Issue: Innerbelt Bridge Safety

News	Oct 1, 2008	5pm	TRT	2:00
Local

Safety concerns for the Innerbelt bridge that connects downtown Cleveland to the city's West side. Inspectors have performed a series of tests on the bridge to determine if it is structurally sound. The three month's of testing is now being analyzed by bridge inspectors to determine if the bridge should be repaired or shut down.
