We'll see you around 10. We'll just come into your classroom and wait until you're ready for us.

Thanks!

Jen

Jen,

I think that Monday the 23rd about 10 would work fine.

I can't think of any particular group, but will ask around this next week (I'm off Fridays) to see what other students you could reach.

Thanks,

Howard

Hi Howard,

Thanks so much for getting back to me.

I'd love to come on Monday, 11/23 at about 10am. Would that work for you?

I'll bring information about our unpaid content and business internship/volunteer opportunities as well as our paid internship opportunities. And I'll try to bring along one of our content creators or editors!

Do you know of anyone else on campus that would be interested in hearing from us that day? We'd love to chat with as many groups as possible. Or if you have any other students you think might be interested, I'm more than happy to meet them after your class. I'll welcome any input you have.

Thanks!

Jen,

So sorry I've been caught up in stuff and haven't responded until now.

Yes - would LOVE to have you come out and discuss this opportunity.

We meet on Mondays and Wednesdays, in Room 1368, from 9 am to 10:20 am. I wouldn't recommend the start (we always have a few stragglers, since it's the start of the school day, traffic/commute issues, etc.) - you could come pretty much any time, but the last 10 minutes might be optimal.

Options would be Nov. 16 or 18; Nov. 23; (no class Nov. 25); Nov. 30 or Dec. 2.
Just five classes remain!

I will call around midday today to keep this dialogue open and jump on the chance.

Thanks,

Howard

Hi there,
My name is Jen Brown and I manage the internship and volunteer programs at OPB. I left you a voicemail, too.

We're interested in visiting your Reporting I to let students know about internship opportunities in content creation at OPB. Our internship and volunteer opportunities give students a chance to participate in and create content in a real-world environment.

I'm wondering if you would be able to work in a 5 minute visit into one of your upcoming classes. I see that class takes place Monday/Wednesday at 9am and I could make someone from our team available for any of your classes.

Let me know which of the classes would be best for you.

Jen
