KEZI helps support important community non-profits and charities by promoting special events throughout the year. During 2nd Quarter 2017, KEZI sponsored dozens of charity and public events, including Greenhill Humane Society's Bark in the Park, Eugene Marathon, Oregon Bach Festival, Springfield Gift of Literacy, Habitat for Humanity, Womenspace Black & White Gala, the Cuthbert Summer Concert Series and many more.

During the second quarter of 2017, KEZI began a new family-focused news initiative called PROJECT: Safe Family. PROJECT: Safe Family highlights important stories for kids and parents within KEZI 9 News, raising awareness of critical issues affecting families in Western Oregon. Topics include preventing teen suicides, drug use and alcohol prevention, the dangers of distracted driving, and cyberbullying—and help to encourage conversations between kids and parents.

KEZI also started a new Hometown Heroes initiative in Q2, sharing stories from local heroes actively serving in the military, veterans, first responders, and heroes who have given the ultimate sacrifice. KEZI 9 News will feature their stories of bravery and courage on-air and online. KEZI 9 News also partnered with local businesses and the St. Vincent De Paul non-profit to collect shoes for children in need. KEZI broadcast live from partnering businesses and collected hundreds of pairs of shoes for kids this Summer.

During Q2 2017, KEZI finished up the Magic of Storytelling campaign in collaboration with ABC, First Book, and Start Making a Reader Today, collecting donations and giving free books to local non-profits and schools all across KEZI's DMA. 1,000 new books have been distributed this year to local programs and schools in need.
