

WDRB-TV
LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY
INDEPENDENCE TELEVISION COMPANY

ISSUES & PROGRAMS
ASCERTAINMENT: PART 3
THIRD QUARTER, 2019

Ascertainment 2019 – Q3 -

Human Interest

Date: 7/01/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: A motel in southern Indiana is closing leaving dozens of people homeless. People are frustrated they're being kicked out with very little help. A local homeless agency is stepping up to help people find places to stay.

Date: 7/02/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: A survivor of a house explosion in Jeffersonville back in May is finally discharged from the hospital. The explosion killed her husband. She now heads to a rehab facility to continue her recovery.

Date: 7/03/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: A southern Indiana church installs a sculpture of a former slave in the Underground Railroad Gardens. Lucy Higgs Nichols escaped slavery in Tennessee in 1862, and ran to a regiment of Indiana soldiers fighting in the Civil War.

Date: 7/04/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: There are several 4th of July festivals happening around Kentuckiana today. Some of the bigger events include a parade in Jeffersonville, live music at Louisville's waterfront, and a festival at the Peterson Dumensnil House.

Date: 7/04/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :45

Story: Dozens of local children showed up to the Dairy Del Treatery for free ice cream on July 4th. They had to recite the Pledge of Allegiance to get a free cone.

Date: 7/04/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :30

Story: Louisville Metro Animal Services says to keep a close eye on your pets around 4th of July fireworks. Experts say the loud booms can cause them to run off.

Date: 7/04/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 50

Story: Thousands of people gathered at Waterfront Park to celebrate the 4th of July. The evening program began with a flag installation as a way to honor veterans.

Date: 7/05/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:30

Story: Hydroplanes are flying across the Ohio River in Madison Indiana hitting some seriously high speeds as part of the weekends Madison Regatta.

Date: 7/05/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Louisville Metro Animal Services says its facility is at capacity and can't accept more pets. They are inundated right now with pets that have run away after the 4 of July holiday.

Date: 7/07/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :45

Story: a Louisville woman learned that she had two half siblings after a DNA test. She was able to meet the three and the connection they shared.

Date: 7/08/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: The first steps of bringing Topgolf to Louisville is now visible. The Oxmoor Center, where the entertainment venue will go, put up fences today to mark off where construction will happen.

Date: 7/09/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 20

Story: Setup for the Forecastle Festival begins today at Waterfront Park. That area is closed to the public so crews can start getting ready for the three day music festival.

Date: 7/10/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Louisville archbishop Joseph Kurtz has cancer. He faces 12 weeks of treatment for bladder and prostate cancer before surgery.

Date: 7/10/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Louisville Metro Animal Services has hit maximum capacity. Now it's offering discounts to help ease the overcrowding.

Date: 7/10/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: The Louisville Zoo is on 24 hour watch waiting for an elephant baby. Workers are taking daily blood samples from the mother named Mikki.

Date: 7/10/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: LMPD helps one of its K-9s celebrate his 6th birthday. Maverick was treated to a taco-shaped cookie.

Date: 7/10/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: A Jeffersonville businessman gets handpicked to help detail the original Air Force One. The presidential plane sits at Seattle's Museum of Flight.

Date: 7/11/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 35

Story: The city of Scottsburg halts its attempt to evict the homeless from a Scott County church. According to church leaders, the city says it didn't realize the number of homeless people in the community.

Date: 7/11/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :45

Story: A Little League had their equipment stolen earlier this month. The Academy Sports store on Outer Loop pitched in with $1500 worth of equipment.

Date: 7/12/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Kentucky high school students competing in a League of Legends competition will now need written approval from principals, superintendents and parents. Some people say the game is too violent.

Date: 7/12/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: Thousands of people gathered at the Waterfront Park for the annual Forecastle Festival. Killers and Avett Brothers are just a couple of major artists that will be on stage jamming out this weekend.

Date: 7/12/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:15

Story: Louisville's Sun Valley Pool will open on Monday. Councilman Cindi Fowler helped to get it open after a long battle with the city's budget.

Date: 7/14/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:10

Story: A veteran without a family is getting a funeral. A funeral center stepped up to give him the sendoff he deserved. People are invited to come pay their respects at the funeral on Tuesday.

Date: 7/15/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 50

Story: One of Louisville's public pools is now open. Metro budget cuts recently left area pools closed, but Councilwoman Cindi Fowler used $40,000 of her discretionary funds to make repairs to the pool and hire lifeguards.

Date: 7/15/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: The U of L basketball team shows off its dunking skills in the pool. Coach Chris Mack tweeted out a video saying, "the freshmen need to work on their passing, so we got in a little practice."

Date: 7/15/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: Young people from across the country paid to come to Jeffersonville and volunteer to put a new roof on dozens of homes. The group, Mission Serve, has volunteers come from all over to help people with house projects and restoration projects. Each person paid $260 to come work and help out the community.

Date: 7/16/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Louisville cleared out three homeless camps today. We talked to outreach workers who say the city is just pushing the problem from block to block.

Date: 7/16/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: It's been three years since a giant replica of Noah's Ark went up in northern Kentucky. Now the park is adding some new attractions to keep the crowds flooding in.

Date: 7/16/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: WDRB teamed up with a local lawyer to give out over 500 free helmets to children.

Date: 7/16/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 50

Story: Charlie Vettiner Park is getting a makeover. The project includes relocating four tennis courts, adding two new pickleball courts and adding new parking.

Date: 7/16/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: A Vietnam War veteran passed away in May with no immediate family left to plan his memorial service. But an Indiana funeral and the community stepped in to give him the burial every hero deserves.

Date: 7/17/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:15

Story: America's Best Inn in Clarksville will shutdown on Friday leaving 150 people homeless. Clarksville and Jeffersonville are now giving $50,000 to help families relocate.

Date: 7/17/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:15

Story: A man from Nelson County, Ky. who passed away in 2017 shared his inheritance with several agencies across the county. He donated money to the public library, fire department, school district and a cancer research fundraising organization. In all, he donated about $2.5 million.

Date: 7/17/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:10

Story: Vendors have started moving in to a new 60,000 square foot food, beverage and entertainment venue in Shelby Park. It's called the Logan Street Market and the grand opening is in August.

Date: 7/17/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :35

Story: Celebrity chef Gordon Ramsay is looking for a struggling Louisville restaurant to help. His Fox show "24 Hours to Hell and Back" brings restaurants back from disaster. Louisville restaurants can apply for a chance to get his help.

Date: 7/18/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Faceapp, an app that allows you to see how you age, is all the craze right now, but many are ignoring the fine print. We take a look at how giving your consent to use the app is also giving consent for its Russian developer to access all of the pictures on your device and gives permission to use them and your name however it wants.

Date: 7/18/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:45

Story: A plan is in place to clean up Google Fiber's mess. The company plans to fix dozens of Louisville streets damaged before the company decided to leave Louisville months ago.

Date: 7/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: More than a million dollars gets pumped into Victory Park in West Louisville. The improvements include a brand new playground and spray ground, a covered picnic area, a walking path and more lighting and benches.

Date: 7/20/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:50

Story: The local funeral home, Spring Valley Funeral Home is helping families who have lost someone to violence by covering the costs. It is helping lower-income families that are struggling to bury a loved one.

Date: 7/20/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 45

Story: The community of Louisville came together for the “Better than Hate” walk at the Big Four Bridge. The walk was organized after someone wrote racist language on the bridge last week.

Date: 7/20/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 40

Story: USA Cares held a motorcycle ride fundraiser today to help 911 military families. The organization gets more than 200 requests a week from families all over the country.

Date: 7/20/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 30

Story: The Louisville public library held its 9th annual gonzo fest. The literary and music festival honor the legacy of journalist Hunter Thompson, the founder of Gonzo Journalism.

Date: 7/20/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 35

Story: The neighborhood bike-in series continued today at Bingham Park. The goal of the event was to help people connect with nature and their neighborhood.

Date: 7/20/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 3:40

Story: Annabelle Johnson worked for the Army Mapping Service at in field office in Louisville during Apollo 11. It has been 50 years since man first landed on the moon.

Date: 7/21/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :50

Story: A trio of maintenance workers in Austin, Indiana are going viral for their impromptu singing sessions. They find the time to break out into song during their work.

Date: 7/22/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :45

Story: Noche Mexican Barbeque will open inside the former Calvary Lutheran Church on Bardstown Road. It is scheduled to open on August third.

Date: 7/23/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:00

Story: Organizers hold a healing ceremony at the site of a new track and field complex. Attendees talked about the pain of the past and the potential of the future.

Date: 7/23/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: The Kentucky State Fair releases its 2019 app. It includes information on attractions, parking and weather.

Date: 7/23/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 20

Story: Old Forester’s Paristown Hall concert venue opens today. The 28,000 square foot building is a standing room only venue that can hold up to 2,000 people.

Date: 7/24/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: Ohio Valley Wrestling will head to Fourth Street Live on September 11th. The “Fight for Freedom” will honor service members and first responders.

Date: 7/24/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Two thousand dollars in cash is hidden throughout Louisville today. Breakout Games is organizing the hunt that gives people coordinates leading to $100 bills.

Date: 7/24/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: A Mt. Washington man who has been dealing with addiction issues his whole life is building a rehab center for people like him. The rehab center will be privately funded and open next year.

Date: 7/25/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: A group of guide dogs get pampered at the American Printing House for the Blind. They got a bath, a good brushing and even a paw-dicure.

Date: 7/26/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: The Kentucky Baptist Convention chooses a new Executive Director. 54-year-old Todd Gray is a Kentucky native who grew up in Lyon County.

Date: 7/26/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Kentucky's Salato Wildlife Education Center is hosting a free hunting and fishing day on August 10th. Those who attend can try 3D archery, air rifle shooting, casting and fishing.

Date: 7/26/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: Jackson County inmates use their skills to help set-up for the Jackson County Fair. Once the fair finishes up Saturday night, the inmates will also help cleanup.

Date: 7/26/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 30

Story: Mobile payment company Square collects data from vendors to see the most popular flavor of ice cream is in each state. A study shows the state of Kentucky has a thing for bourbon flavored ice cream.

Date: 7/27/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 35

Story: The West Louisville Appreciation Festival held its 39th annual celebration. The hope is to show all of the uplifting things that are happening in the community.

Date: 7/27/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:35

Story: There is a Junior Braid Camp happening at Emma'lee's transformation studios in West Louisville. This camp turned out to be a way for braiders to be empowered and some want to make a career out of it. A Back to school program may get started.

Date: 7/29/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :25

Story: More than 100 soldiers are back on U.S. soil after spending nine months in Afghanistan. The 19th Engineer Battalion's 42nd Clearance Company helped clear nearly 7,000 miles of road of IED's and other dangerous devices. During their time, they cleared more than 400 possible IED's.

Date: 7/29/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Program houses and rehabilitates pregnant mothers to keep families together and offer stronger supports through the vice of addiction. 200th healthy baby born last Thursday. Today we meet him and his mother. This program dates back to 1993 but has really ramped up with the opioid epidemic.

Date: 7/30/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:20

Story: You will start seeing therapy dogs at Louisville Muhammad Ali International Airport now. The program called WAGS is an effort to make a traveler's day less stressful.

Date: 7/30/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :50

Story: A group of young percussionists got to learn from one of the group's most famous graduates. Dani Markham works in New York Theater and performed with Childish Gambino. She is conducting workshops on Cuban drumming during Louisville Leopard Percussionists' summer camp.

Date: 7/30/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :30

Story: The Street Rod Nationals are taking place in Louisville this weekend. You can see cars from the 50s, 60s and 70s at the annual car show. More than 30,000 people will visit the city to see the classic cars.

Date: 7/31/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :50

Story: Interfaith Paths to Peace hosted a memorial today in Louisville for the nuclear bomb victims in Hiroshima and Nagasaki. The local group hopes for world peace.

Date: 7/31/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :35

Story: UPS donates $25K to the Girl Scouts of Kentuckiana. The grant will allow the group to expand the Zones of Hope Program. It provides girls leadership experience in what are known as "at-risk zip codes."

Date: 7/31/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :40

Story: A 15-year-old girl breaks down in tears after her older sister surprises her with concert tickets. The older sister tricked Kristen Wilson to coming to downtown Louisville. Once they got to downtown, the older sister said they're going to see "Why Don't We" in concert at the Louisville Palace. The girl broke down in tears and it was all captured on camera.

Date: 8/01/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :35

Story: The Department of Defense's only search and rescue dog visited with the Kentucky Air National Guard. Callie can find survivors in disasters, the wilderness and collapsed buildings.

Date: 8/01/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:20

Story: The Street Rod Nationals are back in Louisville tonight. 15,000 cars and 70,000 people will take over the Expo Center. The event lasts until Sunday. It will also have a $15 million economic impact on the city.

Date: 8/1/2014 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:05

Story: A southern Indiana rehab facility is starting over after a fire took over the facility. Todd's place is a faith-based rehab facility that helps men who have recently been released from jail or homeless. Pastor Kris Hunley is doing what he can to bring the facility back to life.

Date: 8/2/2014 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :45

Story: Louisville police officers helped treat dozens of JCPS students to a back-to-school shopping spree for free. Academy Sports and Outdoors surprised 50 students by giving them each 100 dollar gift cards. The store partnered with LMPD for today's Shop with a Cop event.

Date: 8/2/2014 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :30

Story: Residents can tour the brand new West Louisville YMCA before it opens. Ground was broken for the new 76,000 square foot facility in 2017. It's expected to open in October.

Date: 8/03/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 45

Story: People came out to west Louisville to celebrate Victory Park Day. This year the community also celebrated the transformation of the park. $1.1 million was given to make improvements.

Date: 8/03/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 25

Story: People came out to the St. Matthews Festival. Music, food and fun were available for families. Each year the festival brings between 5,000 and 8,000 people.

Date: 8/03/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 50

Story: The Louisville Zoo welcomed Mikki the Elephant's new born male calf. This is the 2nd elephant to be born at the zoo in its 50 years. The city is celebrating by lighting up Louisville's famous structures green.

Date: 8/03/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:40

Story: Gina Glaros goes out "on the Job" as a roofer. It is a very dangerous job that not many people could handle.

Date: 8/05/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 50

Story: U of L honors a Vietnam veteran battling cancer who never got to finish his degree. Larry McKillip was just named an adopted alumnus.

Date: 8/05/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Tickets are now on sale for the Jack O' Lantern Spectacular at Iroquois Park. Visitors will be greeted by more than 5,000 artistically carved pumpkins from October 8th through November 3rd.

Date: 8/05/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:05

Story: The Kentucky Veteran of the year is reaching out to other veterans to help. Jeremy Harrell is now teaching a course to help veterans overcome substance abuse.

Date: 8/06/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: A southern Indiana man stumbled onto an inactive military bomb while cleaning out his garage. That prompted an hours-long street closure as police looked at the device.

Date: 8/06/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: A New Albany businessman donates enough money to the Floyd County parks system to open up a new basketball court with a roof. This will allow the kids to play basketball rain or shine.

Date: 8/06/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: A woman in Bardstown needs a kidney transplant. She has been putting up banners asking for anyone who can help to contact her.

Date: 8/07/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :30

Story: Mayor Greg Fischer says the Big Four Bridge will light up orange this week. The bridge will be lit to honor the victims of the El Paso and Dayton shootings.

Date: 8/07/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :30

Story: A memorial is being planned in Elizabethtown to honor veterans of the Revolutionary War. It will be an 8 foot granite stone pillar. It would honor more than 100 veterans in Hardin County.

Date: 8/07/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Plans are moving forward to bring a massive riverfront park to Indiana. But the park still faces challenges like land acquisition and flooding concerns.

Date: 8/08/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :30

Story: A cat cafe in Louisville is celebrating its one year anniversary. The Purrfect Day Cafe opened on International Cat Day on August 8th last year.

Date: 8/08/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :30

Story: Fresh Thyme Farmers Market on Shelbyville Road is closing on August 23th after three years in business. No reason was given for the move.

Date: 8/08/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :30

Story: Louisville celebrates National Breastfeeding Month with a breastfeeding event and lunch at a local park. It will be held this weekend.

Date: 8/08/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :45

Story: Students at Oldham County High School hang huge photos of other classmates outside the wall of the school. The goal is for everyone at the school to get to know and understand each other much better.

Date: 8/09/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :45

Story: The 170th St. Joe's Picnic for the Kids is this weekend. More than 60,000 people attend. The money raised supports close to 350 of Kentucky's most abused and neglected children.

Date: 8/09/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :25

Story: New life for a landmark building in Nulu. Campisano Capital says it bought the Joe Ley Antiques building on Market Street. No word on the purchase price or officials plans for the space.

Date: 8/09/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :25

Story: Judging for the Kentucky State Fair starts today. Judging will start with the Homebrew Beer category and will continue up until the start of the Kentucky State Fair. Hundreds of people compete in dozens of categories during the 11 day event.

Date: 8/09/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :25

Story: A historic chimney from an old tobacco company in west Louisville comes crashing down. It was once part of the National Tobacco Works building but had to come down due to deteriorating conditions.

Date: 8/09/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :25

Story: Trimble county, Kentucky residents have won their battle to keep a sludge farm out of their backyards. R & R Septic and Excavation Services has withdrawn its request to make an almost 500 million gallon holding pond on 118 acres-- along Highway 421 North.

Date: 8/09/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 30

Story: MSD is showing people how they make beer with recycled water next weekend at the Water for Life event on Big Four Lawn. This will be a debut of its Next Round project.

Date: 8/09/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 45

Story: President of St. Joe's Board says their annual picnic helps more than 350 kids. This weekend is the 170th Picnic for the kids. There are games food and more. All proceeds go to the 3 programs ran by St. Joe's to help kids that are neglected, abused or in foster homes.

Date: 8/11/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 20

Story: A 43.8 million dollar lottery ticket was sold in Corydon. It was bought at the Jay C Plus on Old Capitol Plaza northwest.

Date: 8/11/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:10

Story: A local family is working to help make beds for families in needs. It is part of a national effort to help out families.

Date: 8/12/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: The Frazier History Museum loans out one of its most famous artifacts: Teddy Roosevelt's "Big Stick." The hunting rifle will be part of an exhibit about elephants scheduled to open in October at the Smithsonian National Museum of American History.

Date: 8/13/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 35

Story: The World's Largest Potluck returns to Iroquois Park in September. It's aimed at bringing people together to share food and conversation.

Date: 8/13/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: High levels of toxic blue-green algae have been found at Hardy Lake in Scott County, Indiana. Officials warn pet owners to keep their dogs from swimming in or drinking the water.

Date: 8/13/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: A section of Mammoth Cave National Park will soon close for more than a year for renovations. Officials are redoing the dirt and stone floor to make the path smoother and more user friendly.

Date: 8/14/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:10

Story: A Highview firefighter battling cancer, is given a surprise thanks to many of his fellow comrades. The department sent Mike Hensen and his mom to Gatlinburg for 7-days. During those 7-days, dozens of volunteers and fellow firefighters re-did their entire home. It was in need of a lot of repairs and a lot of donations, from local businesses to Lowe's poured in.

Date: 8/14/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :30

Story: Military veterans have a new way of getting free state fair tickets. The fair is making a change because the vets said they didn't like the way they had to get the tickets in the past. Now an organization called Vet Tix is stepping up, to help veterans get those free tickets.

Date: 8/15/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: The Kentucky State Fair is now officially underway. For the first time ever, a hemp company is the premier sponsor of the fair.

Date: 8/15/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:00

Story: A $3 million study will help Beargrass Creek make some big time improvements. Researchers will look for ways to help improve the wildlife environment and water quality in the creek.

Date: 8/15/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 40

Story: Thousands of U of L moved onto campus today. First-year students from out of town are required to live on campus.

Date: 8/15/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: The Kentucky Humane Society is offering some adoption specials for the national Clear the Shelters event. Adult cats will be available for $5, while select dogs will be available for $40.

Date: 8/16/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :20

Story: A snake caused a power outage in Meade County. It wrapped itself around part of a transformer. The power was quickly restored.

Date: 8/16/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 3:00

Story: Dr. Oz visited Louisville this week. We sat down with him, getting the scoop on the new season coming up and his thoughts on some health related stories in our area.

Date: 8/17/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 45

Story: The Henry Clay hosted the 6th annual Bourbon Mixer. 18 distilleries represented 40 brands to benefit the Coalition for the Homeless. The event has raised $120,000 in five years.

Date: 8/17/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:35

Story: Jeremy Vessels collects broken boards from skate parks and businesses across the city and turns them into coasters, bowls, and tables. He has loved skateboarding since the 80's.

Date: 8/17/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 45

Story: Veteran's Club Kentucky is expanding its equine therapy program. There will be a second farm in Taylorsville to help veterans with PTSD or traumatic brain injuries.

Date: 8/17/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 40

Story: Families are Artists, creators and teachers (FACT) held its 2nd annual art exhibit at the Chestnut Street Family YMCA. Families were able to take home art from local artists.

Date: 8/17/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 45

Story: People came out for the 7th annual African Heritage Festival at Ben Washer Park. The event highlights African and Caribbean culture but welcomes everyone. Food, storytelling and resources were all at the event.

Date: 8/17/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 45

Story: The New Albany Riverfront Amphitheater and Art Alliance of Southern Indiana hosted the 9th annual Monarch Festival. Butterflies were released giving them time to migrate south and come back next year.

Date: 8/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: A colorful new mural is on the side of the Park Place Lofts near Slugger Field. It features horses breaking from the starting gate. It was painted by a Brown-Forman employee as a replica of his artwork for the 2018 Woodford Reserve Derby bottle.

Date: 8/20/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Sacred Heart school is fusing several dance styles into the classic tale of the Nutcracker. One educator hopes to bring the community together by using hip hop and jazz.

Date: 8/20/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 55

Story: This year's Worldfest will feature a revamped layout. The University of Kentucky Confucius Institute Main Stage and the Overlook Stage will both be in new locations. Admission to the international food festival is free.

Date: 8/20/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: This year marks the horrific anniversary of the birth of slaving in what's now the United States. Kentucky's oldest historically black college, Simmons College, hosted one of the country's only observances to mark the year when the first African slaves arrived in what is now Virginia.

Date: 8/22/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: A Southern Indiana man discovers a timber rattlesnake in his garage. Then conservation officers discovered two more nearby. A trained reptile expert came in to remove the rattlesnakes.

Date: 8/23/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 40

Story: More than 40-thousand zombies will take over Bardstown Road tomorrow. This is the 15th year for the annual Zombie walk in the Highlands. Live bands, food vendors and street performers will be present.

Date: 7/24/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 35

Story: The UAW Local 682 hosted the 4th annual Riders for Heroes event today. It is a ride, rally and bike show at the Union hall. Money raised goes to USA Cares- a group that serves post 9/11 veterans and military families.

Date: 7/24/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:30

Story: People came out for the Zombie Walk in the highlands today. This is the 15th year of people dressing up like Zombies. Businesses say it's good for the local economy. Around 40,000 people showed up tonight.

Date: 7/24/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 35

Story: Gilda's Club Kentuckiana is celebrating its new home on Grinstead Drive. The organization is a support community for those impacted by cancer. The open house is a week-long event.

Date: 7/24/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time:

Story: Students can start the school year off with some free treats from Insomnia Cookies. Customers can get three free chocolate cookies with their order until September 1st.

Date: 8/24/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 30

Story: People came out for the 29th annual Art in Speed Park fine art fair. The free art takes place each year in Sellersburg. Original artwork is featured, including paintings to sculptures.

Date: 8/24/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 20

Story: Louisville Grows celebrates its 10th anniversary today with an open house. The non-profit works to grow green, healthier neighborhoods by planting trees and starting gardens.

Date: 8/25/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:05

Story: One group works to help veterans return to civilian life. The Veterans Club held a cookout on Sunday to try and get veterans to come out and get the help they need.

Date: 8/25/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:00

Story: Auditions for The Brown Forman Nutcracker were held on Sunday. Several children auditioned to be a part of the December production.

Date: 8/26/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Applications opened today for the 2020 Kentucky Derby Festival Royal Court. Young women from Kentucky or southern Indiana who are full-time college students are eligible.

Date: 8/26/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :45

Story: A Scottsburg church says it will no longer allow homeless people to stay. Initially the church became a shelter for the homeless after the Pastor invited them inside. But, after fighting with the city and police, along with several illegal things happening in and out of the church, the Pastor is closing the shelter on Friday.

Date: 8/26/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:20

Story: On Tuesday, Metro Louisville will break ground on the multi-million dollar indoor track and field facility in west Louisville. The project has already generated 18-million dollars in donations but more is needed. The total cost is 35-million...so every dollar counts. That's why the people behind the project are excited that pastors of two local megachurches have pledge significant donations and support.

Date: 8/27/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Actor John Travolta nearly hands Taylor Swift's Video Music Award to a lookalike from Louisville. Jade Jolie works at Play Louisville and performed alongside Swift last night.

Date: 8/27/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Northeast YMCA welcomes your pooch to the sixth annual dog swim. It's set for next Friday and Saturday at the Northeast YMCA's Calypso Cove Water Park.

Date: 8/28/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: The Kentucky Humane Society is getting a grant worth more than $6,300 from the Grey Muzzle Organization. The money will be used to provide veterinary care for senior dogs whose owners can't afford care.

Date: 8/28/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Crew members from the Shepherdsville Fire Department buy a bike for a little boy after his bike was stolen. They say they just wanted to show the boy that there are still good people in the world.

Date: 8/28/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :25

Story: Louisville Zoo Keeper Alexis Williamson has been awarded the Lutz Ruhe Professional of the Year Award by the American Association of Zoo Keepers. She works in the Gorilla Forest at the Zoo and is recognized for her conservation efforts.

Date: 8/28/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :50

Story: The Shepherdsville boy recently had his bike stolen on his birthday. His mom posted the incident on Facebook. The local fire department stepped in to help and bought a bike that looked like the same one he had before.

Date: 8/29/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 20

Story: The Louisville Zoo posted an adorable video of mamma elephant Mikki and her calf bonding. The calf was born earlier this month. The zoo hasn't said yet when he'll be on exhibit.

Date: 8/29/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :20

Story: The Louisville Zoo says it will open a new sloth exhibit by next spring. It will replace the old snow leopard exhibit.

Date: 8/30/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Attendance at the Kentucky State Fair was down this year. Officials blame it partly on policy changes after a 15-year-old fired a shot into the air, causing panic.

Date: 8/30/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: WorldFest returns to the Belvedere this weekend. It's one of the region's largest international festivals. It features world food, music, dance, culture and education.

Date: 8/30/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Attendance at Bernheim Forest has increased 200 percent since the park introduced forest giants. Now officials say the giants are helping them fight back against threats to the conservation land from a proposed pipeline.

Date: 8/30/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: The mayor is hosting a Hike, Bike and Paddle event Monday at Waterfront Park. There will also be tai chi, yoga, pickleball and Zumba.

Date: 8/30/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:15

Story: A southern Indiana racetrack ruined by catastrophic flooding is back open. The flooding happened two years ago and major repairs and upgrades had to be made at the track.

Date: 8/31/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :25

Story: Derby City BMX nationals is happening this weekend at EP Tom Sawyer Park. Races are important for national rankings and qualification for Tokyo 2020.

Date: 8/31/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :40

Story: Wayne Estopinal was added to the Jeffersonville Home of Champions wall today. Estopinal was killed in a plane crash in Clark County in November of 2018. Estopinal - the founder of TEG Architects- was a life-long supporter of Jeffersonville.

Date: 8/31/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 45

Story: Down syndrome of Louisville made a video in hopes to attract the attention of the Backstreet Boys. They posted a video on YouTube singing one of their songs. The band will be in town September 13.

Date: 9/01/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 30

Story: A new Buddhist Temple opens in Louisville. Buddha Blessed Temple opened after getting 15 acres of land three years ago. The opening featured Vietnamese and Buddhist traditions.

Date: 9/01/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 55

Story: Several local rock groups played at the Rock the Water Tower Festival. Groups like Tony and the Tan Lines and the Louisville crushers performed at the Four Roses sponsored event.

Date: 9/01/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 50

Story: A Louisville man will run in a 10k later this month despite having several brain surgeries over the past 20 years. He is running for those suffering from the same disease who haven't gotten the chance to run.

Date: 9/02/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: The annual BBQ under the bridge was hosted at east Jacob and First Streets. Volunteers made food for those in need.

Date: 9/03/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 40

Story: The American Red Cross is hosting a blood drive at the Kentucky Fair and Expo Center. Officials say blood donations are going back out as fast as they're coming in.

Date: 9/03/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Frankfort is inviting people to enjoy flights, food and fun on Aviation Day on September 14th. Children between the ages of 8 and 17 can enjoy a free plane ride while learning about aviation.

Date: 9/03/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: A Bardstown mom says she gave birth on the side of Highway 245. She says her water broke and she was on her way to the hospital. 20 minutes later she got out the car and the baby falls right out. Her husband was able to catch the baby before it hit the ground. There were complications as the baby had its umbilical cord wrapped around its neck and the mom started to have convulsions. They are now doing fine.

Date: 09/04/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: WDRB goes along with Honor Flight Bluegrass as veterans fly to Washington, D.C. to visit the war memorials.

Date: 09/04/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: Louisville creates new art project called Bike Sense. Bicyclists with sensors collect environmental data. That data is translated into sound and streamed on the Big Four Bridge and online.

Date: 9/02/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: A baby elephant made his big debut at the Louisville Zoo today. He will be on exhibit most days between 10 in the morning and noon.

Date: 9/02/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: Louisville Mayor Greg Fischer and the Fund for the Arts announce an expansion of the Cultural Pass. The annual summer program that provides free arts access to students will now be available year-round.

Date: 9/02/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Moscow Ballet's Great Russian Nutcracker is coming to Louisville and looking for local students to fill the children's roles. Children ages 6 to 18 can audition to be party children, small mice, snowflakes and Russian snow maidens.

Date: 9/02/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 3:00

Story: Dozens of Kentuckiana veterans got to go to Washington, D.C. on the trip of a lifetime. Veterans got VIP treatment while visiting the World War Two memorial, the Air Force Memorial and the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

Date: 9/06/2019 News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: Newburg Middle School students wear t-shirts with 'words matter' on them. The principal says it's a way to help spread the message about kindness and everyone taking a kinder approach to others in their everyday lives.

Date: 9/06/2019 News @ 4

Time: 1:30

Story: Mayor Greg Fischer announces $1 million has been allocated to help homeless people. That money will go to eight recommendations outlined in a University of Louisville study.

Date: 9/06/2019 News @ 10

Time: :45

Story: The Northeast YMCA is holding their 6th annual dog swim this weekend. It cost 25 dollars and proceeds go to local cancer survivors. All dogs must be up to date on their shots.

Date: 9/08/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 50

Story: The vintage fire museum hosted a 9/11 memorial in Jeffersonville. There was a prayer service and flag ceremony to honor the firefighters who died that day.

Date: 9/09/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Country music fans will be flooding into Louisville this weekend for the Hometown Rising Festival. Fans are allowed to bring cellphones, one sealed bottle of water, and blankets, but they're asked to leave coolers, strollers and video cameras at home.

Date: 9/09/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 3:30

Story: A 96-year-old World War Two veteran from Kentucky is being recognized as a true American hero. Albert Wess Senior was a truck driver for the "Red Ball Express." It was a convoy system made up of mostly African-Americans.

Date: 9/09/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :25

Story: The local organization, Dogs Helping Heroes, is looking for some heroes to help out. The organization is training eight service dogs. First responders, military and Gold Star Families interested in getting one of the dogs are asked to apply by September 26th.

Date: 9/09/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: A 4-year-old Palmyra boy is fighting for his life – in desperate need of a kidney transplant. Karson Bolen has Kabuki Syndrome – which is a genetic disorder affecting 1 in 32,000 children. The syndrome impacts his speech, physical and mental development. When he was born, only 30% of his kidneys were working and now he's down to 11%.

Date: 9/10/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 4:15

Story: One Kentuckian's picture is on the Korean War Memorial in Washington, D.C.. WDRB's Valerie Chinn went with him as he visited the memorial and talked about all he endured as a prisoner of war.

Date: 9/10/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 45

Story: The Volunteers of America shelter on south Preston street is being renamed. It will be called "Unity House." Families struggling with Homelessness will be allowed to stay there.

Date: 9/10/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:45

Story: The Make-a-Wish foundation helps send a Kentuckiana boy to Disneyland. Logan Chevalier has down syndrome and suffers from leukemia.

Date: 9/10/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:20

Story: A new shelter is being made for Louisville Metro Animal Services. The new shelter makes for triple the space and will be able to help more animals.

Date: 9/11/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:30

Story: Local students who weren't alive during 9/11 learn about the terrorist attacks. A moment of silence was held and a big flag was unfolded at the times each of the towers was hit.

Date: 9/11/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:25

Story: A Shepherdsville family lost their third son to Muscular Dystrophy. The disease took 17-year-old Jacob, 18-year-old Caleb, and 19 year-old Elijah. In 2013 WDRB covered a story on the family receiving a room-make-over thanks to the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

Date: 9/12/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 20

Story: Today is the Give for Good Louisville fundraiser. It's meant to drive donations and interest to more than 500 of the city's nonprofits.

Date: 9/13/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: The Louisville zoo will launch a naming contest for its baby elephant Monday. Visitors can submit an idea online, and three names will be chosen as finalists. Then the public will get to vote.

Date: 9/13/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:00

Story: Middle school students from across Kentucky got the chance to speak directly to astronauts on the International Space Station. The question and answer session was streamed around the world on NASA TV.

Date: 9/13/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 30

Story: A 4-year-old Shelbyville girl has been fighting a brain tumor for more than 3 years. Her parents bought a house before she was diagnosed and are having a hard time affording her medical bills. She will have a fundraiser tomorrow at the Shelbyville Fairgrounds from one to six.

Date: 9/13/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 50

Story: Down Syndrome of Louisville got the chance to meet the backstreet boys. The group even sang their song "I want it that way" after a video of the students went viral.

Date: 9/15/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:50

Story: The big table was held at Iroquois Park. It was a way for people from different cultures and backgrounds. People got to have conversations with people to learn more about their community.

Date: 9/15/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :45

Story: People came together for the "Love Sings Louder" event at the Iroquois Amphitheater. Teachers taught songs that spread messages of Unity and Hope.

Date: 9/15/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:30

Story: A Shelby County teacher is inspiring others. Jeff Bracken is slowly losing his hearing and vision because of usher syndrome type two. Over the summer he biked across the country to inspire students.

Date: 9/16/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 3:30

Story: Paige Raque fell from an apartment balcony several years ago as a student at Penn State. The Louisville woman miraculously recovered and is leading a full life. The speech therapists who helped her inspired her to become one herself.

Date: 9/16/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 35

Story: The naming for the Louisville Zoo's new baby elephant opens today. People can submit their name online. Later finalists will be picked for the public to choose.

Date: 9/17/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :25

Story: Local YMCAs want to know about inspiring teens in your life. Nominations are open for the YMCA of Greater Louisville's 2019 Youth Character Awards. Nominations are due by Friday.

Date: 9/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Louisville's Landmarks Commission votes to make a former school and convent a historic landmark. The ruling means Catholic Charities can't tear down the school, gym and convent to build a new headquarters and add parking spaces.

Date: 9/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Elizabethtown, Kentucky is set to become the state's first urban trail town. The city's Greenbelt Trails system features 16 trails.

Date: 9/20/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: The second of three music festivals in Louisville started today. People who don't live near the Kentucky Expo Center are complaining that the music from Bourbon and Beyond is too loud.

Date: 9/20/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: Dozens of protestors pack a downtown Louisville Park for the Global Climate Strike. They're calling for an end to the age of fossil fuels.

Date: 9/20/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :30

Story: WaterStep is getting some help from the Louisville Water Foundation. The organization is giving WaterStep $2,500 to help with disaster relief in the Bahamas.

Date: 9/20/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 25

Story: Mecum Auctions – which is the world's largest collector-car auction company – is back in Louisville. About 600 American muscle cars, classics, Corvettes, Hot Rods and more will be up for auction this weekend. Bidders have about 2 minutes to get the car of their dreams.

Date: 9/21/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 45

Story: The Brotherhood Ride started Friday in Bardstown and ended in Louisville today. The riders made stops at memorials in Richmond, Lexington, and Frankfort. It took 200 miles. Kentucky is the 5th state to start a brotherhood ride. The purpose is to honor fallen service members and k-9's killed in the line of duty.

Date: 9/21/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 45

Story: The Clarksville Fire Department hosted its 3rd annual junior Firefighter academy today. About 60 kids took part in training exercises and obstacle courses.

Date: 9/21/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 25

Story: Volunteers transformed the Southeast Family YMCA into a playground today. Over the summer kids drew their dream playground. Over 100 volunteers from Humana and their foundation built it in just 6 hours.

Date: 9/21/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 45

Story: Volunteers tackled about a dozen different service projects today in the Portland neighborhood. This is part of Habitat for Humanity's Love your Neighbor event. Some volunteers clean, other painted and landscaped.

Date: 9/21/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 25

Story: More than 1000 butterflies were released today from the Louisville Zoo. The butterflies are migrating to Central Mexico. Several butterflies were tagged so their journey can be tracked.

Date: 9/21/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 30

Story: Bourbon and Beyond Festival is in its second day. Actress Tiffani Thiessen, from Saved by the Bell, has been focusing on her passion of cooking. She is in talks with Netflix for her second cooking show.

Date: 9/21/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 45

Story: Thousands are on Bardstown Road for the Louisville Pride Festival. This is the 5th year for the festival in the highlands.

Date: 9/21/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 35

Story: Fourth Street Live celebrated its first ever mac and cheese festival. Over 40 styles of the iconic dish are being served at the festival. The event also features an eating contest. Tomorrow is the last day.

Date: 9/23/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: The newly expanded St. Matthews Library won the 2019 AIA Kentucky Honor Award. That's the highest recognition given by the Kentucky Society of Architects.

Date: 9/24/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:35

Story: City leaders open a time capsule that's been buried beneath Louisville's main library for 50 years. There was a newspaper from 1969, along with a scroll of names of everyone who attended the capsule burial ceremony.

Date: 9/27/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: A 1955 graduate of St. X gets reunited with his class ring. A metal detector hobbyist found it when going over the Swiss Hall property, which will soon be redeveloped as condos.

Date: 9/27/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:35

Story: Patients living with Alzheimers and Dementia got an unexpected gift from the Pearl's Memory babies. Sandy Cambron and Shannon Blair gave away baby dolls at the Sam Swope care center in Louisville.

Date: 9/28/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 20

Story: A bettor who downloaded the TwinSpires app won $2.2 million. He wants to remain anonymous but told officials he wanted to place the wager just to test out the new TwinSpires app. He place a $230 bet.

Date: 9/28/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 40

Story: Over 2000 people packed the Waterfront Park for the Steps to Independence Walk and 5k. The event is a fundraiser for Down Syndrome of Louisville. The event was hosted by WDRB's Keith Kaiser.

Date: 9/28/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 35

Story: Nulu Festival returned to Downtown Louisville for its 11th year. The festival is a chance for people to learn about the local businesses in the neighborhood. Nulu fest takes place every year on the last Saturday of September.

Date: 9/29/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:35

Story: The mayor of Madison, Indiana was laid to rest Sunday. Several people came out to send off the longtime mayor after his sudden death on Wednesday.

Date: 9/29/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:40

Story: One Louisville nurse is knitting headbands and scrunchies to help children who are battling cancer. For every scrunchie or headband purchased, another is donated to a child battling cancer.

Date: 9/30/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Today is the last day on the job for Kentucky Derby Festival President Mike Berry. He's retiring after 33 years.

Date: 9/30/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:50

Story: A Louisville woman is going to be the first woman ever inducted into the Kentucky Motorsports Hall of Fame. Benitta Russell will join some of the all-time racing greats like Darrell Waltrip and Danny Sullivan in the hall of fame.

Ascertainment 2019 – Q3 - Politics

Date: 7/1/19 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :30

Story: Louisville's new budget goes into effect today. Cuts include a Centerstone program that helps addicts and the mentally ill.

Date: 7/1/19 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: One of Louisville's public pools that shut down because of the city's budget crunch, will now open this summer. A Metro Council member is using $40,000 worth of discretionary funds for the pool.

Date: 7/01/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :25

Story: Several new laws take effect in Indiana today. We talk about some of the big laws people need to know about.

Date: 7/01/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :30

Story: The Indiana Department of Child Services is fighting back against a class action lawsuit. The lawsuit claims foster children suffer serious harm while in state care. The director of DCS says the information is misleading.

Date: 7/02/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :30

Story: A couple lawmakers in Kentucky pre-filed a bill calling for daylight saving time year-round. That means the state would Spring forward or Fall back.

Date: 7/02/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :45

Story: Some people in Jeffersonville are asking the city to update its noise ordinance that was passed back in the 90's. Since then, the downtown area has grown quite a bit with businesses and more homes. Some are complaining that the restaurants having live bands late at night is causing problems. A task force has been formed to see what, if anything, will be done.

Date: 7/03/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Marsy's Law is asking for the Kentucky Supreme Court for a rehearing involving a 2018 amendment. The law was originally turned down because the court felt the wording of the law on election ballots was misleading.

Date: 7/07/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:35

Story: A Scottsburg Pastor used his church to shelter homeless people. The city gave him notice that he either has to stop what he is doing or rezone. The mayor's office says regulations must be met for the health and safety of those in the area.

Date: 7/08/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :45

Story: The Radcliff city council is looking to use over 2 million dollars from FEMA to improve a flood mitigation system. The city saw major flooding twice before in 1997 and 2008 and want to be ready.

Date: 7/09/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Kentucky's long awaited plan to roll out new driver's licenses gets delayed again. Officials say they expect every county to get Real IDs by the end of the year.

Date: 7/09/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Amy McGrath announces she's running for Senate to challenge Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell. The former Marine pilot lost in a close race last year to Andy Barr in Kentucky's 6th congressional district.

Date: 7/09/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: A new law in Indiana will allow police to put potential child predators in jail, before they ever touch a kid. Now—if a parent thinks their child is being groomed to be abused by an adult, they can get a protective order against that person.

Date: 7/10/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Indiana representative Trey Hollingsworth introduces a bill to help farmers fight back against vultures. The bill would allow the farmers to get a permit to get rid of vultures to prevent damage to livestock.

Date: 7/10/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :35

Story: Democrat Woody Myers launches his bid for Indiana Governor. The former state health commissioner will try to unseat incumbent Holcomb who is expected to launch his bid for reelection Saturday.

Date: 7/11/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: The woman running for Mitch McConnell's seat lands herself in a controversy. Amy McGrath said she would have voted to confirm Judge Brett Kavanaugh to the U.S. Supreme Court, but hours later she changed her mind.

Date: 7/11/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:10

Story: The city of Scottsburg holds off on forcing a church to rezone because it houses homeless people. It still might need rezoning, but both parties are working towards a solution.

Date: 7/11/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :30

Story: Kentucky House leaders are working to try and solve the state's pension problem. This comes as Governor Matt Bevin is working to call a special session on a bill that would help solve the pension problem.

Date: 7/11/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :30

Story: Kentucky is getting 50 thousand dollars from a settlement with a health insurance company. The company allegedly exposed customers to sensitive info, including health details to a hacker. About 30,000 from Kentucky were impacted.

Date: 7/12/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :35

Story: Senator Mitch McConnell taking advantage of opponent Democrat Amy McGrath after she changes her mind 3 times on if she would have voted to confirm Justice Brett Kavanaugh. McConnell's campaign team is not selling flip-flops with McGrath's name on it.

Date: 7/12/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:15

Story: Governor Matt Bevin says he does not want Sanctuaries in Kentucky. He is now supporting a bill that is impacting Louisville- where LMPD officer cannot help with immigration arrests unless there is a warrant of danger to the public.

Date: 7/14/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :45

Story: The Jeffersonville city council votes tomorrow on whether or not to take back the rezoning for the optimist club. It was originally rezoned for transitional housing, but now could be changed back after complaints.

Date: 7/14/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :25

Story: Indiana Senator Richard Lugar will be buried at Arlington National Cemetery. While serving in the Senate, the Lugar was credited with dismantling thousands of nuclear weapons,

Date: 7/15/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Kentucky's governor calls a special session for Friday on the pension relief bill. The proposal is designed to help regional universities and agencies like health departments and rape crisis centers.

Date: 7/15/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: U.S. Senator Rand Paul is backing a proposed state law that would ban sanctuary cities in Kentucky. He's also introduced a bill in Congress that tries to address illegal immigration by doubling the number of legal immigrants allowed in the country.

Date: 7/16/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: A Kentucky proposal to ban tattooing over scarred tissue fails. The Cabinet for Health and Family Services says it used over 600 public comments to make its decision on the proposal.

Date: 7/16/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:30

Story: A group of food truck owners are suing four Louisville Metro Council members over emails they think could hurt their business.

Date: 7/17/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:15

Story: Governor Matt Bevin and Attorney General Andy Beshear answered questions at Kentucky Farm Bureau's "Measure the Candidate" forum. Tax Reform, Charter schools and President Trump's tweets were among topic of conversation.

Date: 7/18/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: A second military veteran goes after Mitch McConnell's U.S. Senate seat. Mike Broihier is a former Marine officer, farmer and small-town newspaperman.

Date: 7/18/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: A Kentucky lawmaker pre-filed a bill that would ban "corporal punishment" by any school district employee. Banned punishments would include paddling, shaking or spanking.

Date: 7/18/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Kentucky's governor has ordered a special session tomorrow to tackle the state's pension problem. The bill is designed to help the state's regional universities and so-called quasi-government agencies like health departments and rape crisis centers.

Date: 7/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: A special session begins in the Kentucky legislature. Governor Matt Bevin is asking them to try to tackle the state's pension problem.

Date: 7/20/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 60

Story: On day 2 of the special session lawmakers introduced three bills to take help universities and government agencies. A house panel passes Bevin's pension-relief proposal for a House vote on Monday.

Date: 7/22/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Tax officials will take a second tour of Governor Matt Bevin's Anchorage home to decide on its value. He bought the mansion in 2017 for $1.6 million.

Date: 7/22/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: It's currently against the law in Kentucky for you to get alcohol delivered straight to your door from out of the state. Now a lawsuit has been filed challenging that law.

Date: 7/22/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:05

Story: Governor Matt Bevin's highly contested pension relief plan cleared a major hurdle today. The proposal is designed to help regional universities and small agencies that are facing a huge increase in their pension contributions. The bill passed the state House 52-46. It now goes to the Senate.

Date: 7/23/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Kentucky Governor Matt Bevin's pension bill passes a Senate committee. It now heads to the full Senate tomorrow.

Date: 7/23/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Some lawmakers say taxing e-cigarettes could help solve Kentucky's pension crisis. Health experts also hope the tax will help reverse the youth e-cigarette epidemic.

Date: 7/23/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Kentucky Governor Matt Bevin's pension relief bill passed both houses of the legislature. Bevin then signed the bill designed to help universities deal with rising pension costs into law.

Date: 7/25/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Kentucky's senators want to extend a tax break that helps the bourbon industry. The AGED Spirits Act would allow bourbon distillers a permanent tax deduction.

Date: 7/26/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :35

Story: A victory for Governor Bevin over the makeup of Louisville's solid waste management board. That board ruffled some feathers in 2014 when it banned plastic bags for grass, leaves and other yard waste in the city. The state legislature then passed a plan that the governor signed changing the board's makeup and power. Louisville Mayor Fischer filed a lawsuit against the bill. Today, the Kentucky Court of appeals ruled the law is constitutional.

Date: 7/27/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:10

Story: The Middletown library still has not opened, even after the budget council passed a budget that would restore its funding. Republican Anthony Piagentini calls out the Mayor for not being more involved.

Date: 7/27/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 35

Story: The "Tax the Rich" Bus travels all across the country and stopped in Louisville today. Event organizers want the GOP tax plan to be repealed. They want American's wealthiest to pay "fair share" of taxes.

Date: 7/29/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :30

Story: Republican candidate for Kentucky Attorney General Daniel Cameron has been endorsed by President Trump. Trump says Cameron is tough on crime and will fight for the second amendment.

Date: 7/30/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: The race for Kentucky Attorney General is heating up. President Trump endorsed the Republican candidate on Twitter. We got reaction from both candidates on that endorsement and what's ahead in the campaign.

Date: 7/30/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:20

Story: Tuesday night is the last night the Living Room will be open due to budget cuts. The program helped people battling addiction or mental illness. The parent , Centerstone will still do homeless outreach.

Date: 7/31/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :30

Story: Governor Bevin says one of the reasons he opposes casinos is because of suicides. Bevin said during an interview that "every night somewhere in America, someone take their life in a casino because they've wasted the last semblance of dignity and hope they had."

Date: 7/31/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:25

Story: LG&E is now suing landowners and Bernheim Forest. The energy company is trying to acquire land for a natural gas pipeline but has been blocked by the landowners and Bernheim.

Date: 7/31/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :45

Story: A new pedestrian safety ordinance has unions in Louisville concerned. The ordinance could prevent union members from either picketing or distributing flyers.

Date: 7/31/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 30

Story: A Kentucky native is the next UN Ambassador. Kelly Craft was confirmed by the senate. She most recently served as US ambassador to Canada.

Date: 8/01/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :30

Story: Governor Bevin is defending his comment opposing expanding gambling because "every night somewhere in America, someone take their life in a casino because they've wasted the last semblance of dignity and hope they had." He had this to say when asked, "Have you ever see a suicide hotline or a gambling anonymous hotline at the end of an ad for something associated with gambling? Why do you think those things exist? I don't need to clarify it. I'm stating a fact."

Date: 8/1/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Marine veteran and former police officer is challenging Republican Andy Barr for his congressional seat. Democrat Josh Hicks was a longtime republican who switched seats in 2016. He announced his campaign today.

Date: 8/02/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:10

Story: The Fancy Farm Picnic kicks off its 139th year tomorrow. Governor Matt Bevin and Attorney General Andy Beshear will face off on the same stage. Politicians have been coming to the event since the 1930s.

Date: 8/03/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 3:20

Story: Governor Matt Bevin, Attorney General Andy Beshear, Senator Mitch McConnell made appearances and spoke at this year's Fancy Farm. The two candidates for attorney general Greg Stumbo and Daniel Cameron also spoke out against each other.

Date: 8/03/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 60

Story: Congressman John Yarmuth reflects on his time at the US/Mexico border. He spoke at the Rise for Refuge Event at the Crescent Hill Baptist Church this morning. He says we have a disjointed system. He says the detention centers are not as crowded as they were a few weeks ago.

Date: 8/04/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:35

Story: Senator Mitch McConnell and John Yarmuth gave their condolences after the mass shooting in Dayton, Ohio. Yarmuth criticized McConnell and the President saying they have been AWOL on the gun violence issue.

Date: 8/04/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 20

Story: Kentucky US Senator Mitch McConnell fractured his shoulder. It happened after he fell down at his home in Louisville.

Date: 8/04/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 20

Story: Both the governors of Kentucky and Indiana have ordered flags at half-staff in the wake of two mass shootings. It is after President Trump made the proclamation to do so.

Date: 8/05/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 40

Story: Kentucky's two U.S. senators are recovering today after making trips to the hospital over the weekend. Mitch McConnell fell at his home yesterday morning, fracturing his shoulder. Senator Rand Paul is recovering from lung recovery.

Date: 8/05/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:30

Story: Political feuds took center stage at the Fancy Farm picnic in western Kentucky. Candidates for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General and Secretary of State took turns trading barbs.

Date: 8/05/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :25

Story: Kentucky Senator Mitch McConnell said Republicans are ready to answer President Trump's call to action. He said progress on gun laws can only be made with a bipartisan effort.

Date: 8/06/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:40

Story: A protest outside Senator Mitch McConnell's Louisville home leads to a high-level war of words on social media. Kentucky's governor and Louisville's mayor exchanged testy tweets.

Date: 8/06/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Kentucky's pension law is going to cause the state's credit rating to take a hit. Moody's credit rating agency rates the law as "credit negative" because it pushes pension costs into the future.

Date: 8/06/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 55

Story: Horseshoe Casino in southern Indiana plans to have its sports betting facility open by football season. The new state law allowing sports wagering in Indiana goes into effect in September.

Date: 8/06/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:30

Story: Many eyes are on Senator Mitch McConnell after two mass shootings in El Paso, Texas and Dayton, Ohio. Protestors have shown up at his home and office in Louisville for the past two days. They want him to go back to Washington, reconvene the Senate and pass some kind of meaningful legislation to decrease the trend of mass shootings.

Date: 8/07/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :30

Story: Vice President Mike Pence is expected to visit Kentucky tomorrow. He'll be in Manchester, KY to discuss the opioid crisis and a military training program. Governor Matt Bevin is expected to join him.

Date: 8/07/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :45

Story: An officer representative who is running for president hammers Mitch McConnell when it comes to mass shootings. Tim Ryan went on CNN and blasted McConnell—pleading he take action on gun control.

Date: 8/07/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :45

Story: Louisville mayor Greg Fischer and Kentucky Governor Matt Bevin battle it out on twitter and today Bevin blasted Fischer on a radio show. The two have been arguing over the protests outside Senator Mitch McConnell's house.

Date: 8/07/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:30

Story: The Hardin County utility plant that leaked sewage into public water has a buyer. The Attorney General's office is questioning the deal because the company has no ties to Kentucky

Date: 8/07/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 45

Story: Moms Demand Action for Gun Sense in America are asking senators Mitch McConnell and Rand Paul to take action on gun control. They gathered at a local church to write letters to the two.

Date: 8/07/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:00

Story: House Rep. Tim Ryan from Ohio is coming to Louisville tomorrow. He is leading groups of protestors from Ohio all the way to Louisville for a rally at night.

Date: 8/08/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:30

Story: Presidential candidate Tim Ryan is bringing the debate over gun rights to Louisville. Ryan led a caravan of people protesting outside Senator Mitch McConnell's office.

Date: 8/08/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:30

Story: A caravan of gun reform protestors traveled from Ohio to Louisville to try and pressure Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell. They all told McConnell to do his job and get something done.

Date: 8/08/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :45

Story: The plan to redevelop the old Urban Government Center is months behind schedule. City answered questions from Paristown Pointe neighbors about what would actually be built there.

Date: 8/08/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:30

Story: A new pedestrian safety ordinance was passed by Metro Council. Groups like the ACLU, AFL-CIO threatened to sue if it passed – but Metro Council made changes that would prevent litigation.

Date: 8/08/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 30

Story: The attorney general's office ruled in the case of Governor Matt Bevin firing part of Lieutenant governor Jenean Hampton's staff. The Attorney General's office ruled that the lieutenant Governor has the power to "appoint and terminate" her own staff.

Date: 8/12/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: President Trump is coming to Louisville on August 21st. He's set to headline a fundraiser for Governor Matt Bevin's re-election campaign.

Date: 8/13/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: President Trump is going to be spending much of next Wednesday in Louisville. He will be at the Galt House to address a meeting of military veterans before heading to a private fundraiser.

Date: 8/13/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Kentucky U.S. Senator Rand Paul returns to the public eye for the first time since having lung surgery. The senator gave a speech this afternoon at a Chamber of Commerce luncheon in southern Kentucky.

Date: 8/13/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:25

Story: New Albany is looking to pass an ordinance that would limit when fireworks can be fired. State law allows it any time of the year, unless a city decides to limit it.

Date: 8/13/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 40

Story: A so-called "sludge farm" will not be put in Trimble County. Over 100 acres of food byproduct would have been dumped there. The farmer who sold the land plans on buying it back.

Date: 8/15/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Kentucky's lieutenant governor is suing Governor Matt Bevin. Jenean Hampton is trying to get two members of her staff reinstated after they were dismissed by Bevin's administration.

Date: 8/16/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :25

Story: Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell had surgery in Louisville to repair his fractured shoulder. He fell at his Louisville home earlier this month and needed surgery to help repair it.

Date: 8/16/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: A state lawmaker plans to file a bill that would do away with reformulated gas. He believes it's no longer necessary, and just adds to the cost of gas in Louisville. The director of the Air Pollution Control District says he's not necessarily opposed to the idea but is concerned about the impact on Louisville's air quality.

Date: 8/16/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :45

Story: The Kentucky Labor Cabinet said 1,074 teachers broke the law when they called out sick last school year in order to cause a work stoppage. The Labor Cabinet isn't going to punish any of the teachers but said if it happens again, they will.

Date: 8/16/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:20

Story: Attorney General Andy Beshear is speaking out on LG&E wanting to build a pipeline in Bullitt County. Beshear taking Bernheim forest side and saying they need to discuss an appropriate path.

Date: 8/17/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 35

Story: The state denied Planned Parenthood license to perform abortion at its downtown Louisville location.

A letter was sent to the organization denying its application. The letter cites 23 abortions the organization allegedly performed between December 2015 and January 2016.

Date: 8/17/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:10

Story: Mom's Demand Action rallied together at Jefferson Square Park downtown for laws that help protect people from gun violence. The organization comes after recent mass shootings in Ohio and Texas.

Date: 8/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Kentucky Lieutenant Governor Jenean Hampton faces off against her former ally, Governor Matt Bevin, in court. She claims he fired two of her key staff members without her consent.

Date: 8/19/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :45

Story: President Trump is visiting Louisville on Wednesday. Several detours in and around downtown were announced today.

Date: 8/20/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: When President Trump visits Louisville tomorrow, some parts of downtown could look more like parking lots. Over 50 road closures have been announced. He's expected to land around 1:30 tomorrow afternoon at Louisville Muhammad Ali Airport.

Date: 8/20/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Two Kentucky lawmakers pre-filed bills to raise the state's minimum wage to $15 an hour. That would happen through staggered increases over the next seven years.

Date: 8/20/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: During his trip to Louisville tomorrow, President Trump is expected to address the AMVETS convention at the Galt House. AMVETS members hope to hear of Trump's continued support for veterans.

Date: 8/20/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 30

Story: Louisville Mayor Greg Fischer wrote a letter to President Trump asking to meet with him. He wanted to talk about gun violence, but Trump turned Fischer down.

Date: 8/20/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 20

Story: The last time President Trump visited Louisville was in 2017. He held a rally at Freedom Hall.

Date: 8/21/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 50

Story: In a one-on-one with President Donald Trump, when asked about gun control he says he is working with Senator Mitch McConnell on finding something that is meaningful and protects gun owner's 2nd amendment rights.

Date: 8/21/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:30

Story: President Trump was inside of the Galt House today speaking on front of the American Veterans convention.

He spoke for 45 minutes to around 2000 veterans about healthcare for veterans, and veteran suicide. He also announced an executive action to get rid of student loan debt from around 25,000 permanently disabled veterans. The President later joined Governor Matt Bevin for a campaign fundraiser at the Seelbach.

Date: 8/21/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:30

Story: With President Trump visiting Louisville, protesters also joined outside from the Galt House to the Seelbach. Two groups exchanged several comments towards each other. LMPD says no one was arrested following.

Date: 8/21/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 25

Story: Senator Bernie Sanders is coming to Louisville. He will be making a campaign stop in City Plaza on Sunday.

Date: 8/22/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Louisville's mayor is now reacting to President Trump's comments to WDRB's Lawrence Smith on gun control. Mayor Greg Fischer says he disagrees with the president on the best way to deal with gun violence. Fischer wants the President to take the lead on measures like expanding background checks and banning assault style rifles.

Date: 7/24/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 25

Story: Bernie Sanders will be in Louisville Sunday. Roads will be closed near Main Street and near the Muhammad Ali Center.

Date: 8/25/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:10

Story: Presidential candidate Bernie Sanders came to Louisville. He came after Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell over inaction on gun laws.

Date: 8/25/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:10

Story: Senator Sanders also spoke to picketing AT&T workers before his rally. He encouraged the union workers to come to a fair contract with the company.

Date: 8/27/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Kentucky's Senate president authorized building a wall in the State Capitol Annex so three Republicans don't have to share an office with the Democrats. Construction is expected to cost taxpayers about $12,000.

Date: 8/27/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Kentucky's state auditor says the state's ailing pension systems are breaking the law. He says the two largest pension systems are not fully revealing how they're using billions of dollars.

Date: 8/27/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:40

Story: A group of lawmakers are working to close the gap that allows some mentally ill defendants walk free. WDRB previously reported on 29-year-old Cane Madden, who was charged with serious crimes in the past but was found too mentally incompetent to stand trial. Statue 2020A says no mentally ill people should be involuntarily hospitalized unless a danger to himself or others. Doctors can release people when someone no longer meets the statute criteria.

Date: 8/27/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 55

Story: Governor Matt Bevin signed legislation today allowing Kentuckians to get an emergency 30-day supply of their medication. The focus is on insulin but the new law can apply to other medication as long as you have a prescription on file.

Date: 8/27/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :30

Story: Grant County school district in Kentucky says the Ark Encounter is not paying enough in taxes. A lawsuit has been filed against the Christian theme park. The park is worth $48 million according to a 2017 assessment but the school board says it is worth $130 million.

Date: 8/27/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :55

Story: The national Federation of the Blind is asking major scooter companies to put braille contact info on devices. The scooters are sometimes left in the middle of the sidewalk and can be tripped over. The braille information would prevent it from happening again.

Date: 8/27/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :40

Story: The Jeffersonville Mayor says his new 2020 budget proposal will help it grow. This is a $54 million budget that would cover the city's expenses, but the top priority would be public safety. The city council can now alter or approve it.

Date: 8/29/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Kentucky radio personality Matt Jones announces he's forming an exploratory committee to look at running for Senate. That allows him to raise money and do polling. If he decides to run, he would be challenging Senate Majority leader Mitch McConnell.

Date: 8/29/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 40

Story: Seven Counties Services can't leave Kentucky's pension system through bankruptcy. That's the ruling just issued by the state Supreme Court today.

Date: 8/29/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :45

Story: Student were protesting inside of the Highland Hills Middle School after a student was pulled from class for wearing a t-shirt that says, "Why be racist, sexist, homophobic, or transphobic when you can just be quiet?". Teachers are calling the shirt disruptive. Many parents are standing by their children.

Date: 8/30/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: Yesterday, the Kentucky Supreme Court ruled that Centerstone Services can't leave the pension system through bankruptcy. Today, Governor Matt Bevin said that ruling underscored the tough decisions certain agencies must make going forward.

Date: 8/30/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Yesterday, the Kentucky Supreme Court ruled that Governor Matt Bevin has the authority to fire the private law firms Attorney General Andy Beshear hired to help sue pharmaceutical companies. Today, Bevin claimed Beshear directed those contracts to his allies and campaign donors. But Beshear saying he's just trying to hold opioid companies responsible for their actions.

Date: 8/30/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :40

Story: Governor Matt Bevin comments on Kentucky Sports Radio host Matt Jones saying he's forming a committee to explore a possible U.S. Senate run. Bevin said today, "He's so remarkably ill-equipped to become a U.S. Senator. He's got a good gig. Dumbest thing he would ever do is give up the golden goose he's got but that's his prerogative."

Date: 8/31/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: After budget cuts closed a lot of pools this summer Council woman Cindi Fowler worked to open the Sun Valley pool for the last few week of summer. Fowler has secured $25,000 for operational costs next year-- meaning the pool will be open for an entire swim season starting late next spring.

Date: 9/01/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 25

Story: Garbage pickup will change for the labor day holiday. Due to budget cuts, instead of pickup being delayed, those scheduled for a holiday will get no service until the next week.

Date: 9/02/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:15

Story: Several politicians made a stop at the Louisville zoo for the annual Labor Day Picnic. Many democrats made their pitch to attendees. No Republicans attended.

Date: 9/03/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: A Kentucky lawmaker prefiles a bill that would limit how much some diabetics pay for insulin. It would cap insurance co-pays for insulin at a hundred dollars a month.

Date: 09/04/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: The Kentucky judge hearing a lawsuit over teacher sickouts refuses to step aside. The lawsuit was filed by Attorney General Andy Beshear, who is a Democrat challenging Governor Matt Bevin in this year's election. Bevin's legal team said the judge should step aside because he liked a Facebook post praising Beshear campaign volunteers.

Date: 09/04/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Democrat Andy Beshear releases his "Stop the Bullying, Raise the Pay" plan. He says if he's elected governor, he would raise teacher pay to recruit and retain educators.

Date: 09/04/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: A Kentucky Baptist pastor gets thrust into the national spotlight all because of a presidential mistake. President Trump intended to blast network news correspondent Jonathan Karl, but mistakenly used the twitter handle for Pastor Jonathan Carl.

Date: 9/04/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: WDRB pays an unannounced visit to the Floyd County auditor after officials from his own political party says he is costing the county money by not showing up to work. His office was fined by the IRS for not sending the government payroll. The auditor says tax errors and inexperienced staff are to blame. When WDRB showed up to his house he was found mowing the lawn.

Date: 9/04/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :25

Story: Mayor Jeff Gahan vetoed a bill that would restrict when someone can set off fireworks in New Albany. Last month, the city passed an ordinance that would only allow fireworks around July 4 and New Year's. The mayor says the proposal is an intrusion into private citizens lives.

Date: 9/02/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: After the mayor vetoed an ordinance restricting when someone can set off fireworks in New Albany, WDRB talked to the councilman who proposed that ordinance. He says city council could override the veto with six votes, but that isn't expected to happen.

Date: 9/08/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:50

Story: Kentucky could do away with its gas tax. It could be replaced because with the emergence of electric cars, some wouldn't have to pay the tax. The system being introduced would tax you based on how many miles you traveled.

Date: 9/09/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :45

Story: Kentucky's Governor is defending his support for public education. Gov. Bevin responded today to a new TV ad by his Democratic challenger. Bevin told us today to "celebrate the scare tactic and to try to get people to pit against one another based on emotion is wrong."

Date: 9/09/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :25

Story: Indiana's Attorney General won't sign off on a rule that allows people to change their gender on driver's licenses and IDs. Curtis Hill says the public wasn't sufficiently informed of the plan.

Date: 9/10/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: A court battle is playing out between Kentucky's governor and lieutenant governor. Jenean Hampton is fighting to get her chief of staff and deputy chief of staff back on the job. But a state judge denied the request.

Date: 9/10/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Louisville Metro Council is considering two different plans for what to do with the city-owned golf courses. One would allow outside management companies to bid on operations, while the other would raise green fees to offset the deficit.

Date: 9/10/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:25

Story: The Floyd County Council had a no confidence vote in the Floyd County Auditor. Scott Clark has not been at work and has forced the county to miss several deadlines resulting in financial penalties.

Date: 9/16/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: The town of West Buechel lost track of years worth of property tax records and is now telling people to prove they paid. About 500 property owners got notices saying they owed back property taxes, but many of them already paid.

Date: 9/16/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :25

Story: JCPS and the Frazier History Museum are teaming up to help students register to vote. Students who will be 18 by this fall's election will have the opportunity to register tomorrow.

Date: 9/17/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: The Kentucky Democratic Party claims more than 150,000 registered voters were wrongly placed on an "inactive" list. In a letter to the State Board of Elections, Democratic chairman Ben Self demanded the board immediately reactivate the registrations.

Date: 9/17/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: Governor Matt Bevin issues a challenge to Kentucky's colleges and universities. He says tight budgets make things tough for schools, but he challenges them to discover a handful of things they do best.

Date: 9/17/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Central High School and other JCPS schools are working with the Frazier History Museum to stress the importance of voting. They emphasized the history of the vote and the right to use it on Constitution Day.

Date: 9/17/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:30

Story: Presidential Candidate Pete Buttigieg made a stop in Louisville today. He talked to a crowd of about 1,200 people. He also took questions from some of them. He's the third presidential candidate to stop in Louisville – which includes Tim Ryan and Bernie Sanders.

Date: 9/18/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: An already heated race for Kentucky Attorney General is about to fire up in a Louisville courtroom. The lawsuit claims Republican Daniel Cameron isn't qualified to serve because he hasn't been practicing law long enough. But Cameron accused his opponent, Greg Stumbo, of trying to steal the election.

Date: 9/18/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 20

Story: The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services just awarded the Family and Children's Place nearly 8 million dollars. The organization plans to use the federal grant to help put children on the path to success in Jefferson County.

Date: 9/18/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 40

Story: Attorney's for Kentucky's Secretary of State say State Police took a computer from her office this week. A motion filed in Franklin Circuit Court says it happened as part of an investigation into how Alison Lundergan Grimes and her aides used voter data.

Date: 9/23/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: A judge heard arguments this morning over whether Republican Daniel Cameron is qualified to be Kentucky's next Attorney General. A Louisville man says Cameron isn't qualified because he hasn't been practicing law long enough. But Cameron says the law is on his side, and the case is all about politics.

Date: 9/24/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: A new lawsuit looks to block Indiana's Medicaid work requirements. Indiana's program would require people not qualifying for exemptions to report 20 hours a month of work or related activity.

Date: 9/24/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:25

Story: A former congressman and several local political experts give their take on the impeachment inquiry into President Trump. Former congressman Mike Ward says Senator Mitch McConnell will serve as a Canary in a coal mine.

Date: 9/25/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: The mayor of Madison, Indiana died unexpectedly overnight. Current City Council President Dan Dattilo will serve as mayor until the Republican party holds a caucus.

Date: 9/25/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Absentee voting begins Monday for Kentuckians. People can vote in person at the Election Center on Ormsby Avenue through November 4th.

Date: 9/27/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Kentucky's chief justice removes a judge from presiding over the teacher sick-out case. Franklin Circuit Judge Phillip Shepherd was disqualified because he liked a Facebook post that supported Attorney General Andy Beshear.

Date: 9/28/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: Republican Senator Dan Seum hosted an event at his house called "Bullied By Bevin Picnic". Politicians were not allowed to talk, only people of the community. Several in the audience showed support for Andy Beshear. The Kentucky Republican party did not want to comment.

Ascertainment 2019 – Q3 - Sports

Date: 7/1/19 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :30

Story: U of L is offering a new ticket plan called Flight23 to students. For $10 a month, they can go to every regular season home game for all 23 sports.

Date: 7/03/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:00

Story: Former UK and New York Giants quarterback Jared Lorenzen dies. He was just 38. Lorenzen had been battling heart and kidney trouble.

Date: 7/07/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :25

Story: Jimmy Shane won the Madison Regatta in Madison, Indiana. He has also won the Gold Cup at the Regatta before

Date: 7/10/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: The funeral is held for former Kentucky Wildcats quarterback Jared Lorenzen. The funeral was paid for in part by a former U of L football player.

Date: 7/10/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: We get an inside look at the progress construction crews are making on Louisville City FC's stadium. The roof's steel structure is now finished.

Date: 7/10/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: the National Veterans Wheelchair Games start on Thursday. A competitor with Louisville roots hopes to compete. He was paralyzed from the waist down after an accident in 1986.

Date: 7/17/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: First year Louisville Cardinal head coach Scott Satterfield makes his ACC Media Day debut in Charlotte. We talk about how it went for the new coach.

Date: 7/18/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Kentucky football gets its chance at the SEC media days. WDRB sports talks the upcoming season.

Date: 7/18/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:15

Story: Kentucky football speaks at SEC media days. After one of its best seasons ever the team is still an underdog this season.

Date: 7/21/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 20

Story: Slugger Museum is hosting women in baseball week. It will celebrate the history of women contributing to the game.

Date: 7/29/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :30

Story: LouCity FC is now offering seat selection on its website for season ticket holders for 2020. That's also when the new stadium LouCity FC will play in opens. Tickets range from $16 to $65.

Date: 8/04/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 40

Story: The Dirt Bowl was played this weekend on its 50th anniversary. Teams from across Louisville competed in the tournament. The championship is next weekend.

Date: 8/05/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: A big announcement is planned for Wednesday for Louisville's Triple Crown of Running. Organizers aren't releasing many details about the events, but three new logos have been created. Back in June, the race series was abruptly cancelled after 35 years.

Date: 8/05/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:30

Story: Louisville's new soccer stadium will be called the Lynn Family Stadium. The $65 million stadium for the Louisville City Football Club is expected to open next Spring.

Date: 8/06/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: A local man donates $250,000 to build a brand new basketball court in Floyd County. It's complete with state of the art goals, lights, scoreboards and a roof overhead that will allow people to play even in rough weather.

Date: 8/08/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Dr. Mark and Cindy Lynn's names will soon be on two soccer stadiums in town—the University of Louisville's stadium and the minor league soccer stadium. They say they just wanted to help the city grow and do better.

Date: 8/11/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 45

Story: The dirt bowl championship happened in Shawnee Park. It is the 50th anniversary of the event. Newburg beat Business as Usual for the title.

Date: 8/12/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 50

Story: Some colorful bats are rolling off the line at Louisville Slugger. The company designed 30 different bats—one for each of the teams in the MLB. They were specifically made for the MLB's third annual Player's Weekend.

Date: 8/20/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 30

Story: Bellarmine is holding a celebration of life for men's golf coach Ernie Denham. He died earlier this month after a fire where he lived. People are encouraged to wear golf attire to the ceremony.

Date: 8/21/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 45

Story: Bellarmine University is starting its final season in Division 2. It is going to become a division one school next year. The school's president said it has already given the school a boost.

Date: 7/24/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: A celebration of life was held for Bellarmine Golf Coach Ernie Denham. His team, friends and family gathered to honor him. He died from smoke-inhalation 2 weeks ago.

Date: 8/26/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 35

Story: U of L's big home opener against Notre Dame is just a week away at Cardinal Stadium. Fans who have reserved parking passes for the lots around the stadium can show up at noon for tailgating for the 8 p.m. game.

Date: 8/30/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: The Derby City BMX Nationals are in Louisville this weekend. The event is important both for national rankings and the USA Cycling Olympic qualification for Tokyo 2020.

Date: 8/30/2019 WDRB News 10

Time: 1:15

Story: U of L is getting ready to play Notre Dame on Monday in its first football game of the season. Some new changes this year – like new food options, different entry gates and parking. Also, Louisville's Notre Dame Club is hoping thousands of Fighting Irish fans show up to cheer on the team.

Date: 8/30/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :25

Story: Indiana Governor Eric Holcomb plans to place the first sports wager on Sunday – when it officially becomes legal in the state. Holcomb will visit the Winner's Circle in Shelbyville to place the bet.

Date: 9/01/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 45

Story: Hundreds of Notre Dame fans are in town for the football team's game against the Fighting Irish. The team took part in a Catholic Mass and a service project before going to a pep rally.

Date: 9/02/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: Notre Dame Football played against Louisville at Cardinal stadium for the first time. Several Irish fans traveled to the city for the game.

Date: 9/06/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :30

Story: The rivalry between Saint. X and Trinity will get national exposure. The Great American Rivalry Series chose the two schools as one of the 100 best rivalries featured this year. The game will be Sept. 27th. The website will have an MVP and scholarships for a senior from each team.

Date: 9/11/2019 WDRB News 10

Time: 1:10

Story: According to a New York Times report, 2018 Triple Crown Winner, Justify, failed a drug test just weeks before the Kentucky Derby. That means he shouldn't have been allowed to race. Instead of being disqualified, the California Horse Racing Board made a series of closed-door decisions to drop the case.

Date: 9/12/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 55

Story: Triple Crown Winner Justify failed a drug test just weeks before the Kentucky Derby. But the trainer's attorney says trainers never intentionally gave the horse the banned drug and reiterated that the drug is found in hay and straw grown in California.

Date: 9/15/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 4:05

Story: Fewer kids are playing high school football in Kentucky. One of the main reasons is concussions and the concerns with them. Officials have made sure coaches teach kids to play correctly, minimizing the risk of injury.

Date: 9/18/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 3:00

Story: The University of Louisville Athletic Association and former basketball coach Rick Pitino reached a settlement. No money will be exchanged, but his file will be amended to say that he resigned.

Date: 9/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 35

Story: U of L will soon induct six people into its Athletics Hall of Fame. The list includes basketball players Francisco Garcia and Angel McCoughtry, runner Wesley Korir, football player Eric Wood, golfer Cindy Lacrosse and softball player Lacy Wood.

Date: 9/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: WDRB got a look at the brand new Spalding University soccer fields. The school spent $7 million on the complex that the men's and women's soccer teams just started practicing on this week.

Date: 9/23/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: A new exhibit is coming to Slugger Museum focusing on the people behind the iconic baseball bat. Project H&B ID features 25 photographs dating back to the 1930s.

Date: 9/24/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: A Saint Xavier student is looking to raise money for the Urban League Sports and Learning Complex in Louisville. He felt motivated because he saw less fortunate students running in the halls of their school.

Date: 9/26/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 55

Story: Officials begin rolling out the natural grass field at the new home of the Louisville City Football Club. Having real grass instead of artificial turf at Lynn Family Stadium played a part in getting coach John Hackworth to take the job last year.

Date: 9/26/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: UK fans have been camping out for days waiting to get their hands on Big Blue Madness tickets. Officials now say tent city is at capacity. Those tickets will be handed out tomorrow night at 10.

Date: 9/27/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 55

Story: The Saint X Tigers and Trinity Shamrocks face off tonight on the football field. Trinity has dominated the series in recent years, but Saint X ended a seven game losing streak to Trinity last year.

Date: 9/27/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 20

Story: "Louisville Live" featuring the University of Louisville basketball teams is tonight at Fourth Street Live. A basketball court will be set up at the entertainment venue where U of L players will showcase their skills.

Date: 9/29/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 45

Story: A new exhibit at the Slugger museum featured pictures of Hillerich and Bradsby employees. Their woodworking shop became the birthplace of the Louisville slugger.

Date: 9/30/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:00

Story: A settlement has been reached by several former U of L basketball players and the NCAA. In the settlement, eligible players will have their stats put back in the record book and Luke Hancock will once again be recognized as the Most Outstanding Player of the 2013 Final Four.

Ascertainment 2019 – Q3 - Transportation

Date: 7/01/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :25

Story: TARC is launching its mobile ticketing payment method today. It's just for a trial basis to see if it works and if enough people would use the app. The trial period runs for 2 weeks on one particular route. TARC will then make its determination about whether to keep this around in the future or not.

Date: 7/02/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :25

Story: A Bullitt County road that washed away a year ago is finally back open. Construction on Highway 434 wasn't supposed to be done until November but crews were able to get everything down 4 months ahead of schedule.

Date: 7/03/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:30

Story: A record number of travelers will hit the roads and skies this weekend to celebrate the 4th of July. AAA says you should get your battery checked and oil changed to avoid getting stranded on the road.

Date: 7/08/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :35

Story: Indiana's attorney general is allowing school buses across the state to use extended stop arms. It was allowed after three siblings were hit last year after a truck hit kids getting on the bus.

Date: 7/10/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Kentucky agrees to help railroads make millions of dollars' worth of improvements. Many of the projects include new pavement and rail and tie replacements.

Date: 7/10/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :30

Story: A driver gets his pickup truck stuck on the new Dixie Highway median. It has been put there to make crossing in and out safer. Officials shared a picture to remind drivers not to do the same thing.

Date: 7/11/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 20

Story: Roadwork is coming to I-65 in Jefferson County starting Friday night. Crews are installing a layer of waterproofing on the bridge.

Date: 7/12/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 55

Story: Governor Matt Bevin says improving the Gene Snyder Freeway is one of his top priorities. He says he's putting the project on the fast track to completion.

Date: 7/14/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 3:35

Story: Spaghetti Junction has seen several wrecks involving semis over the last few years. KYTC talks about some of the solutions they are looking at to make the junction a safer place for drivers.

Date: 7/15/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 35

Story: A structural problem with a bridge closes part of the Bluegrass Parkway near Bardstown. KYTC inspected the bridge and found a raised joint, which made it unsafe for drivers.

Date: 7/17/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:15

Story: The rollout of "Real ID" in Kentucky is having difficulties with software and customer service according to county clerks. This is causing Kentuckians from getting their enhanced licenses as the deadline coming next year.

Date: 7/17/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:30

Story: Spaghetti Junction had a lot of traffic during the morning hours after a semi-truck overturned, spilling pigs onto the highway. It happened on the I-65 South ramp to 71/64 ramp. The crash is highlighting the problems that this interchange has.

Date: 7/17/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Norfolk Southern announced its partnership with GPS navigation app Waze. Drivers will start getting railroad safety tips. Since 2000- 12 incidents have been reported at crossings in Louisville.

Date: 7/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 15

Story: The ramp from I-64 West to Third Street and River Road will shut down Monday night at 7. It's scheduled to reopen at 11 p.m. Engineers are inspecting bridges in the area.

Date: 7/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Part of Bluegrass Parkway is back open after suddenly closing last weekend. Crews built median crossovers to the westbound side to keep traffic flowing as they work on repairs to the bridge over Beech Fork creek.

Date: 7/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Crews began installing medians along part of Dixie Highway today. That means drivers won't be able to make left turns between I-264 and Crums Lane for the next three weeks.

Date: 7/21/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 20

Story: The I64W ramp leading to river road will be closed Monday night. Engineers will be inspecting bridges in the ramp area.

Date: 7/22/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: $92 million dollars is going to be spent replacing both roads on the Sherman Minton Bridge. Now officials are holding two meetings to get feedback on six different maintenance and traffic options.

Date: 7/23/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Transportation officials are holding a public meeting tonight to get input on how traffic should work during construction on the Sherman Minton Bridge. Crews are considering six options for handling traffic during congestion—ranging from complete closure to deck and lane closures.

Date: 7/23/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: A new interchange along I-65 has been under construction for six months now. It's designed to ease the truck traffic heading into the Cedar Grove business park.

Date: 7/23/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: Construction on the Sherman Minton Bridge is expected to start in early 2021. Tonight was the first of two meetings that the public could weigh in. Crews want to hear from the public on which one of six options they like about either closing the bridge completely, just one lane or several lanes.

Date: 7/24/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 20

Story: A road in southern Indiana is about to shut down for an entire month. State Road 7 is scheduled to close Monday.

Date: 7/24/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: Two major road projects in New Albany are far from done – even though both should be done by now. The projects will also affect the start of school for the district. Two elementary schools are right off both of the roads so the district has to come up with alternate ways for parents to get there.

Date: 7/25/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Safety changes are coming to Spaghetti Junction in downtown Louisville. The Federal Highway Administration gave Kentucky permission to add overhead signs, interstate logos on the road and pavement markers.

Date: 7/25/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: The public has a second chance to give input on traffic patterns during Sherman Minton Bridge work. A public meeting runs from 5:30 to 7:30 at the Calumet Club in New Albany.

Date: 7/25/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Hardin County's roads are getting a more than $500 million transformation. Nine miles of road will get cracks and potholes fixed.

Date: 7/25/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: People in New Albany gave their input to state officials about the potential of closing down the Sherman Minton Bridge. They would be impacted most if the entire bridge closes down – adding a potential 30 to 45 minutes to their commute. Hundreds of people showed up to voice their concerns.

Date: 7/25/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: Hardin County gets $500,000+ to help fix roads. The particular roads being fixed are primarily used by EMS and emergency workers.

Date: 7/26/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :40

Story: A busy exit ramp off the Watterson Expressway will shut down for more than a week. The ramp from I-264 West to Breckenridge Lane South will close on Aug. 2 for nine days. Crews will be working on an auxiliary lane between I-64 and Taylorsville Road.

Date: 7/28/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 1:55

Story: A Water Main Break has blocked off a downtown intersection near U of L hospital. It forced part of the hospital to be under a boil order. It could cause a traffic headache for commuters on Monday.

Date: 7/30/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :30

Story: Churchill Downs plans to expand the backside area. The expansion would permanently close part of South 4th street. Officials plan to meet with neighbors about questions and concerns.

Date: 7/31/2014 WDRB News @ 4

Time: :30

Story: The FAA gave 800-million-dollars in grant money to airports across the country. Louisville's airport got $1.2 million, Clark Regional Airport got $600K and Lexington's airport got $11 million to build a new taxiway.

Date: 8/1/2014 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 25

Story: The Watterson Expressway will be closed for over a week starting tomorrow night. Crews are working on an auxiliary lane between I-64 and Taylorsville Road. Detours will be given to drivers.

Date: 8/8/2014 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Construction starts on August 9th on Highway 42 through Henry and Trimble counties. The resurfacing project will last until the end of September.

Date: 8/08/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: The new Dixie Highway project will be finished next year – but project leaders are working on how to get people to use the new highway.

Date: 8/12/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Several lanes of Dixie Highway are now back open after construction closed them. The goal is to make the road safer for drivers and pedestrians. The entire project is set to be finished by June of next year.

Date: 8/12/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: The Kentucky State Fair released its traffic and safety plan. For the first time, Phillips Lane is going to be closed during the fair. Officials hope that will help improve traffic flow.

Date: 8/14/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: New reports show drivers from two different states are not being billed for their crossing toll bridges. Illinois and Iowa won't help Riverlink get the information it needs to bill drivers... while Kentucky and Indiana are trying to create agreements with other states to prevent this from happening with them.

Date: 8/14/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Google Fiber tore up streets and left exposed wires in some Louisville neighborhoods. They are now working on cleaning up the streets and erase their presence from the city.

Date: 8/15/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: River Link has a booth set up at the Kentucky State Fair. People can get a transponder, pay an invoice and ask questions.

Date: 8/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: A complete redesign of Madison, Indiana's bridge approach has led to a lot of construction and road work. We show viewers the progress being made.

Date: 8/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Traffic changes could be coming to several downtown Louisville streets. The city is holding two open houses to discuss a plan that would convert several roads from one-way to two-way traffic.

Date: 8/22/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: The battle of over Churchill Down's proposal to close part of South Fourth Street heats up. Today Louisville's Land Development and Transportation Committee heard from Churchill Downs and neighbors upset about the project.

Date: 8/23/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 35

Story: A WDRB analysis shows toll collectors took in nearly 112 million dollars during the fiscal year, which ended in June, thanks to late fees. The company was only projected to take in 97 million.

Date: 8/23/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 20

Story: Clarksville leaders say West Harrison Avenue, Jackson Street and Croghan from Bailey Avenue to Summer Place are all closed because they're breaking off into the Ohio River. Officials shut them down to keep drivers safe.

Date: 8/26/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: According to a new report, Louisville drivers waste more than $660 a year sitting in traffic. The average driver in the city sits in traffic for about 46 hours a year.

Date: 8/26/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Several Indiana roads near the Ohio River are falling apart after years of erosion. They will be shut down until Congress approves funds for a multi-million dollar federal project to fix the problem permanently.

Date: 8/26/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Even more crashes happen in Louisville's Spaghetti Junction as drivers await changes to the busy intersection. However, there isn't currently a timetable on when construction is expected to start or finish.

Date: 8/27/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: A contractor's mistake caused more than 50,000 gallons of wastewater to flow into a construction site. Officials say a contractor hit and broke an 18-inch pipe in the area of U.S. Highway 42 and Seminary Drive. Crews have fixed the pipe, and MSD has started cleanup and disinfection at the site.

Date: 8/29/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: New and improved lanes just opened without construction cones along Dixie Highway in Shively. There's only been one southbound lane open in that area for the last six months.

Date: 8/29/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: Neighbors in Scottsburg say the intersection where SR-56 meets Boatman Road is dangerous because people think it is a four-way stop when it is a 2-way stop. Officers say this road has been a problem for 28 years. INDOT is aware of the problem and has explored building a roundabout. They say change would not happen until early 2023.

Date: 8/29/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :45

Story: A report says Riverlink has a number of high risk problems that could cost the toll system hundreds of thousands of dollars. The reports also raised questions about the accuracy of license plate photos, one person looks over them instead of two like required.

Date: 8/30/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Mt. Tabor Road between Grant Line Road and Klerner Lane is set to reopen tomorrow. It's been under construction for two years as crews reinforced the road to keep it from sliding down the hill.

Date: 8/30/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:20

Story: The city of Louisville is making some changes in regards to how fast electric scooters can go. Metro Public Works is asking Bird, Lime, Bolt and Spin to force people driving the scooters to could 10 miles per hour or slower in certain areas, like Waterfront Park, U of L and the Central Business District.

Date: 9/03/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: The Sherman Minton Bridge will shut down for reconstruction at the start of 2021. INDOT has hosted many public meetings on different options for people to get across the river. New Albany businesses are worried that reconstruction will hurt them. The traffic options determine how long it will take for the bridge to be completed.

Date: 9/03/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: The new I-65 interchange in Shepherdsville is on schedule. Roads between exits 112 and 116 is expecting to relieve backups and provide a direct route to warehouses. Crews are hoping to complete the $26 million project before the winter months. The Mayor also wants to widen Preston Highway.

Date: 9/04/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :25

Story: The Kentucky Transportation Cabinet says 2nd street Bridge still needs to do some touch-up painting, and requires an inspection. The tarps are off but the bridge is on track to be completely finished in November.

Date: 9/05/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: One Southern Indiana is asking INDOT not to completely close the Sherman Minton Bridge when construction starts in early 2021. The organization says it was negatively affect businesses in the area if that were to happen.

Date: 9/06/2019 News @ 4

Time: 20

Story: A water main break shut down part of 4th Street near U of L. It cracked and buckled the street, leaving a muddy mess behind.

Date: 9/09/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: A Kentucky task force is looking into getting rid of the state's gas tax. Today it heard about how Oregon and Utah began charging some drivers based on how many miles they travel.

Date: 9/11/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: A number of overpass bridges in Jackson County, Indiana are closing for repairs. The repairs are part of the larger I-65 widening project and those that will close will reopen in November.

Date: 9/15/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 25

Story: Three bridges in Jackson County close tomorrow. It is part of an ongoing widening project from Seymour to Columbus.

Date: 9/16/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Work has begun to make downtown New Albany a little safer. Crews are putting in a new stoplight and crosswalk at the corner of Bank and Main streets.

Date: 9/20/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: INDOT plans to put a J-turn at a busy Floyd County, Indiana intersection to make it safer. Drivers who want to turn left across the highway must go across two lanes of traffic into a media then quickly merge. The J-turn would force drivers to turn right and then make what is essentially a built-in U-turn.

Date: 9/20/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :20

Story: Louisville Muhammad Ali International Airport gets a $12.1 million dollar grant to help with some repairs. The airport will improve its taxiways, lighting and infrastructure.

Date: 9/23/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: All lanes reopen on the Second Street Bridge more than a month ahead of schedule. The paint job was scheduled to be done in November, but finished early because of good weather.

Date: 9/24/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:15

Story: Thousands of cars roll through I-71 in Oldham county and it causes some traffic problems. Several projects are underway to try and prevent more delays.

Date: 9/25/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: GLI is working on getting a new development called "One Park" built on the corner of Grinstead Drive and Lexington Road. There are campaigns for and against the development. Signs have been spotted saying, "One Park, Too Big, Too Tall". The project is supposed to be 18 stories tall. The Planning Commission and Louisville's Council will meet Next Monday.

Date: 9/25/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time:45

Story: The Louisville Water Company is working to replace a water main along Lexington and Stilz Avenue. The project is in the middle of a busy road. The water service is not disrupted but the project is having delays and will not be done until the end of November.

Date: 9/25/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 25

Story: A portion of 3rd Street will be converted to two way traffic from October 7th to the 11th. The change will happen between Broadway and Muhammad Ali Boulevard. The conversion will help reduce speeding and driver confusion.

Date: 9/26/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: A traffic study shows Browns Station Way is dangerous and changes need to be made. The study shows 90% of cars speed on this road. It also has a high crash and fatality rate.

Date: 9/30/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: Construction on the New Dixie Highway project started nearly two years ago. Now, we finally have an end in sight for the $35 million project. Leaders announced today that construction will be done by the end of this year.

Ascertainment 2019 – Q3 - Weather

Date: 7/12/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:30

Story: Forecastle Festival starts in downtown Louisville today, and it's expected to be very hot. Organizers are urging everyone to stay hydrated.

Date: 7/17/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :45

Story: Kentuckiana is facing an excessive heat warning and doctors say it could be deadly. A local doctor explains the signs of heat illness and reminds people to check on their elderly neighbors during the warning.

Date: 7/18/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: The National Weather Service says the next two days will be the hottest days of an excessive heat warning for the city. WDRB gives tips on how to stay cool, what warning signs to look for, and how to prepare.

Date: 7/18/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: :45

Story: Hospitals are warning parents tonight to keep young children out of the dangerous heat. Pools and splash pads are a popular way to cool off but nurses say they can be dangerous because little ones heat up faster and get dehydrated.

Date: 7/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 25

Story: Metro Animal Services says you need to help your pets stay safe in the extreme heat. Pet owners are urged to limit time outdoors and make sure pets have access to water.

Date: 7/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: TARC helps people beat the heat by offering free A/C and ice-cold water at three different cooling stations downtown. The agency also allowed people to use wifi and phone charging stations onboard for free.

Date: 7/19/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 35

Story: Several police officers go to Victory Park to help build a relationship with the community. Because it was such a hot day, they also helped people beat the heat with bottles of water.

Date: 7/20/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:15

Story: The Mayor and City officials talked about ways to beat the heat. There has been a 30-percent hike in 9111 call over the weekend related to hot weather illnesses.

Date: 8/13/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time:2:00

Story: Flooding forced farmers to plant corn and soybeans late this year. Now experts are predicting a nearly 20 percent drop in revenue for Indiana farmers.

Date: 8/30/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 1:25

Story: As Hurricane Dorian prepares to hit the U.S., crews from Kentuckiana are headed to help. 165 LG&E and KU employees and 700 Duke energy workers from all over Indiana are on their way to Georgia. That's where they'll wait for instructions from Florida officials.

Date: 9/01/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:05

Story: Kentucky volunteers are prepared to help the southeast deal with Hurricane Dorian's aftermath. Volunteers are packed and ready to go once they know which community needs the help.

Date: 9/02/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 45

Story: Indiana Electric Cooperative line workers are prepared to head to Florida for Hurricane Recovery efforts. They are ready to help because crews from Florida often come to help them deal with inclement weather.

Date: 9/13/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 2:00

Story: Some of the hottest names in country music are headed to Louisville for one of the hottest weekends of the year. Organizers of the Hometown Rising Festival are asking fans to prepare for the heat, with temperatures expected to be in the mid to upper 90s.

Date: 9/13/2019 WDRB News @ 10

Time: 2:00

Story: High School football games were delayed tonight due to the hot weather. Athletes also took precaution by drinking water and pickle juice.

Date: 9/23/2019 WDRB News @ 4

Time: 30

Story: Mayor Greg Fischer declares climate change an emergency. Now the city is coming up with a Climate Adaptation Plan to address and prepare for how Louisville is affected.