

2nd Quarter Issues Report

April-June 2015

WMNX

Sunday's 6am-6:30am

2nd Quarter Public Issues Report

Cumulus Wilmington

April –June 2015

APRIL

April 5th Discussed the Gospelfest Event with Pastor Maize, Pastor Robert Campbell, and Pastor Donnie McCluth involving all local churches in the Wilmington area with all denominations for raising funds for the Wilmington – East Coat Food Bank. The Food Bank is having problems with securing funds for purchasing by the pound so the area churches and ministers teamed together to though an event to raise awareness and funds for the area food bank.

April 12th Introduced the helpfulness of the new Urban Gardens popping up in the Wilmington area created by LINC, INc. with Frankie Roberts the Executive Director. Former Felons use the gardens as therapy, a business tool and a model to help community.

April 19th Talked to the cast of Behind the Congregation Play which involves a play about all races coming together to build a church and the issues they deal with while building and creating a “different” church.

April 26th Soaring Eagles Director Kim Ceasar stopped by to talk about the Soaring Eagles program that includes Teen Moms and the program to keep them on track to stay in school and finish high school as well as resources available to help them go in to post secondary education.

MAY

May 3rd Discussed the controversial Bond Referendum with Public Relations Director of New Hanover County Schools Valetta Quattlebom. Also discussed the moving of school children into different places to fix/repair schools and build a new one in Wrightsville Beach then place students back after a year.

May 10th Jared Clark from the Forge Program of New Hanover County talked it up about the all male program for youth 6-10 years. The program starts the Saturday after the last day of school and runs to the Saturday before school begins. Those males will be exposed to white water rafting, fishing, arts & crafts, and various field trips throughout the summer.

May 17th Actor Orlando Jones invaded the studio to talk about Police Brutality and the “Step-Up” Campaign for families that have been affected by Police Brutality and the comedy fundraiser that will go to two families directly affected by police brutality.

May 24th Wilmington plans to take up railroad tracks and close some streets after the tracks are pulled to change traffic routes...Hollis Briggs community leader stopped by to talk about the importance of the traffic changes and why the inactive railroad tracks should be taken up.

May 31st Kim Wilson from Wealth is You discussed the topic of Generational Wealth and how to get youth involved in saving money and even playing the stock market to have residual income.

JUNE

June 7th Doug Tarble of the Cape Fear Community College Small Business Center came by to talk starting up new business and how Wilmington is the #1 place in North Carolina to start a business. Additionally he talked finances and it turned into a part two discussion

June 14th Doug Tarble pt2 of the Small Business discussion about financing your small business and how minorities can get those loans and grants.

June 21st Michelle Cooper from the WHAT Center talked about the openings for new Teen Members at the WHAT Center at the beginning of the School Year and that all WHAT programs are for students up to 21 years old.

June 28th

The Young Moguls came by to discuss the importance of Student Athletes knowing the requirements for the NCAA rules in applying to colleges as well as the SAT/ACT requirements and the dates on testing, physicals, and jamboree.