KTSM
 Quarterly Issues/Programs List

KTSM provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Finance- Discussion about local federal credit union and its financial wellness economic show called Get Lit with FirstLight; Information on the VITA free tax preparation program being offered by local credit union GECU; Discussion on Texas being the 6th highest state for property taxes
- Environmental Services- Discussion of the local issues caused by illegal dumping of trash and the problems it causes for stormwater drainage and effects on environment
- Healthcare- Information on the Medicare open enrollment season
- Business- Information on how to go about business goals and situations in modern business
- Non-Profit- Discussion of the new online YMCA program now available to people in the region for virtual fitness and sports classes at the local YMCA; Information on the upcoming sessions of the Texas Master Naturalist program in the area providing an opportunity to become a trained expert in numerous physical and biological topics in the larger region; Information on Fighting to Save Lives: Jacob T. Legacy Foundation and their mission to raise awareness of Fentanyl and its dangers to the community; Discussion of the importance of mentoring younger generations and non-profit MENTOR study featured in USA Today; Details on the Kickin' Asphalt 5k and One-Mile Fun Run/Walk put on by the El Paso Center for Children
- Education- Discussion on learning opportunities that the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at UTEP provides for senior adults 50 years of age and older; Discussion and information on the new Bachelor of Science in Computer Engineering degree offered by UTEP
- Recreation- Information on ongoing and upcoming programming at the Hueco Tanks State Park & Historic Site
- Arts- Details on the opening of a new exhibition at the Los Portales Museum featuring the artwork of the San Elizario High School Art Department students
