Establishment of an Internship Program:

FOX 2 College Internship Program

Since its inception in the late 1970s, diversity has been the foundation of the FOX College Internship Program, which was developed to attract and assist minority and female students, making the station a leader in the Detroit television broadcast market in this regard. WJBK FOX 2 continues to offer the most comprehensive program. Now, we accept the best of the best, which means a fewer number of students, but this allows each student to get the most of this internship opportunity. Plus, this makes the program more exclusive, ultimately attracting the most qualified and ambitious juniors, seniors and graduate students who are enrolled in journalism, broadcast journalism and business curriculums. The students work a minimum of 15 hours per week and receive college credit at the successful conclusion of their internship. WJBK FOX 2 has developed additional educational aspects to the program as a way to give the students the skills they need to acquire a position in the broadcast industry. WJBK FOX 2 offers, broadcast writing seminars to help the students learn the correct way to write for television news. Qualified students also have the opportunity to work in all aspects of the station's operations. excluding technical positions under union mandate. Students are evaluated at the end of the internship and the evaluations are submitted to their respective college or university. As many former interns are hired by FOX 2, the College Internship Program remains an integral component of our recruitment arm.

Participation in job banks, Internet programs and other programs designed to promote outreach generally (i.e., that are not primarily directed to providing notification of specific job vacancies):

"FOX 2 Job Shop"

An unstable economy and high unemployment were the inspiration for the FOX 2 Job Shop. The project began in 1998and quickly became a key component of all Fox 2 newscasts and fox2detroit.com. Metro Detroit was hit hard by the crumbling economy – much of which was tied to turbulence in the auto industry. Fox 2 anticipated the community's need for such information first by airing "Job Shop" specials, that ultimately evolved into a major franchise, with the "Job a Day" Feature, plus thousands of other job posting, career advice that has developed into a one-stop-shop that includes job search templates (cover letters, resumes, proper attire, etc.); the Job Shop Grad Guide for students transitioning into the world of work: networking opportunities and job fairs designed to help put the people of Michigan back to work. Job Shop's steady growth and popularity have made it the first stop for those seeking broadcast television jobs at Fox 2, as well and is now an important feature on all Fox O & O Stations.

"The Hunt"

In the interest of providing real-life, relatable examples of local job seekers and their experiences, FOX 2 News continued to give viewers a unique perspective on the search for gainful employment with The Hunt, an original, documentary-style reality show created for fox2detroit.com. Launched June 16, 2014, we follow several selected Metro Detroiters as they search for employment in a tough town, during tough times. Along the way, the FOX 2 Job Shop team provides insight and resources to help them achieve their missions. Their experiences resonate with all job seekers, especially people seeking careers in broadcast television who watch this station intently, hoping to find the path leading to such careers.

"Media Club DPS Charles H. Wright Academy of Arts and Sciences"

In January- Fox 2 agreed to partner with DPS Charles H. Wright Academy of Arts and Sciences... to help launch a Media Club.

The principal's goal is to train her students to deliver a regular newscast. Our VP of Engineering and our Assistant News Director met with the principal to make recommendations for how she could achieve her goal. Additionally, the VP of Engineering developed a list of equipment needed to produce the news at different levels. The Assistant News Director, the Community Service Director and Josh Landon returned in March and worked with 15 students for more than an hour teaching them the elements of a news story and what stories should go into a newscast. The Assistant News Director, Community Service Director and Maurielle Lue returned the following week to teach interview techniques and more writing.

This is an ongoing partnership where we will send employees over to the school to work with the children at least twice a month.

Participation in scholarship program designed to assist students interested in pursuing a career in broadcasting:

Emma L. Bowen Foundation for Minority Interests in Media, Inc.

Established in 1989, the Emma L. Bowen Foundation for Minority Interests in Media is a non-profit organization whose mission is to create career opportunities in the media industry for minority youth through a program that focuses on scholastic achievement, direct work experience and professional development. Students in the program work in media companies each summer and during school breaks, from high school through college. The student earns both salaries and match scholarship funds to be used for college tuition and related expenses. Over a period of up to five years, the students experience numerous aspects of corporate operation and develop professional and practical skills that will help prepare them for their careers, many of which begin at the companies where the students interned. Fox Television Stations has been a corporate partner in this program since its inception and two of the Company's executives are on the Foundation's board.

Courageous Persuaders Video Scholarship Competition

Inspired by the numerous incidents of teen drunk and drugged driving in Metropolitan Detroit, FOX 2 joined forces with the Detroit Auto Dealers Association and local advertising agencies in its support of the Courageous Persuaders video scholarship competition. Courageous Persuaders harnesses peer pressure and youthful exuberance by inviting high school students to join in a creative and entertaining competition to make a TV commercial about the dangers of alcohol/substance abuse. Courageous Persuaders is about replacing negative, dangerous images from movies, commercials and television, which portray drinking as "cool," with positive images that emphasize the dangers of underage and binge drinking. Not only does the Courageous Persuaders initiative provide high school students an opportunity to win scholarship money, but they are also viewed as role models by their peers and the younger middle school students who are the target audience for their message. The grand prize-winning commercial airs on TV as a public service announcement, and budding journalists get their first taste of broadcast TV.

Establishment of training programs designed to enable station personnel to acquire skills that could qualify them for higher level positions:

Fox Station Sales, an in-house national sales organization, maintains a program to train new sales account executives, which is actively supported by WJBK FOX 2's Sales Department.
