LIVINGSTON VISION 2035 meeting was held on Saturday, October 13 from 8 AM to noon at city hall. The meeting – open to an invited public – was to begin now charting the right path for our town to follow into the future.

A number of areas were addressed and help was provided by the University of Tennessee.

WLIV broadcast news coverage of the upcoming event, an interview with Livingston Mayor Curtis Hayes, and a total of 40 (20 AM and 20 FM) announcements encouraging the public to attend and learn about issues we will be facing as the years pass.

WLIV AM & FM played a vital role in being part of this “address the issues now” effort in our town.
