A number of classes and programs are currently offered at the Millard Oakley Public Library on the Livingston town square.

Starting with December, 2018 programs on our FOCUS ON COMMUNITY public affairs series began airing our interview with Cynthia Julian Simmons, director of the library.

She outlined the various programs and levels of instruction one would find being offered, on-going, at the library.

Some topics covered in our FOCUS interview were:

Book Club: Library provides participants with a book and next month they gather to discuss the book they have read.

Pre-School Story Time: For children and their caregiver. Includes stories, games, projects, and an occasional field trip.

Crafters Club: Time to work on individual projects as well as time to teach crafting skills to newcomers.

Our interview with Mrs. Simmons airs multiple times during the period of December 1 – 31, 2018 – broadcast on both AM & FM.

Placed in the public file December 14, 2018.
