WLIV AM 920 & WLIV FM 104.7

The holiday season is a time for helping our neighbors. This year, Livingston Police Department announced a CLOTHES FOR CHRISTMAS clothing drive to collect clothing and shoes for all ages.

WLIV assisted in making the public aware of both the need for clothing and shoe donations and the drop-off points.

We aired an interview with Jacob Boswell of LPD concerning this holiday-time drive.

The drive, Mr. Boswell explained, is for locals who need clothing and/or shoes. Age is not a factor, he said, noting they are collecting shoes and clothing of all kinds, including warm winter coats and outerwear.

WLIV AM & FM each broadcast our interview with Mr. Boswell at various times day and night so as to reach the maximum audience with this valuable information.

WLIV AM & FM are pleased to present this public affairs programming to help wipe out a lack of warm clothing for winter for anyone in our community.

Placed in the public file 11-12, 2018.
