2022 EEO PUBLIC FILE REPORT

December 1, 2021 – November 30, 2022

INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

Minneapolis/MPS StepUp Summer Internship Program

In 2022, due to the COVID restrictions, KBEM was limited to hiring two interns through the joint City of Minneapolis/Minneapolis Public Schools StepUp program. Interns are high school-age students who can learn radio production, on-air work, marketing, and development. The students are supervised by the program director and development team.

Other Mentoring Opportunities for Students

KBEM is housed in North High School where they offer Radio Broadcasting curriculum which provides over 100 North High students the opportunity to broadcast on KBEM during “Jazz with Class” from 9 am - 1 pm, Monday-Friday. In addition, MPS students from across the district participate in writing, producing, and announcing “School News” which airs 12 times on weekdays throughout the academic year.

Students go on to further academic study and careers in the fields of Advertising, Broadcasting, Digital Communication, Performing and Visual Arts, Journalism, and Video Gaming.

MPS Career Expos and Outreach

Minneapolis Public Schools (MPS) regularly holds career expos for MPS students. Career expos are held at MPS District Headquarters and attended by an MPS HR hiring representative who represent KBEM.

They are held at held at:

*MPS District Headquarters -Davis Center
1250 West Broadway Ave., Minneapolis, MN. 55411.*

In June 2022, the MPS HR recruiters attended Juneteenth Celebrations and the Twin Cities Pride Festival in Minneapolis, where they promoted KBEM openings as well as other high-demand District positions. Open positions were also promoted on MPS social media platforms (LinkedIn, Twitter, FB, and IG); in addition of being promoted on our virtual Community Job Talk sessions and three (3) Higher Ed Institutions Urban Educators.
