Trump won't accept election results if he loses as Clinton expands campaign into red states: With less than 3 weeks left until Election Day, the bitter contest between Hillary Clinton and Donald Trump escalated again into sharp, personal attacks during the final presidential debate of 2016. The Republican nominee said he may not accept the results of November's election and reserves the right to file a legal challenge. Clinton is leading in battleground state polls and is expanding her campaign into traditionally Republican states, but the former secretary of state is facing her own troubles with the continuing slow-drip Wikileaks release of hacked campaign emails and allegations this week of quid pro quo between the State Department and FBI. Plus, down-ballot Republicans have distanced themselves from some of Trump's most recent comments. As Election 2016 enters the final sprint, we get an update on the state of the race.

Program Description:

Governor Mario Cuomo: Poetry and Prose is a one-hour documentary that focuses on Mario Matthew Cuomo's 12-year career as New York's 53rd Governor. The film tells the story from his famous 1982 Democratic Primary upset win over charismatic New York City Mayor Ed Koch to his shocking defeat to little-known State Senator George Pataki in 1994. In-between these two bookends, the film highlights the famous ups and downs of his tenure including his stirring keynote address from the 1984 Democratic Convention, his controversial abortion speech at Notre Dame and his near-entry into the 1992 presidential election.

Program Description: From founding father to Broadway icon, Alexander Hamilton is a remarkable figure who still captivates us today. A political genius who helped to shape our federal government. Often remembered for his life being tragically cut short in a duel with vice president Aaron Burr. Join host, Ryan Fitzpatrick as he explores Hamilton's Albany life, from marrying into the wealthy Schuyler family, to the feud that fueled the duel with Aaron Burr. This historical documentary is a look at the society and issues that informed some of his most important decisions. Shot on location at the Schuyler Mansion, home of Revolutionary War General Philip Schuyler and his family; The First Church, where the Reverend Eliphalet Nott delivered a rousing eulogy, helping to turn the tide of public opinion against dueling; and other sites around Albany, NY.
