

WDRB-TV
LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY
INDEPENDENCE TELEVISION COMPANY

ISSUES & PROGRAMS
ASCERTAINMENT: PART 2
THIRD QUARTER, 2019

Ascertainment 2019 – Q3 - Business/Economy

Date: 7/01/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Tolls are increasing today on 3 bridges that cross the Ohio River. If people have transponders, the rate only goes up a few cents from $2.05 to $2.10. If you don't have a transponder, people in cars will be paying $4.20 every time they cross the bridges.

Date: 7/01/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :30

Story: A local restaurant in Saint Matthews closed its doors suddenly over the weekend. Waylon's Feed and Firewater opened 2-years ago but abruptly closed over the weekend. No reason from owners why it closed.

Date: 7/01/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :20

Story: A New Albany business that employs hundreds of people has a new owner. Beach Mold and Tool is being bought by NYX as of today. The business employs about 600 people.

Date: 7/02/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: A new USDA report shows farmers in Indiana are finally making progress planting their crop after a very wet Spring and start to summer. But, many farmers gave up from planting because they didn't think the crop would come in in time.

Date: 7/02/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :30

Story: Humana is looking to hire 500 seasonal workers. The workers will help people enroll in its Medicare Advantage program.

Date: 7/03/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Duke Energy wants to raise rates, and it could tack on an average of $23 a month for customers. The company says it would use the money to reduce emissions, improve reliability and invest in its grid.

Date: 7/03/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Taco Luchador is opening a fourth location in Louisville. It's set to be in business on July 17th on Taylorsville Road.

Date: 7/03/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: LG&E says it will use eminent domain to build a new natural gas pipeline in Bullitt County. The company says its current natural gas pipeline is near capacity.

Date: 7/03/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :45

Story: Ronald McDonald House of Kentuckiana is spending $21 million to expand. The organization showed off part one of the expansion today.

Date: 7/08/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :30

Story: Clarksville Town Council sets the penalties for an adult theatre in violation of city ordinances. Theatrical X could be $2,500 for first violation and $7,500 for a second violation.

Date: 7/08/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :55

Story: From a restaurant to new apartments. The name of a well-known family in New Albany is carried on as Tommy Lancaster's Restaurant becomes "Lancaster Lofts." Construction of the 56 units is expected to take about a year.

Date: 7/08/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :25

Story: The amount of prize amount being issued out at Churchill Downs is reaching record numbers. $32.3 million is prize money was issued to riders in the most recent Spring meet. That's up almost 45% from last year's Spring meet.

Date: 7/08/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :30

Story: Farmington Historic Plantation is hosting a hemp dinner this week to educate people about the crop. The menu includes hummus on hemp toast, watermelon cucumber salad with hemp oil, Kentucky bison with a hemp sauce and hemp tres leches cake.

Date: 7/10/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: A restaurant near the Highlands shut down. It's not clear why Ward 426 closed.

Date: 7/10/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: A new arts and craft store opens in New Albany. Studio 1883 says it's the largest vinyl and sublimation printing business in Kentuckiana.

Date: 7/10/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: Local kids got to improve their technology skills at the Geek Squad Academy. Kids ages 10 to 15 got hands-on experience learning skills like coding and programming.

Date: 7/10/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 35

Story: Almost three years after former U of L President James Ramsey was forced to resign, the school's nonprofit foundation still owes him money. The foundation says it wants to hold on to about $55,000 while the university's financial fraud lawsuit against Ramsey is still pending.

Date: 7/11/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Amazon says it needs more tech-savvy workers. That's why the company is spending $700 million dollars to retrain thousands of current employees.

Date: 7/12/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 50

Story: Kentucky's automotive industry could be on the verge of expanding. A division of Korean electronics giant LG is considering building a $1.7 billion dollar electric vehicle battery plant in the U.S. and Kentucky was named as a potential location.

Date: 7/12/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time:30

Story: An old industrial site in Louisville's NuLu neighborhood is about to become home to a new seven-story apartment building. A gastropub and a parking garage were also included in the plans.

Date: 7/15/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: A Louisville tech start-up is bringing world-class IT training to West Louisville. The free coding classes last three to four months, and students land an apprenticeship when classes are done.

Date: 7/15/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :45

Story: A Louisville company that makes military supplies is concerned about competition from foreign suppliers like China. Rand Paul visited Conco, Incorporated today after urging the Pentagon to make sure it's closely following the laws by requiring military to buy supplies from American companies.

Date: 7/15/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :20

Story: One of Louisville's biggest apartment buildings in downtown is being sold. A company based in New Jersey is buying the 19-story Kentucky Towers building. What the company plans to do with the building hasn't been decided.

Date: 7/15/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: Residents in Trimble County are worried about a new business that could move in. A company wants 264 acres to become a landfill of food by-products. Hundreds of people showed up to voice their concerns at a meeting tonight.

Date: 7/15/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :40

Story: Real Estate Database Zillow is suing Kentucky. The company says the Commonwealth is making them pay more for information than it would for the average person.

Date: 7/15/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :35

Story: A local manufacturing company that left Jeffersonville for Louisville – is wanting to go back to Jeffersonville. MXD Process says it's outgrowing its Louisville facility and may move into a larger building in Jeffersonville. If the company decides to move, 40 new jobs will be created.

Date: 7/16/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: A southern Indiana company is trying to save lives by growing human tissue in space. It all starts this weekend with a trip to the International Space Station.

Date: 7/16/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: The Galt House Hotel is set to open a new restaurant in November. Walker's Exchange is named for a restaurant that opened at the same site almost 200 years ago.

Date: 7/16/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Louisville's Chamber of Commerce is named one of the best in the country. The Association of Chamber of Commerce Executives named Greater Louisville Inc. this year's Chamber of the Year.

Date: 7/17/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Louisville City FC released its virtual seat map for the new soccer stadium to its website. Season tickets will go on sale for the 2020 season in September.

Date: 7/17/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 35

Story: The state says slot-like "historical racing" machines at places like Louisville's Derby City Gaming generated $2 billion in sales last fiscal year, ending June 30. Kentucky Supreme Court will take up a case on the legality of historical racing next year.

Date: 7/17/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Cuban restaurant, Havana Rumba will open a new restaurant on Shelbyville Road. They will be in the building that formerly housed Waylon's Feed and Firewater.

Date: 7/17/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: Taco Luchador opened today at their newest location on Taylorsville Road in Jeffersontown. This is their 4th location in Louisville.

Date: 7/17/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 20

Story: Sullivan's Tap House on Shelbyville Road is adding a Topgolf simulator with other fun games and calling it the Topgolf Swing Suite. It is scheduled to open later in the summer.

Date: 7/18/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: The city has plans to clean up the mess left behind when Google Fiber pulled out of Louisville. Some streets in the Highlands area will be repaved while others will get patched.

Date: 7/18/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 35

Story: The owner of Butchertown Grocery just announced the opening of a bakery on Main Street. It will be an extension of the current restaurant.

Date: 7/18/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: WDRB got a first look inside Louisville's newest concert venue that's already attracting big names. Gavin DeGraw, Drive-By Truckers and Wu-Tang Clan are already scheduled to perform at Old Forester's Paristown Hall.

Date: 7/18/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: Officials in Clarksville break ground on the town's first newly-constructed mixed-use multi-family development in 30 years. Clarksville officials also kicked off another project, a new walking trail, on Eastern Boulevard.

Date: 7/18/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: LG&E takes over private property in Bullitt County to put in a controversial pipeline that would run from Mount Washington to south of Shepherdsville. Kentucky law allows gas pipeline operators to condemn land if they can't reach an agreement but an LG&E spokeswoman says that would be a "last resort."

Date: 7/18/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: A new Mercedes Benz dealership recently opened and is now partnering with Jefferson Community and Technical College for a mentoring program. Students take classes for half a semester at the school and work at the dealership the rest of the semester and have opportunities of full time jobs afterwards.

Date: 7/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: A veterans job fair is being held next week at Cardinal Stadium. It's free for veterans, military spouses and transitioning military.

Date: 7/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: A new affordable housing complex opens in Middletown. It has 80 apartments ranging in price from about $650 to $1,000 a month.

Date: 7/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: A popular shopping center in Lyndon changes hands for the second time in three years. A real estate investment company based in Savannah, Georgia bought Westport Village for more than $30 million.

Date: 7/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Liege and Dairy is dishing up free scoops of ice cream for kids in honor of National Ice Cream Day Sunday. The deal will be offered at both the Middletown and Holiday Manor locations.

Date: 7/21/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :30

Story: Environmentalists are criticizing Duke Energy for their plan to retire coal-fired power plants, including one in Southern Indiana. The current plan calls for retirement by 2038, but other Indiana companies have plans to retire plants within five years.

Date: 7/21/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :45

Story: Several restaurants are hosting Dog Restaurant Week. Dogs can get Pup-cicles and Beef Rice Bowls. Part of the proceeds will go to the Kentucky Human Society and The Arrow Fund.

Date: 7/21/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :25

Story: Kentucky Kingdom's Kentucky Flyer was named one of the most exciting new thrills by The New York Times. The Times said the ride is mild enough for children and wild enough to have adults screaming.

Date: 7/22/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Neighbors fighting to keep Topgolf out of their backyards have decided to appeal a judge's decision that gave the project the green light. The entertainment complex is planned for the site of the old Sears building at Oxmoor Center.

Date: 7/22/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Colorado-based Vail Resorts plans to buy Paoli Peaks for $264 million. The company plans to close the deal this fall if regulators and shareholders approve.

Date: 7/22/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Local company Techshot was supposed to send a 3D printer to the International Space Station over the weekend, but the launch was delayed because of technical issues. The launch is now scheduled for Wednesday night.

Date: 7/22/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Woodford Reserve announces the release of a new whiskey. Woodford Reserve Kentucky Straight Wheat Whiskey is inspired by post-Prohibition American whiskey guidelines.

Date: 7/22/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 20

Story: Planet bar in the Highlands closed down. Public records show it was ordered evicted and June and that the Bar lost its alcohol License Monday.

Date: 7/23/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Possible plans are now in the works for the vacant Kmart building in Hikes Point. The company that owns the site says it's looking at turning the building into a medical office with a laboratory and a call center.

Date: 7/24/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Plans to redevelop the now empty Urban Government Center move forward. Louisville, which owns the Barret Avenue building, just filed a request to rezone the site for commercial use.

Date: 7/24/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: WDRB discovered that employees can use the competitive job market to their advantage to earn some big bucks. Many companies are offering employees some big perks to get them in the door and keep them there.

Date: 7/24/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 24

Story: Kentucky Peerless announces the release of a second round of bourbon. The first batch released last month sold out in the first day.

Date: 7/24/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Wedding venue chain NOAH's announces it's closing its Louisville location. Couples who booked weddings there got little warning. Now several other local venues are trying to help out.

Date: 7/24/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 35

Story: A singer who made a Nazi salute and screamed “white power” at a concert is scheduled to play at Louisville’s Louder Than Life festival. Philip Anselmo apologized for his actions. This comes after the Kentucky State Fair Board approved a policy that bans vendors from selling items like KKK and Nazi memorabilia.

Date: 7/25/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Parking could be an even bigger challenge at the Kentucky State Fair this year. Kentucky Kingdom is getting more parking after a lawsuit, which leaves the fair scrambling to find more spots.

Date: 7/25/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :30

Story: El Toro Marketing is moving its headquarters out of downtown Louisville. That move into a new building will create more than 400 new jobs.

Date: 7/26/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: Chef Space is turning old abandoned houses in West Louisville into restaurant spaces. This is an opportunity to give local entrepreneurs the support they need to start their own business.

Date: 7/28/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:20

Story: The brides-to-be who had to change wedding plans after Noah’s Event Venue closed started a GoFundMe to try and get a lawyer to represent them. They are afraid they won’t get their money back as the business closes.

Date: 7/29/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Whole Foods and Marshalls plan to open in an old Toys R Us store. Whole Foods plans to expand 7,000 square feet. Marshalls has already started work on the inside. Both should open this fall.

Date: 7/29/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: MSD raising its rates by nearly 7% and it all starts on August 1st. The average customer’s bill will go up $3.47 a month and an extra $.68 for storm water. We got a tour today at the wastewater facility to see what all the extra money will be used for.

Date: 7/30/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: People in Prospect – one of the state’s wealthiest zip codes – are concerned over an affordable housing plan that would move people from west Louisville into east Louisville. Residents are concerned with traffic, schools, wildlife and crime. They have an attorney and plan to fight the development.

Date: 7/30/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :25

Story: Baptist Health Louisville is named the number one hospital in Louisville. It’s a U.S. News and World Report Best Hospital Ranking. The hospital is tied for third in the state with its sister hospital in Lexington.

Date: 7/30/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :25

Story: Insider Louisville says it will stop publishing as of August 7th. In a message to readers, it said, “the cost of operating has been too great to overcome.”

Date: 7/30/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: A Louisville staple known for costumes, magic and practical jokes is up for sale. Caufield's Novelty says declining sales is forcing the owner to sell the place.

Date: 7/30/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :20

Story: A new El Tacho Luchador will open in the redeveloped Colonial Gardens. The 4500 square foot location is the biggest location for the business yet.

Date: 7/31/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :35

Story: The Galt House Hotel just announced it's opening a new restaurant. It's called Swizzle and will be on the 25th floor. It will feature steaks and seafood.

Date: 7/31/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :30

Story: Maker's Mark is now in the business of making glasses. An artist made some of the colorful glasses but died earlier this year. Now Maker's Mark is making it a full exhibition and adding other works from throughout his career.

Date: 7/31/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Simpsonville is now home to Kentucky's newest solar panel facility. We got a tour of the facility today and how it'll save LG&E customers money.

Date: 7/31/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: A Louisville group is starting a new program to try to go to businesses on the west end. They are encouraging people to dine at west end restaurants on Wednesdays.

Date: 8/01/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :30

Story: Churchill Downs is adding a hotel and gaming center to the track. They will be near the track's first turn. The slot machines would be similar to Derby City Gaming machines.

Date: 8/01/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :25

Story: UPS is bumping up starting pay for its package handlers. They will now make $14 an hour instead of $13. Select shifts also get bonuses of up to $200 a week.

Date: 8/01/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :50

Story: U of L and the Urban League are teaming up to help people in Louisville's poorest neighborhoods take coding classes. The program is called "Louisville Skills." 25 people can take the class. It'll be 40 hours a week for 3 to 4 months.

Date: 8/01/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :25

Story: Harbor Freight Tools will be opening its 1,000th store in Louisville later this month. The first 10 customers will get a free hat and the first thousand get a free six-piece screwdriver set. The store opens August 14th.

Date: 8/01/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :30

Story: Sazerac of Indiana announced today it's changing its name to Northwest Ordinance Distilling. Along with the new name, it's also expanding operations and adding 40 more jobs before the end of the year.

Date: 8/01/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :25

Story: Graeter's Ice Cream unveiled a new design for the outside of its pints. This is the first time in six years the company is changing the label.

Date: 8/01/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :30

Story: Jeffersonville unveiled a new motto, "Only IN Jeff" today. It's meant to attract more families, visitors and developers to the city.

Date: 8/01/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: A new contract between UPS and the workers union was recently ratified. Package handlers will soon get a raise. The company hiked the starting wage to $14 an hour.

Date: 8/02/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: FFO Home in south Louisville is abandoning its warehouse on National Turnpike. This decision is laying off 52 people starting in October. The center will close in mid-November.

Date: 8/02/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 20

Story: The Kentucky State fair is hiring hundreds of temporary workers. Pay is starting at 9-dollars an hour and includes multiple positions. Only people 18 and over can apply.

Date: 8/02/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time:

Story: The Beecher Terrace Project is in phase 1 of their 30 million dollar redevelopment. A 60-year-old resident will move in next year. The U.S. Secretary of Housing and Urban Development spoke about the grant given to Beecher.

Date: 8/02/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 50

Story: Budget cuts force the Louisville Fire Department to shut down a fire company on Rubel Avenue. The Union says the two companies they had on the same street will combine and only have 4 firefighters each day. No one will get laid off.

Date: 8/02/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 35

Story: Shaq posts a video inside of a PAPA John's board meeting. He says there will be an addition to the menu, the papa-dia. It is a mix between a pizza and a quesadilla.

Date: 8/02/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:15

Story: The Middletown library is reopening in September after it closed in June because of budget cuts. It will have reduced staffing, hours and services. Metro Council approved the funding to keep the library open through June of 2020.

Date: 8/02/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: A legendary Louisville landmark goes on the market. Joe Ley Antiques has enjoyed the national spotlight and welcomed celebrities for decades.

Date: 8/03/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 40

Story: Ford in Louisville has a labor contract that is up for negotiation. Many fear their salary and benefits on the line.

Date: 8/03/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 40

Story: The West Louisville YMCA gave people a sneak peek at its new 28-million-dollar facility. It is on West Broadway near south 17th Street. The facility will fully open in October.

Date: 8/03/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 20

Story: Senior citizens can buy-one get one free admission at the Louisville slugger stadium until October 31st. The museum started a new tour experience this year.

Date: 8/04/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 4:00

Story: The UAW and Ford are currently in negotiations of a new contract. Things like pay, healthcare and temp workers are a sticking point.

Date: 8/05/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: The Kentucky State Fair is looking to hire hundreds of workers before the gates open. Jobs include gate, maintenance and housekeeping workers. Pay starts at $9.

Date: 8/05/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 40

Story: Sportswear retailer Columbia just opened a new supply chain distribution center on National Turnpike. The new warehouse is creating 83 new full-time jobs.

Date: 8/06/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: The renovated Kentucky International Convention center opened a year ago. Now Louisville Tourism says a record number of hotel rooms were booked over the last fiscal year.

Date: 8/06/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 20

Story: Texas Roadhouse is giving away tickets to the Kentucky State Fair. Five winners will be drawn and each winner gets two VIP tickets to see several different acts.

Date: 8/06/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Holiday World unveils a new roller coaster called Cheetah Chase. The amusement park says it's the world's first launched water coaster.

Date: 8/06/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 35

Story: Papa Johns had sales fall for the 7th straight quarter. The company is trying to recover after founder John Schnatter admitted to using a racial slur during a conference call.

Date: 8/07/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :30

Story: Churchill Downs officials meet tonight to discuss closing a part of South 4th street. It wants to close the road to expand its work on an equine medical center.

Date: 8/07/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:30

Story: The Triple Crown of Running is returning after being cancelled in June. RAM racing is taking over management for the event.

Date: 8/08/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:05

Story: A fiscal court has opened the way for more breweries and distilleries to open in Oldham County. The businesses will now be allowed to open in rural parts of the county.

Date: 8/09/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:55

Story: Some Prospect neighbors fear 70 new homes might mean more flooding for homes already there. Multiple neighborhood groups between River Road and the Ohio River say they've been dealing with flooding for years. Right now, there are plans to build a new neighborhood that could cause more run-off and drainage problems.

Date: 8/12/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: An old grocery store and an old Kmart building are set to become two new locations for Planet Fitness. The chain's original store in the area will also almost double in size.

Date: 8/12/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Louisville's Planning Commission will meet tonight to discuss plans for a new neighborhood in Prospect. Some neighbors worry Breakers at Prospect will cause more drainage problems, but the developer says it will actually help with flooding issues.

Date: 8/12/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: Some local brewers plan to use recycled wastewater in a special craft brew. The products will debut at the Water for Life event being held in Louisville later this month.

Date: 8/13/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 40

Story: Allegiant Airlines announces that it's adding a seasonal nonstop flight between Louisville and Sarasota, Florida. Flights start on November 15th and will run twice weekly.

Date: 8/13/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Louisville-based Yum! Brands is getting a new CEO next year. Current CEO Greg Creed is retiring, and president and COO David Gibbs will take over.

Date: 8/13/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Southeast Christian Church is set to open its 8th campus this fall. The Chapel in the Woods Campus will be geared toward seniors.

Date: 8/14/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: U of L makes a deal to buy Jewish Hospital. The hospital was on the verge of closing within a couple months, so the University is asking for help to support the deal.

Date: 8/14/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: U of L Athletics Association buys the Caboose Express for $1.5 million. This gives the university control over the cabooses parked near Cardinal Stadium which are leased to fans for tailgating.

Date: 8/15/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:15

Story: A multi-million dollar development is bringing new apartments, offices, restaurants and a brewery to Nulu. They'll all be under one roof. We got a look at the first business to move in: West 6th Brewing.

Date: 8/15/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: State tourism officials say more people visited Kentucky in 2018 and spent more money. The tourism department says it continues to build on Kentucky's signature industries of horses, bourbon, music and the arts.

Date: 8/15/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Usually on a holiday, trash and recycling pickup is pushed back by one day. But because of Louisville's budget cuts, the city will just skip collection altogether for holidays starting with Labor Day.

Date: 8/16/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :45

Story: A new Thornton's gas station opened in the Hazelwood neighborhood today. Not only can you get gas but you'll also find fresh food like burritos, sandwiches and donuts.

Date: 8/16/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: We talked to the director of the Beechmont community center. He talked about the struggles of living in a food desert and how sad it is when children are hungry. The Kroger Mobile Market is traveling to neighborhoods that are food insecure.

Date: 8/16/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 55

Story: Shirley's gaming facility opened today on Dixie Highway. The facility has 35 digital pull tab machines. This is a non-profit. All of the money gambled goes to help cancer patients in honor of Shirley Mulrooney.

Date: 8/17/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 60

Story: For the Sunday Edition Katrina Helmer and Marcus Green explain why the department has not started any of its planned projects. MSD has a 20 year, 4 billion dollar plan in place to fix its infrastructure.

Date: 8/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: The popular Fleur de Flea Vintage Urban Market announces a new home in Paristown. It's set to open in February 2020 in the former Swan Street Antique Mall.

Date: 8/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 20

Story: Jeffersonville plans to break ground on its first Chick-fil-A restaurant tomorrow. The Jeffersonville High School band will perform and the Chick-fil-A cow will be an appearance at the groundbreaking celebration.

Date: 8/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: A Louisville-based nonprofit moves into a new 8,000 square foot headquarters on East Broadway. Seeds to Oak helps engage businesspeople and faith-based organization in service programs beneficial to people in need.

Date: 8/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:30

Story: A new app in Louisville is making dog poop its duty. We show viewers how they can use the app and how it's helping lawn care companies grow.

Date: 8/20/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: Chick-Fil-A breaks ground in Jeffersonville. Mayor Mike Moore says the area has seen enormous growth over the last few years, and this is just another example of how the city is booming.

Date: 8/20/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Taco Luchador is set to open tomorrow at Colonial Gardens in South Louisville. The historic location was the site of Louisville's first zoo and even hosted Elvis Presley. We give viewers a look at the new restaurant.

Date: 8/20/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: The Kentucky Lottery is sending five people to Time Square on New Year's Eve. Anyone with a non-winning Powerball ticket worth at least four dollars can enter the contest.

Date: 8/21/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: The community can vote on what to call the new Beecher Terrace. Voters have until Monday to cast their vote.

Date: 8/21/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Bardstown takes home a national award for its "Bourbon comes from Bardstown" campaign. The award celebrates the year's best creative award for destination marketing.

Date: 8/21/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: El Taco Luchador is the first to move into Colonial Garden's in Louisville after six years sitting vacant. Other businesses have not been announced yet.

Date: 8/22/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Some Hurstbourne neighbors are fighting against bringing Topgolf to their backyards. But a restaurant down the street is welcoming it with open arms. Sullivan's on Shelbyville Road is adding a Topgolf simulator to the tap house.

Date: 8/22/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: New hotels and restaurants are opening soon on Whiskey Row in Louisville. We gave viewers an inside look at the Hotel Distil and Moxy.

Date: 8/22/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: A new independent living community is taking shape for seniors in Louisville. Everlan in the Northfield community will have five star dining, an open bar, fire pits and bocce ball courts.

Date: 8/23/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Louisville is selling a historic mansion in Louisville's Russell neighborhood to help young men plan for their futures. Local nonprofit Theta Omega plans to renovate the house to use as its headquarters, along with providing a meeting space for the local Omega Psi Phi fraternity chapter.

Date: 8/23/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 35

Story: Riverlink says thousands of dollars in late fees helped it bring in more toll money this year than expected. The company was only projected to take in 97 million, but actually brought in nearly 112 million dollars during the fiscal year.

Date: 8/23/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: Two buildings on Bardstown road are more than 100 years old and a couple is wanting to buy them for a short term rental business. The apartment is being called Ballter Hotel tomorrow. They hope to open fall 2020.

Date: 8/24/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 45

Story: More than 20,000 AT&T workers across the U.S. are on strike. This morning employees gathered at the AT&T building in downtown Louisville. The union planned the strike because of unfair labor practices during contract negotiations.

Date: 8/24/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:45

Story: 51 Attorneys General around the country signed an agreement with carriers like Verizon, AT&T, Sprint and T-mobile to stop robo-calls from getting to people. He says there should be an app released to help robo-calls from going through.

Date: 8/25/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 3:05

Story: A local woman and her two sons have opened a CBD business in Louisville. After it worked to treat scoliosis pain and helped get through breast cancer, Melissa Thieneman wanted to show others it can help them.

Date: 8/26/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:30

Story: The United Auto Workers Union is holding a strike authorization vote for the more than 12,000 Ford workers in Louisville. The authorization would give union leaders the OK to call a strike if contract negotiations break down.

Date: 8/26/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: The KFC Yum! Center is looking to hire 150 people during a job fair Wednesday. There are openings for event security, housekeeping, guest services and conversion teams.

Date: 8/26/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: A Cash Ball 225 ticket worth $225,000 was sold in Louisville for last night's drawing. It was sold at the Save-A-Step on Smyrna Parkway in Okolona.

Date: 8/26/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: The YMCA is hosting a free Community Health Week next week. It's designed to encourage people to be active and make healthier choices.

Date: 8/26/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:30

Story: 20-thousand A-T&T employees didn't go to work today. Instead, they formed picket lines to protest the treatment they say they're getting from the company.

Date: 8/26/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: Members from local Louisville unions are headed to the zoo. Instead of using the day to relax from important jobs at places like Ford and UPS -- they're raising big bucks for local charities.

Date: 8/26/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 35

Story: About a hundred local UPS employees could get a raise for the first time in years. It's part of a proposed labor contract for workers at UPS' global flight operations center, at Louisville's UPS air hub.

Date: 8/26/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 50

Story: Churchill Downs is suing a Louisville labor union. The dispute is over its new gambling operation, Derby City Gaming.

Date: 8/26/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :30

Story: Jeffersonville is the number 1 city in Indiana for middle class families. That's according to a study by Simple Thrifty Living. The rankings were based on income, real estate taxes, home value and several other things.

Date: 8/27/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:45

Story: Papa John's announces a new CEO. The pizza chain's sales have been declining for more than a year. New CEO Rob Lynch comes from Arby's, where he was credited with the chain's growing sales.

Date: 8/27/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 40

Story: YouthBuild Louisville is awarded a nearly $76,000 grant. The money from AmeriCorps will allow five new youth members to dive deep into environmental protection and career readiness.

Date: 8/27/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: Shops, restaurants and 46 new apartments are coming to downtown Charlestown. The more than four million dollar project will be done in two phases, and is expected to be finished by next summer.

Date: 8/27/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:30

Story: The city of Louisville broke ground on the state of the art Heritage West sports complex today. It's expected to help reduce violence and give young people a chance to do something great. It's also expected to attract more than 30,000 visitors and generate $47,000,000 in economic impact.

Date: 8/27/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: A developer files plans with the city for an eight story apartment building in a parking lot across from Slugger Field. It would include more than 300 apartments, a fitness club and a salt water pool at the corner of East Main and South Jackson Streets.

Date: 8/27/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 30

Story: A 99 percent to 1 percent vote tonight gave the local UAW the authority to call a strike for 12,000 Kentucky Ford workers. The vote will now go to the national UAW Ford offices in Detroit. This is happening after negotiations over a new contract deal.

Date: 8/28/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: The Book is set to open on September 12th at Horseshoe Southern Indiana. The sports betting venue will allow guests to bet on a variety of sports including basketball and football.

Date: 8/28/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: A Kentucky lawmaker wants to make sports betting legal at horse racing tracks. The pre-filed bill would also allow people to place bets at off-track wagering facilities.

Date: 8/28/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:30

Story: Hundreds of AT&T workers in Louisville head back to work after a four day strike. They originally went on strike over what they called unfair labor practices during contract negotiations.

Date: 8/28/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: Southern Indiana students took a tour of Amazon's Fulfillment Center and discovered a big surprise at the end. The online retail giant wrote a big check to help pay for supplies for VEX robotics team at every Greater Clark County school.

Date: 8/28/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: A 300 unit apartment complex is being built next to Oxmoor Farm. This is the first development on the historic land next to I-64. About 80 acres of land across the street will be preserved to protect the farm land's history dating back to the 1700's. The entire project should be completed by fall 2020.

Date: 8/28/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:05

Story: Casinos in Indiana are preparing to open business for sports betting. In southern Indiana, the Winner's Circle and Horseshoe casino will allow betting for people over 21. Indiana is the 12th state to legalize sports betting. People can start betting on September 1.

Date: 8/29/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:45

Story: Ford announces a $550 million dollar investment across Louisville's two factories. State economic development leaders met today and agreed that investment makes Ford eligible for $40 million in economic incentives from the state.

Date: 8/29/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:10

Story: Catholic Charities wants to tear down the school, gym and convent at the Holy Name complex. The organization wants to build a new headquarters and add parking spaces. But neighbors want the school and convent to stay, and are pushing for them to become historic landmarks.

Date: 8/29/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: Louisville's Summer Works program wrapped up this morning with record participation. The program helped nearly 7,000 teens get a summer job working at places like Heine Brothers and GE Appliances.

Date: 8/29/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Online pet retailer Chewy is expanding its Louisville office spaces and adding 150 more jobs. The retailer offers everything from toys and treats to pet medication.

Date: 8/29/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: The Frankfort Avenue Trolley Hop planned for this weekend has been scrapped. Officials say sponsors now have to back the monthly event because its funding was cut in the city's budget—and there wasn't a sponsor for this month.

Date: 8/29/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: French Lick Resort announces an in-casino sports book launching on September 6th. The resort is teaming up with Rush Street Interactive for in-house and online sports betting.

Date: 8/29/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: A Highlands business called General Eccentric is closing. The owner says she going to focus on her kids and her other business, Black Dog Candles.

Date: 8/29/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: The budget crisis is reaching the Louisville Zoo. It says it is looking for a private party to help pick up the rising costs. Metro Government currently spends $5.2 million on the zoo and wants to cap its contribution. For now the zoo wants to change prices depending on the weather.

Date: 8/30/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :15

Story: A Mexican restaurant is expanding and opening a new location in Louisville. This will be the fourth location for Gustavo's Mexican Grill.

Date: 9/01/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 20

Story: Sports betting is now legal in Indiana. Several southern Indiana casinos will be opening a sports book in the coming weeks.

Date: 9/01/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 4:30

Story: Louisville's economy could be changed in a "Medicare for all" system. Humana, headquartered in Louisville would be impacted most. Many politicians and vested business leaders have different ideas about how the system could affect Humana.

Date: 9/01/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 40

Story: People gathered in New Albany's Amphitheater for the pooches and pints dog fair. There was plenty of food beer and food to enjoy.

Date: 9/01/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 20

Story: The Louisville zoo will host a picnic and car show for labor day. Political candidates will be in attendance.

Date: 9/03/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Papa John's founder is expected to make a big financial donation to Simmons College tomorrow. It will be his first public appearance since he was ousted as the company's chairman last summer.

Date: 9/03/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :25

Story: Over 150 people voted on the new name for the Beecher Terrace site. The new name is Beecher Terrace. The redevelopment will be in the Russell neighborhood. Construction is expected to be done by next Summer.

Date: 09/04/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Papa John's founder gives $1 million to historically black Simmons College. The pizza mogul was ostracized from the company in July 2018 after he admitted to using a racial slur.

Date: 09/04/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 40

Story: Great Flood Brewing Company is opening a second location. The new taproom will be inside the former Wick's Pizza on Shelbyville Road in Middletown.

Date: 09/04/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: Bernheim Forest is trying to draw attention to projects it wants to keep off its land. The Kentucky Transportation Cabinet is studying an interstate bypass to cut through the forest. LG&E wants to build a 12 mile natural gas line that would pass through Bernheim.

Date: 9/04/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: Skate-O-Rama skating rink in Bullitt County has been around for more than 47 years. The rink was opened in 1972 by a WWII veteran. He passed it down to his son, who was recently in an accident. Now local firefighters are helping to open the rink back up by helping paint, change lights and clean for a soft re-opening. Battalion Chief Wayne Bowles wife will manage the rink for now.

Date: 9/05/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :40

Story: Churchill Downs plans to build a new track and gaming facility in northern Kentucky. It also wants to host a winter meet. The new facility will create 400 new full and part time jobs.

Date: 9/05/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :45

Story: Kentucky International Convention Center marked one year since reopening today. The center closed for two years for a $207 million worth of renovations.

Date: 9/06/2019 News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: The mayor is set to unveil a new arts and entertainment area within an hour. "The Knot" has metal artwork spelling out "Louisville."

Date: 9/06/2019 News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Sports betting has now started at one southern Indiana casino. Right now, customers actually have to go to French Lick Resort, Casino and Golf Course to place their bets. Now Kentucky lawmakers say their chances of making sports betting legal are improving.

Date: 9/06/2019 News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: A southern Indiana business is bringing thousands of concrete crafters to Indiana this weekend. People from all over the world came to a festival at the Concrete Lady.

Date: 9/06/2019 News @ 10

Time: :45

Story: A growing list of businesses at the St. Matthews strip mall are giving up after a partial roof collapse. Government officials closed the strip mall indefinitely. Some owners still want answers from the landlord.

Date: 9/06/2019 News @ 10

Time: :30

Story: Oxmoor Center's Macy's will have a few improvements coming. It will include renovated fitting rooms and new technology. The Oxmoor location will also have a new Taste Bar with food.

Date: 9/09/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: Southeast Christian Church is expanding again with a ninth campus. The new location will seat 600 people in Shelby County.

Date: 9/09/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:30

Story: UPS wants to hire thousands of people for the holiday season. Perks include flexible shifts, full and part-time positions and tuition reimbursement.

Date: 9/09/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Apple is opening a new store in Louisville. The new Oxmoor Mall location is slated to open Saturday at 10 a.m.

Date: 9/09/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: The KFC! Yum Center announces a record-breaking year. The venue says it hosted an all-time record 29 concerts during the 2018-19 fiscal year.

Date: 9/09/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: The University of Louisville is less than two months away from closing its deal to buy Jewish Hospital. But lawmakers have raised concerns about a $50 million state loan that goes with it.

Date: 9/09/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :25

Story: The Board and You Bistro and Wine Bar opens a new restaurant in New Albany. It offers charcuterie boards along with a menu of other dishes, premier wines and custom cocktails.

Date: 9/09/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :20

Story: A Louisville pizzeria shuts its doors. Pieology sent an email to customers this morning thanking them for the amazing pizza creations they've made, and encouraging them to visit another location. No word on why it closed. The other location is more than an hour away in Northern Kentucky near Cincinnati.

Date: 9/09/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :30

Story: For the first time, Maker's Mark is selling a limited-release bourbon nationwide. The new bourbon, called RC 6, is the latest in the Wood Finishing series, which includes Maker's Mark 46 and Private Select. Only 255 barrels of bourbon were made.

Date: 9/10/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 20

Story: Lux Row Distillery is launching a new Bourbon. It will debut at the Kentucky Bourbon Festival in Bardstown.

Date: 9/09/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :35

Story: The U.S. Census Bureau is looking to hire 1,600 people in Jefferson County, KY for the 2020 Census. People can make anywhere from $13.50 an hour to $24.50 an hour.

Date: 9/10/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: The Kentucky Derby Festival announces its new President and CEO. Matt Gibson has led the Derby Festival's Events and Operations since 2003.

Date: 9/10/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: An African American History Museum is coming to downtown Louisville. Roots 101 is expected to open by next February, in time for Black History month.

Date: 9/10/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Walmart is looking for new drivers for the Seymour, Indiana distribution center. The company say drivers can earn up to 21 days of paid time off and up to $87,000 in their first year.

Date: 9/11/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Crews kick off construction on the field at the new Louisville City Football Stadium. The whole stadium is expected to be complete for the start of Lou City's 2020 season.

Date: 9/11/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: MSD opens the last of its multi-million dollar overflow basins. They're designed to keep wastewater out of the Ohio River and neighborhood streets.

Date: 9/12/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Two news sports betting facilities opened today in southern Indiana. The Book and the Winners' Circle will both take bets on football, basketball, baseball and a variety of other sports.

Date: 9/12/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Southwest Airlines is offering a new non-stop flight to Fort Lauderdale from Louisville. It's slated to start on Saturday, December 21st.

Date: 9/12/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: A beloved burger joint changed hands. The original owners of Shady Lane Café say they've poured energy into the restaurant for the past 15 years, and now it's time for a change.

Date: 9/12/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: The zoo saw a big hike in attendance after the introduction of its baby elephant. Attendance for last Saturday was up by about two-thousand from the weekend before.

Date: 9/12/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: LG&E and KU is named one of the top 20 utilities in the country for economic development. Site Selection honored it for its investments and the creations of over 7,500 jobs.

Date: 9/12/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Jefferson County, Indiana is moving forward with plans to build a new jail, but that means new taxes. The county voted to raise income taxes by a total of .5 percent.

Date: 9/13/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 35

Story: Ford's union contract got extended right before it was set to expire. That means there is no immediate risk of a strike at Ford's two Louisville plants.

Date: 9/13/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: Brownsboro Hardware presented a $13,000 check to Kentucky Harvest. The money was raised during the store's annual EGGfest event last month.

Date: 9/13/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 25

Story: Skyzone Trampoline Park in the Bluegrass Industrial park says it is going out of business next weekend. Sky Zone's last day is Sunday, September 22.

Date: 9/13/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 30

Story: Bussmann's Bakery in Clifton will close after 22 years. The owner is hoping to sell the business to someone who will keep it a bakery. They will close September 28.

Date: 9/16/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: The owner of City Café says he's closing his restaurant for good on Friday afternoon. Instead, he says he will focus on his catering business.

Date: 9/17/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: A motel that was a crime hot spot for years has been turned into upscale apartments. The Clarksville Lofts have all new appliances, a pool and a dog park.

Date: 9/17/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: A former gentleman's club and Old Louisville landmark goes back on the market. The "Pink Palace" on St. James Court is now listed on an auction website.

Date: 9/17/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: The KFC Yum! Center is hosting a job fair Thursday with more than 200 jobs available. Jobs include house-keeping, food service and setting up and tearing down between events.

Date: 9/17/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Spinelli's Pizzeria is going back to its original 2004 prices in honor of its 15th anniversary Thursday. That means huge cheese and pepperoni slices will be only $2.

Date: 9/17/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Bullitt County taxpayers just got hit with a three million dollar bill—five years after the collapse of a sewage treatment plant in the small town of Hunters Hollow. That company is now bankrupt and its owner is dead, so now it's a taxpayer problem.

Date: 9/18/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Norton Healthcare and UPS just announced a new partnership. Local college students can work at UPS while taking healthcare classes and graduate debt free.

Date: 9/18/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: The city of Hillview is hosting a job fair tomorrow. Jobs will include everything from warehouse work to skilled trades and healthcare positions.

Date: 9/18/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:45

Story: Kentucky is stopping the rollout of REAL ID and starting from scratch. The pilot program is currently only in place in two counties. Instead, the transportation cabinet apparently wants to create regional locations to handle REAL IDs.

Date: 9/18/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: Tyler Park in Louisville is in the middle of a million dollar make over but construction is coming to a stop. This is happening because of the many projects happening around the city for the contractor. Now, the first phase of construction won't be done until the end of November.

Date: 9/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: The all-new 2020 Corvette makes a special appearance in Louisville at Bachman Chevrolet. It's the first dealership in the Southeast to showcase the 2020 Corvette.

Date: 9/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: An avid collector named Jerry Lotz died earlier this summer. Now his unique collection of antiques is going up for auction.

Date: 9/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Equipment in the now closed Jeffboat factory is being sold at auction. The 80 year old barge manufacturer closed last year.

Date: 9/20/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Two new restaurants are planned in the parking lot of Oxmoor Center. One will be at the corner of Shelbyville Road and Oxmoor Lane in front of Von Maur. The other will be by Macy's. No words on what restaurants will move in.

Date: 9/20/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: A new bar called Shop Bar opens in the Highlands. It's both a bar and an art gallery inside an old auto body shop. It also has an outdoor patio and a food truck

Date: 9/21/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: Governor Matt Bevin took a visit to Leitchfield along with KYTC. Bevin says the state is expediting a project to expand the bypass for almost 2 miles from HWY 54 to HWY 259. The new project will help the Bel Brands plant get around town. Construction will begin in 2022.

Date: 9/23/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: A new Louisville restaurant is hosting a job fair to find over a hundred workers. Walker's Exchange is slated to open in November at the Galt House Hotel.

Date: 9/23/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 55

Story: Ford workers from Louisville went down to Bowling Green today to stand in solidarity with workers on strike at the Corvette Assembly plant. Any agreement between the union and GM will provide a starting point for negotiations between the UAW and Ford.

Date: 9/23/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Homelessness, panhandling, car break-ins and drug abuse are plaguing Bardstown Road. Now business owners are trying to band together to improve safety, cleanliness and area nightlife.

Date: 9/23/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 20

Story: A Vietnamese restaurant in the Highlands has closed. Café Mimosa's website confirms the closure, but no reason was given.

Date: 9/23/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Butchertown Pizza Hall announced it's closing. The owners say it was a tough decision, but they promise a much happier announcement coming soon.

Date: 9/23/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:30

Story: The last of three music festivals is set to take place in Louisville. The first two had a good turnout and the third already has one day fully sold out.

Date: 9/23/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 3:30

Story: In 2000, a baby born was born at 23 weeks at Norton Children's Hospital and weighed just over 10 ounces. The doctor and family talk about her amazing story of survival 19 years later.

Date: 9/24/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: A Louisville landfill is transforming into a $60 million garden. WDRB got the first look inside The Waterfront Botanical Garden ahead of its grand opening next week.

Date: 9/24/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: A rundown Clarksville motel transformed into upscale apartments is now officially open. A ribbon cutting was held today at the complex that includes top-of-the-line amenities, a luxury pool and a dog park.

Date: 9/24/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Kentucky Kingdom is offering first responders a free day at the park. First responders just have to show proof of their employment at the park on Saturday or Sunday to get up to four free tickets.

Date: 9/24/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 40

Story: LG&E wants the state to toss out Bernheim Forest's complaint over a pipeline in Bullitt County. Bernheim says it would threaten endangered bats and rare snails, but LG&E says the complaint should be dismissed because it followed state rules in applying for the pipeline.

Date: 9/25/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Old seats from Cardinal Stadium are being turned into bus stop seating. A prototype was just installed on Bardstown Road at Douglass Boulevard.

Date: 9/25/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: We're learning more about a new entertainment venue in Jeffersonville. There will be a small stage, and two historic homes on the property will be turned into restaurants. There will also be space for outdoor games.

Date: 9/25/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: McDonald's says it's looking to hire 900 workers in Louisville this fall. And now people can apply through Alexa or Google Assistant devices.

Date: 9/25/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: A job fair will be happening tomorrow at the Paroquet Springs Conference Center tomorrow. Hundreds of jobs will be available, ranging from administrative work to engineering.

Date: 9/25/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:00

Story: Vanna White stopped in Louisville to promote a new way to play Wheel of Fortune. The Kentucky Lottery's new Wheel of Fortune scratch-off ticket has a $50,000 top prize. And all tickets can be entered into a drawing to play the Wheel of Fortune in Los Angeles.

Date: 9/25/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: After problems with funding, Henry County is having Baptist Health take over its ambulance service. Henry County EMS has been losing money for several years. Baptist will take over on January 1st.

Date: 9/25/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: Louisville opens a new home for start-up businesses. The building is home to Story Louisville, a co-working space and two companies backed by a firm that invests in life sciences companies.

Date: 9/25/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 30

Story: Carali's Rotisserie Chicken is the first restaurant to open up in the space under the Baxter Apartments at the corner of Baxter and Broadway. The owner says he expects the restaurant to open in January. This is the third location in Louisville for the business.

Date: 9/26/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: More stores area opening in a new Jeffersonville shopping center. TJ Maxx is set to open on October 10th. Ulta Beauty, Carters and Oshkosh all opened recently.

Date: 9/26/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: A developer plans to build a warehouse for aging bourbon barrels by stacking shipping containers six stories high in Jeffersontown. But documents filed with the Louisville Metro government don't say whether any particular bourbon distiller is involved.

Date: 9/26/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: The lender for one of Louisville's biggest office buildings is auctioning more than 100 million dollars in unpaid debt. This comes after the lender filed a foreclosure on the former Aegon Center last month.

Date: 9/26/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: UPS is expanding and plans to add 1,000 jobs in Louisville. The jobs would come over the next 15 years as it expands its Worldport air hub by adding a new hangar.

Date: 9/27/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:30

Story: The Louder Than Life Music Festival is happening this weekend at the Kentucky Expo Center. The festival will be monitoring noise levels after complaints from neighbors during the Hometown Rising and Bourbon and Beyond festivals.

Date: 9/27/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: About 40 medical coding layoffs are coming to Baptist Health. 15 of those are at Baptist Health Louisville and Baptist Health Floyd, with the rest of the jobs spread through the rest of the Baptist system.

Date: 9/27/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Lowe's is hosting job fairs at its Louisville area stores next Wednesday. People can just walk in and interview for positions like department supervisors, cashiers, receivers and load pullers.

Date: 9/27/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: A developer plans to turn the 100 year old Grocer's Ice building into apartments. It will become 77 luxury apartments with a grand courtyard and rooftop gardens.

Date: 9/27/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Dozens of people protested today to fight to keep a natural gas pipeline from cutting through Bernheim Forest's land. Protestors are also against a plan that could put a new interstate through some of the forest's land.

Date: 9/27/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:05

Story: Protestors held a rally at the Jefferson Square Park and then marched to LG&E headquarters in an effort to save Bernheim. The company wants to install a 12-mile high-pressure gas pipeline in Bullitt County. Part of it would run through Bernheim forest. LG&E says it followed all state rules but the pipeline route was kept a secret until after it was approved.

Date: 9/27/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: Thousands of people will attend at this year's Louder than Life festival at the Expo Center. Some neighbors in the surrounding area are hearing the show as well, while some are okay with the noise, others don't like it. The festival sets its decibel limit at 105.

Date: 9/29/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 4:00

Story: The Schneider family is in a feud after a failed sale of the Gault House in 2016. The feud leaves the future of the iconic Louisville hotel in jeopardy as the family battles over their future in court.

Date: 9/30/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Kentucky will start accepting applications in November for its 2020 hemp program. It's for growers and processors.

Date: 9/30/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Hotel Distil opens next month in Louisville. Seven women are in manager roles at the hotel, a significant amount of women in leadership roles in the hospitality industry.

Date: 9/30/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:30

Story: Hundreds of people showed up at a Planning Commission meeting to give their thoughts on a new development in the Irish Hill Neighborhood. The development would have residential units, retail and a hotel.

Ascertainment 2019 – Q3 - Education

Date: 7/02/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: West Point School District could merge with Hardin County Schools. Low test schools, lack of students and a state audit could force it to merge or shut down. That means students that go there aren't sure where they're going – just a month away from the start of school.

Date: 7/04/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :30

Story: Some Indiana schools are worried they don't have the time or money to implement all of the mental health trainings required by state law. Teachers must undergo regular training on suicide prevention, child abuse and neglect, human trafficking, bullying and CPR.

Date: 7/05/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: JCPS buses hit the roads again on Monday as hundreds of kids head back to school for a free summer camp. The district says it will give students a head start on the year.

Date: 7/07/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :30

Story: The fourth annual Pack the Bus starts in Clarksville. Community members can bring school supplies to help local kids.

Date: 7/07/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :30

Story: Nearly one thousand kids start a free summer camp with Jefferson County Public School. It is a four week camp that is meant to prevent the summer slide.

Date: 7/08/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: JCPS Backpack League is a new summer program helping about a thousand students. The goal of the program is to avoid the summer slide.

Date: 7/08/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :30

Story: Sullivan and Spalding Universities are teaming up to help pharmacy students. Students going to Sullivan taking classes in the Doctor of Pharmacy can now go to Spalding to take all their pre-requisite classes.

Date: 7/08/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :45

Story: JCPS and Simmons College of Kentucky are teaming up to help minority students become teachers. The new initiative will encourage recent college graduates to explore a career in teaching. Both hope it will create a pipeline of teachers who can work for JCPS one day.

Date: 7/09/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: A JCPS committee is expected to discuss changing the student assignment plan at a meeting tonight. The district is considering a plan to allow some students to attend a middle and high school close to their home.

Date: 7/10/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: JCPS students can get free school supplies at one of a dozen events this summer. The school supplies vary by site.

Date: 7/14/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :25

Story: Indiana is seeing a higher college graduation rate. 40 percent of students are finishing their degrees on time. Five years ago, only 28 percent of students did.

Date: 7/16/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Hardin County Schools is hosting a Facebook Live chat in hopes of reaching more students and parents. School leaders say they'll answer any questions people have about the upcoming school year.

Date: 7/16/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:40

Story: The JCPS board votes on punishments for students who violate its anti-tobacco policies. It reflects Kentucky's new smoke free schools law, which bans all tobacco and vaping products at school campuses and events.

Date: 7/18/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: A local school district will be able to stay open this school year despite a pile of problems. The West Point Independent school district says it has hired enough teachers to begin the school year on August 20th.

Date: 7/18/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: The chairman of the University of Louisville's board of trustees just stepped down. David Grissom will remain on the board, but not in an officer position.

Date: 7/18/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :50

Story: University of Louisville had its most successful year of securing fundraising. The grants will fund research for gum disease e-cigarettes and more.

Date: 7/18/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :45

Story: Louisville is a place where students will get to talk to astronauts at the International Space Station. Students from across 23 states will submit questions and students from Kentucky will ask the astronauts questions.

Date: 7/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:40

Story: Kentucky is still short thousands of teachers with only a few weeks left until school starts. Now the state department of education is launching a new website telling people seven different ways to become certified to teach.

Date: 7/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: West Point's school board chairman says the school will be ready for the start of the new year—even with a looming audit and no principal. Next week, there will be a thorough audit at the school.

Date: 7/20/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 40

Story: JCPS and Louisville Metro Government partnered for a back to school event at Westport Middle school. Families came out to get brand new backpacks filled with school supplies. More than 600 backpacks were given out.

Date: 7/21/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 30

Story: WDRB is working with Louisville Palace for this year's Children's Summer Movie Series. Anyone who brings a school backpack with supplies get two free tickets.

Date: 7/22/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: JCTC's Southwest campus gets an award for energy efficiency. Since 2010, the campus has reduced its greenhouse emissions by 41 percent.

Date: 7/22/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:05

Story: The new Slate Run Elementary is almost finished. The project is ahead of schedule by a full year. School starts in one week.

Date: 7/23/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: A special meeting is scheduled for tonight to discuss the JCPS student assignment plan. The district is considering allowing some students, mainly in West Louisville, to attend middle and high schools close to their homes.

Date: 7/23/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: JCPS launches a back to school webpages to help families get ready. It includes information on back-to-school events, open house and orientation date, health requirements and calendars.

Date: 7/23/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: JCPS is looking to fill almost 400 open positions with just three weeks left until the start of a new school year. About 150 of those are teaching jobs.

Date: 7/24/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: JCPS plans to shorten bus rides for thousands of students by letting them choose where they go to school. The revamped student assignment plan mainly affects students in West Louisville.

Date: 7/24/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: A new program aims to bring hundreds of soldiers to Kentucky and keep them here after they finish their time in the military. The partnership between Fort Knox and the Elizabethtown Community and Technical College provides soldiers transitioning to civilian life with training in a high demand trade.

Date: 7/24/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :30

Story: LMPD is pulling some of its crossing guards several schools use to keep kids safe because of budget cuts. Officers will be pulled from crossing guard duty in 4 cities and put back on the streets in Louisville.

Date: 7/25/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: Several JCPS schools just lost their crossing guards. LMPD pulled its officers from the jobs because of budget cuts. Anchorage Elementary School says it used to have four guards, but is now down to one.

Date: 7/25/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:15

Story: A new police is coming to Louisville just for JCPS schools. The district proposed transitioning nine security monitors to school resource officers. Seven more would be hired in January.

Date: 7/25/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: JCPS is helping parents and students all across the district get ready to head back to class. The district has planned a dozen back-to-school events with free school supplies this summer.

Date: 7/25/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: Several JCPS schools are losing their crossing guards. LMPD pulled its officers from the jobs because of budget cuts. Anchorage Elementary School says it used to have four guards, but is now down to one. The Mayor of Jeffersontown is also very upset with the move, affecting several schools in his city.

Date: 7/26/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: JCPS is still searching for its first applicant for a vacant seat on the school board. The deadline for applications for the vacant seat representing District 4 is less than a week away.

Date: 7/26/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: School starts Monday for students in New Albany-Floyd County schools. Superintendent Brad Snyder says school safety is the top priority for the year.

Date: 7/26/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :30

Story: LMPD now says it's going to wait to pull crossing guards from a dozen schools. The department announced earlier this week it would pull 25 crossing guards from schools in cities with their own police departments. The change has now been pushed back to November 1.

Date: 7/26/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 45

Story: The superintendent for New Albany Floyd County, Dr. Brad Snyder is giving advice ahead of the new school year. He is also asking for parents, students and staff to be vigilant in order to keep students safe.

Date: 7/27/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 35

Story: Educators are warning about the effects of rescoring April's state exams. State Law says if the rescore result is lower than the original students must keep the final score. This would cause issues for schools graded based on student results.

Date: 7/28/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:50

Story: JCPS has a billion dollars in unmet facility needs. One Board member suggested building new schools instead of repairing old ones to save money.

Date: 7/29/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:30

Story: JCPS Superintendent Marty Pollio was out and about today announcing a program to help kids get clothes. There's only 16 days left until school starts. The Clothing Assistance Program helped more than 2,000 students last year. The event runs all week.

Date: 7/29/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :30

Story: New Albany Floyd County Schools went back to school today. The district celebrated the opening of a brand new elementary school with state of the art technology, a new security system and more classrooms than the old building.

Date: 7/29/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:15

Story: Because of a new state law in Kentucky, schools now have to display the national motto, "In God We Trust." Districts across the area are getting creative in how to get the signs made. Some are designing the displays, some ordering decals and others are having a local sign company make them.

Date: 7/30/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: JCPS is figuring out the districts security plan for the future. Budget cuts have taken SROs out of schools and now leaders are working out a way to create a JCPS security force.

Date: 7/31/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 3:00

Story: Back to school shopping is in full swing as many districts are getting ready for the first day of school. We talk with experts about "helicopter parenting" which often leads to children not learning how to fend for themselves and lower confidence. The expert gives advice on how to distant yourself and let the kids learn for themselves.

Date: 8/1/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 45

Story: JCPS welcomed hundreds of teachers and faculty with an orientation. The state is in a teacher shortage right now. The first day of school is August 14th.

Date: 8/03/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: JCPS is less than two weeks away from school starting. A family held a backpack giveaway in honor of Ralph Jefferies who was killed in November. He had given to supplies away secretly before he died. Other back to school events took place as well around the city.

Date: 8/04/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:20

Story: The Kentucky College of Barbering had its 4th annual backpack and haircut giveaway. About a dozen barbers helped give away free haircuts for the school year.

Date: 8/04/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 50

Story: Northeast Christian Church held a school blitz to help clean up area schools. Members of the church went to 32 schools throughout Louisville and Oldham County cleaning up the outside of schools before students come for their first day.

Date: 8/06/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:30

Story: Most kids hate doing homework, but there could be a deeper issue. WDRB discovered how to recognize when your child is facing a learning or behavioral disorder.

Date: 8/06/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 40

Story: Bullitt County students head back to class tomorrow. The district's superintendent says his top priority is helping every student succeed.

Date: 8/06/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 40

Story: JCPS is considering opening an academy for girls of color. It would focus on science, technology, engineering, art and math. It would be similar to the DuBois Academy that JCPS opened.

Date: 8/07/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :1:30

Story: Lots of students across Kentuckiana head back to school today. We cover how students and teachers in Bullitt County are heading back.

Date: 8/07/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:55

Story: JCPS Superintendent Marty Pollio is speaking about the Board's vote to not renew the contract for School Resource Officers. Night security officers will be moved to days to help with school safety.

Date: 8/07/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:55

Story: Hardin County is short around 20 bus drivers. School starts Thursday, so some routes are being combined, others will be split. The school district is asking people apply to be a bus driver.

Date: 8/07/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:30

Story: A former School Resource Officer says it was a mistake for the School district to not renew the officers' contract. Steve Mattingly says about 10 percent of his job is law enforcement, the rest is relationships.

Date: 8/08/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Construction delays on a new Shelby County school will force 600 students to start the year in temporary classrooms like a library and even a conference space.

Date: 8/08/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :30

Story: A Back to School Fun Resource Fair is helping students get ready for the new school year. Children will be given all sorts of school essentials ahead of the new school year beginning.

Date: 8/08/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: A social media camp in Louisville teaches kids about using the platforms to make a positive impact. Students as young as 11 expressed concerns over gun violence.

Date: 8/08/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :30

Story: A new program will help students who need money, support or mentoring and are enrolled in two-year science degree programs at Jefferson Community and Technical College.

Date: 8/09/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :45

Story: The Archdiocese of Louisville held its opening school rally today. 700 teachers from 40 elementary schools got together to celebrate Mass and the upcoming school year which starts Wednesday.

Date: 8/09/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :45

Story: JCPS drivers practice their routes ahead of the first day of school on Wednesday. JCPS transports about 70 thousand students each day.

Date: 8/09/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :25

Story: The former Jefferson County Constable who shot a woman at a Louisville Walmart wants to sit on the JCPS school board. He's among 13 people who have applied. Whitlock was charged in 2011, after shooting an alleged shoplifter at the Walmart on Raggard Lane.

Date: 8/11/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:55

Story: Moms who lost kids to gun violence held a back to school drive. They gave away backpacks and other materials and wanted to spread a message about how violence isn't the answer.

Date: 8/11/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 35

Story: A school drive in Rubbertown gave more than 1200 items away. It was the 7th year of the event at New Birth Church.

Date: 8/11/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 4:35

Story: The W.E.B. DuBois academy is entering its second year. The school has already seen success among its students and educators there hope more schools can learn from them.

Date: 8/12/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 50

Story: JCPS launches its bus hotline. 485-RIDE gives parents a direct line to an actual person who can answer questions about buses, like stop location, bus number and pick up and drop off time.

Date: 8/12/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:40

Story: Oldham County students head back to class in two days. The district's superintendent discussed the three things parents and students need to know before school starts.

Date: 8/12/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 45

Story: The area near Bates Elementary is getting needed safety improvements. Crews built two new roads so buses and drop offs will be split.

Date: 8/13/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:15

Story: JCPS students head back to class tomorrow. Superintendent Dr. Marty Pollio says the district will focus on enacting its racial equity plan intended to close the achievement gap between white and minority students.

Date: 8/13/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: Five local fitness centers pull their weight to help make sure kids in need have school supplies. Crunch Fitness, Louisville Athletic Club, the Southwest YMCA, Planet Fitness Valley and Planet Fitness Dixie competed against each other to collect the most backpacks and supplies.

Date: 8/13/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: When JCPS goes back to school tomorrow, not every classroom will have a teacher. About 100 classroom teacher positions are still open.

Date: 8/13/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:10

Story: JCPS students go back to school tomorrow. Parents need to make sure that they know when the bus picks their student up and make sure their students are actually registered.

Date: 8/14/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: JCPS heads back to school today. This year is expected to a critical one for the district now that it's one year into its corrective action plan.

Date: 8/14/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: Today is also the first day for Jefferson County Catholic schools. Their superintendent shared her three themes for the school year including new testing, making math matter, and supporting parents. Two workshops will be held this school year to help parents.

Date: 8/14/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: Oldham County Schools welcomed back its students today as well. School all over Oldham County welcomed back students in fun, varying ways including DJ's and teachers waiting for students as they got off the bus.

Date: 8/14/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: It's the first day of school and JCPS buses are already breaking the law. WDRB caught several buses going above the speed in multiple locations. JCPS says they will address the issue with drivers.

Date: 8/14/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: LMPD says bus drivers aren't the only ones speeding. Officers gave out 40 tickets in school zones this morning. LMPD says it will continue to patrol while students are in school.

Date: 8/16/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :45

Story: Students at Christian Academy's biomedical class walked in to find a body on the floor along with clues like overturned furniture, a gun, broken glass and medicine. It's all part of a class that students will now spend the rest of the year trying to figure out the victim's cause of death.

Date: 8/16/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :30

Story: JCPS names the five finalists to fill a vacancy on the school board. The five were among 11 applicants. Former board member Ben Gies resigned to take a job with Kentucky Youth Advocates.

Date: 8/16/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :25

Story: Saturday is JCPS Day at the Fair. People can learn more about the district's school choice options, registration and application process and other resources.

Date: 8/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: A Franklin Circuit judge will decide whether Kentucky Attorney General Andy Beshear's lawsuit challenging the Kentucky Labor Cabinet's sick out investigation should move forward. The cabinet says 1,074 teachers broke state law by prompting illegal work stoppages during this year's legislative session.

Date: 8/20/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: A JCPS committee is expected to consider changes to the student assignment plan today. The district announced last month it's considering allowing some students to attend the middle and high schools closest to their homes.

Date: 8/20/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 35

Story: The state is thinking of taking over West Point Independent school. Kentucky Education Commissioner Wayne Lewis says there are no systems in place to make sure teachers are prepared.

Date: 8/21/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 30

Story: A Christian author will no longer be allowed to substitute at JCPS. A middle school student accused him of touching his inner thigh.

Date: 8/22/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Hundreds of students at Indiana University Southeast just finished moving into their dorms today. About 400 students will live on campus this year.

Date: 8/22/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: New Albany is hosting a public open house at its new school tonight. Slate Run Elementary has state-of-the-art technology, a new security system and six more classrooms than the old building.

Date: 8/23/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: JCPS added about 60 mental health counselors to its schools for the start of this school year. We take a look at the expansion and the impact it's having on schools.

Date: 8/24/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:05

Story: Charlestown students got a colorful welcome when they walked into school on the first day. The hallways of Pleasant Ridge Elementary are now painted with murals. Many more projects are planned throughout the year.

Date: 8/26/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Indiana officials will soon make the results of its new standardized tests available. But before they're even released, Republican lawmakers are looking to delay any penalties from lower student scores.

Date: 8/27/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Happening tonight... The JCPS school board plans to discuss the new girls of color STEAM academy. If approved, the program would focus on science, technology, engineering, arts and mathematics.

Date: 8/27/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: A rain delayed construction project has Shelby County teachers putting their thinking caps on when it comes to their classrooms. Their new school is not ready yet...but the kids are coming back in a week.

Date: 8/27/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:30

Story: The JCPS board vote for a Girls of Color S.T.E.A.M. Academy. 150 6th grade girls will go to the school next year, and a principle will be named next month. The program will expand to the 8th grade by 2022. This will be a $5 million commitment from JCPS over three years. Eventually the Girls Academy of Color will expand from 6th to 12th grade.

Date: 8/28/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:15

Story: Indiana's educator were on damage control today after the state's standardized test brought back low scores. Results are embargoed until September 4. Educators are asking lawmakers for a 1 year hold that would not punish schools for result, a pause to intervention timelines, and to grant the state board of education emergency rule to align Indiana with federal standards.

Date: 8/29/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 3:15

Story: WDRB caught 14 JCPS buses speeding on the first day of class. Now a driver is speaking out, saying she can't do her job without breaking the speed limit because of time constraints.

Date: 8/29/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 50

Story: Students at Camden Station Elementary in Oldham County are starting the new year in a building that undergone a complete overhaul. There's a new "safe schools" entrance, a new cafeteria and a new library.

Date: 8/29/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:45

Story: Camden Station Elementary school gets a major overhaul. The front office has a new "Safe Schools" entrance that people have to walk through to get into the building. They also have a new cafeteria and library. The biggest changes for students are how the kids are learning. Classrooms are set up with couches, bean bag chairs and higher tables instead of the traditional desk and chair. There is also a tech upgrade. Renovations cost $11.5 million.

Date: 9/01/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:25

Story: A full time therapy dog has gotten popular at Pleasure Ridge Park High. Shelby is there to help students calm down. She was trained through a canine program at the Kentucky State Reformatory.

Date: 9/02/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: Several soldiers were sworn into the military in Louisville. The mayor recognized the Army soldiers and recruiters during the ceremony.

Date: 9/03/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Indiana is investing over $19 million in school safety. It will partially or fully fund all top-priority projects identified by more than 400 schools. They money can be used for school resource officers, new equipment and technology, firearms training for teachers and threat assessments.

Date: 9/03/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: JCPS is set to discuss the student assignment plan tonight. The issue is whether to give many families in west Louisville to choice of sending their kids to middle and high schools closer to their homes.

Date: 9/03/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:15

Story: JCPS is looking at how students are accepted into Magnet Schools. The process is long and the board committee is looking to make changes in a couple of areas. If new policies are passed they could be put in place by next year. The public can give feedback on October 1st.

Date: 09/04/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 3:55

Story: Results of Indiana's ILEARN test were just released, and they show barely more than a third of the kids who took the test passed in both English and math. But officials are asking lawmakers to pause the punishment, which includes school grades and teacher pay.

Date: 9/02/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Thousands of Kentucky teachers rallying the Capitol caused schools to close for six days. Now we know what investigators did to figure out the names of the teachers accused of breaking the law.

Date: 9/02/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: The school security law passed earlier this year in Kentucky requires hiring a state school security marshal to make sure schools comply. We talked with the new marshal today about his plan for making schools safe.

Date: 9/09/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: Three Shelby County teachers jump out of a plan to prove to their students that they can conquer their fears. The teachers say scuba diving might be their next things to conquer.

Date: 9/10/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: JCPS is slated to vote on raising property taxes tonight. If the increase passes, it would mean a person who owns a $100,000 house would pay an extra $11 a year in property taxes.

Date: 9/10/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Indiana University says its overall enrollment has dropped slightly. The university said it started the fall semester with almost 91,000 students across seven campuses. That number is down about .8 percent from a year ago.

Date: 9/10/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:45

Story: Papa John's and Simmons College of Kentucky each say the other is responsible for the breakdown of an agreement by the pizza company to give the historically black college in Louisville $20,000 for scholarships. The money was pulled the day before John Schnatter, the pizza chains embattled founder, donated $1 million to the college.

Date: 9/10/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:30

Story: The JCPS board voted to increase taxes for the second year in a row. Jefferson County homeowners will pay more on their property taxes.

Date: 9/12/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 40

Story: Fern Creek High School was just revealed as the 15 Academies of Louisville school. The program allows students to learn about a career they're interested in while also including core studies.

Date: 9/16/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Indiana University Southeast has seen a drastic drop in student enrollment. Officials have linked the problem to the recession, the possible closure of the Sherman Minton Bridge and the low unemployment rate.

Date: 9/16/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 45

Story: A University of Louisville professor is offering a free course to local CEOs on the black experience. The class is meant to expand the horizons of the most successful people in the area.

Date: 9/17/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:30

Story: Greater Clark County Schools unveiled its plan for the future. It includes spending millions of dollars on new athletic facilities, renovating the bus depot and buying land for new schools.

Date: 9/18/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 30

Story: Greater Clark County Schools are working on a athletic facility upgrades throughout the district. Community feedback session will be held next week.

Date: 9/18/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 30

Story: A new elementary school in downtown Jeffersonville is starting to take shape. The school combines Maple and Spring Hill elementary schools. There will be space for 500 students. The school is scheduled to open for next school year.

Date: 9/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:25

Story: Bullitt County Schools are working to educate students on the dangers of electronic cigarettes. The school district is using the Catch My Breath program at middle and high schools. Students take time to do their own research in order to understand the side effects of vaping.

Date: 9/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:30

Story: The Simmons College Board of Trustees chairman talks about the controversy over scholarship money Papa John promised to give to students at the historically black college. Papa John's is now giving the school $30,000 instead of the original $20,000.

Date: 9/20/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:45

Story: The Prosser Career Education Center just went through a two and a half year long renovation worth more than $25 million. We toured the building and talked with officials about how the new construction is helping the students learn.

Date: 9/21/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: Students from several different states came to Louisville today FOR THE Bands of America Regional Championship. The overall message of the event stresses the importance of music education in school, a subject that can often be cut first with budgets.

Date: 9/23/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:00

Story: A dress code controversy led to dozens of girls being turned away. JCPS says students with dresses 2 inches above the knee and shorter weren't accepted.

Date: 9/23/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:40

Story: Greater Clark County Schools is considering allowing uncertified teachers teach in its school. The move is meant to save money. The teachers would teach courses like art, music, technology and p.e.

Date: 9/23/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 40

Story: U of L released its new strategic plan on Monday. It includes improving retention and graduation rates, as well as creating a healthy work environment.

Date: 9/24/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:00

Story: JCPS is set to hammer out the details of its own security force tonight. The board is scheduled to figure out how the 50 SROs will operate and how they'll be assigned to schools.

Date: 9/24/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Family and Children's Place scores more than $30 million dollars to continue Head Start programs. The agency says it plans to use the grant to serve more than 550 students over the next five years in Jefferson County.

Date: 9/24/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:30

Story: JCPS is working on its new plan for school resource officers. Board members had conflicting ideas on whether or not these officers should be armed or if they should be in uniform.

Date: 9/24/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :50

Story: The JCPS board votes in favor of adopting "In God We Trust" to board policy. One board member voted against it saying that it breaks an oath they took as board members.

Date: 9/25/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: JCPS announces the principal for the new Females of Color STEAM Academy. Ronda Cosby is currently the principal of Chancey Elementary. The school is slated to open next fall, but a name and a location have not yet been chosen.

Date: 9/26/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: Indiana high schools launch an Esports league. The season will last six weeks and features six different games—Overwatch, Smash Brothers, League of Legends, Rocket League, Hearthstone and Forza Motorsports.

Date: 9/26/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: Community Montessori in New Albany broke ground on its new CASA dei Curiosity building addition. The addition will allow the school to host large group activities like theater productions and community events.

Date: 9/26/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: A southern Indiana elementary school sent 5th graders home with a letter yesterday—telling them to end all dating. That left some parents upset, but the school says it was just trying to protect the social, emotional and academic learning of the school day.

Date: 9/27/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:00

Story: Manual High school introduces a new high-tech classroom with monitor walls, video workstations and dual monitor computer stations. Kindred Healthcare provided more than $250,000 for the new equipment.

Date: 9/28/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 20

Story: Mayor Greg Fischer announced the expansion of the Say It with Words Initiative. The program helps to make sure every child is Kindergarten ready.

Date: 9/28/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:40

Story: A Verizon ad featuring students at the Academy of Shawnee made it to the Emmy's. Now the company is giving the students iPads to help them succeed in school. This was given to them through Verizon's Innovating learning grant.

Date: 9/28/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 40

Story: Makers from across the area came to the University of Louisville to celebrate the city's art and tech scene. Over 75 makers took part in the event like robot builders, glassblowers, and many more.

Date: 9/30/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: The Kentucky Lottery celebrates 20 years of helping students go to college. The KEES program is funded completely by proceeds from the lottery.

Date: 9/30/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Kentucky is using a new 5 star rating system to show how schools are performing. The system rates schools from 1 -5 stars based on performance in reading, math, science, social studies and writing.

Ascertainment 2019 – Q3

Health

Date: 7/01/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Louisville's fire department talks with us about the dangers of fireworks leading up to the 4th. Department explains what to do and what not to do.

Date: 7/01/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :30

Story: Local Red Cross giving out tickets to Kings Island for free, but you have to give blood. The organization is putting on its Holiday Hero Blood Drive.

Date: 7/03/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: People are concerned about a rise in ticks. But doctors tell us your chances of actually getting a disease from a tick are very low.

Date: 7/05/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :25

Story: Volunteers gathered for the first ever Pick Up the Parks Day. The group is picking up trash at their neighborhood parks today and tomorrow.

Date: 7/08/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:15

Story: Louisville emergency rooms are getting more patients who got hurt riding an electric scooter. This comes as a fourth scooter company has started offering rides in Louisville. One group is looking to put regulations on the scooters.

Date: 7/09/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: The American Red Cross is hosting a blood drive at Churchill Downs as it faces a critical blood shortage. Donors get a free chicken dinner and ticket to Kings Island while supplies last.

Date: 7/09/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Six Kentucky programs will share $150,000 to help breast cancer patients. In our area, U of L Hospital, the James Graham Brown Cancer Center and Flaget Memorial Hospital Foundation will get a share of the money.

Date: 7/09/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Hardin Memorial Health in Elizabethtown joins the Kentucky Statewide Opioid Stewardship program. That means the hospital will try to cut down on overprescribing by developing standards for their use.

Date: 7/11/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: A little boy was born with Spinal Muscular Atrophy with Respiratory Distress. That meant he was stuck in the hospital on a ventilator. But thanks to a machine called VOCSN, he was able to go home today.

Date: 7/11/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Norton Children's Hospital got national recognition for not overprescribing antibiotics. It was named an Antimicrobial Stewardship Center for Excellence.

Date: 7/11/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: A Southern Indiana church is taking on more than six million dollars' worth of medical debt. The church is partnering with RIP Medical Debt, which will choose people from four Southern Indiana counties and pay off their debt.

Date: 7/16/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: Gilda's Club of Kentuckiana opens a new facility. The bigger building will help the organization provide support for people battling cancer.

Date: 7/17/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:05

Story: People involved in the Franklin Commons neighborhood association have fears that a clinic will move into the area. Dr. Rafael Cruz wants to move his practice of healing people with chronic pain by using stem cell therapies and regenerative medicine to Court Avenue.

Date: 7/17/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: The app Life Lift is released in hopes of reaching an audience about the need for organ donation. The agency Power partnered with Trust for Life and Kentucky Organ Donor Affiliates to create the game.

Date: 7/17/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:40

Story: The private business Worried Parents Program is offering free searches in homes for parents that are concerned about their children hiding drugs in their bedrooms. All fees are being waived in September to get kids on a clean slate for the start of the school year.

Date: 7/17/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time:40

Story: Sproutlings Pediatric Day Care Center and Preschool celebrated Christmas in July for kids battling medical issues. Kosair Shrine and Boat Club sponsored the event that also donated money and strollers to the center.

Date: 7/17/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:00

Story: The plans for a new Passport headquarters in the middle of west Louisville are still on hold. Passport Health Plan announced last year the company would relocate to a brand new building at 18th and Broadway. Construction stopped earlier this year when the state made significant cuts to Medicaid payment rates.

Date: 7/18/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :50

Story: Jewish Hospital will no longer do heart transplants. Federal regulations require transplant programs to do ten procedures a year and Jewish Hospital has only done one.

Date: 7/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: A 42-year-old father says he feels like he's being thrown away after Jewish Hospital's sudden suspension of its heart transplant program. WDRB learned how many patients are on the waiting list—and what happens to them now.

Date: 7/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever is popping up in Grayson County. It comes with a painful rash, fever, chills, headache and nausea and is spread by ticks.

Date: 7/19/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :45

Story: Many veterans can now skip a trip to the VA and go to a neighborhood urgent care. The VA's new Mission Act gives veterans access to urgent care and walk-in clinics. The VA says it's a major step forward in terms of convenience.

Date: 7/21/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:25

Story: People who had heart transplants as children gathered for a luncheon today. 75 children have gotten the procedure through Norton Children's heart institute.

Date: 7/21/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :40

Story: Several firefighters came together for a charity ride called the Jug Run. The run raises money for the Kentucky School for the Blind in Louisville.

Date: 7/24/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 3:00

Story: A teen is lucky to be alive after a cyst ruptured in her mouth. She lost 8 pints of blood and we only have 10 pints in our body. Thankfully the hospital had enough blood on hand to help her. Our story focused on the importance of blood donation and how WDRB is teaming up with the Kentucky Blood Center to get people to come out a donate.

Date: 7/24/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 25

Story: A local company is hoping to have their 3D printer launched into space. The launch of a SpaceX rocket was scrubbed again today because of weather. A Southern Indiana company says the 3D printer will use stem cells to print human tissue, which could eventually grow into human organs.

Date: 7/25/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: A Louisville healthcare provider is being held hostage by hackers, and it's created major delays in service. The Park DuValle Community Health Center has been hit twice by ransomware attacks since April.

Date: 7/25/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: The family of a former cancer patient donates $250,000 to the Norton Healthcare Foundation. The money will be used for new genomics lab technology.

Date: 7/25/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Free Hepatitis C screenings will be available on Sunday for World Hepatitis Day. University of Louisville Hospital and several partners will be offering the free screenings at 13 different locations.

Date: 7/26/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 40

Story: WDRB teamed up with the Kentucky Blood Center for Give Blood Day. Donors get a t-shirt and get entered into a raffle.

Date: 7/26/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: The American Cancer Society is looking for volunteers for its Road to Recovery program. The program matches volunteers with cancer patients who don't have a ride or may be too sick to drive.

Date: 7/26/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :45

Story: Baseball is helping to break down the stigma surrounding mental health. The theme of tonight's Louisville Bat's game was Mental Health Awareness Night. Several local organizations were at Slugger Field hoping to raise awareness.

Date: 7/27/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 45

Story: People in the Park Duvalle neighborhood are working together to combat pollution by building a "living green wall". People in Rubbertown are more likely to develop lung and colon cancers compared to other people living in Louisville.

Date: 7/27/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: Community members and doctors joined B.O.A.T. (Bullitt Opioid Addiction Team) to educate people on fighting opioid addiction. Narcan was handed out in first aid kits for free thanks to donations and volunteers.

Date: 7/27/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 35

Story: Priscilla's Place hosted a BBQ for woman battling addiction. Officials say their program is consistently seeing an 86-percent success rate.

Date: 7/27/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 50

Story: Local Groups partnered for Community Pet Day at the Beechmont community center. Animals received basic wellness services. There are about 106,000 pets living without vets nearby.

Date: 7/28/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 40

Story: Bullitt County Animal Shelter held a fundraiser to try and get a new van and achieve no-kill status. A fundraiser was held at the Shepherdsville Zaxby's. Several Ohio Valley Wrestlers made appearances.

Date: 7/29/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:25

Story: Scott County has seen a huge decrease in HIV and Hep C cases since the epidemic 4 years ago. A local doctor attributes the change to support groups, the needle exchange, and aggressive treatment of Hep C, which is curable. Problem is - there isn't a lot of access to Hep C treatment because only infectious disease doctors or gastroenterologists can provide treatment. That is until recently. Indiana recently started project ECHO. It trains family doctors and links them with specialty doctors so that they can also treat for Hep C.

Date: 7/30/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: 4 year old boy with rare disorder is prescribed an adult medication by a specialist in Indy. But pharmacists in Southern Indiana won't fill it. We called West Moreland pharmacy to get video of the drug as the reporter was explaining the situation the pharmacist explained why people are saying no. That the retail version doesn't come in the dosage this kid was prescribed. It's not FDA approved for kids this young and it's a controlled substance. Mom has called Westmoreland and been told no but now the pharmacist says he can compound down the dosage and take the prescription.

Date: 7/30/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Anthem is teaming with a company called Renew Recovery to offer in-home substance abuse treatment. It's the first of its kind in the state, and its designed to reach addicts before they get to the point of losing jobs and family, allowing them to be treated in the privacy of their homes.

Date: 8/1/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 5:00

Story: Dozens of broken hydrants have been found in Charlestown, Indiana. People are also complaining about brown water coming from aging pipes. Indiana American Water purchased Charlestown Water in March and is fixing the problem.

Date: 8/02/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: In July, a record number of babies were born at Norton Women's and Children's hospital. The hospital says 537 babies were born, an average of 17 per day. The highest previous record was in September 2015 with 534 babies.

Date: 8/03/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 45

Story: Hundreds of people came out for the annual Norton Children's Hospital Splash and Dash walk/run. This event honors 15-year-old Max Gilpin who died of a heat stroke during football practice.

Date: 8/05/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :25

Story: Norton Healthcare is being recognized for its treatment of patients who experience severe heart attacks. Three Norton hospitals gave care to over 430 patients in the past year.

Date: 8/08/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: The need for nurses is so great that a Louisville school is busting out of its building. Galen College of Nursing outgrew its campus so it's building a new one. It will also house Galen's national headquarters as well.

Date: 8/12/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: West Nile-infected mosquitoes are discovered in Louisville. They were trapped in the 40215 zip code, near the Watterson and New Cut Road.

Date: 8/13/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: A deal could be on the table that could save the region's only adult organ transplant center along with thousands of jobs. U of L could be close to a deal to takeover Jewish Hospital with help from the state government. A meeting on the issue is scheduled for tomorrow morning.

Date: 8/19/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: Floyd Central High School students met with Sen. Todd Young Monday afternoon. He's the co-sponsor of the Tobacco to 21 Act. He talked about the legislation and we spoke with a teen who was very candid about how many people use e-cigs.

Date: 8/19/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: Fleur de Flea Vintage Urban Market announced its new, permanent home in Paristown. The Vintage Urban Marketplace will open in February of next year. It will be located in the former Swan Street Antique Mall, now known as Swan Street Commons on Breckinridge Street. The flea market will occupy about 25-thousand square feet and will be home to 150 to 200 vendors.

Date: 8/20/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 40

Story: Kentucky has a new program to try and make hospital staff better prepare to support victims of sexual assault. It will train them to know survivors' rights, legal requirements and other topics to minimize re-traumatization.

Date: 8/21/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 50

Story: A U of L professor talks about a harmful algae bloom at Endless Summer Paddle. She told people what to look out for.

Date: 8/22/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: Norton Healthcare is named the official health care provider for the Louisville Cardinals. As part of the agreement, Norton Sports Health will provide medical support for all of the university's 23 sports programs.

Date: 8/23/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: The Jewish Hospital heart transplant program is saved by the University of Louisville. One week earlier the University bought Jewish and Kentucky One. One woman tells her experience on how the program saved her life.

Date: 8/30/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :30

Story: Health officials in Floyd County find mosquitoes with West Nile virus. The sample of mosquitoes were found in New Albany. Residents urge people to use DEET, along with wearing long sleeves and pants when outside.

Date: 9/02/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:50

Story: The semi-annual hike bike and paddle was held today. Health enthusiasts gathered for fun and fitness to encourage a healthy lifestyle.

Date: 9/02/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: The Kentucky Poison Control Center of Norton Children's Hospital has launched a 24/7 support hotline for opioid-related issues. Experts will provide information about opioid dependence, withdrawal and where to get help.

Date: 9/02/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Kentucky is getting about $31 million to fight the state's opioid epidemic. Senator Mitch McConnell says the money will reinforce life-saving work being done to combat opioid abuse.

Date: 9/05/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :30

Story: West Nile Virus has been found in Harrison County, IN. Health officials are reminding to put on insect repellent with DEET, stay inside from dusk to dawn and wear long sleeves and pants when outside.

Date: 9/06/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: Local nonprofit Supplies Over Seas is sending almost 7 tons of medical supplies and equipment to the Bahamas, including hospital beds, walkers and wheelchairs. The equipment was picked up by UPS to help Hurricane Dorian survivors.

Date: 9/06/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: A new community center opens in Louisville to focus on recovery. Centerstone is a connection hub for housing, transportation and things addicts need to transition from residential treatment or incarceration back to a healthy life.

Date: 9/06/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:45

Story: Indiana confirmed a death linked to e-cigarettes. Health officials say there are also two lung cases under investigation in Kentucky. Officials say there are three things that concern them about vaping- one of them being the unknown of what can happen in 30 years.

Date: 9/06/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:50

Story: A new community center isn't focusing on recreation but rather recovery. Centerstone opened the new facility today. It has couches, a kitchen and computer lab. The hope is the facility will help addicts make the transition to a healthy life.

Date: 9/08/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:15

Story: The Huntington's Disease walk happened on Sunday. This is as The Huntington's Disease Parity Act was re-introduced into congress. Supporters hope lawmakers pass the bill to help those suffering from the disease.

Date: 9/11/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:10

Story: We speak with a local vape shop owner who says the ban would put him out of business. He believes it will cause more problems – pushing the flavored cartridges to the black market where they could be laced with harmful stuff. Use sound from the president and U.S. Health Secretary about why now for the ban and what it entails.

Date: 9/16/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:45

Story: A grant from Kosair Charities to a southern Indiana hospital seeks to keep moms and babies together for treatment. The money is designed to offer specialized treatment for drug-dependent babies.

Date: 9/17/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:55

Story: Louisville plans to fog six neighborhoods to get rid of West Nile-infected mosquitoes. Experts say fogging will happen during dusk and will not leave residue behind on streets, trees or cars.

Date: 9/17/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 45

Story: Veterans were able to ask leaders about their healthcare during a VA town hall meeting tonight. Veterans voiced their concerns and got information about healthcare, benefits and claims.

Date: 9/17/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:50

Story: Early reports said there might be a delay in manufacturing the flu vaccine. It took longer this year because the CDC was waiting to pick the final strain. A local hospital isn't worried because it doesn't order the first batch of flu shots until the end of September.

Date: 9/18/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 25

Story: A boil water advisory is issued for an area of Charlestown, Ind. because of a water main break. The water is still okay to drink, bathe in and wash dishes. Indiana American Water will notify customers when the advisory is lifted.

Date: 9/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: The health department closed down a Rally's in New Albany after a health inspection found moldy floors and walls and ants and roaches inside the restaurant. The restaurant was cleared to reopen after cleaning it up.

Date: 9/20/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Louisville Archbishop Joseph Kurtz says he's about to undergo radical surgery to treat his cancer. He says he'll complete chemotherapy and immunotherapy by mid-October. Then he's slated to have his prostate and bladder removed in November.

Date: 9/20/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 20

Story: All tobacco products will be banned at Louisville's VA hospital starting October 1. No one will be able to use cigarettes, cigars, pipes, or vaping devices inside the Robley Rex Medical Center. The ban also applies to the hospital's parking lots and cars.

Date: 9/24/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 40

Story: The VA Medical Center in Louisville will not allow anyone to smoke there anymore. It is part of a change coming to VA medical centers across the country.

Date: 9/25/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:10

Story: Local vaping stores speak out on the recent vaping bans around the country. One owner says he agrees with the restrictions but says they should be sensible. One person who quit smoking cigarettes to smoke JUUL says she is stocking up in case there is a ban in Kentuckiana.

Date: 9/26/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: People in Kentucky are already getting the flu, before flu season starts. Doctors encourage people to get the vaccine as soon as possible.

Date: 9/27/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Kentucky is one of seven rural states taking part in a nationwide plan to end the HIV epidemic. The first goal is to diagnose people quickly so they can be treated as soon as possible.

Date: 9/27/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Kentucky's Division of Water and the Department of Public Health issue a public health advisory against swimming in the Ohio River. Officials say there's harmful algae in the water than can cause gastrointestinal issues and skin irritation.

Date: 9/29/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 30

Story: Mayor Greg Fischer and other officials will be addressing the vaping related illnesses hitting much of the country. They will discuss ways to combat the illness at a press conference tomorrow.

Date: 9/30/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Louisville health leaders urge people to stop vaping. 20 cases are under investigation in the state from people getting sick after using electronic cigarettes.