Education/ national	Ted Talks: Education Revolution	9/13/2016 10 pm 1 hr.	The program focuses on how education is changing to adapt to our new digital world. It features talks from educator Sal Khan, who examines what the classroom might look like in the future and the impact of online teaching, Victor Rios, who takes a deep dive into the problems of the school-to-prison pipeline, and Principal Nadia Lopez, whose middle school is in the most dangerous borough in New York and where almost all her students live below the poverty line. TED Talks: Education Revolution also addresses the issue of over-parenting with some revolutionary ideas from Julie Lythcott-Haims, author of How to Raise an Adult, who believes chores and love are more important than a check-listed childhood.
Education/ improving education	NOVA: School of the Future	9/14/2016 9 pm 2 hrs.	Once the envy of the world, American schools are now in trouble. Test scores show our kids lag far behind their peers from other industrialized countries, and as the divide between rich and poor grows wider, the goal of getting all kids ready for college and the workforce gets harder by the day. How can the latest research help us fix education in America? Can the science of learning—including new insights from neuroscientists, psychologists, and educators—reveal how kids' brains work and tell us which techniques are most likely to engage and inspire growing minds? What role should technology play in the classroom? Teachers, students, parents and scientists take center stage as NOVA explores a new vision for the "School of the Future."
Education/ Improving graduation rates	American Graduate Day 2016	9/17/2016 2 pm 4 hrs. 			House is the story of America itself.
History/ Twentieth century/ Olympics	The Nazi Games – Berline 1936	8/2/2016 8 pm 1 hr.	See how the Nazis and the IOC turned, to their mutual advantage, a relatively small, elitist sports event into an epic global and mass media spectacle that, despite the IOC's determined attempts to forget, continues to this day.
History/ Twentieth century/ Olympics	American Experience: The Boys of '36	8/2/2016 9 pm 1 hr.	The story of nine working-class young men from the University of Washington who took the rowing world and America by storm when they captured the gold medal at the 1936 Olympic Games in Berlin. Their unexpected victory, against not only the Ivy League teams of the East Coast but Adolf Hitler's elite German rowers, gave hope to a nation struggling to emerge from the depths of the Great Depression.
History/ American Presidents	JFK & LBJ: A Time for Greatness	8/9/2016 8 pm 1 hr.	In many ways, Presiden Lyndon B. Johnson was the most unlikely champion of Civil Rights. But his actions in the White House told a different story when he dared to champion two laws that changed American and the world – the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Voting Rights Act of 1965. Now, fifty years later, this program sheds light on the fascinating story of a president who knew how to harness the nation's grief over John F. Kennedy's assassination, twist arms, and get his way. The film includes rarely-seen footage, secret White House tapes and personal testimony from LBJ's advisors, biographers, friends and family.
