WLIV AM 920 & WLIV FM 104.7

Overton County Election Commission head Craig Story was our guest to talk about early voting for the November general election.

Story was interviewed by WLIV's Roger Ealey. Story told about the dates which voters can participate in early voting, the office hours, and the new location of the office where early voting is held for the November election.

This interview aired numerous times on both WLIV AM 920 and WLIV FM 104.7.

We believe interviews of this type promote good citizenship and more involvement in and awareness of the peoples government.

This interview was included in on our Focus On Community segments which air multiple times throughout the day on both WLIV AM and WLIV FM.

Placed in the public file October 22, 2018.
