

KWOS, JEFFERSON CITY QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

The following is a list of the significant issues responded to by Radio Station KWOS-AM, Jefferson City, Missouri, in the public's interest for the period of January 1st to March 31st, 2024. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect priority.

ISSUES: Current Events, Public Policy, Culture, National Security

TITLE: American Viewpoints

DESCRIPTION: Dr. J. Michael Waller argues in his new book, Big Intel, that two of the main agencies designed to protect us have become corrupted by ideology. He argues that implementing concepts including diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) priorities and others popular on the Left compromise the mission and tactics of the CIA and FBI. J. Michael Waller is a Senior Analyst for Strategy at the Center for Security Policy.

TIME: 10:06

DATE: January 2024

DURATION: 12 minutes

STATION: KWOS

ISSUES: Public Affairs, Current Events, Economy, Public Policy

TITLE: American Viewpoints

DESCRIPTION: Congressman Jamaal Bowman (D-NY) is proposing a multi-trillion-dollar reparations plan that, if passed, would make large direct payments to millions of black Americans. discussion, In this the Heritage Foundation's GianCarlo Canaparo argues against the idea not just because of the size but, he says, because of a fairness and justice aspect of the debate.

TIME: 8:06a

DATE: January 2024

DURATION: 12 minutes

STATION: KWOS

ISSUES: National politics, Economics, Current Events

TITLE: Wake Up Mid-Missouri

DESCRIPTION: United States Congressman Mark Alford joined Wake Up Mid-Missouri to discuss the House and their handling of the debates over the national budget. Congressman Alford also shared about the state of the country's southern border with Mexico and his concerns regarding the number of immigrants crossing the border illegally.

TIME: 8:06a

DATE: January 2024

DURATION: 12 minutes

STATION: KWOS

ISSUES: Charitable Causes

TITLE: NewsRadio KWOS

DESCRIPTION: NewsRadio KWOS participated in a two-day long radiothon to benefit the University of Missouri's Children's hospital in Columbia, Missouri. Throughout the two-day event, on-air staff interviewed numerous families that have benefitted from the hospital's life-saving services. They also spoke with staff members of the hospital and shared information about ground-breaking therapies and other services the hospital can offer for their patients. The Radiothon resulted in over $225,000.

TIME: 8:06a

DATE: February 22-23

DURATION: 12 minutes

STATION: KWOS

ISSUES: Public Affairs, Current Events, Economy

TITLE: American Viewpoints

DESCRIPTION: American Commitment's Phil Kerpen assesses the aspect of the US economy that are stabilizing and that are moving in the right direction. He also cautions against assuming the worst is over in this economic cycle, saying that more bad decisions on taxing and/or spending could lead to more inflation.

TIME: 8:06a

DATE: February 2024

DURATION: 12 minutes

STATION: KWOS

ISSUES: Public Affairs, Public Policy, Economy, Personal Finance

TITLE: American Viewpoints

DESCRIPTION: A new survey from BankRate.com shows that fewer Americans believe homeownership is feasible for them right now. While a variety of reasons, including debt, interest rates, and inflation, are cited as reasons for that, the effect of the changes extends into other parts of our economy. In this discussion, Bankrate Senior Analyst Mark Hamrick reviews the survey results and assesses why it matters to everyone.

TIME: 8:06a

DATE: March 2024

DURATION: 12 minutes

STATION: KWOS

ISSUES: Agriculture, Legislation, Current Events

TITLE: Wake Up Mid-Missouri

DESCRIPTION: The President of the Missouri Farm Bureau, Garrett Hawkins, joined Wake Up Mid-Missouri to share the events that MFB is participating in for National Ag Month. Hawkins also discussed "The Farm Bill" and other legislation MFB members are working on at the national level, and highlighted the issues that farmers are facing in Missouri and beyond.

TIME: 8:06a

DATE: March 2024

DURATION: 12 minutes

STATION: KWOS
