The newly-revived Overton County Habitat For Humanity had a ROCK THE BLOCK event on Saturday, April 21 during which volunteers gathered to do odd jobs, clean-up, and other work in the are of Livingston known as the Airport Road neighborhood.

The work was concentrated in a 24-home area and reports say a large number of volunteers were on hand.

WLIV AM and WLIV FM was instrumental in helping get out the volunteers who were so vital to the success of this community project.

Through a series os public affairs announcements and local news coverage, these two radio stations played a large and vital role in making this very good and worthwhile program come together for our community.

Placed in the public file 4-24, 2018.
