

FIRST QUARTER: January 1, 2016 - March 31, 2016
Cumulus Broadcasting Wilmington, NC - WMNX-FM - Quarterly Issues Report
Issue	Program Summary	Run Date	Length	Quarter
Reperations Bond/Film Industry	In 2015 there was abill brought o the house for reperations to the decendents of the 1898 Race Riots in Wilmington, NC...Reason being that there was land sold illegally during the time of the riots. WE talk with Chris Newsome the director of the film Wilmington on Fire and how his film has effected the Bill as well as the call to action for the House and Senate to re-organize the funding toward all film makers in the state to bring the industry back that has left us.	Jan.3	29:58:00	1
Wilmington Small Business Development	Interviewed Dan Wilson from the Small Business/ Entreprenuer Center at Cape Fear Community College as there are several different local grants in the Wilmington community and NorthCarolina that can help minority business owners, first time business owners, and generational owners...Discussed hwo those loans/grants are available andwhat to do to start applying and using the Business Center to help the community	Jan. 10	30:01:00	1
MLK Week and Parade Route Changes	Travis discussed the MLK week and how that after Dr. King's last speech that he was on the way to Wilmington to speak and never made it. Spoke with Hollis Briggs, Jr the Chair for the MLK Celebration for Wilmington, NC. Additioanlly, informed listenerws of the traffic patterns and how they would be different for the MLK Parade as the Governor's motorcade would be inthe parade as well as Dr. King's daughter Bernice King.	Jan. 17	29:55:00	1
New Hanover County Mentoship Program (Watch Dogs)	Interviewd Quandre Givens as he talked about the NHCS Mentorship program Watch Dogs. The Program is a new emntor program run by all MALE volunteers as there is not enough males in the classrooms in New Hanover County so these serrogate Dads show up to help on a daily bassis by tutoring, hall monitoring and lending a hand with discipline. Additionally, they were having a registration night for the new semester for all middle schools for the Mentorship/Watchdog program	Jan. 24	28:37:00	1

Generational Wealth/Cyclical Poverty	Talked with New Hanover County Commissioner Jonathan Barfield about the program offered for NHC Residents for building generational wealth and ending cyclical poverty. Programs are now being offered for low-income families to go back to school, college, get their diplomas, and job training. The grants for the County Commission are on a needs base and first come first serve agenda.	Jan. 31	30:02:00	1
Youth Violence	at the end of 2015 there were 6 youth that were involved in a shooting, murder and battery charge all separate incidents. Travis speaks with the Young Moguls group to discuss the issue of Why is the youth violence so high and why is it so gun heavy. Additionally, how can we re-focus our energies as youth to deter violence and offer better resources to our community	Feb. 7th	30:09:00	1
Wilmington Arts Council Artist Grants Initiative	The Wilmington Arts Council will now be awarding grants to individuals and C 3 groups as well. The grants for individuals are not going to need a non-profit status but they apply based on need for a Arts project in the city that is available to the public. Spoke with the UNITY Band as they were the first to receive the grant to perform a show to raise awareness of mental Health. Monies went towards buying equipment for stage and a small graffiti wall for participants to post on, paint and tag with their friends name that suffer from mental illness	Feb. 14	29:38:00	1
Cape Fear Community College Downtown Expansion	Interviewed Chris Libert of CFF Assistant Athletic Director. He discussed the new renovations of the Schwartz Center and the addition of parking as CFCC has now outgrown its downtown campus based off new buildings from the school and private sector. Also, CFCC will continue to support all community functions after the renovations complete and now they are on schedule at this time	Feb. 21	28:30:00	1
Fatherhood	Discussed the New Hanover County Fatherhood initiative brought on by the NHC Court System and DSS. There will be a Fatherhood Initiative day on March and its free for all who attend with breakfast and lunch as well as guest speakers, court resources, child support department questions and special guest actor Amille Ballard author of Families and Fathers.	Feb, 28	29:54:00	1

UNITY Relegion Initiative	Chad Griffin came by to discuss the Non-Denominational worship and prayer for the city event as well as the Child Enrichment Zone that is being sponsord and funded by the Blue Ribbon Commision on Violence. City churches have teamed up to help the BRC with their initiative by offereing a prayer day and resource fair for all New Hanover and Brunswick Countie so that the community can see waht the different churches offer in the community as well as giving back to those who are less fortunate.	Mar. 6	29:21:00	1
New Film NC Film Industry Credits/Grants	Anna Lee with Works in Films and NHC Film Commission discusses the importance of the film industry to Wilmington as wellas the new grants for film makers in the area to apply for that took the place of the film tax credits. Additionally, she discussed the role of the government in film industry in our region and how we may be able to get ti back as thriving as it was before.	Mar. 13	30:02:00	1
Cape Fear Community College Student Grants for study abroad	Interviewed Davd Wilson about the Study abroad program offered on the Community College Level. Students oin the Marine tech program can study in Barbados, Sierre Lione, and off the coast of South America to bring and get new ideas for the marine/boating construction industry. This program is new and is actually offering full scholarships if students decide to major in this field of study at CFCC.	Mar. 20	29:52:00	1
Sex Trafficing	Interviewed Brenda Schafer from the Domestic Violence Shelter and Trafficing Center. She gave statistics on the high statistics in the area on sex trafficing and who it involves. Also discussed the preventative staeps into getting in the trfficing world from a young woman's stand point and the resourses offered if you get caughft in the ring as a female and if you have been in one and are now out as a whistle blower to protect you and your family.	Mar. 27	30:01:00	1