

Issues and Programming – Q3 2023

(Voices of the Valley Runs Sunday Evenings)

July 13st – July 31st

World Relief Fox Valley

Guest Nicole Gerow, Employment Services Manager at World Relief Fox Valley, talks about placing refugees with employers in the Fox Valley. World Relief Fox Valley helps refugees coming to the area find housing, employment, medical services, child care and more. She also outlines how a business in need of employees can partner with World Relief Fox Valley to employ some of the refugees in our area.

August 1st – August 30th

The Appleton Airport

Amanda Sharon speaks with Jesse Funk, Air Service and Business Development Manager at The Appleton Airport about their event Pulling for Honor. The event is a major fundraiser for The Old Glory Honor Flight which fully funds one flight of veterans to Washington D.C. Pulling for Honor is a competition where teams pull an airplane and will take place on September 16th. People are invited to come and watch, there will be food trucks, bounce houses, face painting, giveaways and more. More information on the event is at atwairport.com

August 31st – September 30th

Resetdot Life

Joan Johnson joins us at The Avenue to talk about her non-profit Resetdot Life that helps support and empower women. She also operates a boutique in Green Bay called Sunrise on Main which designed to support the non-profit. Resetdot life is now offering virtual life coaching options for women. They also offer scholarship opportunities for their life coaching and programs.