If You Can Keep It Part 1	10/3/22	4:30pm	26minutes	Family Talk

National Issue - As Americans, we are blessed to enjoy the fruits of our freedom, born out of the hardship of generations past. But we need to be aware of something very important: liberty is fragile. On today's edition of Family Talk, Dr. James Dobson and Eric Metaxas discuss Eric's book, If You Can Keep It: The Forgotten Promise of American Liberty. Metaxas points to author and social critic Os Guinness' notion of the "golden triangle of freedom," which states that freedom requires virtue, virtue requires faith, and faith requires freedom. Sadly, we have forgotten America's precious history, and are thus in danger of losing our republic.

Family Policy Issues Hanging in the Balance	10/24/22	9:00pm	26minutes	Family Talk

On today's edition of Family Talk, Christian radio host Janet Parshall says that anytime people search for their significance apart from the Lord, it leads to sinful chaos. From the increase in "gender affirming" care to new definitions of marriage, Americans are rejecting their God-given design. He states that abortion, the failed public school system, and the breakdown of the family are simply the ugly and inevitable results of a shift from a Christian worldview to a humanist worldview.*

Sadly, we are seeing his words of caution come to fruition even now. On today's classic edition of Family Talk, Dr. Schaeffer calls out Bible-believing Christians for their silence in the face of the great moral issues of our day. He asserts that the Church has failed for two reasons. First, we've forgotten that Jesus is not only our Savior, but the Lord of all life. Second, many of us are too afraid to speak out. Dr. Schaeffer says that like the early Christians and America's founding fathers, we must seek to obey God rather than man*
