

This report is for Quarter 1, 2014

During the period, the above-listed station, has served the public interest by producing and broadcasting diverse content which addresses national, statewide, and regional issues. The following is a list . . . . .

Issues of Community Concern:

Family and Parenting
Addiction
Money Management
Drug Abuse
Marriage
Debt Management
Teen Sexuality
Estate Planning
Gender Roles

(**Delete this line, but this list is not an all-encompassing list. You may find other topics than what's listed**)

ISSUES AND PROGRAM LISTS

FOR WCLQ-FM

1st Quarter 2019

ISSUE	DATE	TIME	DURATION	DESCRIPTION
Family and Parenting	January 1, 2014	10:00am	28 minutes	On the program Focus on the Family, family counselors Gary and Erin Smalley discussed how to forge a unique family identity and how that can increase the strength and bond of the family.
Addictions	January 6, 2014	4:35pm	1.5 Minutes	On the program Real Family Life, Dr. Dennis Rainey talks about addictions and how often they're a way of deceiving ourselves. He encourages those struggling with addictions to be honest with themselves and seek out help to overcome the addiction.
Money Management	January 17, 2014	9:35am	1 Minute	On the program Hey Howard, Howard Dayton answers a listener question about how charitable giving affects taxes. He starts by reminding the listener that paying taxes is important, but that legally reducing taxes through charitable giving is actually a way to use your money better.
Drug Abuse	January 23, 2014	8:35am	1 Minute	On Parenting Today's Teens, Mark Gregston speaks on the potential for drug abuse among teens. He shares some signs for parents or others to keep an eye out for, and encourages them to have those discussions now before intervention may be needed.
Marriage	February 10, 2014	4:35pm	1.5 Minutes	On Real Family Life, Dennis Rainey talks about making marriage and romance a priority. He discusses some of the things that come between a couple in their marital relationship and makes recommendations on easy ways to rekindle the romance.
Parenting	February 24, 2014	8:35am	1 Minute	On Parenting Today's Teens, Mark Gregston asks parents if their rules for their kids make sense. He challenges them to make sure their rules fit three criteria: practical, attainable, and beneficial.

Debt Management	February 27, 2014	9:35am	1 Minute	On Hey Howard, Howard Dayton answers a listener question of how to stay out of debt when purchasing his first home, encouraging him to be generous to others while still saving money and looking for ways to earn extra income.
Teenage Sexuality	March 11, 2014	4:35pm	1.5 Minutes	On Real Family Life, Dr. Dennis Rainey talks about the choices faced by teens when it comes to their sexuality and the role that parents can play in helping to set boundaries and help their children make the best choices.
Estate Planning	March 20, 2014	9:35am	1 Minute	On Hey Howard, Howard Dayton answers a question from an elderly couple who want to leave money for their adult son when he gets out of prison. Howard, encourages them to set it up in their estate plan and find someone trustworthy they can appoint as trustee.
Gender Roles	March 26, 2014	10:00am	28 Minutes	On Focus on the Family, Craig Groeschel talks about the struggles faced by men and how they can balance their strengths while maintaining integrity in their dealings and not letting themselves be controlled by their emotional impulses.