Issues of Concern to Atlanta, GA
Addressed in Responsive Programming in the 1st Quarter 2020
January 1– March 31
Subject - Description of Concern

Community Empowerment:

Among the various interviews conducted:

Cobb County District Attorney Joyette Holmes and Cobb County Solicitor General Barry Morgan spoke about the upcoming records restriction summit and jobs fair. They explained how some criminal records could be cleared, allowing past offenders to seek employment.

The community came together as the world recognized the work of Civil Rights Icon Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Ecumenical Service that was held at Ebenezer Baptist Church in Atlanta, GA.

We broadcast the Dr. Martin and Mrs. Coretta Scott King Salute to Greatness Dinner which had several honorees including Jaden Smith, who was rewarded for his effort to provide clean water to communities.

Playwright Chad Lawson Cooper and Director Mann Robinson talked about film making and the movie Justice On Trial Too: The Movie 2020 about African Americans suing the U.S. Justice Department for reparations.

Homelessness:

Among the various interviews conducted:

Fulton County discussed the one-night homeless count and how you can volunteer to assist. The representative also talked about how having an accurate count generates funding to help those living on the streets get assistance.

Mayor Keisha Lance Bottoms, Chair of Governor Brian Kemp's Committee on Homeless, talked about various interventions being made available for the homeless during the coronavirus pandemic.

Crime/Public Safety:

Among the various interviews conducted:

Nurin Ghazzawi is a student of Augusta University here in Georgia. Ghazzawi along with students from her university and the University of Georgia ended up stuck in Peru on a study abroad trip as a result of COVID-19. The country was shut down and all flights coming in and out were cancelled. As a result of an unexpected elongated trip, students have run out of money. They soon will be making a return back to the United States.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

COVID-19/CORONAVIRUS PANDEMIC:

Our continuous coverage of the world-wide COVID-19 pandemic allows our listeners to stay fully abreast of what's going on at this pivotal time.

NEWS: Our Entercom Atlanta News Department provides detailed and factual information as provided by the National Centers for Disease Control and Prevention; The Georgia Department of Public Health; and the U.S. Federal Government. Our coverage also includes updates from President Donald Trump and the White House Coronavirus Task Force; Georgia Governor Brian Kemp and his Coronavirus Task Force; along with updates from Atlanta Mayor Keisha Lance Bottoms. Our stations share these updates live and these events are streamed on our social media and web sites. We are committed to bringing our community every angle of the COVID outbreak and the response.

INTERVIEWS: Our guests cover every spectrum of this ever-growing issue. We have health officials, those suffering from coronavirus, politicians having to determine laws during the time. We also get the view of the economic implications via labor officials, and business owners affected by the coronavirus pandemic.

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENTS: Entercom Atlanta has been consistent in creating and producing Public Service Announcements that educate the public about how to take care of themselves and others during the coronavirus outbreak. Our staffs are impressing upon the community to remain safe and to exercise all necessary measures to help limit the outbreak. "Stay Connected" is part of Entercom Media's message to the community during the "new normal" of self-isolation and quarantine.

"Star94 is helping Atlanta STAY CONNECTED. FOR MORE GO TO RADIO DOT COM SLASH STAYCONNECTED."

HEALTH TIPS: During our Traffic Reports, as the roadways aren't at normal capacities, our talent provide tips on remaining safe during the pandemic.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

U.S. CENSUS BUREAU PARTNERSHIP

Entercom Atlanta's partnership with the U.S. Census Bureau continues to educate the community about the once a decade count of every person in America. We also educate about why it is important to participate in the Census and more.

This partnership has included the launch of a new Entercom Media station, V103 International. It is on our HD-2 signal. It is a music only medium.

INTERVIEWS: We also had various guests discussing their efforts to educate the public about the Census, including the Metro Atlanta Urban League, the NAACP, and officials with the U.S. Census.

PSA: Several organizations contributed Public Service Announcements encouraging the community to participate in the Census. Among the persons/organizations: Fulton County Chairman Robb Pitts; National Pan Hellenic Council-Atlanta;

TOWN HALL: On February 18, 2020, Entercom Atlanta hosted a U.S. Census Town Hall. The event was held in the Entercom Atlanta event space. The panelists included various representatives in government, civic, and religious fields., along with the U.S. Census Bureau.

Members of the audience were a broad range of culture and ethnicity and those concerned about the Census implications in their respective communities.

WSTR STATION PUBLIC AFFAIRS PROFILE

Entercom Atlanta Public Affairs Director Dr. Maria Boynton has followed news and issues in local newspapers and on television/radio and held discussions with community members and heads of organizations to determine which issues would be addressed during this quarter. The programs aired onWSTR were created to putWSTR's mission into action.WSTR reaches listeners in the greater Atlanta market covering Fulton, DeKalb, Cobb, Clayton and Gwinnett counties.

The programs and guests on various shows were selected by show hosts and producers in response to local, national and regional news and events that interests the listeners, sponsors and supporters.WSTR is located at 210 interstate North Circle, Suite 600 in Atlanta GA. The radio station also subscribes to, and the staff reads, local and nationally published newspapers, magazines, and Internet news networks. The station also receives press releases from city, state, county, federal and local business, and educational, private and fraternal sources.
