

December 16, 2022

On 09/15/2021, KTNL was granted a license by the Federal Communications Commission to serve the public interest as a public trustee until 02/01/2023. Our license will expire on 02/01/2023. We filed an application for license renewal with the FCC on 08/03/2022. A copy of this application is available for public inspection at www.fcc.gov. It contains information concerning the station's performance over the last 8 years.

Individuals who wish to advise the FCC of facts relating to our renewal application, and to whether this station has operated in the public interest, should file comments and petitions with the FCC by 01/01/2023.

Further information concerning the FCC's broadcast license renewal process is available at 1310 E. 66th Ave, Anchorage, AK 99518 or online <http://www.ktnl.tv> or may be obtained from the FCC, Washington, D.C. 20554, www.fcc.gov.
