MARRIAGE & FAMILY ISSUES

A sampling of programs from the 4th Quarter 2019

Air Date	Program	Subject
October 14, 2019	Family Life Blended (1 min. program – airs @ 10:20 am M-F)	Host Ron Deal discusses how everyone can help support step-families. Kids: treat your parent's marriage with respect and find a place for it in your heart. Even if you're conflicted about it at times, treat them the way you would want to be treated. Church: serve step-couples by providing practical premarital counseling and stepfamily education after the wedding. And couples: serve your own marriage and children by praying together frequently for wisdom to live up to your vows.
October 31, 2019	“	Host Ron Deal gives advice about how to maintain parental unity when you disagree.

November 4, 2019	“	Host Ron Deal asks parents, what’s your role when it comes to your kids and the other parent? Whether you’re married and raising your kids together, or you have a co-parent who lives in the other home, or maybe there’s a stepparent who lives with you; are you a defender--speaking up for one side or the other, or an interpreter who tries to translate and bridge the gap between the other two. You can play either one of these roles some of the time but don’t get stuck in them all of the time. And, as much as you can, stand with your spouse. Be united.
November 27, 2019	“	Host Ron Deal gives suggestions about how to announce to your children that you’re getting remarried.
December 9, 2019	“	Host Ron Deal gives a holiday inspired tip for parents and stepparents: when you make Christmas cookies this year, remember, there’s no cookie cutter kids. Families enjoy making Christmas cookies. Each cookie cutter makes cookies that all look alike. We need to remember that children are not alike in their preferences, natural strengths, or temperament. So we shouldn’t expect to parent them the same.
