

Quarterly Report January 1, 2008 to March 31, 2008

Story: A Celebrated Season Ends with a Tough Loss
Reporter: Liz Chun and Steve Uyehara
Date: January 1, 2008

A recap of UH's storybook season and their heartbreaking 41-10 loss to Georgia in the 2009 Sugar Bowl.

Story: McMackin named Head Football Coach for the University of Hawaii
Reporter: Liz Chun
Date: January 16, 2008

Coach Greg McMackin is appointed as the new Head Football Coach for the University of Hawaii, making him the highest paid state employee at $1.1 million and the second highest paid coach in the Western Athletic Conference (WAC).

Story: Opening Day at the Legislature
Reporter: Brooks Baehr
Date: January 16, 2008

Sustainability is the key focus of this year's state legislative session as lawmakers look to propose new ways to decrease Hawaii's energy dependency from abroad.

Story: Tracking Lost Mail
Reporter: Sabrina Hall
Date: January 16, 2008

4,200 pounds of mail were on board the plane that crashed and killed pilot Paul Okita. 45% of the mail heading to Kauai has been recovered; however it will not be distributed due to water damage and jet fuel contamination.

Story: go! Airlines reports big losses for 2007
Reporter: Keahi Tucker
Date: January 16, 2008

Mesa Air Group, the parent company of go! Airline has reported a $20 million loss for 2007. The company says that part of the loss is due to an $86.9 million legal judgment against the company. Hawaiian Airlines won that money after suing Mesa for misusing its confidential records. Mesa is appealing that decision and is disappointed with the loss; however they are optimistic for the future and are looking to stay in Hawaii for the long haul.

Story: Electronic TRO Filing
Reporter: Jim Mendoza
Date: January 24, 2008

State lawmakers are looking at possibly adding the ability to file temporary restraining orders (TRO) online in an effort to make them accessible after hours (including nights, weekends, & holidays) to those who need them. Lawmakers are considering a 3 year pilot program.

Story: Superferry Under Repair
Reporter: Lisa Kubota
Date: January 30, 2008

The Hawaii Superferry has cancelled its last few Maui trips as it undergoes repairs to fix the Ferry's auxillary rudder.
