Issues/Programs List

The attached public service logs specify issues addressed by our public service programming, as specified in FCC rule 73.3527(e)(8). Here are the general areas that we have identified as areas of concern for our listening audience for the first quarter of 2019 (in alphabetical order):

Agriculture
The Arts
Campus/Student Life
Diversity Representation & Inclusion
Economics
Elections
Education
Environment
Foreign Policy
Gender and Sexuality
LGBTQ+ Identities and impacts to mental health
Physical Health
History
Housing
International Issues/Culture
Identity on the UW-Madison Campus
Law and Legislature
Local Music artists (interviews)
Media & Society
Mental Health and impacts that social media has on Mental Health
Music & Literature
Politics
Popular Culture
Privacy/Freedom/Cybersecurity
Public Safety/Crime
Rape Culture
Science
Sports
Student Identity/diversity

In addition, our public service announcements run on each program and cover a variety of health, social, and community-related topics of interest to our listeners. Finally, we have other programs that – though their content may not be strictly issue-oriented – are a public service. We also engage classes from across the campus in curricular and co-curricular activities. For the summer of 2019, we are hosting three internship programs (PEOPLE Program, Information Technology Academy, and Grandparents University camp).
