

This is a listing of the issues responded to by Station KMAN with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for this Quarter, July 1 through September 30. The listing is by no means exhaustive. Appearance order is not critical.

Description of Issues/Problems	Program and Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Local schools/ local government	In Focus	2-Jul-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	USD 383 Superintendent Marvin Wade and Board of Education Vice President Curt Herrman, followed by Riley County Appraiser Greg McHenry.
Local government	In Focus	3-Jul-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Manhattan City Mayor Linda Morse and City Manager Ron Fehr
Politics/military	In Focus	5-Jul-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Dr. Timothy Shaffer, Assistant Professor of Communication Studies at KSU and Assistant Director of the K-State Institute for Civil Discourse and Democracy. Followed by Retired Lt. Gen. Perry Wiggins, Executive Director of the Governor's Military Council and former 1st Infantry Division Commanding General.
Community	In Focus	6-Jul-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Manhattan Convention and Visitors Bureau Director Karen Hibbard and Riley County Extension Director Jennifer Wilson.
Animal health, community	In Focus	9-Jul-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Dr. Beth Davis, KSU department head and professor of equine internal medicine, as well as Melanie Martin, pastor of community care for First United Methodist Church, and Rebecca Borgman, pastoral intern at First United Methodist Church.

This is a listing of the issues responded to by Station KMAN with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for this Quarter, July 1 through September 30. The listing is by no means exhaustive. Appearance order is not critical.

Description of Issues/Problems	Program and Segement	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Local government	In Focus	10-Jul-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Riley County Commissioner Ben Wilson and Assistant Director of EMS Josh Gering.
Education/ Local government	In Focus	11-Jul-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Wamego USD 320 Superintendent Tim Winter, Manhattan Parks and Rec Community Relations Officer Melissa Kirkwood, and Park Planning Intern Chuck Klutho.
Community, Military	In Focus	12-Jul-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	MWR Sports Coordinator Reed Scott, MWR Fitness Coordinator Ken Roynon, as well as Cheryl Greathouse from Child and Youth Services and Chris Solano from the Fort Riley Civilian Personnel Center were in-studio to talk upcoming events and activities. NBAF Director of Partnership Development Dr. Marty Vanier
Community	In Focus	13-Jul-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	College Avenue United Methodist Church Youth Director Peggy Riley as well as church members Mitchell Bunger, 13, and Emma Lansdown, 18. Also in-studio was Manhattan Public Library Public Relations Coordinator Maddy Ogle.
Community	In Focus	16-Jul-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Riley County Historical Museum Director Cheryl Collins.

This is a listing of the issues responded to by Station KMAN with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for this Quarter, July 1 through September 30. The listing is by no means exhaustive. Appearance order is not critical.

Description of Issues/Problems	Program and Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Local government	In Focus	17-Jul-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Manhattan City Manager Ron Fehr and Mayor Pro Tempore Mike Dodson.
Education/ local government	In Focus	18-Jul-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	USD 383 Assistant Superintendent Eric Reid and school board member Curt Herman, Manhattan Christian College President Kevin Ingram, as well as Riley County Emergency Management Director and County Fire Chief Pat Collins.
Community	In Focus	19-Jul-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Trent Armbrust, the Director of Economic Development for the Manhattan Area Chamber of Commerce.
Community	In Focus	20-Jul-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Riley County Agriculture Extension Agent Greg McClure; Director of Elementary Education for USD 383 Lucas Shivers and FIT Closet Coordinator Tracy Emery; Gregg VanDeCreek from the Manhattan Fire Department, Tyrone Townsend from the Riley County Police Department, James Marstall from Riley County EMS and Kristi Ingalls from American Red Cross discussed the Battle of the Badges blood drive.

This is a listing of the issues responded to by Station KMAN with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for this Quarter, July 1 through September 30. The listing is by no means exhaustive. Appearance order is not critical.

Description of Issues/Problems	Program and Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Community	Program and Segment	23-Jul-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Recap by host of last week's segment on the Battle of the Badges blood drive taking place this week followed by Manhattan Fire Department Assistant Chief Brad Claussen and friends as well as Pottawatomie County Fair 4-H Ambassadors Molly Minihan, Riley Olson, Spencer Dugan and Pott County Extension Agent Shannon Blocker.
Local government	In Focus	24-Jul-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Pottawatomie County Commissioner Travis Altenhofen, County Clerk Nancy McCarter, Representative Sydney Carlin, and Representative Tom Phillips.
Education	In Focus	25-Jul-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	USD 378 Superintendent Cliff Williams, Board of Education Member Nathan Mead, Associate Dean for K-State Global Campus Duane Dunn, and (via telephone) Tim Peterson, Director of the Board of Regents Get Ahead program.
Community, local government	In Focus	26-Jul-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Manhattan Kiwanis Bluemont Hill Overlook Project Secretary Kitty Pursley and Assistant Director of Manhattan Parks and Recreation Wyatt Thompson, Ruth Nicolaus of the Wild Bill Hickok Rodeo, Pawnee Mental Health Director Robbin Cole, as well as Karen Hawes of the Back to School Bike Swap in Ogden.

This is a listing of the issues responded to by Station KMAN with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for this Quarter, July 1 through September 30. The listing is by no means exhaustive. Appearance order is not critical.

Description of Issues/Problems	Program and Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Law enforcement	In Focus	27-Jul-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Riley County Police Department Director Brad Schoen and Jackson County School Resource Officer John Calvert of Topeka.
Politics	Program and Segment	30-Jul-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Dr. Timothy Shaffer, assistant professor of communication studies at Kansas State University and assistant director of the K-State Institute for Civil Discourse and Democracy.
Politics/ community	In Focus	31-Jul-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Former Kansas Gov. John Carlin followed by Deb Nuss, Beverly Olsen and Dave Baker.
Education/ Local government	In Focus	1-Aug-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Host introduction, followed by USD 383 Executive Director of Teaching and Learning Lacey Sell and School Board Member Dave Colburn as well as Riley County Clerk Rich Vargo.
Military/ Community	In Focus	2-Aug-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Fort Riley Garrison Commander Col. Stephen Shrader and NBAF Director of Partnership Development Dr. Marty Vanier. Host commentary and open phone segment.
Community	In Focus	3-Aug-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Manhattan Convention and Visitor's Bureau Director Karen Hibbard and Riley County Horticulture Extension Agent Gregg Eyestone.
Community/ local government	Program and Segment	6-Aug-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Host and reporter discussed local government and infrastructure issues while taking community commentary via phone.

This is a listing of the issues responded to by Station KMAN with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for this Quarter, July 1 through September 30. The listing is by no means exhaustive. Appearance order is not critical.

Description of Issues/Problems	Program and Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Local government	In Focus	7-Aug-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Manhattan City Mayor Linda Morse and City Manager Ron Fehr.
Education/ politics/ Local government	In Focus	8-Aug-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Creek USD 323 Superintendent Kevin Logan, Assistant Director of the Institute for Civic Discourse and Democracy at Kansas State University Dr. Timothy Shaffer, and a phone interview with Riley County Clerk Rich Vargo.
Military/Education	In Focus	9-Aug-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Fort Riley Anti-terrorism Officer Pat Burch and Fort Riley Museums Director Dr. Bob Smith. The show also featured a recorded interview host Brady Bauman conducted with USD 475 Executive Director of Communications Matthew Droge.
Animal health, education	In Focus	13-Aug-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Dr. Katie Delph, Clinical Assistant Professor for Equine Internal Medicine at KSU, as well as Wamego USD 320 Superintendent Tim Winter.
Local government	In Focus	14-Aug-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Riley County Commission Chair Marvin Rodriguez and Riley County IT/GIS Director Kevin Howser.

This is a listing of the issues responded to by Station KMAN with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for this Quarter, July 1 through September 30. The listing is by no means exhaustive. Appearance order is not critical.

Description of Issues/Problems	Program and Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Education	In Focus	15-Aug-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Manhattan-Ogden USD 383 Assistant Superintendent Eric Reid and school board member Leah Fliter as well as Manhattan Area Technical College President Jim Genandt.
Community	In Focus	16-Aug-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Manhattan Area Chamber of Commerce President Lyle Butler, who discussed economic ebbs and flows in the Manhattan/Wamego region past and future, along with new business openings in the area.
Community	In Focus	17-Aug-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Riley County 4-H Extension Agent John Jobe and Riley County Seniors' Service Center Director Jami Ramsey; K-State Dean of Libraries Lori Goetsch and K-State Vice President for Communications and Marketing Jeff Morris.
Community	In Focus	20-Aug-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Riley County Historical Museum Director Cheryl Collins and Doug Tippin, author of "150 Years of Education: Manhattan, Kansas."
Local government	In Focus	21-Aug-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Manhattan Mayor Linda Morse and City Manager Ron Fehr.

This is a listing of the issues responded to by Station KMAN with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for this Quarter, July 1 through September 30. The listing is by no means exhaustive. Appearance order is not critical.

Description of Issues/Problems	Program and Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Education/ Community	In Focus	22-Aug-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Blue Valley-Randolph Superintendent Brady Burton, Riley County Superintendent Cliff Williams, Reps for Friday night's "Retro Gaming Night", and Hope 22 Founder Brooke Brown.
Community	In Focus	23-Aug-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Pawnee Mental Health Director Robbin Cole, Kansas Department of Wildlife Parks and Tourism Game Warden Ben Jedlicka, and "Caring Neighbors" committee members Janet Armstead, Christine Day and Donna Goehring.
Community/ Law enforcement	In Focus	24-Aug-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Michelle Haub of Meadowlark Hills and John Baumann, keynote speaker for "Empowered Live!: An Evening to Celebrate Living Well with Parkinson's Disease;" RCPD Director Brad Schoen discussed the purchase of new armored vehicle for the department.
Politics	In Focus	27-Aug-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Dr. Timothy Shaffer, the Assistant Director of the Institute for Civic Discourse and Democracy at Kansas State University.
Local government/ Community	In Focus	28-Aug-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Pottawatomie County Administrator Robert Reece, Emergency Management Director Chris Trudo, Fire Supervisor Jared Barnes, and UFM Executive Director Linda Teener.

This is a listing of the issues responded to by Station KMAN with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for this Quarter, July 1 through September 30. The listing is by no means exhaustive. Appearance order is not critical.

Description of Issues/Problems	Program and Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Community	In Focus	29-Aug-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Tara Claussen with Big Brothers Big Sisters and later, Dr. Dan Thomson, Jones Professor of Production Medicine at K-State and former director of the K-State Beef Cattle Institute.
Community/ local government	In Focus	30-Aug-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Manhattan Fire Department Chief Brad Claussen and Riley County Appraiser Greg McHenry.
Law enforcement/ community/ local government	In Focus	31-Aug-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	KSU PD Chief Ronnie Grice and Lt. Bradli Millington, Manhattan Regional Airport Director Jesse Romo.
Local government	In Focus	4-Sep-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Manhattan City Mayor Linda Morse and City Manager Ron Fehr.
Education/ Community	In Focus	5-Sep-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	USD 383 Superintendent Marvin Wade and school board member Jurdene Coleman as well as Dr. Adam Chase of the Orthopaedic & Sports Medicine Center.

This is a listing of the issues responded to by Station KMAN with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for this Quarter, July 1 through September 30. The listing is by no means exhaustive. Appearance order is not critical.

Description of Issues/Problems	Program and Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Community	In Focus	6-Sep-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Manhattan Convention and Visitor's Bureau Director Karen Hibbard and NBAF Director of Partnership Development Dr. Marty Vanier.
Community	In Focus	7-Sep-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Host discussion with reporter about current events. Riley County Extension Agent Megan Dougherty as well as Associate Director of Dance at KSU Julie Pentz and Janice Schroder, who is a parent educator with Parents as Teachers.
Education/ Community	In Focus	10-Sep-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Dr. Neala Boyer of K-State College of Veterinary Medicine, Yes 383 Campaign Chair C. Clyde Jones and USD 383 School Board Member Katrina Lewison, as well as Flint Hills Volunteer Center Executive Director Lori Bishop.
Local government	In Focus	11-Sep-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Riley County Commissioner Ben Wilson and Emergency Management Director Pat Collins.
Education/ Community	In Focus	12-Sep-11	9:06 a.m.	14 mins per segment	Wamego USD 320 Superintendent Tim Winter, Rock Creek USD 323 Superintendent Kevin Logan, and North Central-Flint Hills Area Agency Executive Director Julie Govert Walter.

This is a listing of the issues responded to by Station KMAN with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for this Quarter, July 1 through September 30. The listing is by no means exhaustive. Appearance order is not critical.

Description of Issues/Problems	Program and Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Military/ Community/ Local government	In Focus	13-Sep-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Fall Apple Day Festival at Fort Riley Coordinator Ron Stewart and Pie Queens Karen McGuire and Kelly Armstrong. Then City of Manhattan Assistant Director of Community Development Chad Bunger talked about development and its impact on the recent labor day flooding.
Community/ Education/ Local government	In Focus	14-Sep-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Sunflower CASA Project Executive Director Stacy Tidwell, Lee Elementary School teachers Cindy Norris and Erin McCormick as well as 66th Kansas District Representative Sydney Carlin and Sarah Fisher from the Daughters of the American Revolution.
Community	In Focus	17-Sep-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Riley County Historical Museum Director Cheryl Collins who discussed iconic Manhattan sights and scenes.
Local government	In Focus	18-Sep-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Manhattan City Mayor Linda Morse and City Manager Ron Fehr.
Education	In Focus	19-Sep-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	USD 383 Assistant Superintendent Eric Reid and school board member Darrell Edie as well as Manhattan Christian College President Kevin Ingram.

This is a listing of the issues responded to by Station KMAN with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for this Quarter, July 1 through September 30. The listing is by no means exhaustive. Appearance order is not critical.

Description of Issues/Problems	Program and Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Community	In Focus	20-Sep-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Director of Economic Development Trent Armbrust, Military Community Liason Janet Nichols, as well as Director of Membership Sharla Meisenheimer — all from the Manhattan Area Chamber of Commerce.
Community	In Focus	21-Sep-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Riley County Research and Extension 4-H Agent John Jobe along with 4-H Ambassadors Isabel Bond, Kristina Powell, Jonathan Hoepner and Elizabeth Wright; GoPowercat.com Publisher Tim Fitzgerald; Riley County Seniors' Service Center Program Coordinator Melissa Colby and Riley County Health Department Director Jennifer Green; Small Business Administration Public Information Officer Burl Kelton
Politics/ community	In Focus	24-Sep-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Assistant Director of the Institute for Civic Discourse and Democracy at Kansas State University Timothy Shaffer and UFM Community Learning Center Education Coordinator Kayla Savage and Mary Swabb from Manhattan Public Library.
Local government	In Focus	25-Sep-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Pottawatomie County Public Works Director Peter Clark, Assistant Planner/Zoning Officer Stephen Metzger, and County Commissioner Pat Weixelman.

This is a listing of the issues responded to by Station KMAN with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for this Quarter, July 1 through September 30. The listing is by no means exhaustive. Appearance order is not critical.

Description of Issues/Problems	Program and Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Education/ Community	In Focus	26-Sep-18	9:06 a.m.		Blue Valley Randolph USD 384 Superintendent Brady Burton, Riley County USD 378 Superintendent Cliff Williams, and Assistant Director of Student Programs at K-State Marcus Kidd.
Community	In Focus	27-Sep-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Community discussion on current events; Pawnee Mental Health Services Executive Director Robbin Cole as well as UFM Executive Director and Education Coordinator Kayla Savage.
Community/ Education	In Focus	28-Sep-18	9:06 a.m.	Four 12-min segments	Honor Flight Liason Officer Donald Riffey, Dan Springer and Amber Petty from Wildwood Adventure Park, Flint Hills Breadbasket Executive Director Maribeth Kieffer and Susan Shaw of CROP Walk Manhattan, as well as Biosecurity Research Institute Director Dr. Stephen Higgs.