

WWJD
Pippa Passes, KY
Quarterly Issues/ Public Service Announcements
For
Second Quarter, 2019

- 04/01-04/6 Aired thirty-second announcements throughout the day to promote the Alice Lloyd College Theatre production of Bathroom Break on April 4-6. The announcement gave a brief description of the play and invited community members to attend. The following is the wording aired, “Looking for a fun spring evening activity that the whole family can enjoy? April 4th through April 6th the Alice Lloyd College Theatre will present Bathroom Break. A comical chaotic collection that the whole family will enjoy. Admission is free so come out to the Campbell Arts Center at seven o’clock each night to see ALC’s hilarious production of Bathroom Break.”
- 05/27 Aired fifty-second announcements throughout the day to promote the June Buchanan School. The following is the wording aired, “You’ve been there for all the firsts – first words, first steps – constantly striving to provide your child with the best of everything they need. Now it’s time to decide who you will entrust with their next step towards adulthood. The June Buchannan School, located in Knott County, provides not only challenging course work but opportunities to participate in clubs and organizations while utilizing collegiate facilities. JBS students are given an exceptional one on one education with countless opportunities to mature. With affordable payment plans, providing your children with a brighter future is closer than you think. To set up a tour call 606-368-6104. JBS, where every day every child is college bound.”