

WILL-AM, Urbana, Illinois, licensee: The University of Illinois.

2nd Quarter, 2022 / April 1 – June 30, 2022.

Program Data
ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
5269	University of Illinois	Spot News	A research project that started in Newark, New Jersey to prevent COVID-19 in marginalized communities is expanding to Illinois.	4/1/2022	:60
5270	University of Illinois	Spot News	Students from several Illinois colleges gathered yesterday on the University of Illinois campus to recognize this year’s Transgender Day of Visibility.	4/1/2022	:60
5271	Education	Spot News	April is Autism Awareness Month. To mark the beginning of the month, the CU Autism Network is donating two hundred books to local schools to raise autism awareness.	4/1/2022	:60
5272	Community	Spot News	Two big Midwestern organizations are teaming up to feed refugees fleeing the Ukrainian war zone.	4/4/2022	:60
5273	Arts and Culture	Spot News	The Boneyard Arts Festival was held in Champaign County this weekend. Artists gathered in gallery spaces and local businesses across the county to display their work.	4/4/2022	:60
5274	Education	Spot News	Champaign teachers will vote on their contract today ... the day they had originally planned to go on strike.	4/5/2022	:60
5275	Arts and Culture	Interview	Lyric Theatre at Illinois brings Mozart’s “The Marriage of Figaro” to the Krannert Center of the Performing Arts for three shows ... starting tonight (TUESDAY) at 7:30.	4/5/2022	7:00

Program Data

ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
5276	Education	Spot News	Champaign teachers voted 76 percent to 24 percent to ratify their new contract, rather than go on strike.	4/6/2022	:60
5277	Community	Feature	One hundred years ago this (Wednesday) evening, the University of Illinois' radio station went on the air for its first broadcast.	4/6/2022	7:00
5278	Government	Spot News	A bill working its way through the state senate could eliminate the cost of college course materials for many in-state college students.	4/6/2022	:60
5279	Government	Interview	Illinois' Prisoner Review Board is operating with only six of its 15 seats filled.	4/7/2022	15:00
5280	Science and Technology	Spot News	The Champaign County Audubon Society has started taking local residents out into nature to bird-watch.	4/7/2022	:60
5281	Community	Spot News	The Refugee Center continues to help its clients from Afghanistan to settle in Champaign-Urbana.	4/8/2022	:60
5282	Government	Spot News	The Champaign City Council voted unanimously Tuesday to remove the city's licensing fees for massage businesses.	4/8/2022	:60
5283	University of Illinois	Spot News	Some Black student leaders at the University of Illinois say they're unhappy with the school's response to Ku Klux Klan flyers that circulated around campus last week.	4/8/2022	:60
5284	Community	Spot News	The Urbana-Champaign Books to Prisoners organization is hosting its spring benefit book sale Saturday.	4/8/2022	:60

Program Data

ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
5285	Women and Minorities	Spot News	When you think of your local farmers market... you probably imagine a predominantly white space. That's why the Farmers Market Coalition has launched a new anti-racist toolkit.	4/11/2022	:60
5286	University of Illinois	Spot News	Students gathered at the University of Illinois Arboretum yesterday (Sunday) to celebrate the Hindu festival Holi (HOLE-ee).	4/11/2022	:60
5287	University of Illinois	Spot News	As Muslims everywhere celebrate the holy month of Ramadan, University of Illinois students and officials are working together to meet the needs of Muslims on campus.	4/11/2022	:60
5288	Government	Spot News	Among the measures passed by the Illinois Senate in the final hours of session Friday night ... was a joint resolution to name a portion of Interstate 72 after a fallen Champaign police officer.	4/11/2022	:60
5289	University of Illinois	Spot News	A group of tornado researchers at the University of Illinois recently returned from surveying tornado devastation in Louisiana and Mississippi.	4/12/2022	:60
5290	Government	Spot News	The Urbana City Council is asking residents how the city should use almost 13-million dollars in federal COVID-19 money.	4/12/2022	:60
5291	Agriculture	Spot News	Senior officials in the Biden Administration say the President today will move to make the E15 gasoline blend available across the nation this summer.	4/12/2022	:60
5292	Environment	Spot News	The National Weather Service says we could see severe weather later today in the WILL severe weather coverage area.	4/13/2022	:60

Program Data

ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
5293	Education	Spot News	The Unit 4 Board of Education has renewed its contract with the city of Champaign to place police officers in schools.	4/13/2022	:60
5294	Women and Minorities	Interview	Farmers markets across the Midwest are summer havens... a welcoming community gathering space, rich with healthy fruits, vegetables and local goods.	4/14/2022	4:00
5295	Agriculture	Spot News	As the Illinois legislative session ended last week, Senators from both sides of the aisle passed a bill to increase Black farm ownership in Illinois.	4/14/2022	:60
5296	Government	Spot News	THIS IS NATIONAL PUBLIC SAFETY TELECOMMUNICATORS WEEK, A CHANCE TO HONOR THE HARD WORK OF EMERGENCY DISPATCHERS.	4/14/2022	:60
5297	Arts and Culture	Spot News	A new show at Krannert Center for the Performing Arts in Champaign is offering a new take to a well-known story.	4/15/2022	:60
5298	University of Illinois	Spot News	A University of Illinois spokesperson says the university has reached a tentative agreement to provide clerical workers with retroactive pay starting from August 2021.	4/15/2022	:60
5299	Government	Spot News	Champaign County Crime Stoppers has raised its cash reward for tips involving guns and homicides.	4/15/2022	:60
5300	Arts and Culture	Interview	Sinfonia da Camera ... the chamber orchestra in residence at Krannert Center for the Performing Arts in Urbana ... holds its season finale concert tomorrow (SATURDAY) night at 7:30.	4/15/2022	4:00

Program Data

ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
5301	Sports	Spot News	Little League Baseball is starting another season of play. Illinois Newsroom's Emily Hays reports that for a Little League group in Champaign-Urbana, practices are about more than winning games.	4/18/2022	:60
5302	University of Illinois	Spot News	The ratification process has begun for a tentative agreement between The American Federation of State County and Municipal Employees Local 3700 and University of Illinois regarding retroactive pay.	4/18/2022	:60
5303	Government	Spot News	Champaign city council members will talk tonight (TUESDAY) about an agreement to give University of Illinois police authority over an area of Campustown currently patrolled by Champaign police.	4/19/2022	:60
5304	Community	Spot News	Champaign County is investing in interpretation services for immigrants who speak indigenous languages.	4/19/2022	:60
5305	University of Illinois	Spot News	A former ambassador to Ukraine is this year's winner of the Paul H. Douglas Award for Ethics in Government.	4/19/2022	:60
5306	Business/Economy	Spot News	A groundbreaking ceremony was held yesterday (Tuesday) for a new casino on the east side of Danville.	4/19/2022	:60
5307	Arts and Culture	Spot News	Today kicks off the first day of Ebertfest – Champaign's annual film festival named in honor of late U of I alum and film critic Roger Ebert.	4/20/2022	:60
5308	University of Illinois	Spot News	About 50 University of Illinois students marched in support of the Students for Justice in Palestine Monday night, after last week's raid by Israeli police of the Al-Aqsa Mosque in Jerusalem.	4/20/2022	:60

Program Data

ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
5309	Government	Spot News	Champaign's new police chief begins work in six weeks. City officials announced today (Wednesday) that state police officer Timothy Tyler will take over the job on June Sixth.	4/20/2022	:60
5310	Government	Spot News	University of Illinois campus police officers will take over patrols in the Campustown area of Champaign by October. The new arrangement is to help Champaign Police deal with a staffing shortage.	4/20/2022	:60
5311	Government	Spot News	The superintendent of the Champaign County jail says the facility is under strain.	4/21/2022	:60
5312	Community	Spot News	A rally is being held today (THURSDAY) to demand that Parkland College fire a former Champaign police chief from his teaching position.	4/21/2022	:60
5313	Community	Spot News	About 40 protesters held a rally yesterday at Parkland College in Champaign to demand the firing of a former Champaign police chief from his teaching position.	4/21/2022	:60
5314	Government	Interview	A journalist who was on the ground at the start of Russia's invasion says Ukraine will "never" concede in this conflict.	4/21/2022	15:00
5315	Environment	Spot News	Some Illinois residents are concerned about the safety risks associated with two proposed carbon pipelines in the state.	4/22/2022	:60
5316	Community	Spot News	Champaign-Urbana residents cheered as artist Langston Allston [LAYNG-stun, ALL-stun] cut a ceremonial ribbon on Friday, officially unveiling the Urbana Free Library's new mural at the Cunningham Township building in Urbana.	4/25/2022	:60

Program Data

ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
5317	Women and Minorities	Spot News	About 100 people gathered at Douglass Park in Champaign Saturday to celebrate the life and legacy of John Cleo Bud Johnson Jr, better known as Bud.	4/25/2022	:60
5318	University of Illinois	Spot News	The National Science Foundation has given two groups of University of Illinois researchers awards totaling more than 40-million dollars.	4/25/2022	:60
5319	University of Illinois	Spot News	The Autism Program at the University of Illinois continues to provide an online summer camp for prospective students with autism.	4/25/2022	:60
5320	University of Illinois	Spot News	When the push for the University of Illinois to divest from fossil fuels began thirteen years ago, students were hopeful that administrators would listen to their concerns.	4/26/2022	:60
5321	Community	Spot News	A program designed to fight homelessness and food insecurity in Champaign County is expanding its efforts.	4/26/2022	:60
5322	Health and Health Care	Interview	Travelers no longer have to wear masks in airports or train stations in Illinois.	4/26/2022	15:00
5323	Education	Spot News	Teacher salaries in Illinois have not kept up with inflation, according to the National Education Association.	4/27/2022	:60
5324	Health and Health Care	Spot News	The Champaign Urbana Public Health District has reopened its breast milk depot and dispensary.	4/27/2022	:60

Program Data

ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
5325	Education	Spot News	Registration closes Saturday for those wishing to select a school for their Champaign Unit 4 kindergartener.	4/28/2022	:60
5326	University of Illinois	Spot News	The University of Illinois School of Music teamed up with the school's Russian, Eastern European, and Eurasian Center this week to host an artistic tribute to Ukraine.	4/28/2022	:60
5327	Science and Technology	Spot News	This is International Dark Sky Week. Local event organizers say they're trying to raise awareness about light pollution, which The International Dark Sky Association reports is increasing faster than ever.	4/28/2022	:60
5328	Arts and Culture	Interview	Eight-time Grammy Award-winning jazz bassist Christian McBride leads a collaborative performance of "The Movement Revisited", this Sunday evening at Krannert Center for the Performing Arts in Urbana.	4/29/2022	4:00
5329	University of Illinois	Spot News	The Graduate Employees Organization, which represents graduate assistants at the University of Illinois Urbana campus held its third bargaining session with university administrators last (THURSDAY) night.	4/29/2022	:60
5330	Education	Spot News	Elementary schoolers at Booker T. Washington STEM Academy spend one half-day per week on "fun" educational activities.	5/2/2022	:60
5331	University of Illinois	Spot News	May is Mental Health Awareness Month. The Champaign and University of Illinois chapters of the National Alliance on Mental Illness, or NAMI [NAH-me], recognized the month yesterday with a candlelight walk.	5/2/2022	:60

Program Data

ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
5332	Agriculture	Feature	The agriculture industry accounts for ten percent of U.S. greenhouse gas emissions. And yet, polls show that most conventional farmers in the Midwest don't believe humans are the cause of climate change.	5/2/2022	4:00
5333	Women and Minorities	Spot News	Chicago hip hop group Mother Nature has built a following for their thoughtful music. As Illinois Newsroom's Emily Hays reports, the duo also brings that care to schools and colleges through mental health workshops.	5/2/2022	:60
5334	Health and Health Care	Spot News	Masks are now optional on all Champaign-Urbana Mass Transit District transportation ... and facilities including at the Illinois Terminal.	5/3/2022	:60
5335	Education	Spot News	The Urbana School Board is debating whether to keep school resource officers from the Urbana Police Department in its schools for another three years.	5/4/2022	:60
5336	Health and Health Care	Feature	Families say they often need care workers with special skills to support their children with physical and intellectual disabilities. But the care industry has been losing workers for years. When the pandemic struck, the situation only got worse.	5/4/2022	4:00
5337	Education	Spot News	Two Special Education programs serving Macon and Piatt Counties are combining for the next school year. As Illinois Newsroom's Emily Hays reports, administrators worry that the change has prompted misinformation to spread.	5/5/2022	:60
5338	Education	Spot News	Leal Elementary School in Urbana plans to unveil a new mural this weekend. The mural is funded by the Urbana Public Arts Department and the Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies at the University of Illinois.	5/6/2022	:60

Program Data

ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
5339	Community	Spot News	The Danville Boys and Girls Club will be adding a bigger teen center to its building.	5/6/2022	:60
5340	Community	Interview	A preview of Illinois Public Media's fourth News, Brews & Beatz forum to discuss solutions to gun violence	5/6/2022	4:00
5341	Agriculture	Spot News	An antique tractor in Illinois just broke the world record for the most expensive tractor ever sold.	5/9/2022	:60
5342	Community	Spot News	It's been a year since the Cunningham Children's Home in Urbana started its Caminos program to help unaccompanied children who have migrated from Central America.	5/9/2022	:60
5343	Community	Feature	As gun violence continues to increase in Champaign, some residents say they are beginning to feel unsafe in the community.	5/9/2022	4:00
5344	Women and Minorities	Spot News	Supporters of abortion rights in Champaign-Urbana gathered Sunday to advocate for reproductive rights ... after the leak of a Supreme Court draft opinion that would overturn the landmark Roe v. Wade decision on abortion.	5/10/2022	:60
5345	Community	Spot News	How can central Illinois encourage Black male success? Look to the past, says Champaign native Joe Stovall (STOVE-all).	5/10/2022	:60
5346	Government	Spot News	Officials at the Champaign County Jail say they are moving inmates out of the downtown Urbana facility as they prepare for its closing.	5/10/2022	:60

Program Data

ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
5347	University of Illinois	Spot News	What will the world look like in 2050? This question was the inspiration for the University of Illinois' first ever Circular Fashion Expo, part of a weekend of events at the university dedicated to celebrating sustainable fashion.	5/10/2022	1:30
5348	Politics/Elections	Spot News	Former Illinois Congressman Tim Johnson has died, according to the News-Gazette.	5/10/2022	:60
5349	University of Illinois	Spot News	Middle Eastern and North African students at the University of Illinois—recognized by the acronym MENA (MEH-na)—are making plans to open a new cultural house in the fall.	5/11/2022	:60
5350	Education	Spot News	Asian-American authors are visiting Champaign-Urbana schools all month for Asian American and Pacific Islander Heritage Month.	5/11/2022	:60
5351	Education	Spot News	Students learn in both French and English at Urbana's Yankee Ridge Elementary School. Many of the students there are French-speaking immigrants from Africa.	5/12/2022	:60
5352	University of Illinois	Interview	The University of Illinois will have its first fully in-person commencement ceremonies in three years on the Urbana campus this weekend. Former U-S Soccer women's national team coach Jill Ellis will be the featured speaker at Saturday's graduation ceremony.	5/12/2022	15:00
5353	Health and Health Care	Feature	As Carolina Garibay of the Illinois Student Newsroom reports, pregnancy care barriers in Champaign County are more complex than one might expect.	5/12/2022	4:00

Program Data

ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
5354	Women and Minorities	Spot News	Black farmers in the U.S. lost more than 300 billion dollars worth of land in the 20th century, according to a new study.	5/16/2022	:60
5355	University of Illinois	Spot News	Dining and facilities workers at the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign are ready to strike if they don't have a new contract by September.	5/17/2022	:60
5356	Community	Interview	Construction on the next phase of the Kickapoo Rail Trail will begin in the eastern Champaign County village of Ogden this month.	5/17/2022	4:00
5357	Education	Spot News	Urbana's two Spanish dual-language programs may merge into one over the next two years to solve staff and space shortages.	5/18/2022	:60
5358	Politics/Elections	Spot News	Early voting begins today (THURSDAY) across the state for the primary election on June 28th.	5/19/2022	:60
5359	Health and Health Care	Spot News	The nationwide shortage of infant formula isn't as acute in Champaign County as elsewhere. As Illinois Newsroom's Emily Hays reports, the shortage affects food insecure families most – because of state policy.	5/20/2022	:60
5360	Environment	Spot News	Nutrient pollution from chemical fertilizer is impacting recreational and drinking water across the Midwest.	5/20/2022	:60
5361	Community	Spot News	On Wednesday night, about 20 local cyclists embarked on a silent bike ride to honor those who have been killed or injured while biking on public roads.	5/20/2022	:60
5362	Politics/Elections	Spot News	Illinois has one of the longest early voting periods in the United States, and it's be underway until the June 28th primary.	5/23/2022	:60

Program Data

ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
5363	Community	Spot News	Yesterday (SUNDAY), the Champaign County History Museum observed its 50th anniversary since its founding in 1972.	5/23/2022	:60
5364	Health and Health Care	Interview	COVID-19 transmission at schools and college campuses has driven a recent wave of cases in Champaign County.	5/24/2022	4:00
5365	Community	Interview	The white man who killed 10 people in a Buffalo supermarket subscribed to white supremacist ideologies. According to a professor from DePaul University, these ideologies rely on a feeling of being unjustly denied a privileged place in society.	5/24/2022	15:00
5366	Sports	Spot News	The Big Ten Baseball Tournament starts today (WEDNESDAY) in Omaha, Nebraska. Illinois enters play as the number-four seed ... and will face fifth-seeded Michigan tonight at 9:00.	5/25/2022	:60
5367	Community	Interview	At least 19 children and two teachers were shot to death this week at an elementary school in Uvalde, Texas. We're now having the familiar conversation after yet another mass shooting about what to do to prevent the next one.	5/25/2022	15:00
5368	Government	Interview	Illinois U-S Senator Tammy Duckworth isn't optimistic that any gun control legislation will pass the Senate this year, even after the school shooting in Texas this week.	5/26/2022	15:00

Program Data

ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
5369	Politics/Elections	Interview	Democratic challengers in the newly drawn 13th congressional district agreed on stricter gun laws in a debate hosted by Illinois Public Media.	5/26/2022	60:00
5370	Health and Health Care	Spot News	The Illinois Department of Public Health says rabid bats have been reported in both Champaign and Macon counties this month.	5/27/2022	:60
5371	University of Illinois	Spot News	The University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign campus has been rated among the most sustainable for the fifth year in a row.	5/30/2022	:60
5372	Agriculture	Feature	It's been more than a year now since the U.S. Department of Agriculture promised to erase four billion dollars worth of debt for quote, socially disadvantaged farmers. That means farmers of color who have been historically discriminated against by the agency. But because of ongoing lawsuits — some brought by white farmers — that relief has yet to arrive.	5/31/2022	4:00
5373	Community	Spot News	An Urbana nonprofit is hosting a literacy-focused pajama party this week. As Illinois Newsroom's Emily Hays reports, the event is part of an effort to give families easy ways to read and play with their kids.	6/1/2022	:60
5374	Politics/Elections	Spot News	Republican Congressman Rodney Davis toured the GROWMARK/FS facility outside Champaign on Wednesday.	6/2/2022	:60
5375	Science and Technology	Spot News	Surveyors will start knocking on doors in rural Champaign County this weekend. As Illinois Newsroom's Emily Hays reports, their survey will help close internet gaps in the county.	6/2/2022	:60

Program Data

ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
5376	Politics/Elections	Interview	As President Biden delivered a rare evening address on Thursday night, calling for an assault weapons ban and new red flag laws, four Republican candidates hoping to represent the 13th Congressional district faced off for a debate.	6/3/2022	60:00
5377	Community	Spot News	Three candidates are in the running to become the next executive director of the Greater Community AIDS Project, known as G-CAP. The board of directors will make its decision this week.	6/6/2022	:60
5378	Business/Economy	Spot News	The national bike shortage began after the sudden increase in bicycle sales that occurred in the early days of the pandemic. More than two years later, a Champaign bike shop is slowly returning to its normal inventory.	6/6/2022	:60
5379	Education	Spot News	Some schools are bracing for the end of pandemic-era, free lunches for all students. As Illinois Newsroom's Emily Hays reports, meals will continue to be free in Urbana schools ... at least until 2024.	6/7/2022	:60
5380	Science and Technology	Interview	A recent study found that internet access boosts salaries. As Illinois Newsroom's Emily Hays reports, this is especially true for Black workers.	6/7/2022	15:00
5381	Community	Interview	The Midwest is not only at the center of America but central to the history of our country. And that can make for some great historic travel destinations.	6/8/2022	15:00

Program Data

ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
5382	Government	Spot News	On Wednesday, The House passed the Protect Our Kids Act, which would enact new gun control measures following the mass shootings in Buffalo and Uvalde, Texas.	6/9/2022	:60
5383	Politics/Elections	Spot News	Political action committees are pouring money into the congressional primary election between Mary Miller and Rodney Davis.	6/13/2022	1:30
5384	Women and Minorities	Spot News	This Sunday is Juneteenth, a day to celebrate the end of slavery in the United States. As Illinois Newsroom's Emily Hays reports, slavery existed in Illinois despite it technically being a free state.	6/14/2022	:60
5385	Environment	Spot News	The National Weather Service says we will be dealing with oppressively hot and humid weather until tomorrow (Wednesday) night.	6/14/2022	:60
5386	Community	Spot News	Champaign is hosting its annual Juneteenth festival at Douglass Park on Saturday.	6/15/2022	:60
5387	Community	Spot News	There have been over 260 mass shootings in the US so far in 2022, according to the Gun Violence Archive. As Illinois Newsroom's Harrison Malkin reports, one Champaign community leader is offering more than thoughts and prayers.	6/16/2022	:60
5388	Government	Spot News	Police departments across the US are facing staffing shortages. The same is true in Champaign.	6/17/2022	:60

Program Data

ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
5389	Health and Health Care	Spot News	The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention finally recommended over the weekend that children from six months up to five years old get vaccinated against COVID-19.	6/20/2022	:60
5390	Politics/Elections	Spot News	Former President Donald Trump is holding a rally this weekend (June 25) near Quincy with U-S Representative Mary Miller.	6/20/2022	:60
5391	Politics/Elections	Spot News	State Senator Darren Bailey, a leading contender in Illinois' Republican gubernatorial race, is joining former President Trump and Congresswoman Mary Miller at a rally this weekend.	6/21/2022	:60
5392	Arts and Culture	Interview	A recent book delves into the past of Robert Allerton and his adopted son John Gregg Allerton – the namesakes of Allerton Park in Monticello.	6/20/2022	15:00
5393	Politics/Elections	Spot News	The primary election is less than a week away. In the newly drawn 13th congressional district, four Republicans are running against two Democrats.	6/22/2022	:60
5394	Environment	Spot News	The fish species known as Asian carp has a new name. As Illinois Newsroom's Dana Cronin reports, the rebrand is an effort to get more people to eat the invasive species.	6/23/2022	:60
5395	Politics/Elections	Spot News	This weekend, former President Donald Trump will stump for Congresswoman Mary Miller in the Quincy area.	6/24/2022	:60

Program Data

ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
5396	Women and Minorities	Spot News	Friday's Supreme Court decision to overturn Roe v. Wade was met with impassioned backlash in Champaign County.	6/27/2022	:60
5397	Politics/Elections	Spot News	On a sweltering day in Adams County, Illinois, former President Donald Trump spoke in front of thousands of exuberant supporters, highlighting his endorsement of first-term Congresswoman Mary Miller.	6/27/2022	:60
5398	Women and Minorities	Spot News	As Illinois becomes an island of abortion access in the Midwest, a University of Illinois assistant dean shares advice for how abortion clinics can best serve new, Hispanic clients.	6/28/2022	:60
5399	Politics/Elections	Spot News	Democratic voters in the 13th Congressional District have chosen former Biden aide Nikki Budzinski (bud-ZIN-ski) to represent the party in November.	6/29/2022	:60
5400	Politics/Elections	Spot News	Former teacher and entrepreneur Regan Deering (REE-gun DEER-ing) from Decatur has won the Republican 13th Congressional District primary.	6/29/2022	:60
5401	Politics/Elections	Spot News	A decade-long career in Congress will soon come to an end for central Illinois' Rodney Davis. Last night, he conceded to primary challenger Mary Miller, who heavily campaigned on her ties to former President Donald Trump.	6/29/2022	:60
5402	Politics/Elections	Spot News	It was a costly election cycle, especially for one race that garnered national attention.	6/30/2022	:60	