
ISSUES & PROGRAM REPORT

“The Larry Elder Show”

April to June 2017

Quarterly Report - Larry Elder

3-31-17

Hour 1: Chris Hayes of MSNBC still has not called Larry back to continue the interview. Larry lists the other guests who have dodged Larry's questions in the past.

Hour 2: Three cities in CA vote to impeach Donald J. Trump. Larry covers the story.

Hour 3: Larry's brother Kirk joins Larry to play PHONE A BRO and recap the week's events with a comedic approach.

4-3-17

Hour 1: Larry comments on the Gorsuch confirmation. Will the Republicans be forced to use the nuclear option to overcome Democratic obstruction?

Hour 2: Leftist comedian and actress Tina Fey speaks out about the significance of swaying the white-female voter for future elections. Larry asks why she refuses to include the black voter in her comments?

Hour 3: Rachel Dolezal is now promoting her new book. Larry reviews the civil rights activist's delusional comments.

4-4-17

Hour 1: On the 1-year anniversary of the Larry Elder Show receiving National syndication, Larry reflects on his radio career as well as thanking his beloved audience for the overwhelming success of the show.

Hour 2: Heather Mac Donald of the Manhattan Institute stops by the show to discuss the severity of poor immigration policy and sanctuary cities.

Hour 3: Father Robert Sirico joins Larry to comment on the immorality of the entitlement state.

4-5-17

Hour 1: Larry (a Michigan graduate) was invited today by rival Football Coach Urban Meyer of Ohio State to lecture his players about race-relations in America. Larry shares his experience behind enemy lines.

Hour 2: Who is right? Israel or Palestine? To answer this hot-button question, Larry reconstructs a debate he had with his Uber driver who asked him this very question.

Hour 3: Susan Rice has proven herself an unreliable source. Larry ventures back in time to the Benghazi scandal, remembering how Rice lied about the cover-up.

4-6-17

Hour 1: The Left aims to get even by blocking Gorsuch from the Supreme Court. They cite the Republican refusal to instate Obama's pick, Merrick Garland, as their justification. Yet, Larry recalls that the Democrats themselves initiated this practice! Did Joe Biden forget?

Quarterly Report

Hour 2: Unfortunately, we have several Republicans that are “semi-statist”. Refusing to fight for an outright repeal of Obamacare, these Progressives that hide within the ranks of the Right have caved and elected to retain many aspects of the failing law. Larry proposes an alternate solution.

Hour 3: When it comes to Monopolies, America is usually consistent. Why then do we enable the AMA to hold such an overwhelming clench on the medical industry? Who else besides Larry is addressing this blatant stranglehold?

4-7-17

Hour 1: Thursday night—President Trump gave the green light, enabling two USS Destroyers in the Mediterranean to target an airfield in Syria. Syrian President Assad received this wakeup call in the form of 59 cruise missiles raining devastation on his aircraft. Mark Davis fills in for Larry to analyze this decisive move from our President.

Hour 2: Mark Davis excitedly forecasts the confirmation of Judge Gorsuch. How will this affect the makeup of the Supreme Court?

Hour 3: The message is loud and clear: Mark Davis makes the case that Assad is not the sole dictator who received a warning from Trump. This attack may well have served as a threat to all foes of American interest.

4-10-17

Hour 1: Protesters have attempted to obstruct Heather Mac Donald from delivering a speech at a University. According to the demonstrators, Mac Donald is a racist and a fascist. Just last week, Larry interviewed her... Did she fit either of those descriptions?

Hour 2: It’s official! Judge Gorsuch is now Justice Gorsuch. Larry expounds on the confirmation process.

Hour 3: Larry illustrates how the Left is destroying the Healthcare Industry. Why don’t the Conservatives change course?

4-11-17

Hour 1: After forcefully removing a passenger from a flight, United Airlines has edited their justification. Some outlets have even raised claims of racism. Larry sets it straight.

Hour 2: Pete Hegseth, a Fox News Contributor and former Army Captain weighs in on the viability of a single-payer healthcare system here in the U.S. by studying the VA system.

Hour 3: With another trademark of dishonesty, Susan Rice earns herself 4 Pinocchio’s from the (Left-leaning) Washington Post. Even Politifact was forced to revise their assertion that Rice was telling the truth while boasting about chemical weapon disarmament in Syria. Larry is awestruck.

4-12-17

Quarterly Report

Hour 1: Press Secretary Sean Spicer finds himself in hot water for comparing Assad to Hitler. Yet, the press has ignored the countless "Nazi/Hitler" comparisons the Left has made. If, by chance, they weren't aware, Larry takes it upon himself to enlighten them.

Hour 2: Larry circles back to his infamous interview with Chris Matthews. You won't want to miss this explosive exchange.

Hour 3: Larry examines whether it is fair for transgender athletes to compete when the physical playing field is unequal.

4-13-17

Hour 1: Mark Davis filling in for Larry Elder who is speaking at The 100 Days of Trump Tour in Houston, TX. Reviews the dropping of the M.O.A.B. in Afghanistan.

Hour 2: Now that President Trump is taking decisive action with world events, the never Trumper's are now becoming fans.

Hour 3: Who are the people that are not happy with President Trump and that they will not be happy even though the action was needed.

4-14-17

Hour 1: Chris Matthews and other Liberals use Hitler references all the time, why no outrage -Larry cites many of their references.

Hour 2: Guest Peter Kirsanow who is a member of the United States Commission on Civil Rights talks about the strain illegal immigration has on the United States.

Hour 3: Larry's brother Kirk joins the show to answer your questions and to play "Phone A Bro"

4-17-17

Hour 1: On rare occasions, politicians do have moments of unprecedented honesty. Larry revisits the uncharacteristic admissions from these select individuals as they boast of their intent to deceive the public.

Hour 2: Maxine Waters wants Trump impeached, but her reasoning is not that Trump somehow violated the Constitution. Larry examines another odd, unfounded, remark from the congresswoman.

Hour 3: For some time, Larry has criticized the failing public school system. Today, NBA star LeBron James sets out to start a charter school as a better option. This is once again proof that parents and children need an alternative to government-run education.

4-18-17

Quarterly Report

Hour 1: President Trump's unreleased tax returns remain under strict scrutiny. Much like President Obama's grades and birth certificate, Larry poses that the former Chief Executive would not have been subject to such maligning, had he done the same.

Hour 2: Larry engages a caller who proclaims that no President faced the same criticism and disrespect as President Obama. Larry presents the evidence.

Hour 3: The future of the Democrat party resides with Maxine Waters and Bernie Sanders. Their harmful propositions (from minimum wage to taxes) are pulling America down a dark path. Larry delves deeper into Trump's refusal to reveal his taxes.

4-19-17

Hour 1: The former British Ambassador to N. Korea thinks that President Trump's policy is successfully working. Instead of going forth with their planned nuclear test, Pyongyang opted for a less severe trial. Could it be that they fear U.S. retaliation?

Hour 2: Should taxpayers be forced to subsidize NBA and NFL owners? Larry explains the negative economic impact that follows this practice of forcing average citizens to pay for extravagant sports stadiums.

Hour 3: Free trade vs. fair trade, President Trump vs. economist Milton Friedman. Larry analyzes both sides of the debate and presents the victor.

4-20-17

Hour 1: Some people are utilizing 'white guilt' as a tool to drive their agenda. Do white people owe blacks reparations for slavery? Larry explores this controversy, stating that only 5% of whites in America have any genetic tie to slavery.

Hour 2: The Left celebrates as Bill O'reilly gets ousted at FOX. According to the many allegations, this may be well deserved. But, do those same people voice outrage about the sins of Bill Clinton? JFK? The list goes on...

Hour 3: Al Sharpton claims that Bill O'reilly was the spokesman for white nationalism. Larry takes a tour down the less-than-perfect past that Reverend Al prefers to mask.

4-21-17

Hour 1: Do whites owe blacks reparations? What about the other ethnicities who faced hardship? Do they too get a check, or are their struggles less significant? These are all questions that Larry asserts we must address if reparations are to be sought.

Hour 2: Jake Tapper slams Donald Trump for calling the attack in France an 'act of terror'. Meanwhile, MSNBC was reporting that it was! Larry analyzes.

Hour 3: Larry and his brother Kirk recap the week's events with their signature game of PHONE-A-BRO.

Quarterly Report

4-24-17

Hour 1: As we approach the first "100 days" mark of Trump's Presidency, the media remains in an uproar. Larry provides some sober insight by comparing the first 100 days of President Trump to the proposed agenda of Hillary Clinton that we thankfully managed to avoid.

Hour 2: Representative Maxine Waters, who has called for the impeachment of Trump, now claims she did not do it. Which is it? Larry plays the incriminating audio and lets you decide.

Hour 3: Some are circulating the myth that blacks were offered land as a reparation for slavery. Larry addresses and dispels this fallacy.

4-25-17

Hour 1: If Press Secretary Sean Spicer compares an oppressive dictator to Hitler, the news media goes aflame. On the other hand, the very same individuals who scoff at Spicer continuously attach the exact same Nazi, fascist, and Hitler slurs to Republicans. Larry depicts the hypocrisy.

Hour 2: David Horowitz joins Larry to analyze President Trump's first 100 days.

Hour 3: The warriors of the Islamic State have managed to hold their ground against several formidable militants throughout the Middle East. While planning an ambush on Iraqi tribesmen, some ISIS fighters found themselves overrun leaving them slain, not by militants, but by wild boars!

4-26-17

Hour 1: Broadcasting from the Reagan Library in California, Larry comments on the news that President Obama is now receiving $400,000 to deliver a 1-hour speech to wall street fat cats. Has Obama abandoned his principles? Also, an interview between Larry and Jerry Brown that you will not want to miss.

Hour 2: When confronted by a caller determined to disparage President Reagan's legacy, Larry puts on a clinic of intellectual Conservatism. Moreover, Larry shares a humorously personal story about throwing out the first pitch at Dodger Stadium.

Hour 3: To honor President Reagan, Larry commemorates the Conservative hero by playing his powerful words from the iconic Reagan Library in Simi Valley, CA.

4-27-17

Hour 1: It's Larry's Birthday! Larry shares some funny Birthday stories and covers the latest critiques of the Trump tax plan.

Hour 2: Is Bill Nye even a scientist? Larry pokes holes in the Leftist religion of climate science.

Hour 3: Nancy Pelosi attacks Trump's tax plan. Find out what Larry has to say about this.

Quarterly Report

4-28-17

Hour 1: Cowboy's Wide Receiver Dez Bryant faces unnecessary criticism after offering a statement on race relations. Larry asks why Kaepernick is deemed a hero, but Bryant (who holds a contrary view) is accused of pandering to white people?

Hour 2: Nancy Pelosi calls President Trump a VAMPIRE! Hmmm... What does that make her?

Hour 3: Larry addresses immigration enforcement and Obamacare. Where do we go from here? Will there be a repeal?

5-1-17

Hour 1: Wide Receiver Dez Bryant remains under fire for his comments on race relations. Aside from sports figures, Larry explains that the suppression of dissenting views occurs in Hollywood as well.

Hour 2: The Democrats have no effective party leadership: Chuck Schumer, Bernie Sanders, Nancy Pelosi, and Barack Obama. Larry jokes, is this the best they've got?

Hour 3: Larry shows that race-based preferences are harmful, unjust, and wrong.

5-2-17

Hour 1: Is Boston plagued with racism? Larry covers the fallout from Fenway Park as fans harass opposing players with racial slurs. Apparently, this is not the first instance of such poor behavior.

Hour 2: Hillary Clinton expounds on why she lost the election. There is one person though, that she elects not to burden with ANY blame—Herself.

Hour 3: President Trump is reportedly considering a gas tax hike. According to Charles Krauthammer, this would be a necessary move. Holding true to economic principles, Larry holds and offers a separate viewpoint.

5-3-17

Hour 1: Politics are exceedingly making their way into sports. Larry addresses this, as well as FBI Director Comey's testimony to the Senate. Find out why he reopened the investigation just prior to the election.

Hour 2: Sebastian Gorka, Deputy Assistant to the President, stops by the Larry Elder Show to talk about the new Administration's foreign policy goals.

Hour 3: A gas tax hike? Larry has a better idea. How about repealing the Davis Bacon Act. Larry explains the economic ramifications.

5-4-17

Quarterly Report

Hour 1: A new showdown occurs on a delta flight from Hawaii to California. However, there are certain rules in place that explain why the situation reached an immediate apex. Tune in hear Larry's no-nonsense commentary.

Hour 2: The Left's plan of Cash for Caulkers and Cash for Clunkers unequivocally failed. Larry cites an economist from UC Berkeley—So you know it must be true!

Hour 3: Larry covers the new Health Care plan presented by the House. How will this affect you?

5-5-17

Hour 1: Bob Frantz fills in for Larry to address TrumpCare. Bob rings the alarm, relaying to Conservatives the flawed nature of this new bill.

Hour 2: FBI Director Comey gets grilled by Ted Cruz. Bob Frantz plays the exchange and dissects it.

Hour 3: "Lock Her Up!" That was the chant across the campaign trail. But will President Trump prosecute Hillary and hold true to his promise? Listen to find the answer.

5-8-17

Hour 1: Did the Russians influence our election? Larry covers the intricacies of the Yates/Clapper testimony.

Hour 2: In a rare disagreement with Tucker Carlson, Larry is proven correct today as several charges are dropped in a rape case. This serves as a reminder that the presumption of innocence is vital to our justice system.

Hour 3: Congresswoman Maxine Waters receives a standing ovation at the MTV Awards. In addition to that, Chris Matthews wants to impeach Trump without cause, saying, "Can you impeach someone for just being who they are?"

5-9-17

Hour 1: FBI Director Comey is out of a job. Larry shares the news as it breaks in an unexpected turn of events.

Hour 2: The White House issues a statement in reference to the firing of Comey. Larry dissects the document and forecasts the ramifications that this will have. Is this a step toward the prosecution of Hillary?

Hour 3: More news surfaces on James Comey. Comey, it appears, was set to deliver a speech in LA while receiving the phone call notifying him of his termination as the FBI Director. Plus, Healthcare. Larry touches on the latest from the new plan set forth by the Republicans.

5-10-17

Quarterly Report

Hour 1: Filling in for Larry, Mark Davis addresses the Comey firing and the speculation now taking place in the media.

Hour 2: Mark Davis takes calls while discussing the future of the FBI Director position. Who will Trump appoint to lead the Bureau? And will they indict Hillary Clinton?

Hour 3: Education Secretary Betsy DeVos receives undeserved hostility from the students at the Bethune-Cookman University as she attempts to deliver the commencement. The students make their point by shouting her down and turning their backs on the podium. "This is Fascism," says Mark Davis.

5-11-17

Hour 1: Larry laughs, as the Left quietly yearns to applaud Trump's decision to fire Comey. Even Maxine Waters has admitted that she would have encouraged (hypothetical President) Hillary to do the same.

Hour 2: Stacy Washington, a Conservative columnist, joins Larry to share the details of her unfortunate suspension from the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. What wrought such discipline? Stacy defended the NRA.

Hour 3: Due to popular demand, Larry plays one of the ultimate highlight interviews of the Larry Elder Show: Chris Matthews vs. Larry Elder. Tune in for the showdown as Matthews attempts to defend the plagued legacy of JFK.

5-10-17

Hour 1: Although we have no evidence, let's assume that Trump DID collude with Russia. If he did so, precisely what law did he break? Larry challenges his audience to point out the illegality.

Hour 2: Why do some people point to Trump's collusion with Russia as an example of illegal activity, but neglect to take issue with Hillary's email mishandling? Larry engages a caller in this very debate.

Hour 3: Larry and his brother Kirk play their signature game of PHONE-A-BRO, providing a light recap of the week's events.

5-13-17

Hour 1: Is anybody going to hold Hillary accountable for her election loss? Not to mention, where did FBI Director get the idea that he can insert the intent requirement into the espionage act? Larry covers this, emails, Bill Maher, Bill Clinton and more...

Hour 2: Larry delves deeper into the Comey firing. The media remains in a state of outrage, as they make Watergate claims, comparing Trump to Nixon.

Hour 3: Larry covers the myths and misperceptions of slavery. All races have enslaved and been slaves. Unfortunately, it's the horror of human nature.

5-14-17

Quarterly Report

Hour 1: John Eastman speaks with Larry about the Trump leaks to Russia. It seems everyone is suddenly concerned about the severity of Classified Information. What changed?

Hour 2: Miss USA receives criticism for her view on healthcare. Does her opinion not conform with the mainstream? The nerve!

Hour 3: Maxine Waters has NO credibility. Larry lists the indicting evidence against the Congresswoman, stating that many have selectively forgotten this horrific history.

5-15-17

Hour 1: Larry compares Trump's perceived leak of classified information to the numerous lapses in national security by the Democrats. The accusations against Trump pale in comparison to scandals like Benghazi!

Hour 2: The media is tearing Trump apart over his foreign policy. Have they forgotten about the countless blunders that plagued the Obama Administration's management of international affairs? Larry reminds them.

Hour 3: The echo chamber also known as the press is devoting an astronomical amount of time to the Trump-Classified Info story. How many of these pundits actually defended Trump? Larry breaks it down.

5-16-17

Hour 1: Trump's Russian connection has drawn thorough attention to the point of an investigation—fair enough. Nevertheless, why no official investigation for Benghazi? The IRS scandal? Fast and Furious? The list goes on... The Obama Administration clearly operated under a separate standard.

Hour 2: Cofounder of Fox News and media icon, Roger Ailes dies at 77. Jonathan Turley thinks impeachment talk is irrational. Was there obstruction of justice? Larry dissects.

Hour 3: What is the burden of proof in an obstruction of justice case? We advise the Left to listen to this hour before further mentioning impeachment, lest they display their ignorance.

5-17-17

Hour 1: Larry compares Trump's perceived leak of classified information to the numerous lapses in national security by the Democrats. The accusations against Trump pale in comparison to scandals like Benghazi!

Hour 2: The media is tearing Trump apart over his foreign policy. Have they forgotten about the countless blunders that plagued the Obama Administration's management of international affairs? Larry reminds them.

Hour 3: The echo chamber also known as the press is devoting an astronomical amount of time to the Trump-Classified Info story. How many of these pundits actually defended Trump? Larry breaks it down.

Quarterly Report

5-18-17

Hour 1: Trump's Russian connection has drawn thorough attention to the point of an investigation—fair enough. Nevertheless, why no official investigation for Benghazi? The IRS scandal? Fast and Furious? The list goes on... The Obama Administration clearly operated under a separate standard.

Hour 2: Cofounder of Fox News and media icon, Roger Ailes dies at 77. Jonathan Turley thinks impeachment talk is irrational. Was there obstruction of justice? Larry dissects.

Hour 3: What is the burden of proof in an obstruction of justice case? We advise the Left to listen to this hour before further mentioning impeachment, lest they display their ignorance.

5-21-17

Hour 1: In an interview on CNN between Dennis Prager and Don Lemon, Larry Elder's name comes up. Don insults Larry, saying that he may have been co-opted into supporting Trump (and that is just one of the denigrating remarks).

Hour 2: Trump claims that the investigation is nothing but a "witch hunt". Larry offers his take while continuing the analysis of Don Lemon and his victocrat mentality.

Hour 3: Larry and his brother Kirk play their signature PHONE A BRO, recapping the week's events in a light and humorous patented style.

5-22-17

Hour 1: Notre Dame students walk out on Mike Pence as he attempts to deliver the commencement speech. And BREAKING NEWS: Larry covers the fatalities in Manchester, reporting the facts as they emerge.

Hour 2: Trump once again leaves his usual critic, John McCain, speechless. Larry also covers the latest developments in the mysterious Manchester attack.

Hour 3: In reference to the infamous Russian collusion with President Trump, Hillary supporter and Harvard Law Professor Alan Dershowitz says, "I just don't see a crime here."

5-23-17

Hour 1: Mark Davis fills in for Larry and discusses the known facts about the Manchester attack.

Hour 2: Donald Trump's response to the Manchester attack differed from the actions of other world leaders. Is this new tone of calling terrorists "losers," beneficial or harmful? Mark Davis explores.

Hour 3: Mark Davis takes calls about radical Islam. How should the world approach terrorism? Can it be stopped?

5-24-17

Quarterly Report

Hour 1: Larry examines the rhetoric from Mr. Trump as he addresses terrorists as “losers.” Is this an appropriate approach?

Hour 2: The coach of the San Antonio Spurs, Gregg Popovich, spouts off negatively about President Donald Trump. Larry wonders what might happen had a Conservative coach offered their opinion.

Hour 3: “There’s no such thing as a free lunch,” Larry speaks about Medicaid and Medicare and the colossal burden they inflict on the U.S. taxpayer. Plus, Hillary Clinton’s campaign team had contact with the Russians to build networks. Does this justify collusion?

5-25-17

Hour 1: Larry has additional words for San Antonio Spurs Coach Gregg Popovich. Also, a GOP candidate allegedly “body slammed” a reporter. What?

Hour 2: Larry interviews Opal Singleton about the serious threat of sex-trafficking. Waterboarding vs. torture, what is the difference? And would JFK fit into the modern Democrat Party? Larry says no.

Hour 3: Is political correctness in the UK allowing terrorism to run unabated? In wake of Manchester, Larry tackles this key issue.

5-26-17

Hour 1: The BODY SLAM did not matter! After an alleged assault charge, the GOP candidate cruises to victory in Montana. Find out what Larry has to say about this.

Hour 2: A college professor was arrested for accusations of assaulting Trump supporters in Berkeley CA. His weapon of choice, a bike lock. And the legacy of JFK is once again being distorted, this time by Time Magazine.

Hour 3: Larry and his brother Kirk recap the week’s events with their signature game of PHONE-A-BRO.

5-30-17

Hour 1: Sources hint that Comey may have known Russian intelligence was false. But it didn’t prevent him from acting on it. Why? Larry connects the dots.

Hour 2: As a joke, Kathy Griffin beheads Trump on video. While the Left entertains such sick humor, Larry wonders what might have occurred had someone done this to Obama...

Hour 3: Alan Dershowitz says that the charges without evidence against Jared Kushner are a violation of civil liberties. And Kathy Griffin now says, “I went too far.” Larry plays her apology.

5-31-17

Hour 1: LeBron James in a press conference speaks about the struggles of being black in America. Larry evaluates his statement.

Quarterly Report

Hour 2: NOBODY'S FAULT BUT MINE: In a new interview, Hillary Clinton finds new excuses for her election loss. When will she run out of places to assign the blame? Will she at least accept SOME responsibility?

Hour 3: Robert De Niro says that (in wake of electing Trump) the country has become a comedy. And the attorney defending the Professor who allegedly assaulted some Trump supporters with a bike lock, informs Tucker Carlson that it was inspired by the Oregon attacker—except Tucker informs him that the attacker was a Bernie supporter. Larry laughs saying, “Wana get away.”

6-1-17

Hour 1: Donald Trump announces that the U.S. will reject the Paris Climate Accord. Also, polls show that many want Trump impeached. Larry asks, what did Trump do that deserves impeachment? Usually it involves a crime.

Hour 2: It was not long ago that Obama and Clinton both held the view that marriage is, “between a man and a woman,” or that “God is in the mix.” Did God suddenly disappear? Larry reminds us of this flip-flop while taking calls.

Hour 3: Hillary now blames her election loss on the DNC, saying it was, “bankrupt,” and that “its data was mediocre to poor.” Furthermore, a new poll shows that those who want Trump impeached admit that they do not have grounds for impeachment. Larry comments on the disconnect.

6-2-17

Hour 1: Kathy Griffin says that old white men are trying to silence her through censorship. What? Larry tears apart Griffin’s endless excuses.

Hour 2: Is Larry a white man trapped in a black man’s body? Yes, a caller in 1998 actually asked him that! Since it relates to LeBron James’ statement on racism, Larry analyzes this classic exchange.

Hour 3: What are the ramifications of backing out of the Paris Accord? Amidst criticism, President Trump responds that he was elected to represent the citizens of Pittsburgh—not Paris. Larry and his brother Kirk cover this, plus the news of the week with PHONE-A-BRO.

6-5-17

Hour 1: Another attack in the UK—Larry covers the political implications of the London Bridge terror attack, Prime Minister May’s statement and Trump’s twitter showdown.

Hour 2: Larry speaks about the latest developments of the Paris Accord withdrawal. Bill Maher apologizes for his use of the N word and Al Sharpton has the nerve to claim moral high ground?

Hour 3: With the dreadful example of author, Michael Crichton, Larry exposes the ramifications of politicizing scientific discovery. Even as a former donor to the Democrat Party, Crichton could not escape the muzzle of the Left.

Quarterly Report

6-6-17

Hour 1: There is no basis for impeaching Trump. Larry shows that the Democrats are just entertaining wishful thinking. And Terrorism—Trump and the London mayor exchange jabs while Larry analyzes.

Hour 2: Larry talks about the double standard regarding use of the N-word. Also, Larry's longtime friend and colleague, Dennis Prager, stops by the show to examine the dynamics of the Left and share his newest film project: No Safe Spaces (for more info go to nosafespaces.com).

Hour 3: Facing accusations, Larry debates a caller about the intellectual honesty of the Right vs. the Left.

6-7-17

Hour 1: Larry dissects the Coats/Rogers testimony. What do these high-ranking intelligence officials have to say about the Trump-Russia connection?

Hour 2: Larry offers a preview of tomorrow's testimony. Will James Comey bring forth some great, new, unexpected, revelation about Trump?

Hour 3: In a heroic display of courage, Roy Lerner, a citizen sitting in a steakhouse, single handedly fought off three of the London knife-terrorists with his bare hands. And on a lighter note, Larry picks Cleveland for Game 3 of the NBA finals! Who wants to take that bet?

6-8-17

Hour 1: James Comey testifies—Larry Interviews author and columnist, Ed Klein, to get his take on the most significant revelations of the hearing.

Hour 2: According to Sam Sorbo, some Democrats are behaving like drunks at a funeral. Larry asks Sorbo what she means by this.

Hour 3: Saturday Night Live (on a rare occasion) makes Larry laugh with a 'dog that supports Trump'. Amidst the comedy, Larry still delves deeper into the overlooked details of the Comey statement.

6-9-17

Hour 1: Larry speaks with economist John Lott about the plagiarism accusations against Sheriff David Clarke.

Hour 2: The current chair of the California Democratic Freedom Caucus and former Democratic Congressional candidate, Chris Wiggins, defends his ideas in a substantive exchange with Larry.

Hour 3: Larry and Kirk play their signature PHONE-A-BRO recapping the week's news.

6-12-17

Hour 1: Congresswoman Maxine Waters speaks at the LGBT Pride event in Hollywood screaming, "impeach 45," in reference to President Trump. Larry comments.

Quarterly Report

Hour 2: Dr. John Eastman speaks with Larry about Trump's alleged complicity with Russia and Larry (jokingly) takes offense to Dr. Eastman's NBA Finals pick.

Hour 3: After receiving backlash for his 'N-Word' comment Bill Maher sits down with rapper, Ice Cube, to discuss the matter. But is Ice Cube necessarily the most credible authority on this issue? After all... his group's name, NWA, did stand for (N-Word) With Attitude!

6-13-17

Hour 1: Larry covers the Sessions hearing in depth. Do we now have answers about the Russian interference?

Hour 2: Larry takes calls and continues with the heavy lifting on the Sessions hearing.

Hour 3: Remember when Joe Biden bragged about taking troops out of Iraq as one of the administration's great achievements? Larry exposes this claim as the groundwork for the creation of ISIS. Also, Kamala Harris grills Jeff Sessions. Larry dissects the exchange.

6-14-17

Hour 1: Tragedy on the diamond—while practicing for the annual fundraiser baseball game, several Republican Congressmen were saved by Capitol police as they returned fire, preventing what Rand Paul as an eyewitness, described as a "massacre."

Hour 2: Larry questions whether the Left's rhetoric against Trump and the Republicans is responsible for the shooting on the baseball field. He lists the countless times that they have promoted violence. Speaker Paul Ryan says that, "An attack on one of us is an attack on all of us."

Hour 3: Larry takes calls, asking listeners for their opinion of the shooting today in Virginia. Also, Larry reads Maxine Waters' statement about the incident. It turns out the assailant was a Bernie supporter. Did Maxine and Bernie take responsibility?

6-15-17

Hour 1: Larry brings you the latest developments from the baseball field shooting. Some individuals are unfortunately attempting to use this traumatic incident for political gain.

Hour 2: Conservatives are often perceived as uncaring and callous as they lack faith in a failed redistributive scheme. However, Larry asserts that Conservatives offer much more of their money and time to charity. Why is this overlooked?

Hour 3: Maxine Waters continues to call for the impeachment of President Donald J. Trump. Still, she has no cause for impeachment other than political disagreement. Larry comments.

6-16-17

Quarterly Report

Hour 1: Nancy Pelosi gets political about the shooting in Virginia. The Washington Post now reports that Trump is officially under investigation. Find out what Larry has to say about this.

Hour 2: Protesters are now organizing to march as a Minnesota police officer receives an acquittal. Before we decry, "RACISM," Larry reminds that there were black members on the jury.

Hour 3: Larry and his brother Kirk recap the week with their signature game, PHONE-A-BRO.

6-19-17

Hour 1: Tragic: After returning to the United States from N. Korean captivity, Otto Warmbier has died. Larry reports this somber news as well as the terror attack in London over the weekend.

Hour 2: Can a divided America Survive? Victor Davis Hanson reminds us that those countries that embrace multiculturalism often deteriorate. Also, Tim Graham, the Executive Editor of Newsbusters calls in to cover his recent piece on Leftist hatred.

Hour 3: Larry gives a lesson on how to properly tell a joke. He offers a hilarious example of what not to do... And minimum wage is once again killing business—This time in the Bay Area restaurant industry.

6-20-17

Hour 1: Do police officers racially profile suspects? Is it wrong to do so? Larry explains the legalities while debating the issues.

Hour 2: Larry reads the latest report of the minimum wage obliterating jobs in San Diego. Yesterday we talked about San Francisco, why don't they listen... what city will be next?

Hour 3: Larry presents the facts in a debate on gun control. And poor Johnny Depp! Only worth 200M, Depp now has to sell his private plane.

6-21-17

Hour 1: The Democrats remain in a state of anger today after suffering defeats in both Georgia and South Carolina. These were originally sold as a huge referendum on Trump...now Don Lemon tells us the results are no big deal. Hmmm.... Which is it?

Hour 2: Did the actress from the recent blockbuster, Wonder Woman, receive a lower paycheck because of sexism? Or is that another instance of fake news?

Hour 3: Larry destroys comedian, Trevor Noah. On The Daily Show, Noah complained to his audience about how the police often stop him while he drives his Tesla around New York City.

6-22-17

Hour 1: Ostensibly, everyone has an opinion on the shooting of Philando Castile. Larry cuts through the inaccuracies and presents the facts.

Quarterly Report

Hour 2: Larry debates callers on the nature of police violence. And so called 'comedian' Trevor Noah offers a separate view on the Castile shooting. Complaining that he is occasionally stopped in his Tesla, Larry thinks Noah is clearly out of touch.

Hour 3: Bill Cosby will now be holding town halls to educate others about the dangers of sexual assault. Yes, you heard that correctly. Larry explains the details.

6-23-17

Hour 1: Is Milwaukee the worst place in America for blacks? We explore this question as well as other news. Larry's good friend Hugh Hewitt just got his own show on MSNBC! Larry congratulates him.

Hour 2: Roger Waters, a founder of British rock group, Pink Floyd, viciously attacks President Trump on stage for 30 minutes at the Staples Center in LA. The LA times—to no surprise—described the concert as "soothing."

Hour 3: Larry and his brother recap the week's events with their signature, PHONE-A-BRO.

6-26-17

Hour 1: The coverage of President Trump on CNN and MSNBC is undoubtedly slanted. Larry touches on this, as well as the latest on the state of the travel ban. There are some interesting developments in the Supreme Court.

Hour 2: Law Professor, John Eastman, drops in to talk about Donald Trump's executive order on the travel ban. How is the Supreme Court's approach different from that of the lower courts? Which is Constitutional?

Hour 3: The Minimum wage is on the march to ruin Seattle. Larry shares the story, plus, the investigation of Bernie Sanders.

6-27-17

Hour 1: A CNN producer discloses that the Trump-Russia Story is a pure fabrication. Tune in to hear the astonishing on camera declarations from this recent piece of investigative journalism.

Hour 2: Larry evaluates the new Republican healthcare plan. How does this compare to the Affordable Care Act? The free market is still the sole remedy. How can we curtail the ongoing government interference?

Hour 3: There's no such thing as a free lunch. Using the wisdom of Nobel-winning economist Milton Friedman, Larry shines light on the unsustainability of the entitlement state.

6-28-17

Quarterly Report

Hour 1: Bob Frantz fills in for Larry to talk about the GOP Healthcare Bill. The government should not be running healthcare! "I want them to do what they told the American people they were gona do," says Bob.

Hour 2: We continue onward with the Healthcare debate. Bob takes calls and touches on the implications of the Veritas video showing CNN's duplicitous agenda.

Hour 3: Professor Johnathan Adler joins Bob to share his expertise on the Supreme Court.

6-29-17

Hour 1: Thanks to Project Veritas, CNN's Van Jones is on tape saying that the Trump-Russian connection is, "just a big nothing burger." Larry evaluates.

Hour 2: Actor and Comedian, Tom Dreesen, joins Larry in studio to address Bill Maher's use of the N-Word on HBO. Was the backlash warranted?

Hour 3: Speaking of investigations, Senator Bernie Sanders says that the FBI looking into his wife's dealings is a pathetic attack. Larry covers this, takes calls, and much more.

6-30-17

Hour 1: The Morning Joe Show responds to Trump's Twitter attack. Larry plays the conversation as they surmise that the President is not of sound mental health.

Hour 2: Once the Affordable Care Act passed, there was no recourse. Larry agrees with Senator Ted Cruz about the near impossibility of retracting a handout.

Hour 3: Larry and his brother Kirk hold their signature game of PHONE-A-BRO. Providing a light recap of the week's events, callers compete and test their knowledge with the gracious aid from 'Kirk's world famous hints'.

7-3-17

Hour 1: Larry plays part I of his tear-jerking broadcast of Dear Father Dear Son on this holiday weekend. With a story of forgiveness and love, Larry offers a show that the entire family can enjoy in a true rendition about redeeming his relationship with his father.

Hour 2: Larry plays part I of his tear-jerking broadcast of Dear Father Dear Son on this holiday weekend. With a story of forgiveness and love, Larry offers a show that the entire family can enjoy in a true rendition about redeeming his relationship with his father.

Hour 1: A 12-year veteran police officer in NYC has been assassinated. Larry plays the heart-stopping radio call as the fallen hero's partner yells for backup. In addition, CNN is back under fire as they now take the initiative to reprimand teenage children rather than reporting news on the matter.

Hour 2: EX-49ers QB, Colin Kaepernick, travels to Ghana to find his, "personal independence," over the past Independence Day weekend. In response to Kaepernick's protest of the USA, Larry says that the real institution to protest is the Democrat Party, which contains a history plagued by racism. Also, Jamiel Shaw Sr. joins Larry to share his son's sad story and shed light on the passing of Kate's Law.

Hour 3: Some think that CNN could face a legal dilemma for their reckless mishandling of the 'Trump Wrestling GIF'. Larry thinks that (at the very least) this incident is picturesque of the relationship between the mainstream media and the Right.
