

| Date | Time | Duration | Show | Type | Issue | Description |
|----------|--------------|----------|-------------------|----------|-------------|---|
| 1/1/2024 | | | | | | |
| 1/2/2024 | 2:15-2:19p | 3:42 | Afternoon News | Newscast | Education | Public education and support from the state government has long been a top policy issue in North Carolina. Often, there's attention around the top districts or helping struggling students in the most populous district. But what about schools in mid-size districts that don't have many resources? Or that have received poor marks on their students' progression? |
| 1/3/2024 | 8:23-8:27a | 3:57 | Morning News | Newscast | Development | North Carolina is among the states seeing a recent resurgence in passenger rail, as ridership numbers climbed another year in 2023. With news that the federal government is chipping in more than one billion dollars for a new high-speed rail line, there's serious investment into the transit option. |
| 1/4/2024 | 12:36-12:37p | 1:04 | News at half past | Newscast | Government | No Town Council meeting in Chapel Hill tonight, but when the council does meet again next week, they will get things started an hour earlier than usual. The council will be meeting starting at 6:00 instead of 7:00 going forward. It's part of an effort to be more responsive to input from the community. |
| 1/5/2024 | 7:07-7:08a | 0:47 | Morning News | Newscast | Development | One of the largest and most highly visible projects in Carrboro in decades is scheduled to be completed this summer- the 203 S. Greensboro project. The project is best known as the future home of the newly created Southern Branch of the Orange County Library. The building will also house the Orange County Skills Development Center, Carrboro Recreation, Parks, and Cultural Resources, WCOM Radio, and more. |
| 1/6/2024 | 12:54-12:55p | 0:39 | News at half past | Newscast | Community | Some big literary news came down last month, as Hillsborough writer Steven Petrow was named as the Piedmont Laureate for the year 2024. Petrow is the author of six books ranging from personal reflections to modern manners guides, and he's a regular contributor to the Washington Post and the New York Times. He says his focus will be on creative nonfiction- but more than that, the position gives him the chance to use reading and writing to try to bring people together. |
| 1/7/2024 | | | | | | |
| 1/8/2024 | 10:18-10:22a | 3:27 | Morning News | Newscast | UNC | While UNC is known for its picturesque campus buildings, there's a hazard to nature many people don't think about: birds colliding with glass. A leading cause of death for birds during migration season is window collisions, and two Ph.D. students from UNC and NC State have started the City Bird Project- which collects data to convince policy makers to help reduce bird collisions. |
| 1/9/2024 | 4:08-4:09p | 0:38 | Afternoon News | Newscast | Sports | The UNC women's basketball team is back in the AP Poll at No. 20 this week after consecutive ranked wins over No. 25 Syracuse and No. 16 Notre Dame. Sunday's win against the Fighting Irish was Carolina's first ever in South Bend, and the second consecutive over Notre Dame. |

| | | | | | | |
|-----------|--------------|------|-------------------|----------|------------------|--|
| 1/10/2024 | 12:09-12:10p | 0:52 | News at half past | Newscast | Community | Starting today, the Town of Chapel Hill is improving the intersection of Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd. and North Street near Fire Station One and Town Hall. MLK will stay open during construction, but there are some lane closures possible. The intersection of Carr St. and Columbia near the fire station will remain closed during the project. |
| 1/11/2024 | 6:21-6:22p | 0:42 | Evening News | Newscast | Community | The start of a new year always brings many things to our community- ACC basketball season, new elected officials, and a newly calculated living wage. The organization Orange County Living Wage has updated its estimate of the local living wage, the amount you'd have to make per hour to pay for housing in our area without extending your budget. |
| 1/12/2024 | 11:45-11:46a | 0:39 | Morning News | Newscast | Development | Many people in Orange County were surprised to learn that the Mebane City Council voted unanimously earlier this week to approve a plan to build a Buc-ee's Travel Center near the I-40, I-85 interchange. The move comes after the Mebane planning board recommended against the plan. It was just under three years ago that Buc-ee's pulled out of a plan to build near Effland after being unable to come to an agreement with Orange County Commissioners. |
| 1/13/2024 | 6:34-6:39p | 4:39 | Evening News | Newscast | Development | Much of the development in Pittsboro getting buzz is in the Chatham Park area- especially as the major project recently announced a partnership with Disney to develop on hundreds of acres of land. But a project on the other side of Pittsboro, just west of downtown, recently received town approval and is set to similarly being an array of new housing options within the next decade. |
| 1/14/2024 | | | | | | |
| 1/15/2024 | 2:47-2:48p | 0:42 | Afternoon News | Newscast | Local Government | The Orange County Commissioners are scheduled to meet for the first time 2024 tonight. One item they expect to discuss is capital needs for the county, including for the school districts. |
| 1/16/2024 | 11:13-11:14a | 1:04 | Morning News | Newscast | Sports | A few weeks ago, there was big breaking news in the college athletics landscape when Florida State decided to file a lawsuit against the Atlantic Coast Conference as a first step to try and leave. But since then, not much has happened- as the litigation get formally filled out and we wait its time in court.. |
| 1/17/2024 | 3:16-3:19p | 2:40 | Afternoon News | Newscast | UNC | UNC is back in session for the spring semester, and university officials say they're continuing some of the work to upgrade the physical accessibility on campus. One of its more high-profile examples came last summer, as an accessibility ramp was added to one of Carolina's most iconic landmarks- but other initiatives include new instructor training for working with disabled students and $5 million allocated to renovate inaccessible restrooms, elevators, and classrooms. |

| | | | | | | |
|-----------|--------------|------|-------------------|----------|------------------|--|
| 1/18/2024 | 9:44-9:45a | 0:40 | Morning News | Newscast | Community | The Carrboro Town Council held a work session Tuesday night to get recommendations from a task force on community safety that was formed in 2020 in the wake of George Floyd's murder. Recommendations focused on how to shift more of the crisis-response burden (and resources) away from police and onto social services and non-police agencies, similar to the HEART program that already exists in Durham. Another recommendation involved reducing the number of officers on foot patrol. |
| 1/19/2024 | 2:36-2:38p | 1:25 | Afternoon News | Newscast | Government | President Joe Biden swung through the Triangle on Thursday, visiting Raleigh to tout his administration's investments into the U.S. workforce and infrastructure. That includes more than 3 billion dollars invested in broadband expansion in North Carolina, with Biden revealing another 82 million dollars earmarked for the project to help another 16,000 homes and businesses. |
| 1/20/2024 | | | | | | |
| 1/21/2024 | 6:11-6:12p | 0:41 | Evening News | Newscast | Sports | The Tar Heels outlasted Louisville by 14 in Sunday's win, with Alyssa Ustby leading the way with 12 boards. Carolina has won the rebounding battle in five straight games, grabbing 40 or more boards in four of these contests. |
| 1/22/2024 | 8:45-8:49a | 4:35 | Morning News | Newscast | UNC | What's the biggest prize you've ever won from playing a game of rock-paper-scissors? For one UNC student this past weekend, that's tickets to see UNC and Duke Men's basketball play each other on February 3. It was all part of an event planned by Carolina advertising and journalism students called "Dook It Out" and featured a LOT of throwing down over rock, paper, scissors. |
| 1/23/2024 | 12:26-12:27p | 0:34 | News at half past | Newscast | Local Government | At their most recent meeting, the Carrboro Town Council heard final recommendations from the Community Safety Task force. They ended up offering recommendations, including: developing a non-police crisis response system, reallocating some police department funding to support other services, creating a standing advisor by board to monitor task force recommendations, making reforms to police policies and accountability, and improving CPD data collection. |
| 1/24/2024 | 6:45-6:49p | 4:04 | Evening News | Newscast | Government | North Carolina Attorney General and Democratic candidate for governor Josh Stein visited Chapel Hill on Thursday afternoon, swinging UNC's campus to launch a new effort in his campaign focused on college students. |
| 1/25/2024 | 1:47-1:48p | 0:57 | Afternoon News | Newscast | Sports | Today is Media Day for the UNC baseball program, and Opening Day for the Diamond Heels is just around the corner. Carolina will take the field in Boshamer Stadium on February 16 when it hosts Training, including Arizona Diamondbacks ace pitcher Zac Gallen. |

| | | | | | | |
|-----------|--------------|------|-------------------|----------|------------------|--|
| 1/26/2024 | 10:31-10:32a | 1:14 | Morning News | Newscast | Sports | The UNC baseball team held its annual Media Day yesterday at Boshamer Stadium. Head coach Scott Forbes' team is ranked No. 15 in the D! Baseball preseason poll. The Diamond Heels bring in a roster featuring multiple transfers and true freshmen after several key departures. |
| 1/27/2024 | 1:28-1:29p | 0:39 | Afternoon News | Newscast | Local Government | The new year has brought a new generation of local leaders to the forefront, with newly elected majors heading up all three towns in Orange County plus Pittsboro and Durham. In Durham, new mayor Leonardo Williams says he's energetic about the idea of building community... and also building sales tax revenue through economic development. His pet project: building a bigger new convention center. |
| 1/28/2024 | | | | | | |
| 1/29/2024 | 12:34-12:35p | 1:09 | News at half past | Newscast | Local Government | To kick off the Forum on The Hill yesterday, we featured three panels all about housing and the different ways it affects our community's past, present, and future. One of those panels was about how our local governments are approaching zoning and planning for housing... especially at a time when demand is so high, and affordability is so difficult. |
| 1/30/2024 | 9:20-9:21a | 1:01 | Morning News | Newscast | Sports | The No. 3 UNC men's basketball team is back in action tonight as it visits Georgia Tech in Atlanta. The Tar Heels are hoping to get another outstanding performance from wing Harrison Ingram, who is averaging 11 rebounds per game during UNC's 10-game winning streak. |
| 1/31/2024 | 1:35-1:37p | 1:25 | Afternoon News | Newscast | Development | As the Weavers Grove neighborhood in Chapel Hill continues its construction, the Orange County Habitat for Humanity continues to fundraise for different amenities. The organization got a boost this week when it announced the Truist Foundation awarded Weavers Grove a fifty-thousand-dollar grant to help build its community center. |
| 2/1/2024 | 12:27-12:28p | 0:35 | News at half past | Newscast | Sports | The Reese's Senior Bowl is this Saturday in Alabama, where some of the best graduating college football players from around the country will put their skills on display for NFL scouts. UNC has two representatives at the game: wide receiver Tez Waker and linebacker Cedric Gray, both of whom are hoping to hear their names called at this Spring's NFL Draft. |
| 2/2/2024 | 11:34-11:15a | 1:06 | Morning News | Newscast | Development | The Town of Pittsboro recently gave the go ahead to a couple of parks projects. They put a bid out to extend a train through town, and got funding to put bathrooms in an existing park. |
| 2/3/2024 | | | | | | |
| 2/4/2024 | 9:16-9:19a | 2:51 | Morning News | Newscast | Sports | Chapel Hill is still celebrating UNC's 93-84 win over No. 7 Duke on Saturday night. The Tar Heels pwoered past the Blue Devils on the strength of a 25-point, 10-rebound outing from Armando Bacot, who made his last home game against Duke a memorable one. |

| | | | | | | |
|-----------|--------------|------|-------------------|----------|-------------|---|
| 2/5/2024 | 2:46-2:47p | 1:10 | Afternoon News | Newscast | Environment | During last week's Forum on The Hill panel discussion on climate and sustainability, Chapel Hill Community Sustainability Manager John Richardson shared several updates on town initiatives to better prepare for extreme climate events. He discussed how technology and partnerships with UNC can make the community more resilient. |
| 2/6/2024 | 4:20-4:21p | 0:54 | Afternoon News | Newscast | Arts | As we all know, the Triangle is a rapidly growing area, and that's largely because of how attractive a destination it is to live. One of the things that MAKES it an attractive destination is its vibrant arts & culture scene, particularly when it comes to local music. |
| 2/7/2024 | 7:33-7:34a | 0:40 | Morning News | Newscast | Development | The Carrboro Town Council last night discussed the possibility of extending the water and sewer boundary south along 15-501 to the Chatham County Line. |
| 2/8/2024 | 12:49-12:50p | 1:10 | News at half past | Newscast | Community | A formal vote to have Carr Street changed to become Braxton Foushee Street on Tuesday night was initially set to go through smoothly on the Carrboro Twon Council's consent agenda. But after several residents of the road showed up to protest during the public comment period, it became clear that the issue was more layered. |
| 2/9/2024 | 5:37-5:42p | 4:33 | Afternoon News | Newscast | Crime | Saturday marks the nine-year anniversary of one of Chapel Hill's darkest moments, when a man murdered three college students at the Finley Forest Condominiums. All three students Deah Barakat, Yusr Abu-Salha, and Razan Abu-Salha were Muslim-Americans killed in an apartment by a neighbor who claimed there was a parking dispute. Prosecutors for the case ultimately did not charge it as a hate crime, but a new documentary argues otherwise- and shares the perspective of the Muslim community and the victims families in the years since. |
| 2/10/2024 | 10:28-10:29a | 0:57 | Morning News | Newscast | Sports | UNC women's basketball had an off week this week, not seeing any action last night. But ahead of a rivalry game against Duke this weekend, the Tar Heels are looking to get back on track. The team has dropped their last three games- all of which have seen low scoring output from Carolina. |
| 2/11/2024 | 4:43-4:45p | 1:28 | Afternoon News | Newscast | Development | Greene Tract is one of the last large parcels of undeveloped land in Chapel Hill. Located in the northern part of the town, it was purchased by Orange County, Chapel Hill, and Carrboro in 1984. The current plan is to develop a park, school site, affordable housing, and maintain much of 164 acres as preserve. |
| 2/12/2024 | 6:24-6:28a | 3:48 | Morning News | Newscast | UNC | When discussing campus renovations, UNC's historic buildings that are hundreds of years old are often mentioned. But recently, students and campus officials have been calling for upgrades to a building constructed much more recently... the Student Recreation Center. |

| | | | | | | |
|-----------|--------------|------|-------------------|----------|-------------|---|
| 2/13/2024 | 12:19-12:23p | 3:31 | News at half past | Newscast | UNC | A future member of the UNC campus community recently got a big jump in fame. The Miss America teen pageant is a sister competition to the national adult pageant- and last month,, North Carolinian Hanley House earned the 2024 crown. |
| 2/14/2024 | 2:23-2:25p | 1:23 | Afternoon News | Newscast | Environment | Last week Pittsboro got the all clear from their water treatment plant after the latest spill off 1,4 dioxane in the Haw River. It was just the latest in a series of incidents affecting the drinking for Pittsboro, which has led the town to take steps toward suing Apollo Chemical in Burlington. |
| 2/15/2024 | 10:46-10:47a | 0:47 | Morning News | Newscast | Sports | We are just 24 hours away from Opening Day for the UNC baseball team. The Diamond Heels will host Wagner in the first of a three-game series at 4 p.m. on Friday. It's the fourth opening day with Scott Forbes as head coach, but he's been with the program long enough to form lasting bonds. Here's what Forbes' good friend Hubert Davis had to say this week about their relationship. |
| 2/16/2024 | 2:15-2:16p | 1:06 | Afternoon News | Newscast | Environment | It's not often the Pittsboro Water Treatment Plant sees more than a dozen people gather on its grounds- especially when some of those people gather on its grounds- especially when some of those people are state government officials. But that was the case on Thursday afternoon, as North Carolina Attorney General Josh Stein, House Minority Leader Rep. Robert Reives and Pittsboro Mayor Kyle Shipp held a press conference to share their alignment in addressinnng threats to water quality. |
| 2/17/2024 | | | | | | |
| 2/18/2024 | 10:35-10:39a | 3:39 | Morning News | Newscast | Safety | Recently, a UNC program that helps students get home safely from campus at night expanded its hours. |
| 2/19/2024 | 1:11-1:12p | 1:08 | Afternoon News | Newscast | Community | On Saturday, more than 100 people gathered at Carrboro Town Commons for a dedication and unveiling ceremony of a new plaque honoring the victim of a racial lynching in 1898. Manley McCauley was a young Black man killed near Hatch Road and Old Greensboro Road west of Carrboro... and the Orange County Remembrance Coalition has been working for years to find ways of recognizing him. |
| 2/20/2024 | 8:26-8:27a | 0:59 | Morning News | Newscast | Sports | We are 12 days removed from the NFL revealing its Hall of Fame Class of 2024, and among the honorees is a UNC legend. Julius Peppers starred both on the football field and the basketball court for the Tar Heels, and now will be enshrined forever in Canton. |
| 2/21/2024 | 11:49-11:50a | 1:06 | Morning News | Newscast | Community | This coming Saturday morning don't be alarmed if you see smoke just east of Hillsborough. Orange Rural Fire Department will be training with a practice burn. |
| 2/22/2024 | 3:33-3:36p | 2:50 | Afternoon News | Newscast | Government | Governor Roy Cooper has declared 2024 the year of public schools in North Carolina, and the year is starting off with the return of a nearly 30-year-old Supreme Court case that is one of the most defining pieces of education in the state. |

| | | | | | | |
|-----------|--------------|------|-------------------|----------|------------------|--|
| 2/23/2024 | 4:15-4:16p | 1:03 | Afternoon News | Newscast | Crime | For the last few weeks we have continued to learn more details about the fatal automobile accident on January 21st that killed UNC student Mary Rotunda. |
| 2/24/2024 | | | | | | |
| 2/25/2024 | 12:09-12:12p | 3:07 | News at half past | Newscast | Community | In 1898, an 18-year-old Black man was killed by a mob of white men near the present day intersection of Old Greensboro Road and Hatch Road- west of Carrboro. Now, 126 years later, the Town of Carrboro has a new historical marker honoring the man's life. |
| 2/26/2024 | 5:25-5:26p | 1:17 | Afternoon News | Newscast | State Government | After oral arguments in the North Carolina Supreme Court last week, many North Carolina educators are now awaiting the latest decision in a decades-long education funding case. The Leandro case in the 1990s was a landmark affirmation of North Carolina's constitutional right to provide "a sound, basic education for all" and determined more should be done by the state government to allow that. |
| 2/27/2024 | 10:20-10:21a | 0:40 | Morning News | Newscast | Sports | It may have been a nervy Monday night at the Smith Center for most of the Tar Heels, but not for R.J. Davis. His 42 points against Miami are a Smith Center record, he's the first Tar Heel to reach 40 points since Harrison Barnes did so in 2011 and the first to do so in a regulation game since Tyler Hansbrough in 2006. |
| 2/28/2024 | 5:13-5:14p | 1:06 | Afternoon News | Newscast | Local Government | The topic of homelessness also came up at the Chapel Hill Town Council's work session last Wednesday, in which the elected officials continued their discussion around updating the Land Use Management Ordinance... or LUMO. |
| 2/29/2024 | 12:16-12:19p | 2:55 | News at half past | Newscast | Local Government | The Hillsborough Board of Commissioners held a work session on Monday, in which they received an update from town staff on the state of parking downtown. After a recent meeting with business owners and increasing antidotes in the last few years, the staff are beginning the earliest stages embarking on parking study to get the fullest picture of what's available. |
| 3/1/2024 | 9:32-9:36a | 3:35 | Morning News | Newscast | Business | Small businesses, big changes: with more demand for property and land in Chapel Hill and Carrboro, small businesses are being priced out. |
| 3/2/2024 | 4:46-4:40p | 3:23 | Afternoon News | Newscast | UNC | After nearly four years of standardized test-optional admissions, the UNC System Board of Governors is considering reinstating test requirements, sparking debates over equity, student readiness, and the evolving role of scores in college admissions nationwide. The topic came up at the most recent round of meetings for the governors this past week. |
| 3/3/2024 | | | | | | |
| 3/4/2024 | 10:25-10:16a | 1:02 | Morning News | Newscast | Sports | Carolina overcame a 10-point deficit to the Wolfpack in the second half and held NC State to just 22 percent shooting after halftime in the 79-70 win. This came after the Wolfpack shot nearly 60 percent and made seven three-pointers in the first half. |
| 3/5/2024 | 12:20-12:21p | 0:39 | News at half past | Newscast | Election | With primary election day upon us, local leaders are urging residents to get out and vote if you haven't already. |

| | | | | | | |
|-----------|--------------|------|-------------------|----------|-----------|---|
| 3/6/2024 | 1:18-1:21p | 3:16 | Afternoon News | Newscast | Election | Coming into Tuesday, the race with some of the biggest questions around it was the Orange County School Boards of Education election. With three seats up for grabs between seven candidates- and different ideologies being played out among those supporting the candidates-there were no clear favorites. |
| 3/7/2024 | 6:55-6:59p | 4:09 | Evening News | Newscast | Community | Over the weekend, Chapel Hill High School's gymnasium looked a lot different than usual. Large metal structures, orange circular disks and large scoreboard screens turned the main court into a robotics playing field- no basketballs allowed, safety goggles required. |
| 3/8/2024 | 8:07-8:08a | 0:42 | Morning News | Newscast | Election | Now that primary election is over, attention is turning to the general election in November- and that's going to be a big one in North Carolina, with lots of key races on the ballot. Of course that includes the presidential and gubernatorial races, but one local organization is turning its focus to judicial elections. That organization is FLIP NC, which was founded by progressives in 2017 to help break the Republican supermajority in the state legislature- a goal that now has them trying to block partisan gerrymandering at the state supreme court. |
| 3/9/2024 | 2:29-2:36p | 5:27 | Afternoon News | Newscast | Sports | It's hard to believe, but tomorrow night is the final game of the regular season for UNC men's basketball. When the Tar Heels take the court at Duke, it could also be the final regular season appearance for R.J. Davis, who is academically a senior but could return for a fifth and final year next year. Davis is a shoo-in for ACC Player of the Year and All-American honors. |
| 3/10/2024 | 11:23-11:25a | 1:23 | Morning News | Newscast | News | You might have noticed a wave of sports gambling ads flooding the airwaves and screens of North Carolinians in the past few weeks. You're not alone- and it's because, as of today, mobile sports betting is legal in North Carolina. The state of government passed a measure last summer to allow it, saying it wants to capitalize on the money being gambled ILLEGALLY to try and earn legal revenues from it. |
| 3/11/2024 | 12:11-12:15p | 3:49 | News at half past | Newscast | Sports | It is Monday here in Chapel Hill, and you can still hear the echoes of cheering on Franklin Street if you listen hard enough. Tar Heels fans will be reliving Saturday night's 84-79 win at No. 9 Duke for a long time, thanks in no small part to a career-best performance from Cormac Ryan. |
| 3/12/2024 | 5:24-5:39p | 3:40 | Afternoon News | Newscast | UNC | UNC Police recently announced their newest fuzzy addition to the campus force: Mia, an 8-week-old Goldendoodle, who will serve as the department's therapy dog. There's still a long road ahead, however, before the puppy can start her jon. |
| 3/13/2024 | 7:26-7:27a | 1:19 | Morning News | Newscast | Election | Following last week's primary election, the 2024 gubernatorial race is set in North Carolina, with Democratic attorney general Josh Stein set to face Republican lieutenant governor Mark Robinson. Robinson has a long history of extreme comments and positions, including denying the Holocaust, referring to LGBTQ people as "filth," and calling for a total ban on abortion- but polls are still showing a close race between him and Stein. |

| | | | | | | |
|-----------|--------------|------|-------------------|----------|-------------|---|
| 3/14/2024 | 5:05-5:10p | 4:27 | Afternoon News | Newscast | Crime | After Chatham County authorities seized more than 200 dogs as part of an animal cruelty investigation and charged their owners a month ago, attention quickly turned to the next steps for the dogs. Now, after some rehabilitation and advancing legal repercussions, dozens of the dogs are officially going to be up for adoption. |
| 3/15/2024 | 8:19-8:23a | 4:00 | Morning News | Newscast | Government | It's not often the Town of Chapel Hill gets included in a U.S. president's recommended budget for the federal government- but that was the case on Monday when President Joe Biden revealed his Fiscal Year 2025 Budget Request. Among the recommended allocations are more than $138 million dedicated to Chapel Hill's ongoing North South Bus Rapid Transit project, which would bring streamlined bus line to one of the area's busiest corridors. |
| 3/16/2024 | | | | | | |
| 3/17/2024 | 12:50-12:52p | 1:15 | News at half past | Newscast | Development | Community members in Pittsboro have been trying to get a skate park built in the town for several years now. They took a big step forward last week at the Pittsboro Board of Commissioners meeting, as the town is planning to build the long anticipated skate park at McClenahan Street Park near Pittsboro Elementary School. |
| 3/18/2024 | 1:07-1:11p | 3:40 | Afternoon News | Newscast | Sports | It's time for March Madness as the NCAA Tournament begins this week. But Carolina is still reeling from a stunning defeat in the ACC Tournament championship game to No. 10 seed NC State, which pulled off a five-wins-in-five-days stunner to steal conference's automatic bid. |
| 3/19/2024 | 10:50-10:54a | 3:45 | Morning News | Newscast | Development | When construction crews broke ground on the Estes Drive connectivity Project in Spring 2022, the estimated completion date was summer 2023. Nearly a year past that initial goal, the Town of Chapel Hill is now pointing toward the end of spring for when the extensive road work should be complete and are optimistic few opportunities for delays remain. |
| 3/20/2024 | 5:42-5:45p | 2:58 | Afternoon News | Newscast | Education | North Carolina offers a clear example of how college campuses can be at the center of political attention- both for those attending the schools and those who wish to use the place, the institution, or the community to platform their beliefs. But how did such "culture wars" get so ingrained in our college campuses and election cycles? And how experts even seek to define the "culture wars" being claimed? |
| 3/21/2024 | 12:08-12:09p | 1:23 | News at half past | Newscast | UNC | UNC Interim Chancellor Lee Roberts took part in an interview webinar on Wednesday with the Coalition for Carolina. The group is made up of concerned UNC stakeholders who are pushing for less interference by the state government in the university's operations and approaches- and the coalition had Roberts on to directly ask his thoughts on those outside influences and hot topics. |

| | | | | | | |
|-----------|--------------|------|-------------------|----------|-------------|--|
| 3/22/2024 | 9:54-9:56a | 2:18 | Morning News | Newscast | Development | One year on from the demolition of the Southern Season space at University Place, new construction at the Chapel Hill mall is taking palce within and around its footprint. New buildings at the shopping mall off South Estes Drive and Fordham Boulevard are progressing in their construction and mall owners Ram Realty have finalized more tenants. |
| 3/23/2024 | 4:17-4:18p | 1:07 | Afternoon News | Newscast | UNC | Early talks have begun to lay the foundation for what to do with the railway line that runs through Chapel Hill and Carrboro. Presently, UNC still relies on it to bring materials- including coal- to its co-generation power plant on West Cameron Avenue, which pwoers the campus. As the university slowly transitions to a different power source, whenever that may be, a group of local stakeholders are trying to turn the rail line into a pedestrian and bicycle greenway. |
| 3/24/2024 | | | | | | |
| 3/25/2024 | 8:37-8:40a | 3:04 | Morning News | Newscast | Sports | Carolina is Sweet 16-bound after two NCAA Tournament wins in Charlotte against Wagner in the first round and Michigan State in the second round. The Spectrum Center was full of Carolina blue all weekend, and the Tar Heels relished playing in their home state on last time. |
| 3/26/2024 | 12:53-12:54p | 0:52 | News at half past | Newscast | Sports | The UNC women's basketball team is now in offseason mode after its loss to No. 1 South Carolina in the second round of the NCAA Tournament on Sunday. Several Tar Heels have decisions to make about their future: stars Deja Kelly and Alyssa Ustby are graduating seniors but could still come back for a fifth season. Kelly and Ustby were part of head coach Courtney Banghart's first recruiting class in Chapel Hill. |
| 3/27/2024 | 2:18-2:22p | 3:59 | Afternoon News | Newscast | Crime | The Chapel Hill community is awaiting more fallout from the fatal crash in January that killed UNC sophmore Mary Rotunda. With ten people facing a variety of charges, all connected to underage drinking, there is extra scrutiny around the issue. |
| 3/28/2024 | 6:09-6:10a | 0:59 | Morning News | Newscast | Community | Every year OWASA produces water quality and wastewater report cards for everyone in our community to learn more about where their water comes from and how OWASA treats it for drinking. |
| 3/29/2024 | 8:25-8:29a | 4:15 | Morning News | Newscast | Community | Along with being the first day of April, Monday will officially kick off the Hillsborough Climate Challenge- a full month of events highlights sustainable activities for Hillsborough residents and visitors. |
| 3/30/2024 | 3:39-3:40p | 0:52 | Afternoon News | Newscast | Politics | President Joe Biden made an early campaign stop in Raleigh this week, with a focus on his administration's health care achievements. But as the campaign heats up, what issue is most likely to have the biggest impact? |
| 3/31/2024 | 10:15-10:20a | 4:41 | Morning News | Newscast | Sports | Thursday night's stunning loss against Alabama was a sad ending for everyone who loves Carolina basketball. It brings about an offseason of uncertainty for the program, with multiple players, including R.J. Davis, who can either stay at school or pursue other options. |