John Kivela (D-Marquette)MARQUETTE, MI (Great Lakes Radio News) 109th District State Representative John Kivela called in recently to the SUNNY Morning Show with Walt & Mike to talk about his proposed legislation intended to eliminate meth production in Michigan.The Marquette Democrat talked about the detail of the proposal, which is seeking to make possession of ephedrine or pseudoephedrine, which is currently available over the counter, illegal without a prescription from a medical doctor.Kivela explained that ephedrine is the key ingredient in the manufacture of methamphetamine and other states that have adopted similar laws have seen drastic drops in the illegal meth issue.When asked about what people who currently use the drug properly and legally with effective results, who may not have access to doctors or medical care, would need to do if the proposal becomes law, Kivela said that is an unfortunate side of the current system and it would need to be addressed through amendments to the original legislation.Kivela admitted that his legislation may not make it into law, and if it does, it will be considerably worked over via the legislative process. Gun Control There are many people since the Sandy Hook incident that have said that any support for guns means that you are happy that the kids died, which is a crazy argument to make on any logical basis. But the groups against guns have been coming out more and crazier than before. Lots of times the bans on guns are based on looks and not the actual power of the weapon and also there are people who are for a total ban of guns. These people over look the fact that when this ban took place in Australia that crime and homicides went up after the ban. Listen Control Rant Listen Johnny Get Your Gun Listen Gun Control Limerick Guest Len Kaanta On Gun Control Guest Len Kaanta with Dan this morning on In The Right Mind Guest Len Kaanta came on the show this morning to talk about the new federal weapons proposal. He also talked about the proposed new bill in Michigan that changes the conceal and carry and the definition of open carry in Michigan as well. Even though the church has failed in some regard, they have succeeded in keeping to aspire to a higher ground. And do remember, mostly all faiths are following the same God. Most of the morals are all similar. Listen Pope Rant Listen Tom Lehrer The Vatican Rag Callers Caller #1 asked off-air why the government has 1.5 billion hollow point bullets. Dan responded that he had no idea if this was true or why, and Len had no idea of either too. Also the caller asked how often the military practice with hollow points which Dan responded that they dont. Len explained that hollow points were outlawed in war. Caller #2 has lived in many in countries and has felt this country is the most violent. He wonders where all of the handguns have been coming from. The sport rifles are not the problem. The handguns are the problem. Caller #3 wondered what Dan thought about the medical marijuana law changes. The caller said about how the dispensaries can be shut down. And they also made it illegal to pass from one card holder to another. He felt that this forces people to going back to criminal avenues and taking away from legal avenues.

Should we Keep Wolves Protected?To answer those questions, I talked today to George Lindquist from Citizens for Professional Wildlife Management and to Dr. Guy Lasich who hopes to rally the people of Marquette County to NBCs Shine a Light Program.George Lindquist from Citizens for Professional Wildlife Management on In The Right MindThe CPWM is collecting signatures encouraging the Michigan Legislature to keep wildlife decisions in the hands of the Michigan Natural Resources Commission. Weve talked about this issue so often, you dont need to hear any more about the lies from the Humane Society you know them well. But you can always enjoy the parody songs. I encourage people to support the CPWM for 3 reasons 1st- I agree with them 2nd- They arent paying people to get signatures.. and 3rd They arent lying to people to support their objective. If you are able to circulate a petition yourself, please do so.Dr Guy Lasich was in the studio hoping people will go to shineonmarquette.com so NBC will pick Marquette County as the target of its light. Statistics can support many claim, but one thing is very clear we can and should take more responsibility for our own health. Marquette could be a before and after picture for health I qualify as the before picture right now. In addition to being healthier, the community itself could become a more social place Pretty good for a place that is already my favorite place in the world.In The Right Mind with Dan Adamini Full ShowIn The Right Mind FULL SHOW 012514.mp3In The Right Mind with Dan Adamini RantsIn The Right Mind Humane Society of the United States Rant 012514.mp3In The Right Mind Healthy Michigan Shine a Light Rant 012514.mp3In The Right Mind Healthy Michigan Obamacare Rant 012514.mp3In The Right Mind with Dan Adamini InterviewsIn The Right Mind Interview George Lindquist Citizens for Professional Wildlife Management 012514.mp3In The Right Mind Interview Shine A Light on Marquette Guy Lasich 012514.mp3In The Right Mind with Dan Adamini LimericksIn The Right Mind Limerick Wolf Hunt and HSA 012514.mp3

Marquette, Mi - April 12, 2014 Do We Need New Laws to fix Minimum Wage, Equal Pay & Union Behavior?Today was All About Money Unions Abusing Walmart Employees, Minimum Wage & Equal Pay DayCracking Down On Union ThuggeryThe United Food & Commercial Workers Union is now under court order to STOP RESTRAINING & COERCING people during its protests. Behavior has become so bad that even Barak Obamas National Labor Relations Board could no longer turn a blind eye to the unions thuggery. In November 2013, 50-80 people (many disguised as Walmart employees) invaded a store in Dearborn, Mi and harassed customers and employees. A group (including at least one man) followed a woman into the bathroom to harass her. Finally, the NLRB cant turn its usual blind eye to bad behavior by its supporters. The new limerick & updated song should entertain those of you who condemn the behavior. Dont you wish rank and file members would ALSO condemn bad behavior? If they did, the union would gain some much needed respect.Minimum Wage Should We Even Have One?Going back as far as Ben Franklin, people have warned against the negative impact of a minimum wage. A little history lesson reminds us that the first minimum wage in the USA was designed to stop Black Construction Workers from taking jobs from White Construction Workers. Those who support minimum wage are generally less interested in helping others than they are in helping themselves even if the relationship isnt obvious. Many people believe the minimum wage actually hurts the people it is intended to help I am one of those people! Two songs on this topic : minimum wage and itsy bitsy wage. Equal Pay Day Bad Data Bad Conclusion or Intentional Deception? Dan Adamini with Karlyn Rapport from AAUW Karlyn Rapport from the American Association of University Women was my guest on this topic. There are new studies on the gender pay gap. Do you believe that women are paid 77 cents for each dollar a man makes in the same job? Those who use that number would like you to believe it but even they when asked to clarify admit that is not true! If there is a gender pay gap (and I believe there is) we cant solve it unless we are honest about the data. When we finally agree that the numbers are honest, we can work toward solutions together until then, those of us in our RIGHT MINDS will help others help themselves. If a guy works more hours than a woman, at the same rate, he will take home more. The reverse is also true for a woman working more hours than a man. If we cant even agree that the rate is the issue rather than the take home pay well never solve the problem together our friends on the left will keep whining while we help women (and everyone) create opportunity! Dan Adamini In The Right Mind Feature Rant Marquette, Mi April 19, 2014 Taxes, Obamacare, Schools & Discrimination Discussed on IN THE RIGHT MIND with Dan Adamini Tax-Cheats Will Be Treated Better Than the Uninsured in 2014 The funniest story this week was not the tax deadline of April 15th. It was the realization that with budget cuts to the IRS, there will be fewer tax audits as IRS agents shift their focus to the enforcement of Obamacare. Conclusion if you are a tax-cheat with health insurance, you are safer from the IRS than an honest taxpayer without health insurance. That problem is made even worse with the realization that beginning April 1st, if you dont already have health insurance, you probably cannot buy it even if you want to. Only those with special life events are allowed to purchase insurance outside the open enrollment period from October to March. So the government wont let you buy insurance, but will punish you if you dont buy insurance Is this a perfect democrat plan or what? Youtube link to Obamacare Song Should Schools Start Later, Go To A Year-Round Calendar & Eat Healthier? Proposals to allow schools to choose a full-year calendar have sparked the debate on how best to educate our kids. Some say that kids un-learn too much over summer vacation. How I wish that was true there is much taught in our school I WISH the kids could un-learn. Of course, we all know teens are not the best morning people but should we move the start time later as some suggest? And what about the food we serve our kids in school should we force schools to serve only veggies even if they only end up in the trash? songs: summertime school, later start time, healthy food. youtube link to later start time. Is Discrimination Okay if You Only Hate White Christians? Many people feel they suffer from discrimination, but it seems the only people you can hate without being called a hater are people of faith who are not people of color. During the holiest of weeks in the Judeo-Christian world, it is good to remember that around the world, both Christians & Jews are targets and are even killed because of their faith, with little mention by most American Media. On the other hand, if you say you want to prevent illegal immigration and support legal immigration nutty people on the left say you HATE latinos. As if all latinos are illegal, and all illegals are latino. Even women who earn the same pay as men complain they suffer from discrimination if they work fewer hours and have smaller take-home pay. And, again, the media (and even our president) change that into an argument about equal pay. song: She Is Woman Pay Her Less. Although atheists generally discriminate against others, I did take the opportunity to support an atheist case against the state of New Jersey because they wouldn't let her get a personal license plate that said 8thiest but they would allow baptist. the rules should be the same for all then we won't be focused on groups, but on people as a whole. Other Stuff I had to share this satellite picture of the great lakes from wednesday April 1, 2014. There is still a LOT of ice on Lake Superior. How are the boats moving? VERY SLOWLY.
