Listener Comments

10/22/21 - Larry and Air Talk and all the doctors and nurses he interviews have helped me. Seriously. Where would we be at 10 a.m. daily w/out their help? Hiding in a dark corner or under the blankets, is my best guess. Thank you KPCC. I am a sustaining member, but made an additional gift to help with this challenge. Serious props from Ellen in Hollywood

11/20/21 - I'm sorry that my donations for two recent fund-raisers were not processed. I think I entered the wrong CRV code or something. I hope this goes through--I know I've received messages from your staff but I couldn't do this on the phone due to your pandemic measures. Please accept my apologies for the trouble--I look forward to many more hours of listening pleasure! I wake up to Suzanne Whatley, and cruise through the day with the rest of the line-up. Thank you!

11/30/21 - KPCC has been an intermittent part of my life whenever I am in a car and NPR podcasts (Sam Sanders, Short Wave, life kit, pop culture happy hour, consider this etc) are a part of most weeks. Independent journalism is an essential component of civil society, and local coverage how we build social cohesion and will coalesce and learn and activate base level transformation of our world.
