The half-cent sales tax for Economic Development and Capital Improvements has provided over $3 Million back to the incorporated cities to use for those purposes. The half-cent sales tax supports housing, business and community development projects, the continuation of the county-wide NRP Tax Abatement Program , Workforce Development programs such as internships, trainings, job fairs and the promotion of the county, attracting visitors to our area. This is Mike Parsons with Russell County Economic Development and CVB and I encourage you to vote YES November 7 to continue the half-cent sales tax and ensure a bright future for Russell County. Paid for by Russell County.
