

Issue	Name of Program/Segment	Date of Airing	Time of Airing	Duration	Narrative
Economic Support	Community Connection: BGF C'Ville Builds	1/1/21 - 1/30/21	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 41 times.	60 seconds	For more than 20 years, Building Goodness Foundation has been building community and improving lives for thousands of people in Central Virginia and around the world. As the community continues to struggle through the pandemic, economic recession, and social injustice, BGF volunteers and partners are teaming up for a new local initiative called C'ville Builds. Together they are providing building and home repairs for families and organizations who are struggling during this time. If you are a nonprofit organization, small business, or low-income homeowner who needs construction assistance, you may be eligible for help through C'ville Builds.
Addiction Services	Community Connection: McShin Foundation	1/1/21-1/30/21	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 40 times.	60 seconds	The McShin Foundation is a nonprofit in Henrico that helps humans with addiction as well as their families. They also have live podcasts all throughout the week on their FaceBook page.
Seniors	Community Connection: Twice Is Nice	1/1/21-2/20/21	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 63 times.	60 seconds	Twice Is Nice is a nonprofit in Charlottesville with a mission to benefit seniors in need, while promoting sustainability through the resale of donated men's and women's clothing, furniture and household items. They value helping seniors, practicing sustainability through recycling and reducing waste, being socially impactful and inclusive, and providing quality products with competitive and affordable prices.
Adoption/Foster Care	Community Connection: Children's Home Society of Virginia	1/1/21-3/8/21	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 83 times.	60 seconds	The Children's Home Society of Virginia is a 120 year-old non-profit adoption agency that specializes in placing teens, sibling groups and children with special needs. Through their My Path Forward program, they also empower youth who have aged out of the foster care system toward independence by providing housing and full supports such as educational assistance and workplace readiness.
Literacy	Community Connection: Literacy Volunteers	1/1/21-1/13/21	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 19 times.	60 seconds	Literacy Volunteers of Charlottesville/Albemarle is a nonprofit that provides reading, writing, and English language tutoring to adults in our community through the work of volunteer tutors. Their students come from a variety of backgrounds and are hoping to acquire the skills they need to independently pursue life goals and support their families. Like many organizations and individuals, Literacy Volunteers had to change their operations due to the pandemic. Technology and virtual instruction now allow them to reach more people in multiple ways. Training and tutoring take place online to keep everyone safe.
Health	Community Connection: Project Yoga Richmond	1/1/21-3/25/21	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 103 times.	60 seconds	Project Yoga Richmond is a nonprofit dedicated to making yoga affordable and accessible to everyone regardless of ability to pay. They operate a yoga studio as well as outreach programs that serve youth, teens, seniors, children and adults with various abilities, individuals in recovery, incarcerated men and women, and domestic violence and human trafficking survivors.

Issue	Name of Program/Segment	Date of Airing	Time of Airing	Duration	Narrative
Health	Community Connection: Project Yoga Richmond	1/1/21-3/25/21	Throughout the day -- approximately 8 times.	60 seconds	Project Yoga Richmond is a nonprofit dedicated to making yoga affordable and accessible to everyone regardless of ability to pay. They operate a yoga studio as well as outreach programs that serve youth, teens, seniors, children and adults with various abilities, individuals in recovery, incarcerated men and women, and domestic violence and human trafficking survivors.
Food Bank	Community Connection: Lynchburg Daily Bread	1/1/21-3/16/21	Throughout the day -- approximately 92 times.	60 seconds	Lynchburg Daily Bread is a non-profit soup kitchen located in downtown Lynchburg that provides a nutritious lunch to the homeless and hungry of our community each day of the year. Everyone is welcome, no questions asked. In addition to downtown, they currently offer 12 Meals Outreach locations throughout Central Virginia.
Technology	Community Connection: Vector Space	1/1/21-3/16/21	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 92 times	60 seconds	Vector Space is a nonprofit in downtown Lynchburg that empowers people through hands-on education. They're hosting workshops in areas like woodworking, blacksmithing, sewing, and more. Class sizes are limited and COVID safety precautions are in place. Membership is also available and provides 24/7 access to 12,000 sq ft of shared workspace.
Media	Community Connection: SHARE Greater Lynchburg	1/1/21-3/16/21	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 93 times.	60 seconds	SHAREGreaterLynchburg.org is a nonprofit based in Lynchburg that offers simple ways for neighbors, nonprofits and businesses to come together in one place. Their website features over 100 local nonprofits and hundreds of ways to volunteer and give.
Personal History	Hear Together: Chauncey Spencer/Anne Spencer Museum	1/1/21-1/31/21	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 25 times.	90 seconds	Located in the Pierce Street District in Lynchburg, The Anne Spencer House and Garden Museum honors the contributions of Harlem Renaissance poet Anne Spencer. But it also tells the story of another historical figure: her son, Chauncey. With an affinity for flight and a desire to serve his country, Chauncey Spencer became one of the pioneers of aviation. In 1934, he left his hometown of Lynchburg for Chicago, and joined a group of African American pilots in the National Airmen Association of America (NAAA). Inspired by a meeting with Spencer and fellow NAAA member Dale Lawrence White, President Truman signed an executive order integrating the U.S. airforce in 1948 — an action that paved the way for the Tuskegee Airmen. Spencer's flight suit is now on display at the Smithsonian. Recorded live from the stage of the Historic Academy of Music Theatre, we spoke with Chauncey's daughter, Shaun Spencer Hester, for this Hear Together profile.

Issue	Name of Program/Segment	Date of Airing	Time of Airing	Duration	Narrative
Personal History	Hear Together: Whirlwind Johnson/Whirlwind Johnson Foundation	1/1/21-1/31/21	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 27 times.	90 seconds	A member of the Tennis Hall of Fame, Dr. Robert “Whirlwind” Johnson was a guiding force in the integration of professional tennis. He ran an elite tennis camp from the court that he built in the backyard of his home in Lynchburg. Every summer, promising African American players from around the country would gather on Dr. J’s court. Two of his students — Hall of Famers Althea Gibson and Arthur Ashe — would go on to become the first two African American Grand Slam Champions. Dr. J’s court sat unused after his death in 1971. In conjunction with the United States Tennis Association, the Whirlwind Johnson Foundation restored the courts for public use a couple years ago. We spoke with Dr. J’s granddaughter, Jolynn Johnson Smith, and her son, Evan Smith, for this Hear Together profile.
Personal History	Hear Together: Chauncey Spencer/Anne Spencer Museum	1/1/21-1/31/21	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 26 times.	90 seconds	Located in the Pierce Street District in Lynchburg, The Anne Spencer House and Garden Museum honors the contributions of Harlem Renaissance poet Anne Spencer. But it also tells the story of another historical figure: her son, Chauncey. With an affinity for flight and a desire to serve his country, Chauncey Spencer became one of the pioneers of aviation. In 1934, he left his hometown of Lynchburg for Chicago, and joined a group of African American pilots in the National Airmen Association of America (NAAA). Inspired by a meeting with Spencer and fellow NAAA member Dale Lawrence White, President Truman signed an executive order integrating the U.S. airforce in 1948 — an action that paved the way for the Tuskegee Airmen. Spencer’s flight suit is now on display at the Smithsonian. Recorded live from the stage of the Historic Academy of Music Theatre, we spoke with Chauncey’s daughter, Shaun Spencer Hester, for this Hear Together profile.
Disability Care	Hear Together: Kindness Cafe and Play	1/1/21-current	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 82 times.	90 seconds	Currently adults with disabilities are underemployed or unemployed at a rate of 70% or higher in most communities. While school systems often provide daily structure, peer connection, and options for growth, these beneficial opportunities are lost in adulthood with a lack of employment. That’s where Charlottesville’s Kindness Cafe + Play comes in. Located in the Piedmont Family YMCA, the cafe was founded in order to provide meaningful employment for adults with cognitive disabilities. We spoke with founder and owner Katie Kishore for this Hear Together profile.
Poverty	Hear Together: Circles RVA	1/1/21-current	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 112 times.	90 seconds	Richmond’s adult poverty rate is nearly double the national average, which means that one in four people in Richmond are living in poverty. Two years ago, a group of concerned citizens created a nonprofit, Circles RVA, to break the cycle. Circles RVA is a long-term, high-impact program that works with families in the Greater Richmond area, providing them the social network, financial tools, and emotional encouragement that people need to grow. We spoke with Circles RVA Community Coordinator Kristin Blalock for this Hear Together profile. You can listen at the audio link below and learn more on their website.

Issue	Name of Program/Segment	Date of Airing	Time of Airing	Duration	Narrative
Homelessness	Community Connection: Miriam's House	1/1/21-3/31/21	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 108 times.	60 seconds	Miriam's House is a nonprofit in Lynchburg with a mission to end homelessness and rebuild lives. In 2020, they placed 337 of our homeless neighbors into safe and affordable housing. They know that the upcoming need is great and they invite you to get involved with our work of ending homelessness . You can learn more here.
Arts	Community Connection: The Front Porch	1/10/21-1/31/21	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 28 times.	60 seconds	The Front Porch is Charlottesville's community music school! Their mission is to connect everyone through music. The Front Porch is registering for their winter session, and they offer group classes as well as private lessons for all ages on a wide variety of instruments and in tons of musical styles.
Transportation	Community Connection: Community Bikes	1/15/21-2/11/21	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 32 times.	60 seconds	Charlottesville Community Bikes is a nonprofit bike shop in Charlottesville that operates through Virginia Organizing to promote environmentally-sound transportation, recycle bicycles, and make cycling accessible in Charlottesville. In 2020, they gave away over 650 free bikes to kids and over 200 bikes to adults in need of bikes for reliable transportation. Community Bikes is hosting their annual Valentine's Day Fundraiser, Bake & Bike, on Friday February 12th, when costumed bike couriers will deliver pre-ordered bags of heart-shaped scones around Charlottesville
Arts	Community Connection: Blue Ridge Irish Music School (BRIMS)	1/11/21-1/29/21	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 25 times.	60 seconds	The Blue Ridge Irish Music School (BRIMS) is presenting a virtual concert and zoom workshop with singer Karan Casey on Friday, January 29th & Saturday, January 30th.
Health	Community Connection: Girls on the Run of Central Virginia	1/13/21-2/28/21	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 53 times.	60 seconds	Girls on the Run of Central Virginia is celebrating its 15th anniversary with over 10,000 girls served. They forward to helping even more girls reach their limitless potential this year and beyond. They are currently forming teams in the Greater Charlottesville Area for our Spring 2021 season, and are seeking volunteers! Teams of girls in grades 3rd through 5th or 6th through 8th will meet for eight weeks and engage in lessons that nurture physical and emotional health while training to complete a 5K.
Education	Community Connection: GARCC Foundation Scholarship	1/13/21-3/25/21	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 84 times.	60 seconds	The Greater Augusta Regional Chamber of Commerce Foundation in Fishersville, known as the GARCC Foundation, is a nonprofit that serves Staunton, Waynesboro, and Augusta County. Their mission focuses on education, workforce development, quality of life, and community development. Through their Academic Achievers initiative, they've awarded over $200,000 in scholarships to local students to help them achieve the first step on their career path for over 11 years. The application process for 2021 is now open! These scholarships are awarded to high school seniors and can be used for vocational or technical school, credentialing programs, or a two or four-year college. The deadline to apply is Friday, March 26th.

Issue	Name of Program/Segment	Date of Airing	Time of Airing	Duration	Narrative
Education	Hear Together: Jubilee Center	1/14/21-current	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 84 times.	90 seconds	The Jubilee Center has been helping children and adults in the Lynchburg community achieve a path to success for over 20 years. They offer multifaceted opportunities for all age levels – from after-school tutoring, mentoring programs, and summer camps for kids to GED classes, vocational programs, and computer workshops for adults. They have a robust athletics program and a new STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts and Mathematics) center. We spoke with founder and Executive Director Sterling Wilder for this Hear Together profile.
Food Insecurity	Community Connection: Market Central	1/20/21-current	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 81 times.	60 seconds	Market Central is a non-profit in Charlottesville dedicated to supporting local farms, farmers markets, small businesses, and connecting the Charlottesville community to high quality food. In partnership with the IX Art Park, a fellow non-profit, they operate a walk-up Farmers Market every Saturday morning from 9am to 1pm at IX Art Park.
Health	Community Connection: Cancer Action Coalition of Virginia	1/20/21-2/21/21	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 34 times.	60 seconds	The Cancer Action Coalition of Virginia is a sponsor of the first ever Code R.E. D. Virtual Prostate Cancer Disparity and Early Detection Summit in Virginia. This virtual prostate cancer awareness and educational event will take place throughout the month of February on Mondays at 6PM. This event will bring together some of the top physicians, prostate cancer experts and thought leaders to discuss the important information that all men need to know about prostate cancer, the most commonly diagnosed cancer in men-- especially black men, who are at the highest risk for the disease. This event is not just for men, but also their families and caretakers.
Youth Development	Community Connection: IRON Lives	1/20/21-current	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 82 times.	60 seconds	IRON Lives is a nonprofit in Central Virginia that forges young leaders in our community through mentoring and positive youth development.
Homelessness	Hear Together: Park View Mission	1/27/21-current	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 75 times.	90 seconds	Park View Community Mission, located in Lynchburg, is the largest client-choice food pantry in the state of Virginia west of Richmond. Last year alone, the organization's Food for Families program served over half a million pounds of food. They established Food for Thought in 2018, which is a backpack program providing meals for school-aged children. Park View's commitment to health and food security extends to its Life Skills Institute, which provides nutrition classes and teaches homemaking skills to clients. Recently, Park View expanded its offerings to include Clothing Connection, a donation-based clothing space. For this Hear Together profile, we spoke with Park View's Director of Development, Ashley Steinweg, along with Jeanell Smith, who has been teaching nutrition classes at Park View for a decade.
Food Insecurity	Community Connection: Blue Ridge Area Food Bank	2/2/21-current	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 45 times.	60 seconds	Because of the COVID-19 pandemic, thousands of neighbors within the Blue Ridge Area Food Bank's service area have lost jobs or wages. Now, neighbors must make tough choices, like whether to buy food or pay for heat, as we make our way through winter. If you or someone you know must make these kinds of trade offs to meet household needs, the Food Bank and its partner food pantries are ready to help. They follow CDC protocols to keep visitors safe.

Issue	Name of Program/Segment	Date of Airing	Time of Airing	Duration	Narrative
Health	Community Connection: Hospice of the Piedmont	2/2/21-3/10/21	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 38 times.	60 seconds	Starting this March, Hospice of the Piedmont will offer a quarterly virtual event series called Community Conversations. The events will be community discussions around different end-of-life topics. The first event will take place at 2 p.m. on Wednesday, March 10th, and will focus on taking control of your medical care and finding your voice as a patient at the end of life. Community Conversations: Finding Your Voice at the End of Life will include a dialogue between President &amp; CEO Ron Cottrell and Dr. Tim Short, the Chief Medical Officer &amp; Director, Education Institute, both from Hospice of the Piedmont. Community members will have the chance to learn more about patient-centered options for comfort and care after a life-limiting diagnosis. A question-and-answer session will allow participants to ask their specific questions and get answer about end-of-life issues.
Environment	Community Connection: Piedmont Master Gardeners	2/2/21-3/3/21	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 32 times.	60 seconds	In cooperation with the Virginia Cooperative Extension, The Piedmont Master Gardeners are presenting the 2021 Spring Lecture Series for home gardeners. The lectures will be presented virtually, and will take place on four consecutive Thursday evenings, beginning on March 4th from 7-8:15 PM. Topics include Better Backyard Tomatoes, What is Conservation Landscaping?, What a Warming World Means for Plants and Pests, and Robins to Raptors: Observing Birds in Our Backyards.
Arts/Environment	Community Connection: RVA Environmental Film Festival	2/2/21-2/25/21	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 25 times.	60 seconds	The RVA Environmental Film Festival's mission is to offer entertaining and educational films that leave attendees with increased awareness of environmental issues that we face locally as well as globally. This year's festival will be completely virtual, running from Friday, February 12 through Friday, February 26th, and will feature award-winning Virginia films. Many films will be followed by a discussion where audience members can interact with the host and each other.
Food Insecurity	Community Connection: Cultivate Charlottesville' Food Justice Network	2/2/21-current	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 67 times.	60 seconds	Cultivate Charlottesville's Food Justice Network is a nonprofit in Charlottesville that aims to build a healthy and just food system for all. Are you looking for food resources during COVID? They have launched a 24/7 Food Security Text Line in both English and Spanish. They welcome you to text the word "FOOD" or the word "COMIDA" to (844) 947-6518 at any time to get information on food pantries and other food resources in Charlottesville and surrounding counties, including Albemarle, Augusta, Greene, Buckingham, Louisa, Fluvanna, and Nelson.

Issue	Name of Program/Segment	Date of Airing	Time of Airing	Duration	Narrative
Access to Work	Community Connection: Women United in Philanthropy	2/9/21-3/23/21	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 47 times.	60 seconds	Formed in partnership with United Way of Greater Charlottesville, Women United in Philanthropy's mission since 2005 is to engage with like-minded women to learn about our community's needs and, through collective giving, support other non-profits who offer services to better the lives of women and children in our area. On Wednesday March 24th, they're hosting a virtual education event called Pathways to Professions and Prosperity - Through COVID and Beyond. The panel will discuss the inhibitors to achieving sustainable employment in our area during these unsettling times; what businesses and community leaders are doing today to break down these barriers; the various resources an individual can leverage now to help improve their personal economic stability and prosperity and finally; steps other local businesses can take to drive even more opportunity in Charlottesville.
Literacy	Hear Together: Reach Out and Read	3/2/2021-current	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 35 times.	90 seconds	From fairy tales and Dr. Seuss rhymes to mystery books and science fiction, storytelling has always sparked imagination and creativity in early childhood development. But research proves that the cognitive benefits don't stop there. Reading leads to better social and emotional outcomes, and facilitates school readiness and language development. Reach Out and Read is a book-sharing program where pediatricians prescribe parent/child reading and provide a book during wellness check-ups. The national program began 30 years ago in Boston; Now, there's 100 Reach Out and Read sites statewide in the Commonwealth of Virginia that serve over 100,000 children. Dr. Bergen Nelson is a pediatrician at Children's Hospital of Richmond at VCU, one of the latest offices to offer Reach Out and Read. Since their start last July, they've given out an upwards of 4,000 books. We spoke with Dr. Nelson for this Hear Together profile.
Art	Community Connection: Blue Ridge Irish Music School (BRIMS)	3/2/2021-3/21/2021	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 22 times.	60 seconds	The Blue Ridge Irish Music School (BRIMS) is a nonprofit educational organization dedicated to creating community through Irish music. BRIMS' next semester of online classes in Irish music, song and dance begins on March 22nd. BRIMS welcomes students of all ages and skill levels.
Art	Community Connection: Wilton House Museum	3/4/2021-3/23/2021	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 20 times.	60 seconds	The historic Wilton House Museum in Richmond tells a uniquely Virginian story. Their newest exhibition, "Wilton Uncovered: Archaeology Illuminates an Enslaved Community," opens to the public on Wednesday, March 24th. Self-guided tours of the house and exhibit are available by appointment.

Issue	Name of Program/Segment	Date of Airing	Time of Airing	Duration	Narrative
Food Insecurity	Hear Together: RVAgriculture	3/5/2021-current	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 30 times.	90 seconds	After suffering a series of accidents and injuries, Lisa Dearden found that the key to regaining her health was changing her diet. She became passionate about local food sources, and opened a farm and started a market of her own. Eleven seasons later, RVAgriculture has expanded to include five farmer's markets and a robust online marketplace. The nonprofit has even incorporated creative programming, like their 'Chef At The Market,' where different chefs provide a recipe tutorial featuring seasonal food. For this Hear Together profile, we spoke with Dearden about the importance of knowing where your food comes from, and how RVAgriculture has worked to keep local producers and local businesses alive during the pandemic.
Arts	Community Connection: VA Festival of the Book	3/10/2021-3/25/2021	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 16 times.	60 seconds	A program of Virginia Humanities, located in Charlottesville, the Virginia Festival of the Book brings together writers and readers to promote and celebrate books, reading, literacy, and literary culture every March. They are hosting the all-virtual 2021 Virginia Festival of the Book Saturday, March 13th through Friday, March 26th, featuring more than 40 virtual events at no cost with authors and books across all genres, for all ages and reading interests.
Health	Community Connection: Charlottesville Marathon	3/10/2021-4/9/2021	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 27 times.	60 seconds	Part of Knight's Gambit Vineyard's mission as a local business is to give back to the Charlottesville community. In 2007, in honor of Alexandra Summers, who passed away from brain cancer, they founded the Alexandra Summers Fund through the Charlottesville Area Community Foundation. They've have been able to raise funds for organizations such as the Free Clinic, The Southern Environmental Law Center and the Blue Ridge Area Food Bank. In conjunction with Bad to the Bones Sports, they're hosting the Charlottesville Marathon on Saturday, April 10th. They welcome you to join them for a day of running with the Blue Ridge in view, live music and food trucks with proceeds from the fundraiser and wine sales going to Alex's Fund.
Animal Welfare	Community Connection: Charlottesville Albemarle SPCA	3/12/2021-4/16/2021	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 24 times.	60 seconds	The Charlottesville-Albemarle SPCA is a local shelter committed to providing lifesaving care to thousands of animals in our community and placing healthy pets in caring homes. They're hosting their 8th Annual bow-WOW-walk fundraiser reimagined as a pet-friendly, socially distanced car parade. they welcome you to join them on Saturday, April 17th at Morningside of Charlottesville to celebrate shelter pets and spread joy to senior citizens.
Environment	Community Connection: Community Climate Collaborative (C3)	3/15/2021-3/29/2021	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 19 times.	60 seconds	The Community Climate Collaborative (C3) is a nonprofit in Charlottesville that elevates climate action, policy, advocacy, and equity at the community level. They are hosting Electrification is the Future, a virtual Lunch 'n' Learn on Tuesday, March 30th at noon over Zoom on the electrification of homes and small businesses. All-electric homes can be a good way to improve indoor health and safety, save money over time, and reduce your carbon footprint to help the climate.

Issue	Name of Program/Segment	Date of Airing	Time of Airing	Duration	Narrative
Immigrant Resources	Community Connection: NewBridges	3/23/2021-4/20/2021	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 10 times.	60 seconds	NewBridges Immigrant Resource Center is a nonprofit located in Harrisonburg and serving Harrisonburg and the Shenandoah Valley. Their mission is to engage immigrants, connect cultures and build community with a vision for a thriving community that everyone can call home. They invite you to join us in celebrating our immigrant community by participating in the 4th annual Great Community Give on Wednesday, April 21st. Proceeds help them support their clients in a number of ways including providing immigration legal representation from one of their two Department of Justice Accredited Representatives, Health Navigation services which help clients navigate medical expenses and billing, and numerous other services including document translation, information and referrals.
Health	Community Connection: Rockbridge Area Health Center	3/24/2021-current	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 5 times.	60 seconds	The Rockbridge Area Health Center is a non-profit, community health center in Lexington that provides comprehensive, high-quality and affordable health care for the whole family. Services include medical, dental, pediatric, women's health, and behavioral health counseling and are available to anyone regardless of income or insurance status. With the reopening of the Health Insurance Marketplace through August 15th for a special insurance enrollment period for 2021 coverage, the health center also provides support staff who are trained and certified to offer free, confidential, in-person or over-the-phone assistance with understanding what affordable health insurance options and programs are available, as well as help with enrollment or with updating a current health exchange plan.
Literacy	Community Connection: Skyline Literacy	3/24/2021-4/20/2021	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 9 times.	60 seconds	Skyline Literacy is a non-profit serving Harrisonburg and Rockingham County, offering instruction in basic literacy, in the English language for those who don't speak it natively, and in preparation for the citizenship exam for those who are choosing to become American citizens. They are one of the organizations participating in the Community Foundation's Great Community Give on April 21st, and they invite you to support Skyline during their Power Hour, from noon to one on the 21st.
Health	Community Connection: Shenandoah Valley Bicycle Coalition	3/24/2021-6/23/2021	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 9 times.	60 seconds	Shenandoah Valley Bicycle Coalition has a 35-year history of using bicycling and walking to build happier, healthier, and more connected communities in the valley. From natural surface trails on our public lands to bicycle optimized trail systems and in-town greenways, we work to create accessible trails close to home to ensure everyone has the ability to enjoy active transportation and recreation. SVBC welcomes you to join them as they work to reclaim our streets, trails, and public places for current and future generations of walkers and riders.

Issue	Name of Program/Segment	Date of Airing	Time of Airing	Duration	Narrative
Food Insecurity	Community Connection: The Local Food Hub	3/25/2021-current	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 5 times.	60 seconds	The Local Food Hub is a nonprofit organization in Central Virginia that advances equitable access to fresh food, independent farms, and fairness in farming. They just hit the one-year anniversary of their drive-through, preorder, covid-safe farmers market. They invite you to shop with us for a variety of locally sourced foods, including fruit, veggies, plant starts, cheeses, meat, bread, pastries, and prepared foods. Pickup is quick, convenient, and does not even require you to get out of your car.
Animal Welfare	Community Connection: Hope's Legacy Equine	3/25/2021-current	Throughout the day. Aired approximately 5 times.	60 seconds	Hope's Legacy Equine Rescue in Afton is offering Books at the Barn, a family-friendly outing for adults and kids alike. Children ages 6-14 and an accompanying adult are invited to join them at Castle Rock Farm to learn about horses, donkeys and equine rescue – and to read to the animals! Snacks, drinks, and books to take home are provided. Their first session of Books at the Barn is Saturday, May 22nd.