

KZAL-FM

2017 2nd Quarter

This Quarterly Issues Program Report is a list of non-entertainment programming which, in the opinion of the management of KZAL-FM, represents the most significant treatment by the Station of certain issues believed to be of community concern. This list is not intended to be a comprehensive list of all the Station's non-entertainment programming. Nor is it designed to list every program broadcast by the Station that is responsive to the selected issues. Included are only those programs in which the station devoted significant time or depth to the ascertained issues

Nature Resources	4/9/17	6:00am	KZAL Broadcast Day on Z-Country 94.7	Issue: Mammals of all kinds are shaking off the winter and enjoying warmer spring temperatures. That means humans head to trails in the Wenatchee foothills, while mule deer move away from town and back to upper elevations. But it was a tough winter for all, heavy snow and cold temperatures. Each winter the Chelan PUD tracks mule deer foraging and migrations and Dan Langager sat down with their wildlife biologist Von Pope to get the details –	Chelan County PUD Wildlife Biologist Von Pope.	9min 22sec

Weather And Climate Change	4/23/17	6:00am	KZAL Broadcast Day on Z- Country 94.7	The topic of climate change doesn't often intersect with the Church. But Bishop emeritus William Skylstad wants to change that. He's giving a talk in Wenatchee this Sunday called "The Moral Dimensions of Climate Change: A call to prudence, the common good and environmental justice." The talk, which begins is Sunday, April 23rd at Kuykendall Hall at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, is sponsored by Climate Conversations NCW, a group of citizens who are seeking to better understand the science, as well as what might be done at the local level to begin addressing this issue. Bishop Skylstad joins Icicle Broadcasting's Chris Hansen to talk about why he thinks humans have a moral obligation to protect the planet and the role he sees the Church playing in helping people live more sustainably.	Bishop emeritus William Skylstad	10min 4sec
Suicide Prevention	5/7/17	6:00am	KZAL Broadcast Day on Z- Country 94.7	Starting May 1, the Suicide Prevention Coalition of North Central Washington transitioned from management under Catholic Family & Child Services to Confluence Health. The coalition was founded by Dr. Julie Rickard, who will now direct it for Confluence Health. Dan Langager reports on what the move means for suicide prevention services in the region.	Dr. Julie Rickard	4min 22sec

Fire Protection	5/7/17	6:04am	KZAL Broadcast Day on Z- Country 94.7	Chelan County Fire District #1 Fire Chief Mike Burnett joins Chris Hansen to talk about major facilities changes for the district – a expanding the Squilchuck fire station in South Wenatchee, with construction beginning there this month, a new station on N. Wenatchee Ave. at the old Prospector Pies location, revamping their building on the corner of 5th St. and Western Ave. and more. Burnett said some of these changes came as a result of the annexation agreement the district made with the city of Wenatchee.	Chelan County Fire District #1 Fire Chief Mike Burnett	12min 00sec
