	Climate Pledge Arena's commitment to community. Founded upon the belief that the well-being of every person is tied to the well-being of every other person, and that the future health of humanity is dependent on the future health of our planet, One Roof Foundation is committed to building a more equitable society where everyone can realize a brighter future. They invite their fans and community to join forces with One Roof to ensure that all young people in our region have a roof over their heads, know that hockey is their game too, and have fresh air to breathe. They are in this together, under One Roof.
Homelessness	4-17-22 Local Programming A compelling look at the historical roots of poverty and homelessness, the "worthy" and "unworthy" poor, and the role of charity health care and public policy in the United States. Home to over 730,000 people, with close to four million people living in the metropolitan area, Seattle has the third-highest homeless population in the United States. In 2018, an estimated 8,600 homeless people lived in the city, a figure that does not include the significant number of "hidden" homeless people doubled up with friends or living in and out of cheap hotels. In Skid Road, Josephine Ensign digs through layers of Seattle history—past its leaders and prominent citizens, respectable or not—to reveal the stories of overlooked and long-silenced people who live on the margins of society.	Skid Road: On the Frontier of Health and Homelessness in an American City by Josephine Ensign	7:00am 15:00
Financial Literacy Education	4-24 Local Programming Washington State College Savings Plans GET and Dream Ahead are administered by the Washington Student Achievement Council with oversight from the Committee on Advanced Tuition Payment and College Savings (WA529 Committee), which meets quarterly to review policies, pricing and investments. The Washington Student Achievement Council supports both programs, based on the Committee's direction. The Washington State Investment Board manages the GET fund, which is currently valued at $1.2 billion. GET is a self-sustaining program which has become one of the fastest growing prepaid tuition plans in the country.	Luke Minor, Executive Director, WA529	7:15 15:00
