Governor Walker	WHA	DEMSREC1	State Assembly Democrats are calling out the Walker administration for delaying and denying a handful of open records requests.	White	Minority Leader Peter Barca	7/6
	WHA	WASHOUT	Wisconsin Emergency Management officials are working with several agencies and counties to address washed out roads and flooding in northern Wisconsin.	Kaeding	State Emergency Management Spokesman Todd Pritchard	7/12
Government in General	WHA	RYANRNC1	U.S. House Speaker Paul Ryan told Wisconsin delegates to the Republican National Convention in Cleveland that House Republicans were articulating a vision of how to lead the country. But he made no mention of likely GOP presidential nominee Donald Trump.	Johnson	U.S. House Speaker Paul Ryan	7/18
Other	WHA	2OPENYAY1	US Highway 2 has reopened in northern Wisconsin after severe flooding covered roadways and washed out shoulders. But As Rich Kremer reports work on other highways in the region has been hampered by another severe storm this week.	Kremer	Wisconsin Department of Transportation spokeswoman Diana Maas	7/22
Government in General	WHA	FALLTURN1	State elections officials are expecting a smaller voter turnout for this August's partisan primary than the last presidential election cycle in 2012.	White	Reid Magney, spokesman for the Elections Commission	7/28

Government in General	WHA	CAFOSCOP	The DNR Board has approved public hearings on a plan to reduce harmful run-off from large dairy farms that are located in areas of the state with shallow soil. Some citizens want fast action on the proposal.	Quirnbach	Kewaunee County resident Lynn Utesch	8/4
Government in General	WHA	FEDFLOOD	Eight counties and one tribe in northern Wisconsin can now access federal money to help pay for an estimated $25 million in flood damage to roads after the July 11 storm.	Kaeding	Bayfield County Administrator Mark Abeles-Allison	8/10
Governor Walker	WHA	MEETING2	Governor Scott Walker had a series of listening sessions with religious leaders in Milwaukee Tuesday afternoon. Walker visited Citybrook Church in Sherman Park where weekend riots followed a fatal police shooting.	Terrell	Governor Scott Walker	8/16
Crime and Drugs	WHA	BRADWONT2	State Attorney General Brad Schimel says he won't release the video of the police shooting of a Milwaukee man until the local prosecutor decides if criminal charges are warranted.	Quirnbach	Attorney General Brad Schimel	8/22
Budget and Taxes	WHA	CITIES1	Revenue for Wisconsin's cities and towns has dipped since 2010 when adjusted for inflation. A new survey finds municipalities preserved public safety services by cutting back on areas like road maintenance and snow removal. The Wisconsin League of Municipalities also sees a divide in which towns are thriving.	Calvert Mason	Jerry Daschane, Executive Director of the League of Wisconsin Municipalities	8/26
Crime and Drugs	WHA	DOJDEM2	The State DOJ told the WI Supreme Court today that there's no public interest in releasing two training videos produced by Attorney General Brad Schimel. The Democratic Party tried to get copies under Wisconsin's open records law.	Johnson	DOJ Solicitor General Misha Tseytlin	9/6

Economy and Jobs	WHA	16LNDRENT2	The average rent for farmland has increased slightly in Wisconsin this year. The US Department of Agriculture reported the state's average cropland rental rate is 131 dollars per acre. That's a dollar more than 2014.	Kirwan	State Statistician Greg Bussler	9/12
State Legislature	WHA	VOSLEAKS	Top Wisconsin Republicans are calling for an investigation into who leaked documents that were part of a John Doe investigation involving conservative groups and Governor Scott Walker's campaign.	Johnson	Assembly Speaker Robin Vos	9/16
Governor Walker	WHA	SWWROADS1	Governor Scott Walker and Assembly Republicans are battling publicly over how to fund road repairs and construction across the state. The parties exchanged letters this week each laying out their case.	Calvert Mason	Governor Scott Walker	9/22
Government in General	WHA	DNRBUD	The Natural Resources Board has endorsed a two-year budget plan for the DNR. The proposal now headed to Governor Walker would add more staff to review large livestock farms called CAFO's.	Quirnbach	DNR Budget Director Joe Polasek	9/28
