

Quarterly Issues / Programs List

There follows a listing of some of the significant issues responded to by Station KBRL-AM, McCook, Nebraska, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period February 1, 2021 to February 28, 2022. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Description of Issue	Programs/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type & Description of Program/Segment
Project to Increase Nursing Aides	News/Print	2/2	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	Community Hospital and Hillcrest Leadership are working on a project to potentially increase the number of certified nursing aides in the McCook area and are inviting others to get involved. Having enough staff to fill all available nursing home bed has become a problem in Southwest Nebraska, they said.
Childcare for McCook Community	News/Print	2/4	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	Be Little Childcare Center and BlessEng's have become hometown heroes for local families in McCook this past month. At the end of December, Hillcrest Little Folks Childcare Center informed parents they would no longer be in business after February 11, 2022.
MCC Education Standards	News/Print	2/16	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	MCC Theatre announces auditions for a swashbuckling comedy Friday, February 26 from 6-8 p.m. and Saturday, February 27 from 2-4 p.m. in the Weeth Theater in Tipton Hall at McCook Community College
Kindness Kits	News/Print	2/18	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	To brighten someone's day with support and encouragement members and McCook Community College students assembled kindness kits containing a variety of these items: hot chocolate, positive chips, earbuds, notebooks, pencils, coloring books, games, stress relievers, bookmarks, magnets and water bottles.
MPCC Summer Registrations	News/Print	2/24	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	Summer classes will begin May 16 at Mid-Plains Community College registration for current students will open March 7, and new students will be able to sign up starting March 14.