

CBS BROADCASTING, INC.
ISSUES AND PROGRAM REPORT FOR STATION KHTK AM
Fourth Quarter 2015
October 1, 2015 – December 31, 2015

Prepared by:
Walt Shaw
Public Affairs Director
CBS Radio Group Sacramento
With contributions from
Sarah Quelland
Assistant
CBS Radio Group Sacramento

CBS PUBLIC AFFAIRS 6:00AM – 7:00AM SUNDAYS

The program content of CBS Public Affairs Programming is determined by local events, consumer news, features and reviews and by community ascertainment conducted by the CBS Sacramento Radio station group to determine local and consumer issues in accordance with the FCC rules in the appendix of the Federal Register, Vol. 41, Number 4.

ISSUES OF CONCERN TO THE SACRAMENTO AREA AND THE RESPONSIVE PROGRAMMING
IN THE FOURTH QUARTER OF 2015

1. Business and the Economy
2. Public Safety
3. Health
4. Education
5. Charities
6. Agriculture
7. Services for People With Disabilities
8. Youth Services
9. Religion
10. Culture and the Arts

ISSUE BUSINESS AND THE ECONOMY

CBS PUBLIC AFFAIRS

October 18, 2015

6:00 am – 7:00 am

30 Minutes of a 60 Minute Program

Our guest was Marty Nelson of Video Lab a local business that converts old analog media such as photos, slides, 8 and 16 mm movies and old tapes into digital media. Mr. Nelson also works with local TV stations to convert one and two inch video tape to DVD and CD formats. He can also mix old photos and film together and reproduces a lot of old film production for local schools. Locally hosted and produced by Walt Shaw.

CBS PUBLIC AFFAIRS

November 8, 2015

6:00 am – 7:00 am

30 Minutes of a 60 Minute Program

Today's guests were Stephen Foondos of United Law Center and Ken Hamidi with CPPEA (California Professional Public Employees Association) talking about an effort to decertify the union local 1000 by November 30, 2015. The effort will effect 95,000 state employees. At issue is an accounting of how the union` funds have been spent and open communication to insure an election in 2016. Locally hosted and produced by Walt Shaw.

BUSINESS AND THE ECONOMY CONTINUED

CBS PUBLIC AFFAIRS

November 29, 2015.

6:00 am – 7:00 am

30 Minutes of a 60 Minute Program

We had two guests for this segment of the program, Terre Johnson Director of the Oak Park Business Association and Steve LaRosa Public Affairs Director who talked about the Triangle District of the city at Broadway and Stockton Blvd. This area had the old Oak Park Gateway Arch that dates back to 1889 which indicates the first Sacramento suburb. They also talked about the efforts to improve the area. Locally hosted and produced by Walt Shaw.

CBS PUBLIC AFFAIRS

December 27, 2015

6:00 am – 7:00 am

30 Minutes of a 60 Minute Program

Our guest was Stephen Gardner who talked about Wall Street's Rollercoaster and how it can make many investors queasy. He says many investors think Wall Street is unfair and it is crucial that Americans find a safer investment alternative. One way is to utilize a financial advisor and pay attention to current market trends. Locally hosted and produced by Walt Shaw.

00 am – 7:00 am

ISSUE PUBLIC SAFETY

CBS PUBLIC AFFAIRS

October 11, 2015

6:00 am – 7:00 am

30 Minutes of a 60 Minute Program

Our interview was with Stephen Carbone an FAA certificated aircraft technician who gives listeners a first- hand look into how aircraft accident investigations are conducted. He talked about what we should be doing now such as regulate drones, aircraft maintenance issues and better training for technicians, pilots and engineers. Locally hosted and produced by Walt Shaw.

CBS PUBLIC AFFAIRS

November 22, 2015

6:00 am – 7:00 am

30 Minutes of a 60 Minute Program

My guest today was Rachel Goodman a professor at U.C. Santa Cruz talking about the long lasting effects of bullying when children are young. She says this affects university students and their studying habits, relationships and overall well- being as they grow older. Ms. Goodman is an expert in child and student behavior and teaches several classes relating to the subject. Locally hosted and produced by Walt Shaw.

ISSUE

HEALTH

CBS PUBLIC AFFAIRS

October 25, 2015

6:00 am – 7:00 am

30 Minutes of a 60 Minute Program

Today's program features Dr. Kristine Corn, founder and executive director of Ride to Walk, an equine therapy program based in Lincoln. She talked about the benefits of horseback riding therapy for children and young adults who have various diseases and disorders, including cerebral palsy, autism and other neurological and physical disabilities. She also shares information about some of the amenities and opportunities available at the Ride to Walk facility. Locally hosted and produced by Sarah Quelland

CBS PUBLIC AFFAIRS

October 25, 2015

6:00 am – 7:00 am

30 Minutes of a 60 Minute Program

A two part program with WCBS's Deb Gordon and Jenna Glazer the Chief Development Officer of Young Survival Coalition. The two of them discussed a wide range of topics facing young women who may face breast cancer diagnosis including earlier detection and potential childbirth risks. This was a required program from CBS news in New York.

CBS PUBLIC AFFAIRS

November 1, 2015

6:00 am – 7:00 am

30 Minutes of a 60 Minute Program

Our guest was Joe Chiodo, board member of the March of Dimes and publisher of Sacramento Magazine who talked about the history of the March of Dimes and this year's focus on babies who die because of prematurity and Pre-term issues. He talked about newborn screening, the Folic Acid success story and the research the March of Dimes. He also talked about the fund raising programs in Sacramento for the March of Dimes. Locally hosted and produced by Walt Shaw.

HEALTH CONTINUED

CBS PUBLIC AFFAIRS

November 15, 2015

6:00 am – 7:00 am

30 Minutes of a 60 Minute Program

Today's program features Kelly Siefkin, Communications and Development Director for the Sacramento Food Bank and Family Services. She provided information about the free educational services and emergency goods to people in need of their program. She also talked about the importance of good nutrition for good health and about the annual Run to Feed the Hungry, scheduled for Thanksgiving Day. Locally hosted and produced by Sarah Quelland.

CBS PUBLIC AFFAIRS

December 13, 2015

6:00 am – 7:00 am

30 Minutes of a 60 Minute Program

John Monrow joined the program to talk about how to improve your eyesight with holistic exercises. He explained how the eye functions and why many external factors affect the eye including diet, reading and many of the cleaning products we use as well. He says even our environment can affect our eyesight. Locally hosted and produced by Walt Shaw.

ISSUE

EDUCATION

CBS PUBLIC AFFAIRS

October 11, 2015

6:00 am – 7:00 am

30 Minutes of a 60 Minute Program

Today's Program features Chris Hart, president of the tourism division of Sierra Railroad who talks about the Sacramento River Train and the history behind it, as well as some of the various experiences coming up for the holiday season and throughout the year. Locally hosted and produced by Sarah Quelland.

CBS PUBLIC AFFAIRS

November 1, 2015

6:00 am – 7:00 am

30 Minutes of a 60 Minute Program

We had three guests for this program, Josh Murray the music teacher at Rio Americano High School and two of his students Valentina Makovey and Hannah Oldfield talking about the 35th annual Playathon at the school. This is a 17 hour musical marathon that brings music students from other schools and the FFA band members to participate. Rio's bands including the concert band and its Performing Arts Department has performed in Japan, China, Australia, Argentina, Spain and Italy. Locally hosted and produced by Walt Shaw.

ISSUE

CHARITIES AND COMMUNITY EVENTS

CBS PUBLIC AFFAIRS

October 5, 2014

6:00 am – 7:00 am

30 Minutes of a 60 Minute Program

October is National Cancer Prevention month and our guest was Randy Smeddly who talked about her work with the Sacramento Chapter of the American Cancer Society and her own breast cancer treatment and recovery. Mrs. Smeddly also talked about the fund raising efforts in October for the local chapter of the Cancer Society. Locally hosted and produced by Walt Shaw.

CBS PUBLIC AFFAIRS

November 8, 2015

6:00 am – 7:00 am

30 Minutes of a 60 Minute Program

Our guest was Jenny Teal Walter of the Food for Families campaign talking about Food for Families charity drive to collect turkeys and food baskets for low-income households in the Sacramento area. She says the food collection is not just for Sacramento but is a Northern California and Nevada campaign for both Thanksgiving and the Christmas season. The food donations also help Loaves and Fishes, the Salvation Army, the Union Gospel Mission and local churches. Locally hosted and produced by Walt Shaw.

ISSUE AGRICULTURE

CBS PUBLIC AFFAIRS

October 4, 2015

6:00 am – 7:00 am

30 Minutes of a 60 Minute Program

Our guest was Adam Cline Director of the Livestock ID program for the State of California who talked about an election this month for cattle producers who must vote on the provisions on livestock identification. Many producers are opposed to the rules of livestock identification saying it is just another way for the state government to control and get money from ranchers who raise livestock for a living. Locally hosted and produced by Walt Shaw.

CBS PUBLIC AFFAIRS

October 4, 2015

6:00 am – 7:00 am

30 Minutes of a 60 Minute Program

Today's program features Linda Morgan, Executive Director of Sacramento Feral Resources. She talked about the issue of feral cats in Sacramento County including cats who live on farms. She says there are trap neuter return programs, low cost spay and the National Feral Cat 5K hosted by Coalition 4 Community Cats that is scheduled for October 11 at the California Auto Museum on Front Street in Sacramento. Locally hosted and produced by Sarah Qluelland.

CBS PUBLIC AFFAIRS

October 18, 2015

6:00 am – 7:00 am

30 Minutes of a 60 Minute Program

Our guest was Patty Mastracco, a freelance food stylist, recipe creator, product spokesperson also affiliated with a local supermarket, who talked about canned fruits and vegetables, the nutrition value of canned products and how it stands up to fresh produce. She also discussed how canned fruit and vegetables are processed from the field to the kitchens where the canning takes place. She says right now there are several drives to supply canned goods for Thanksgiving and Christmas food baskets for financially disadvantaged families in the area and talked about how people can participate in this. Locally hosted and produced by Walt Shaw.

AGRICULTURE CONTINUED

CBS PUBLIC AFFAIRS

November 15, 2015

6:00 am – 7:00 am

30 Minutes of a 60 Minute Program

Today's program features Kim Sturla, executive director of Animal Place, a sanctuary for farm animals based in Grass Valley. She talks about Animal Place as well as the sixth-annual Thank the Turkeys celebration featuring Jeffrey Masson, New York Times bestselling author of "When Elephants Weep" and "Dogs Never Lie About Love." Locally hosted and produced by Sarah Quelland.

ISSUE SERVICES FOR PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES

CBS PUBLIC AFFAIRS

December 27, 2015

6:00 am – 7:00 am

30 Minutes of a 60 Minute Program

There is a non- profit group that helps the blind to see everyday according to Dr. Ahmed Hatoots who started Charity Vision International. Dr. Hatoots says his organization is designed to serve third world countries with a variety of eye surgeries with locally trained doctors serving in local communities rather than bringing doctors in from the outside. Locally hosted and produced by Walt Shaw.

ISSUE YOUTH SERVICES

CBS PUBLIC AFFAIRS

November 29, 2015

6:00 am – 7:00 am

30 Minutes of a 60 Minute Program

Our guest was Meredith Regan, spokesperson for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital who joined the program to talk about a station sponsored program to raise funds for the St. Jude charity group. She talked about the history of St. Jude and how people can join the fight against cancer this holiday season. Locally hosted and produced by Walt Shaw.

CBS PUBLIC AFFAIRS

December 6, 2015

6:00 am – 7:00 am

30 Minutes of a 60 Minute Program

Greg Kozera, a successful high school coach talked about corruption within professional soccer and its effect on children who play soccer. He says we should be talking about soccer as a catalyst for team leadership and comradeship and not about the scandal in the FIFA that is the undermine of a beautiful game for kids. Locally hosted and produced by Walt Shaw.

ISSUE RELIGION

December 6, 2015.
6:00 am – 7:00 am
30 Minutes of a 60 Minute Program

Our guest was Ms. May Gorospe-Favis who will present a religious concert at St. Paul Catholic Church on December 13 featuring religious music and the Word of God. Her personal message was Rejoice in anticipation of the birth of our Lord Jesus at Christmas. Proceeds were for St. Paul's Building Fund and for the Albie Aware Breast Cancer Foundation. Locally hosted and produced by Walt Shaw.

CBS PUBLIC AFFAIRS
December 20, 2015
6:00 am – 7:00 am
30 Minutes of a 60 Minute Program

Karen Perry joined the program to talk about why we should be thankful this Christmas. Karen says she lost her family in a plane crash including her three children and husband in a crash into Superstition Mountain in Arizona minutes after takeoff. She is a pilot herself used the loss to start the non-profit "3 Wings to Life" organization which she says is helping many others. Locally hosted and produced by Walt Shaw.

CBS PUBLIC AFFAIRS
December 13, 2015.
6:00 am – 7:00 am
15 Minutes of a 60 Minute Program

Our guest was Sharon Burgess who talked about the many Mega Churches around the Country including those in Sacramento. Ms. Burgess says rather than a place of worship many have become mega entertainment centers with rock bands and major enterprises to make money. Locally hosted and produced by Walt Shaw.

ISSUE CULTURE AND THE ARTS

CBS PUBLIC AFFAIRS

November 22, 2015

60 am – 7:00 am

30 Minutes of a 60 Minute Program

Our program featured author J. W. Webb who talked about the importance of fantasy writing especially for children's books. He says it is important to develop the minds of children and reading about fantasy events is one way to do it. Mr. Webb also talked about own books and how a new writer can get the information to start. Locally hosted and produced by Walt Shaw.

CBS PUBLIC AFFAIRS

December 20, 2015.

6:00 am – 7:00 am

30 Minutes of a 60 Minute Program

Peter Petty was our guest to talk about his Christmas Show at Harlow's nightclub called Peter Petty's Hepcat Holiday with the Midtown Moxies. Mr. Petty is known as Sactown's Swingin'ist emcee and bandleader and performs all over Northern California and Nevada. His show featured the Yuletide hits of Louis Armstrong, James Brown, Cab Calloway, Ray Charles, Bin Crosby and others. Locally hosted and produced by Walt Shaw.

XXX