Waiver of Rights for FCC Equal Time Law

I, Will Spencer, hereby submit this waiver to formally waive the rights I have, as a legally qualified candidate for public office, under the FCC's Equal Time Law, as specified in Title 47 Code of Federal Regulations of the Federal Communications Commission Rules. I understand that this law mandates that broadcast stations provide equal opportunity to all legally qualified candidates for public office to have equal access to broadcast time.

By waiving my rights under the FCC Equal Time Law, I acknowledge and accept that I will not be entitled to demand or claim equal time from Emporia's Radio Station's for the purpose of ensuring parity with other political candidates running for public office.

This waiver only pertains to the time given to candidate Erren Harter to perform his duties during the Monday Morning Quarterback show, which airs every Monday from 10:05 am CST until 11:00 am AND the On-Air Chat show, which airs every Wednesday from 10:05 CST until 11:00 am.

This waiver remains in effect until the General Election, November 14, 2023.
