Additional Programming to address Community Issues:

Improving education in Rockford is critical. Although unemployment is a significant problem in the Stateline area, many of the jobs cannot be filled due to an undereducated population. As part of the station-wide initiative to improve education in the Stateline, WQRF brought The Edge Factor Show to the market to raise awareness and educate people about potential careers in manufacturing. The Edge Factor Show tells stories of innovative manufacturing teams working together to design and build incredible products. In each episode, host Jeremy Bout meets the people who are using cutting edge technology to redefine what possible, change lives is and build our world. The program airs on WQRF at 11:00 pm on Fridays.

WQRF's sports team, Scott Leber and Josh Filomeno produced the weekly local high school football wrap-up show, Sports Connection. The ½ hour program airs weekly on WQRF Saturdays at 11:00 am and 5:30 pm from 8/22/2015 through 9/27/15 and will continue into 4th quarter.

Community Outreach

On 4/9/15, a tornado wiped out the town of Fairdale. The WQRF meteorologist was contacted by the DeKalb County Long Term Recovery Team to ask if weather radios could be donated to residents since they would not have a tornado siren in the town. On 8/23/15, both meteorologists Candice King and Kristin Cwynar attended the Town Hall meeting at the Kirkland Fire Department and distributed 100 radios to the residents. They were all grateful and said, "the station's severe weather cut-ins saved their lives that night".

WQRF's campaign, Stateline Volunteers to showcases area non-profit organizations and volunteering efforts in the region. To date the campaign has focused on the following local branches of these organizations:
