Viewpoints	2/4/24	VIEWPOINTS EXPLAINED: STANLEY RAKES IN $750 MILLION IN SALES IN 2023: WHY EVERYONE SEEMS TO BE PERPETUALLY OBSESSED WITH ITS BEVERAGE TUMBLERS We cover the viral hype behind Stanley tumblers that just seems to keep growing year after year.
Viewpoints	2/4/24	SEGMENT 1: YOU'RE NOT ALONE: WHY THE AVERAGE AMERICAN CAN NO LONGER AFFORD THE AVERAGE HOME Just 15.5 percent of homes on the market last year were within budget for the average American. That's the lowest percent for housing affordability ever recorded in U.S. history, according to a new report from the real estate firm Redfin. We speak with two real estate and housing experts about the large-scale increase in housing prices and mortgage loans and if there's any relief in sight this year.
Moore About the World	2/11/24	America's Shrinking Middle Class: The gap between the nation's wealthiest and poorest citizens keeps growing, fostering resentment and promoting political extremism on both the right and left. Middle-class Americans are feeling the economic stress as inflation drives down real wages. A look at how wealth inequality threatens our democracy and what can be done to mitigate its impacts.
Viewpoints	2/25/24	VIEWPOINTS EXPLAINED: WHAT IS TEMU – AND IS IT WORTH IT? Have you shopped at Temu before? The Chinese-owned e-commerce company has seen a meteoric rise in sales since it entered the U.S. market in September 2022. It's known for its extremely low prices on all kinds of goods (think Amazon) but is there a deeper explanation behind these bare bone prices?
Viewpoints	3/3/24	SEGMENT 1: WHAT LIES AHEAD: A CLIMATE CALAMITY FOR DEVELOPING COUNTRIES 2023 was the hottest year on record since global records began in 1850. We're also currently far from being on track to hit The Paris Climate Agreement – a landmark international treaty adopted in 2015 to reduce greenhouse gas emissions and limit global warming to below 2 degrees Celsius this century. We speak with anthropologist and climate policy expert Naveeda Khan about the U.N. Climate Change Conference that took place this year and how smaller, developing countries are stepping up and demanding change.

Viewpoints	2/18/24	SEGMENT 1: CELEBRATING BLACK HISTORY MONTH: THE DAREDEVIL STUNT PILOT YOU'VE NEVER HEARD OF Most Americans are well acquainted with the story of Amelia Earhart, but few have heard the name, Bessie Coleman. This fearless legend earned her pilot's license two years before Earhart became certified. This week, as we commemorate Black History Month, we cover the story of Coleman and the countless barriers she faced as an African American woman in the early 1900's set on making a name for herself in performance stunt flying.
The Best of Our Knowledge	2/19/24	Hamilton College has named its next president. We'll speak with Steven Tepper, who is currently serving as a dean at Arizona State University.
Viewpoints	2/25/24	SEGMENT 1: SCHOOL, SPORTS, STANDARDIZED TESTS: WHEN IS THERE TIME TO BUILD LIFE SKILLS? As an academic advisor, Ana Homayoun has had many conversations with students, parents, and administrators. With so much competition and so many pressures, what's always top-of-mind is grades, college admissions and how to stand out from everyone else. But what often falls by the wayside are the fundamentals of how to create a healthy and successful life. We speak with Homayoun about why so many teens (especially in the last 10 years) seem to really struggle post-high school and how parents can better prepare their kids before they hit this breaking point.
The Best of Our Knowledge	2/26/24	A mild winter allows for an early prescribed fire. We'll speak with acclaimed jazz trumpeter and music educator Sean Jones. And a push by public colleges and universities in New York aims to get more students involved in producing local news

Minnesota Matters	3/15/24	Brad Hokanson, University of Minnesota, Creativity vs. Intelligence (Ashley Walker)
Moore About the World	3/17/24	The Wisdom of Ancient Greece: Greek philosophers like Plato and Aristotle are strikingly relevant today. As we struggle to deal with modern issues such as political divisions and so-called "fake news," the philosophies of ancient thinkers can help us separate fact from fiction as we deal with the 24-hour news cycle and social media.
Minnesota Matters	3/29/24	Minnesota Releases 2023 Graduation Rates, Representative Peggy Bennett (Tasha Redel)
Viewpoints	3/31/24	SEGMENT 1: '2/3 OF STUDENTS ARE TESTING BELOW PROFICIENCY IN READING': WHY WE'RE FAILING THE NEXT GENERATION Millions of kids aren't meeting current reading comprehension guidelines. With so many young people falling through the cracks, what's broken within the current curriculum? What's the best way to actually teach reading? Education expert Natalie Wexler joins us to share important insights on emerging research and what parents should know.

Environment

Viewpoints	1/7/24	SEGMENT 2: THE SECRETS LEARNED FROM A FIFTH-GENERATION BEEKEEPER In Meredith May's book, she examines the parallels between the inner workings of beehives and our society, and how beekeeping taught her numerous life lessons as a child. She also discusses the threat to bees with commercialized beekeeping and what we can do to protect these insects that are vital to our ecosystem.
The Best of Our Knowledge	1/8/24	We'll have a conversation with Dr. Carl Safina, an ecologist and author of Alfie &amp; Me: What Owls Know, What Humans Believe. The book tells the story of an orphaned owl who was cared for by Carl and his wife Patricia during the height of the COVID-19 pandemic, and the large impact a little owl had on their lives.
The Best of Our Knowledge	1/15/24	National Geographic writer Jen Szymanski will speak with our Jody Cowan about her latest book for young readers, "Deadliest Animals on the Planet." And we'll learn about ice yachts – the fastest craft on the planet at the turn of the 20th Century.

Viewpoints	2/11/24	VIEWPOINTS EXPLAINED: A RUSSIAN FIGURE SKATER DISQUALIFIED & A NEW PRECEDENT SET Russian figure skater Kamila Valieva wowed us all at the 2022 Winter Olympics. At just 15 years old, she jumped onto the international stage, earning first place in her Olympic routines. However, this success was embroiled by controversy after she failed a drug test weeks before the competition. She was still allowed to compete as officials investigated, but now, these achievements have been wiped from record books. We cover her disqualification & why this sentence sends a message to all countries competing in this year's Olympics.
Minnesota Matters	2/16/24	Measles cases in Minnesota, MDH Epidemiologist Emily Banerjee (Brent Palm) Elizabeth Wrigley-Field, University of Minnesota, COVID Deaths Undercounted During Core Pandemic Years (Ashley Walker)
Viewpoints	2/18/24	VIEWPOINTS EXPLAINED: HEADING TO THE NAIL SALON SOON? THINK AGAIN A new study published in the scientific journal, Nature Communications , has found a potential link between gel nail treatments and skin cancer. We cover the latest research and how to advocate for your health when at the nail salon.
Viewpoints	2/25/24	SEGMENT 1: SCHOOL, SPORTS, STANDARDIZED TESTS: WHEN IS THERE TIME TO BUILD LIFE SKILLS? As an academic advisor, Ana Homayoun has had many conversations with students, parents, and administrators. With so much competition and so many pressures, what's always top-of-mind is grades, college admissions and how to stand out from everyone else. Viewpoints	3/17/24	SEGMENT 2: WHY DOES RUSSIA CONTINUE TO GET AWAY WITH THE WIDE-SCALE DOPING OF ITS ATHLETES? The 2024 Paris Olympics is set to start in just four months. While Russian athletes have been barred from representing their country, they'll still be able to compete on a neutral, no-representation status. However, there are still many lingering questions about the efficacy of anti-doping tests and if the Olympics will once again be plagued by athletes who are retroactively banned.
