Environmental, Government & Politics   | Kerry Klein                       | Water Whiplash: A 'wake up call' for two prisons near the edge of Tulare Lake                 | Why incarcerated people and their loved ones have questioned the readiness of the two state prisons in Corcoran to confront emergency flooding.                                                                             |
| 6/30/2023 | 1:00 | -     | 6:04 | Environmental, Government & Politics   | Cresencio Rodriguez-Delgado       | State agency says Tulare Lake is beginning to shrink                                          | Tulare Lake recently reached its peak in size, but new data now shows the lake is beginning to recede.                                                                                                                      |

*This list does not include all the issues responded to by the station or all the ways the station responded to those issues.