PUBLIC AFFAIRS TOPIC: Stay At Home Order
GUEST: Mayor Curtis Hayes and Co.Ex Ben Danner

WLIV AM and WLIV FM have been on the front line reporting the latest developments during the Coronavirus/Covid-19 pandemic.

We have maintained an open-door policy toward our officials, making them aware that they can come to our studios at any time to be on the air to update citizens.

The latest update came today, April 3, when Livingston Mayor Curtis Hayes and Overton County Executive Ben Danner came to WLIV to give the public the latest information.

The two elected officials reminded listeners that a state-wide stay at home order has been signed by the Tennessee Governor. County Executive Danner stressed that observing this order – combined with practicing the safety tips of the CDC – will help avoid the virus and will go a long way toward lessening the strain on our health care system.

Mayor Hayes said the city police department will enforce the 10 PM curfew for any minor not accompanied by parent or guardian.

The stay at home order is in effect through April 14.

Both WLIV AM and WLIV FM are airing this latest update throughout the broadcast days and evenings for the next several days to be sure all have a chance to hear the latest information during this pandemic.

Placed in the public file APRIL 3, 2020.
